

Chapter 2027: Not Over Yet

The pregnant woman could not hold back her tiredness. Lu Xingzhi wanted to discuss the child's name with Jiang Yao, but Jiang Yao yawned and fell asleep on his shoulder.

The next day, Jiang Yao had breakfast and went to the university. By the time she returned home, Ye Xueli was no longer on the army base. She heard that Colonel Ye had driven her away at dawn. After that, he went to see the chief.

Ye Xueli was not a soldier. So, the army had limited options in dishing out the appropriate punishment for her. Furthermore, Ye Xueli did not cause any real harm to Jiang Yao.

When Jiang Yao returned home that night, she received an apology letter from Colonel Ye. Colonel Ye wrote it for failing to discipline his daughter as a father.

The chief meant to end the issue with that. Support our FreeWebNovel.com

However, when Lu Xingzhi saw the letter, he threw it into the trash can without any intention of letting Jiang Yao open it.

"The army wants to let this go, but I won't let it go so easily," Lu Xingzhi sneered. "Colonel Ye thought everything would be fine once he sent his daughter back to their hometown. She didn't even apologize personally. We can't let this go just like that. Just you wait. I will make Ye Xueli apologize to you."

Maybe other people thought that a few words did not cause any real harm to Jiang Yao. Perhaps Ye Xueli felt the same way. Jiang Yao did not get injured, so what was the big deal?

However, Lu Xingzhi saw how Jiang Yao sat in the courtyard, sulking and feeling sorry for herself. He saw how she held back tears and told him she was fine. He took it to heart.

"Xingzhi, why don't we call it a day?"

Jiang Yao tugged at Lu Xingzhi's hand. "Now, no one in the army dares gossip behind our backs. We are fine."

She was afraid that nothing could appease her husband. "We can forget about everything except your grievances." Lu Xingzhi touched Jiang Yao's belly gently. "And our child can't either. He hasn't even been born yet, and he already has to suffer through this? Will I let this happen to my son?"

He was a proud man, and his son was a treasure from the heavens.

Lu Xingzhi read Liang Yueze's information about Colonel Ye and his family because they were neighbors. Lu Xingzhi had a good memory. He remembered where Colonel Ye's hometown was. He also recognized the man's family members, jobs, ages, and appearances.

Did Ye Xueli think the matter was over because she had returned to her hometown?

She must be dreaming in a fantasy!

Lu Xingzhi did not want Jiang Yao to worry too much, so he did not say much about what he would do. Instead, he brought up another topic. The opening ceremony for the army's numerous talent competitions is the day after tomorrow. It is the first day. Do you want to take two days off from school to see the tournament? If you're not too busy?"

Lu Xingzhi tucked Jiang Yao's hair behind her ear and played with it. "I'll show you how your husband can crush everyone."

The competition was supposed to be held earlier but had been pushed back because of some sudden events. Then, it was the rainy season, so it was postponed again.

"I don't want to watch it."

Jiang Yao smiled and shook her head. "I'm tired of watching it every night."

Obviously, like most women, she did not mean what she said..

Chapter 2028: What Is So Funny?

She said she did not want to look, but the emotions in her eyes had betrayed her.

In fact, she wanted to see it, and she really wanted to.

She had seen Lu Xingzhi's brilliance in carrying out missions and his grace during drills, but she had never seen him in competitions.

When she thought of the trophies at home, Jiang Yao's blood boiled with anticipation.

As the national day approached, Professor Ouyang was a little incensed when Jiang Yao asked for leave. "I always wondered why women get married so early. Once they are married, they want to get pregnant."

Jiang Yao felt guilty, so she only stood by and let Professor Ouyang scold her.

Li Hong and the others rarely saw Professor Ouyang scold his competent assistant. Support our FreeWebNovel.com. So they stood at the side and laughed at the situation. They tried to keep it down, but Professor Ouyang heard them.

"What is so funny? Have you laughed enough?" Professor Ouyang looked at them. "Don't you need to study? Perhaps you'd like to get married too and have children? It's been so long since we talked about theoretical knowledge, and you still can't pass the exam. Do you think it's okay to behave like children?"

The smile on Li Hong's face suddenly froze, and she almost cried from being scolded.

Apparently, Jiang Yao was the kind of student who should not have gotten married or pregnant so early. It seemed like the others had no other use than getting married and having children.

"We didn't fail. Didn't we get 90 out of 100 points?" Liu Chao muttered in a low voice as he defended himself.

"Are you proud to get 90 points? You don't even have the basic knowledge when you are at the operating table. Make a mistake, and you'll kill a patient!" Professor Ouyang exploded when he heard

Liu Chao's rebuttal. He did not have to teach Jiang Yao, who had scored full marks that time, a lesson. He waved his hand, and Jiang Yao left. He turned around and went to teach Liu Chao and the others a lesson.

Their classes had already ended. After getting permission from Professor Ouyang, Jiang Yao took her bag and left. She had no intention of helping Li Hong and the others.

She had caused the problem, and the rest would have to pick up after her.

Jiang Yao thought that Big Ke and Ah Lu would be there to pick her up.

However, she did not see their car at the gate. Instead, she saw a familiar green jeep across the road. When she got closer, she realized it was Lu Xingzhi in the car.

"Have you applied for leave?" Lu Xingzhi asked Jiang Yao as she tidied the car.

"Are you here because you're afraid that I won't get my leave approved? If Professor Ouyang didn't agree to my leave application, will you apply for it on my behalf?" Jiang Yao placed her bag in the back seat before climbing into the passenger seat and fastening her seatbelt.

Jiang Yao knew she was right. Otherwise, there was no reason for Lu Xingzhi to pick her up that day.

Lu Xingzhi had been busy almost every day. It had always been Big Ke and Ah Lu to pick her up from her classes.

"Professor Ouyang agreed to give you two days off?"

Lu Xingzhi gave Jiang Yao some snacks that he had bought. "It'll be late before we have dinner at home. Eat something to fill your stomach first."

He grinned when Jiang Yao took the snacks with a smile. She did not answer his question. A few seconds later, he got the answer. Then, he started the car and drove with an easy smile..
