

Chapter 201

"Aunt, since that's the case, you should stay here more assuredly. This is your home. You don't have to leave. Even if you don't do it for yourself, you have to think about these two children. They still need you to take care of them!"

"Kyle is very tricky. He even said he would burn this place if we didn't give him the house. I don't want to see Kyle anymore. Kelly is gone. Actually, it's okay if we leave now. This house is yours. Even if Kyle comes, he won't dare to do anything. Alyssa, you've helped us a lot already. We can't give you any more trouble."

Ruby didn't want to cause Alyssa any trouble. They had already caused Alyssa a lot of trouble before.

"Aunt, it's okay. I brought my bodyguards here today. I'll leave them here so Kyle can't get you in trouble. Don't worry. As long as I'm here, I won't let that man bully you."

When Alyssa thought of Kyle's actions, she thought of Ryan in her previous life.

They were monsters. She wished they were dead.

Such people should die. God didn't have time to fix them for now, so she would fix them for God.

"Alyssa, I've thought about it. I don't want to cause you any more trouble. In the beginning, it was us who made the wrong decision. If we hadn't decided to leave our hometown, nothing would have happened to Kelly now. It's all our fault. We shouldn't leave our home in the first place. In fact, Kelly used to be a very obedient child."

Speaking of Kelly, Ruby secretly lowered her head.

"Aunt, please listen to me this time. Don't go, and stay here."

"We have made up our minds. We don't want to continue living here, and we don't want to cause you any more trouble."

Ruby just said what she thought. She was really grateful to Alyssa.

"Aunt, these two children are just over two months old. Can they stand it if you take them on a long journey? Besides, your old house is no longer available, isn't it? Even if you live in your relative's house, it's still inconvenient. For the sake of your two children and yourselves, you can't leave here. You just live here and don't worry about anything. I'm here!"

Alyssa was serious.

She was really ready to let them live here.

She and Kelly were friends.

These two children were too young.

Besides, Kelly had called her before she died out of trust.

Ruby heard Alyssa's words and sighed, "These days, your uncle and I have thought about it. In fact, our hometown is quite good. We just want to go back as soon as possible. Alyssa, thank you for taking care of us. We plan to sell the house we live in now. Although that house won't sell for a million, we will pay you back the money gradually."

"Aunt, don't say that. Even if you leave here now, that man will continue to come after you. Even if you guys leave, it's useless. I suggest that you guys should not leave."

Alyssa was even more uneasy when she heard Ruby's words.

Ruby was a little nervous when she heard Alyssa's words, "Will Kyle still come after us? Even if we leave here, he will still haunt us?"

"That's for sure. As long as his goal is not achieved, he will definitely come back to bother you again. Aunt, you just stay here with uncle. I will protect you."

Ruby was actually a weak person. Besides, they were often harassed by Kyle during this period, and she was really a bit afraid of Kyle.

If they went back home and Kyle's harassment of them never stopped, what should they do then?

Now, here, Alyssa could protect them. If they went back home, Kyle still wouldn't let them go, then they really couldn't stay in their hometown. At that time, they would have no place to stay anymore.

Ruby thought of this and looked sad.

Alyssa looked at Ruby and said, "I'm really worried about you guys going back like this. However, if you insist on going back, I will send you back. I will also arrange for someone to protect you. No matter where you are, I have to make sure that you are safe."

Ruby was even more embarrassed to hear Alyssa say that. She nodded her head and said, "But how can I bother you again? Alyssa, I didn't mean that. I just wanted to lighten your burden a bit. All right, I'll do as you say. We're not leaving. I'll tell your uncle that we're not leaving for now."

She really didn't want to bother Alyssa anymore.

Alyssa nodded, "That's good. Aunt, you and uncle should stay here and take care of the children. That way, it's convenient for me to take care of you guys too."

Alyssa left two bodyguards to protect Tony and Ruby.

Leon was still awake when she got back to the villa. He looked at Alyssa and was a little unhappy, "You said you'd be back early, didn't you? Now it's so late and you're just back. You're pregnant, and you have to do what you say!"

"Even if I don't tell you, you should know everything. The bodyguards following me must have told you everything."

