

Chapter 2019: It Was Me

Jiang Yao looked at Ye Xueli coldly and said, "It's pointless to have only words without evidence. You're not afraid because you think we don't have evidence against you. What's the difference between these thoughts and pulling a knife to kill someone?"

"I didn't do anything. I wouldn't admit to anything even if you were to kill me."

Ye Xueli gritted her teeth and glared at Jiang Yao. "Don't simply accuse me just because you think you're the victim."

"Alright, I won't simply accuse you."

Jiang Yao took a pocket watch from her pocket and said, "Have you seen a movie about hypnosis? That is one of the psychotherapy methods in the medical field. Coincidentally, hypnosis is also used in criminal investigations abroad."

"What do you mean?"

Ye Xueli's expression darkened. Everyone heard of hypnosis, and most people would have watched the famous movie about it. That was how they learned of the word.

"Mrs. Lu, you know hypnosis? That's so cool! "Xiao Shan said with a shocked expression.

Jiang Yao smiled and waved the pocket watch in her hand. "Hypnosis can make people tell the truth. Do you dare let me hypnotize you?"

Ye Xueli had also seen the movie; she would not dare let her do that.

She feared she would reveal her hidden thoughts after Jiang Yao hypnotized her.

She did not even dare to look at the pocket watch in Jiang Yao's hand. She was afraid she would fall into Jiang Yao's trap if she took another look. Therefore, she was scared. She wanted to turn around and run away. However, the matter would not end just because she ran away.

"You said that you are innocent.

Jiang Yao raised her eyebrows and said, "Then let me hypnotize you. There are so many people here, and the chief is also here. Even if I hypnotize you, I won't be able to do anything bad to you. I'd ask you if you were the one who spread the rumor. It won't take two minutes. Rest assured about my skills in hypnotism. I'm an expert, and it hasn't failed me yet."

Jiang Yao moved closer to Ye Xueli. She whispered into her ear, "Do you really think you'd be able to escape if I wanted to hypnotize you? I'll catch you off guard. We don't have to do this today. I can hypnotize you in front of the entire army so that you can admit to spreading those vicious rumors about me. I can also turn you into a retard, just like in the movie."

Jiang Yao's voice was very soft. No one could hear her words except for Ye Xueli.

However, they could see the change in Ye Xueli's expression. Her face was as pale as a piece of paper in an instant.

Before Jiang Yao could finish speaking, Ye Xueli broke down first.

"I admit it! I admit it! It was me who said it! It was me!" Then, she covered her face and ran away while crying. However, she tripped at the doorsill and fell. She did not have time to register the pain, but she got up and continued running.

Jiang Yao's voice was cold. Ye Xueli thought she had hypnotized her into the crazy person in the movies. The character could no longer think rationally. He would bang his head against the wall until it bled. He would do it daily as if he knew no pain. He did that until he had a bloody wound on his head. He knew he would die, but he jammed his finger into the wound until he was finally gone..

Chapter 2020: No, I Don't

Jiang Yao looked at Ye Xueli as the latter ran away. She smiled happily as she put the pocket watch back into her pocket. She shrugged and looked at the chief innocently, "Look, she admitted it herself."

The chief was speechless. He knew that many women would have different tricks up their sleeves, but they lacked the intelligence to keep their thoughts hidden.

Even if Ye Xueli wanted to fight with Jiang Yao, it would be a futile effort.

Jiang Yao might have looked weak, but she was not someone to be bullied.

"Mrs. Lu, do you really know hypnotism?"

Xiao Shan did not care whether Ye Xueli admitted it, but he was curious if Jiang Yao knew hypnotism.

"No, I don't."

Jiang Yao admitted it openly. "I lied. If Ye Xueli had a clear conscience and let me hypnotize her, I would not be able to do that. But she had a guilty conscience, so she was afraid and admitted it."

Jiang Yao indeed did not know how to hypnotize someone. Her medical skills did not include a psychology specialization.

However, Jiang Yao knew one person who could do that—Chu Sheng. Support our FreeWebNovel.com

Chu Sheng studied psychology, but her hypnotism skills were not as impressive as those they saw in the movie. When the movie came out, they even discussed whether one could do hypnotism to that extent, as in the film.

Chu Sheng had mentioned that she could not do it, but there might be people who could have done it.

Lu Xingzhi knew that Jiang Yao could not do it, but with the arrogant look on Jiang Yao's face, no one would suspect anything if he did not expose her.

"It's late. All of you should go back and rest. I'll think of how to deal with this."

The bureau chief did not admonish Jiang Yao for lying. She did nothing to Ye

Xueli when the latter admitted to the wrongdoing. "Jiang Yao, we will give you a resolution for this."
"Thank you, Chief."

...

Jiang Yao nodded and thanked him. Then, she looked at Lu Xingzhi. She returned his smile and left the office with him.

The summer wind in the middle of the night was cold. Usually, there were people everywhere, but at that moment, only Jiang Yao and Lu Xingzhi were on the street.

Lu Xingzhi held Jiang Yao's hand; he was afraid that she would be cold. Then, he walked in front of her to block the wind.

"Ye Xueli would not be afraid until we threatened her.

Jiang Yao was still angry. However, she found it funny when she thought about how Ye Xueli was so frightened that she almost knelt on the ground. "If she has the mind to do something bad, why wouldn't she keep it hidden more successfully?"

A person's temper had to be proportional to their ability.

"Actually, hypnosis isn't that scary."

Jiang Yao raised his eyebrows. "Chu Sheng said that hypnosis isn't that useful for everyone.

"For some people with a strong will, hypnosis won't work. There was once a spy, who was caught overseas, and someone tried to use hypnosis to get some information out of him. However, he did not leak any information."

Lu Xingzhi patted Jiang Yao's head lovingly. "Are you very curious about hypnotism?" Looking at her eager expression, Lu Xingzhi knew she was interested in hypnotism.

"I am very curious about it!"

Jiang Yao smiled, "After watching that movie, I called Chu Sheng to ask about hypnotism. Her subsequent messages about this topic bombarded my inbox.."
