

Chapter 2017: Let's Go Get Them

Xiao Shan almost burst out laughing. That chief's way of asking questions was exceptional. He asked in different parts and even asked about a paternity test. Was it not apparent that he was accusing Ye Xueli of having no evidence of what she had said, and she was speaking irresponsibly?

Ye Xueli was stunned. It was a while before she snapped back to her senses. She clasped her hands, and her long nails brushed past her palm, almost cutting off a piece of flesh.

"I don't understand what you're saying. What rumors?" Ye Xueli looked like she was at a loss.

"Stop pretending. We heard that you spoke about it with some of the other women in the army base." Xiao Shan sneered, "Why are you still pretending to be stupid? Is it useful?"

"Ye Xueli, I did hear you and some women say that Colonel Lu's wife's baby is not his. She got pregnant because her kidnappers raped her. Your words were so eloquent that those women gasped in admiration." The soldier stood up.

"Xiao Shan is right. Stop pretending. I only just figured out you are so vicious."

"What did I say?"

Ye Xueli was furious. "Why would I say something like that?"

Then, Ye Xueli turned to the chief and said, "He must have said that because he has a grudge against me. I rejected him after he confessed to me! I really don't even know what you are talking about."

Lu Xingzhi looked at that soldier in surprise, and the man's face reddened. He straightened his neck and said, "Would I have said anything if I knew you were such a vicious person? I'm a man. Do you think I'd be so petty to frame you because you rejected my advances? May I be struck by lightning if I told a lie today. I would die a horrible death! My entire family will die if I falsely accuse you! Do you dare make such a vicious vow? Do you dare?"

"I can do it. I'm not afraid." Ye Xueli was forced to speak candidly. "If I were

"Enough!"

The bureau chief was so angry that he interrupted Ye Xueli. He did not see that that girl could be so vicious as to say such words. Was she not afraid of such words coming true?

"Chief, if she doesn't admit it, we can get those women to confront her."

Ye Xueli's attitude angered that soldier. "I'm familiar with two of the women. One is from the Xiao Lin family, and the other is from the Da Lin family!"

"Chief, let's go get them." Lu Xingzhi stood there as if he was not anxious. Ye Xueli and that soldier were arguing, but he did not say anything. It was only at that moment that he opened his mouth to say something.

The chief raised his eyebrows and looked at Lu Xingzhi. He knew that he was not afraid of making a big deal out of that.

The chief nodded. It was not a small matter.

After Jiang Yao heard that, she was not in a hurry to rush to the chief's office. Instead, she continued to stand there and listen to the situation in the building.

She stood in the dark, and no one noticed her. However, she did not seem very surprised by Ye Xueli's attitude.

She did not think of Ye Xueli as an elementary school teacher. She was immoral, shameless, and so vicious. She was not even surprised when she learned it was Ye Xueli because that woman was too shameless..

Chapter 2018: I Didn't Say Anything

The two Lin families were not related. It was just a coincidence that their family had the same surname. Everyone called the respective head of the family Da Lin and Xiao Lin to distinguish between the two men.

The two women arrived at the chief office. They blurted out everything without hesitation when they saw the chief's and Lu Xingzhi's cold expressions.

"It was Ye Xueli who told us. We even asked her how she knew about that. She said that she lived next door to Colonel Lu's house. How could she not know about their movements? She spoke as if it was the truth, and we believed her. It was also our fault for not being able to keep our mouths shut when we spread the news. We didn't expect that the matter would spread like wildfire. After that, everyone knew about it."

The two women knew that something bad would happen. By then, everyone had heard the secretive news. Lu Xingzhi would never let the matter rest.

So, the two women were not surprised when they got called in for questioning that night. It was only a matter of time. Support our FreeWebNovel.com

After Lu Xingzhi heard that, he shot Ye Xueli a murderous look. "What else do you have to say?"

"It wasn't me! I didn't say anything!" Ye Xueli refused to admit it. "Perhaps it was they who spouted nonsense. Now, they're blaming me!"

"Ye Xueli, don't you have any conscience? You were the one who told us that.

That's the truth," Xiao Lin's wife said. "Everyone knew you liked Colonel Lu. You must have made up the rumor. You know we are talkative, so you deliberately told us it's a secret. You were hoping we'd tell everyone else. You thought Colonel Lu would be angry and leave his wife. Then, you'd get a chance to be with him, right?"

Ye Xueli's face paled. It was obvious that the point had hit home.

She did not expect that Xiao Lin's wife would expose her thoughts. Ye Xueli thought that the woman was ignorant; she did not think the woman could guess everything correctly.

"Alright, you can go. In any case, you are not blameless. You'll have to wait for your punishment." The chief waved his hand and chased them out. Then, he said to Lu Xingzhi, "The army will give you and your wife an explanation for this matter. As for Ye Xueli's punishment, I have to consider it."

Ye Xueli was not part of the army, so the chief needed a more appropriate punishment for her. He had to discuss it with others.

"Chief, I didn't do it!"

Ye Xueli was so anxious that she began to cry. She took hold of the chief's hand. "Chief, you've been a part of my life growing up. I admit that I like Colonel Lu, but it's not something I can control. However, I didn't do anything to hurt other people."

"We'll do a test to determine that."

A clear and cold voice suddenly came from the door.

"Mrs. Lu!" Xiao Shan was pleasantly surprised.

Jiang Yao put her hands in her pockets and walked into the room. "Chief, I'm sorry that I'm late, and if you were worried about me."

"This is army business too."

The chief felt embarrassed. He remembered when Jiang Yao treated Colonel Shao's illness.

"Ye Xueli, do you really think we can't do anything just because you don't admit to it?"