Alyssa didn't believe that the two bodyguards Leon had arranged for her were just for the show.

He probably already knew what had happened to the Wilsons.

"I know you're going to help them. Kelly is your friend. I'm fine with your decision. I've already started investigating Kyle, and I'll have the results soon. How about I help you deal with him?"

"No need! I'll just handle it myself. You're so busy. Since I can't help you, I don't want to hold you back."

"Then what are you going to do about it?"

"He and Kelly are divorced, and Kelly's property is definitely not his. If he wants to take the house, he has to take it along with the children. No, I won't give him the children. Even if he wants to raise the children, I can't give them to him. A bastard like him might do something even worse to the children. With a mind as patriarchal as his, he might even sell the children!"

Alyssa became even more nervous at this thought. There was no way for her to give the children to that bastard.

"Okay, I'll do as you say. You can do whatever you want with this matter. I'll do whatever you want."

Looking at Alyssa's determined face, Leon knew that she was a decisive person. Alyssa would take care of this.

"Thanks, honey, I knew you are the best for me. You support me in everything and I'm so grateful."

Alyssa approached Leon happily, and Leon couldn't help but kiss Alyssa's face. Looking at Alyssa's sweet face, he whispered, "You're turning me on. Do you know the consequence?"

Alyssa hurriedly backed up. According to the current situation, she could not afford to mess with Leon.

Alyssa knew she couldn't tease Leon, so she stepped back.

Leon was a little reluctant as he watched Alyssa back up. He just tried to scare Alyssa, but she was so scared that she stepped back. In the future, she might be cautious when she got close to him. Leon froze at the thought. He looked up at Alyssa and said, "I was just kidding. I know you're pregnant. Don't be afraid."

"I'm not afraid at all!"

She wasn't afraid. She suddenly felt sorry for Leon.

Because she was pregnant, she couldn't satisfy Leon's needs. She was suddenly a little nervous when she thought that Leon might be with other women.

"What's wrong?"

"Would you like someone else?"

"Like who?"

"Just other charming women. You've seen all kinds of women. What if you like other women? Now that we can't be together, if another woman seduces you, you will definitely be attracted to her. Leon, will you be attracted to another woman?"

"No."

"Really?"

"Yes!"

Those women were nowhere near as good as Alyssa.

Leon came up to Alyssa and took her in his arms. He didn't say anything, just trying to increase Alyssa's sense of security.

Alyssa really felt secure being held. She looked at Leon and smiled, "Why not?"

"You're all I have."

Alyssa was relieved to hear Leon's words.

She was the only one in Leon's heart.

Alyssa leaned into Leon's body, feeling that Leon's arms were always warm. She always wanted to rub herself into his arms.

Because of the bodyguards, the Wilsons became more peaceful.

Kyle had come once or twice. But he couldn't get any benefit, so he stopped coming.

Alyssa let her guard down. These days, she didn't have much to do at home, so while she was preparing for her exams, she began to study how to cook food. Grandpa seemed to like the soft pies in particular.

She often followed Wendy to learn how to make various kinds of pies.

When they were done, she would leave two pieces and send the rest to grandpa.

At the end of the day, grandpa would call her to tell her that her pies were delicious, and then he would ask her how she was doing. They would talk for about 20 minutes before hanging up.

This day, Alyssa was about to take her lunch break when the phone suddenly rang, and when Alyssa saw that it was Ruby calling, she answered the phone.

"Aunt, what's wrong?"

"Alyssa, can you lend me some money? Your uncle had a car accident and the driver ran away. The hospital asks me to pay the money! Alyssa, I'm begging you."

"Uncle had a car accident? I'll be right there!"

Alyssa hurriedly got dressed and drove to the hospital. When she arrived at the hospital, she learned that Tony had recently gotten a job cleaning the roads to make a living. He was accidentally hit by a car today and he was thrown five meters away. His head got blood and he was in very bad condition, but the driver didn't even stop. He just fled.

Tony was taken to the hospital by passersby. He was already in a coma when he arrived at the hospital. Ruby took some time to call Alyssa for help. Now the money was paid, but Tony was not doing well.
