

Chapter 2029: Unpopular

The snacks were still warm. Jiang Yao picked up a piece and put it in her mouth. She took a small bite, and it melted in her mouth. The sweetness reached her heart.

“I don’t understand something, Lu Xingzhi? Why would you want me to take leave to watch you compete?”

“You don’t want to watch your men dominate other contestants?”

Lu Xingzhi asked as he looked at Jiang Yao. Her head was lowered as she ate the snacks, so he reached out to take her wrist and brought it to his mouth. He ate the remaining one-third of the snack in one bite and even deliberately bit and licked her fingertips.

Jiang Yao listened to Lu Xingzhi’s comments and felt that his words had a hidden meaning.

She twitched her wrist and realized that he was still holding it. Jiang Yao’s ears burned when she thought of his actions of biting and licking her.

“Why don’t you let go?”

Jiang Yao only realized how soft her voice was when she opened her mouth.

She glanced at him unhappily when he laughed. Hearing his deep laughter, she glanced at him unhappily. However, when her eyes met his, she felt extremely weak and quickly averted her gaze.

‘Why didn’t I notice that the man looks like a demon?’

His eyes were so deep that they could seduce people.

Jiang Yao swore that she did not notice it in the past.

“Many of the soldiers’ relatives arrived today, so it should be quite lively.” Lu Xingzhi changed the topic when he realized that Jiang Yao felt embarrassed.

“Relative?”

Jiang Yao let out a long sigh. “I don’t seem to have a good relationship with people.”

She was right. “At least we had Mrs. Lin while we were in Jin City. And she always had the other ladies with her. It seems like we don’t get along with anyone here.”

Jiang Yao did not say that casually. At Nanjiang City Medical University, besides her roommate, she had no other friends. She did not have any friends there either.

“It’s okay: If you can get along with someone, you can spend more time with them. If you can’t, then just forget about it.” Lu Xingzhi comforted her. He did not need Jiang Yao to be diplomatic for his sake. He could handle that by himself.

It would be good if Jiang Yao could find a friend in the army base; at least she would not be bored. However, she should not force it if she could not find anyone. Some people were just destined to be friends.

Furthermore, Jiang Yao was always slow to warm up to another person.

“Oh, right! This morning, Ruoran sent me two photos of her son. Look!” Jiang Yao suddenly thought of that matter and stopped eating the snacks. She put the snacks away and took her phone from her pocket. She clicked on the message Luo Ruoran sent and handed it to Lu Xingzhi. “Pale and delicate, he looks like your big brother!”

When Luo Ruoran’s son was born, he was paler than other babies. Then he had gotten even fatter and cuter.

The child’s facial features were becoming more like Liang Yueze’s, especially when he furrowed his brows. It was like he had synchronized his expression with his father’s.

When Jiang Yao saw that photo, her heart softened. Lu Xingzhi glanced at it and replied indifferently, “Oh.”

“Don’t you think he is very cute?”

Jiang Yao was not very satisfied with Lu Xingzhi’s reaction.. “Don’t you feel like hugging and kissing him?”

Chapter 2030: Baby’s Blanket

“I don’t want to,” Lu Xing replied with a lie. He would never say that he was jealous that Liang Yueze already had a child.

They had not celebrated the baby’s birth yet; the Luo family wanted to wait for 100 days.

Liang Yueze knew about the child, so his parents would have known they had a chubby grandson. Old Master Liang and Old Madam Liang went to see their great-grandson abroad. They only cared about holding the baby and helping Luo Ruoran teach Liang Yueze a lesson. Fastest update by FreeWebNovel.com

The elders in the Liang and Luo families were open-minded. Luo Ruoran had not said anything about reconciling with Liang Yueze, so the Liang family did not mention anything about giving their name to the baby. They also did not force Liang Yueze to work when Luo Ruoran was in confinement.

Old Master Liang and Old Madam Liang said that they did not care whether the child’s surname was Luo or Liang. In any case, the baby had their bloodline. Even if Luo Ruoran did not reconcile with Liang Yueze, they would be satisfied if they were allowed to visit the child. They did not care about anything else.

They even said that if Liang Yueze made Luo Ruoran unhappy, they would agree if Luo Ruoran did not let Liang Yueze see the child. They would do anything to carry their great-grandson.

Liang Yueze was suffering. He had a child, but it was hard to say if the baby would have the same surname as him. After all, Luo Ruoran was no longer his wife.

His parents, brother, and sister-in-law had turned their backs on him. One could say he was alone in that.

“You

Jiang Yao was left speechless by Lu Xingzhi’s words. She snorted, put away her phone, and ignored Lu Xingzhi.

Lu Xingzhi was not in a hurry to coax her. Instead, he reached out and touched

Jiang Yao’s belly. “Our son might look like me.”

Jiang Yao could feel the warmth of Lu Xingzhi’s palm through her clothes. He touched it very gently and carefully. Then, he mumbled, “Why is it still flat?”

Jiang Yao lifted her clothes, saying, “Look carefully. Isn’t it rounder now? I used to be very thin, and I don’t have much fat here. So, it’s obvious that I’m pregnant.”

Jiang Yao’s skin was perfect. Her belly, which had not been exposed to the sun all year round, was as white as a piece of white jade. Lu Xingzhi looked at it with great interest. He endured it; he did not touch it. Instead, he covered Jiang Yao’s belly and said, “Don’t catch a cold.”

“Oh, I have to cover the baby with this blanket.”

Jiang Yao nodded and smoothed her clothes. Then, she raised her head and smiled at Lu Xingzhi.

The smile dazzled Lu Xingzhi. If he were not driving, he would kiss his wife.

The car arrived at the army base entrance about an hour later. Jiang Yao was still in the car when he saw a woman dressed fashionably at the entrance. The woman had permed hair, and she was in high heels. She seemed a little out of place.

“Is that Zhou Hailan?” Jiang Yao exclaimed.

“Yes,” Lu Xingzhi said. He guessed that Zhou Hailan must be looking for him. However, Zhou Hailan did not recognize his car, so she did not stop them. He drove past Zhou Hailan and into the army unit.

Jiang Yao clicked her tongue and said, “I haven’t seen Zhou Hailan in a while. She looks much more haggard. Now she doesn’t look as imposing as when I saw her at the photography studio..”
