

Chapter 2033– 2034 of A Dish Best Served Cold Novel

Chapter 2033

In the ears, the words of the old lady echoed slowly.

But the cold woman who was planning to leave, her pace suddenly stopped.

“Yun’er, listen to grandma. Let’s go after eating.”

“Don’t waste all of Mark’s painstaking effort.”

“When you are in retreat these days, that stinky boy cooks for three people for each meal. After eating, Let me keep the meal for you.”

“I’m afraid you will leave the customs suddenly and be hungry for you.”

“This bastard doesn’t care about me so much~” The old lady shook his head and said. Sighed, then turned around and went to the kitchen to warm up her food.

But the woman in the purple skirt in front of her was stunned and kept silent for a long time.

Those words of the old lady undoubtedly caused waves in his already cold state of mind.

At that moment, it seemed that the scene of healing in the old house of the Chu family reappeared in her eyes.

That calendar and scenes, like a slide, flashed hurriedly in front of her.

Thinking of Mark, her heart is undoubtedly complicated.

When she first met, she wished she would cut the shameless person a thousand times.

However, the many days of getting along had undoubtedly dispelled all the killing intent towards Mark in her heart.

There is even a bit of gratitude.

After all, if it weren’t for Mark, she would never have practiced Yunyan Sword Art so quickly, let alone mastering the Yin Yang dragon body.

As for what happened that night, she also knew, no wonder Mark.

It was her own misfortune, and Mark was also implicated by the innocent.

Even if it weren't for Mark's words to guard her heart for the end, that night, she and Mark would probably make a big mistake.

After hesitating for a long time, the woman in the purple skirt turned around and returned to the room, pushing away the room where Mark was.

At this time, Mark was still asleep.

There was peace and serenity on her delicate face.

With breathing, his chest undulates gently.

She didn't wake Mark, but looked at him from a distance.

The sharp faces are sharp and sharp.

The slender eyelashes sway gently in the breeze.

It was the first time that she observed a member of the opposite s*x so carefully. She didn't expect that men's eyelashes could be so long.

After she stopped here for a long time, on the noble jade face, at this moment, she was a little bit more lonely and depressed.

In my heart, there are thousands of thoughts floating.

Seriously, at that moment she really had the urge to take the boy in front of her with her.

She gave him power, status, and endless glory to keep him by his side.

But in the end, she shook her head and sighed.

Between them, after all, the difference is too far.

Even if she really took Mark back, she would definitely suffer infinite resistance from her family and sect.

Maybe it will harm him.

The huge difference in status and status destined him and her, and there would be no ending.

If this is the case, why bother?

In the end, she chose to leave without saying goodbye.

However, before leaving, the woman in the purple skirt carefully took off the ice blue jade pendant worn between the snow-white necks.

This blue spirit jade pendant was a talisman left by her mother during her lifetime.

She took it with her since she was a child, but today, she left the blue spirit jade to Mark.

In addition, what she left behind was the Yunyan Sword Art.

This Yunyan Sword Art was a technique that they did not pass on from the Tang family.

However, she felt that perhaps Mark was more suitable for practicing it.

After taking off the jade pendant on her chest, the woman in purple skirt in front of her was also ready to leave.

Before leaving, she glanced at Mark one last time.

Chapter 2034

On the noble and graceful face, there was an inexplicable emotion at this moment.

“For so many years, I have practiced alone, alone. I didn’t expect that I would be broken by a young man in the end~” She shook her head and smiled, then stopped staying, raised her feet, and stepped out of the room.

However, just when she was about to leave without saying goodbye, a faint voice came from behind her quietly.

“Are you leaving?” Her delicate body trembled suddenly when she heard this.

She didn’t expect Mark to wake up unexpectedly.

In other words, this guy is pretending to sleep from beginning to end?

But she did not answer, as if she had not heard Mark’s words.

His face is cold, his temperament is majestic, his whole person is like the noble and refined snow lotus on the mountain that day.

It gives people a sense of high distance, which is beyond reach.

Just like this, stepped away.

The only thing left to Mark was that graceful, peerless figure.

“Yu Yun, ten days later, come to Yunding Mountain Villa in Wrillfill City to find me, I have something for you.”

Seeing Yu Yun’s back, Mark shouted loudly.

No one responded, only the wind and noise.

After all, Yu Yun left.

Mark didn't know, she heard her last words or not.

But after all, it was just a meeting.

Even if he didn't come, Mark wouldn't force it.

“It's just that I am afraid that this favor will be owed all the time.”

Looking at the ice blue jade pendant on the bedside, Mark shook his head and smiled.

He walked over and took the jade pendant in his hand.

I saw that the blue spirit jade was transparent and round, and there was aura in it.

At first glance, it is something extraordinary.

Moreover, when Mark touched it, he discovered that there was residual warmth on the blue spirit jade, and he could faintly smell the drunken body fragrance belonging to the after-rhyme.

It seems that this jade pendant must be the aftertaste, something to be worn personally.

Mark was not polite, accepting all the gifts Yu Yun gave before leaving.

At the same time, on this day, the old lady's prescription was finally fixed.

After Mark got it, he left the old house of the Chu family and went to the military area.

“Too grandma, take care.”

“Grandson has time, I will see you again.”

After Mark waved his hand and said goodbye to the old lady, he immediately rushed to the Noifork Military Region.

With both Mark being merciless, the originally lively and noisy courtyard suddenly became desolate and quiet, and lost a lot of vitality.

“Hey, in the future, my old lady will be alone again.”

During the time that Mark and the two were there, the old lady only felt that this old house was a bit more vibrant.

But now, the two of them leave, but the old man's heart is somewhat empty.

When she was young, she liked to be quiet.

This man is old, but he likes to be busy again.

In the afternoon, Mark returned to Noifork Military Region.

According to the formula given by the old lady, Mark immediately sent someone to purchase medicinal materials, and at the same time asked the carpenter to build five giant wooden barrels one person tall.

However, Lu Tianhe, who had just returned to Noifork Military Region after handling these matters, went to Mark.

“Mr. Chu, come with me, someone wants to see you.”

Lu Tianhe was a little excited.

But Mark was not interested, so he refused directly: “Tell him, I’m not free.”

Lu Tianhe’s old face twitched, and his expression weird said: “Mr. Chu, you can not see other people, but you can’t miss this person. Ah.”

“He is our Huaxia, God of War in the army, Ye Qingtian!” What?
