Chapter 2037 Entering the Lord Martial God Temple

In the sound of regret, Ye Qingtian stretched out his hand in the direction of Mark.

“I punched it just now. It was not malicious. I just wanted to test the true strength of our Huaxia Junior Grandmaster.”

“It seems that you do have the power of a grandmaster.”

In the land of Vietnam, there are younger talents like you, and the Vietnamese martial arts can be considered as successors.”

Ye Qingtian smiled calmly, and the laughter was open.

Looking at Mark’s gaze, he was also filled with gratification and admiration, without any hostility.

Mark was not a person with a small belly and chicken intestine. After learning that Ye Qingtian was not malicious, he happily stretched out his arm and shook hands with Ye Qingtian.

“The God of War is too good.”

“My results today are all by luck.”

Mark said modestly.

“Hey?” “How can you say that you are lucky?” “I, Ye Qingtian, can’t catch the punch just now, but by no means can I catch it by luck.”

The God of War laughed.

Afterwards, the God of War invited Mark to go to the room.

“Brother Ye, you have such cultivation skills at a young age.”

“If you can teach disciples like you, your master must be a well-known figure in the martial arts world, right?” “I don’t know Brother Ye, can you tell me? Teacher name taboo?” In the room, the God of War made tea.

In front of him, the scent of tea was lingering, and the surging heat with the enticing fragrance of tea lingered in the nose.

The two were talking while drinking tea.

Mark shook his head and smiled: “The teacher is no more than a Nomura husband, and he is unknown and not enough.”

It is naturally impossible for Mark to tell Ye Qingtian his details.

Not to mention that Ye Qingtian is not credible, even if he is credible, Mark will not reveal his life experience to him.

After all, it makes no sense.

It is nothing more than a few words of comfort and emotion.

What’s more, Mark’s goal is too terrifying and grand.

Mark dared to guarantee that if Ye Qingtian knew that his goal was to destroy the Chu family and make the people of the Chu family bow their heads, it would definitely be more shocked.

Even, he will feel that he is overwhelming and seeking his own way.

Therefore, since childhood, Mark’s life experience and career have never been discussed with anyone.

His way can only go by himself.

No need, let others know.

Ye Qingtian naturally saw that Mark didn’t want to reveal his identity as a teacher, so he didn’t ask any more.

Instead, he changed the subject and asked Mark whether he was married or not.

After a brief greeting, Ye Qingtian finally stepped into the topic.

“Brother Mark, Huaxia Wushen Temple, you should know?” Mark nodded: “Yes.”

“The Wushen Temple is the highest authority of Vietnam Martial Arts, and it controls Vietnam Martial Arts.”

“People of Martial Arts know naturally. “The God of War smiled and continued to ask: “Well, are you interested in entering the Lord Martial God Temple?” “Although for so many years, only the titled Grandmaster can enter the Lord Martial God Temple.”

“But, I can make an exception for you.”

The rules are all. It is determined by people.

Perhaps, in Ye Qingtian’s view, Mark today is not a titled grandmaster, but the value of a young grandmaster far exceeds the title.

What’s more, with Mark’s talent, it was only a matter of time before stepping into the titled master.

Therefore, in order to draw Mark into the Martial God Temple in advance, Ye Qingtian naturally didn’t care about the rules and irregularities, so he made an exception.

Mark hadn’t spoken yet, and Lu Tianhe beside him was shocked.

Chapter 2038

“A strong master, enter the main martial arts temple?” This is unprecedented.

Lu Tianhe did not expect that Ye Qingtian would appreciate Mark so much.

For him, he did not hesitate to make an exception?

When Lu Tianhe was surprised, Mark also laughed.

“Haha~” “It looks like you have agreed.”

“In that case, I will come to Gritsberg in three days.”

“At that time, I will convene the six great pillars of Vietnam to set up a place for you on the top of Yanshan Mountain. Banquet.”

“I welcome the birth of the seventh god of the pillar kingdom in Vietnam.”

Seeing Mark’s joy, Ye Qingtian thought that he had agreed, and began to arrange the rest.

Also, entering the Martial God Temple, this is a good thing for Guangzong Yaozu to become famous all over the world, Ye Qingtian couldn’t think of Mark, there was any reason to refuse.

However, when Ye Qingtian had already begun to prepare for the banquet on the day that Mark entered the Martial God Temple, who would have thought that Mark shook his head and smiled and said: "God of War, sorry, I am afraid that I will let you be disappointed."

"I don't want to join any organization now."

"I am a person, I am used to freedom."

"I am free and easy, and I don't like to be restrained."

"Moreover, I always do whatever I want in my life. Entering the Temple of Martial Arts, I am afraid that one day, I will shame you."

"So, I can only thank you for your kindness."

"This~this~" Mark's words still echoed in the room.

But at that time, both Lu Tianhe and Ye Qingtian were stunned.

actually...

Turned it down?

Guangzong Yaozu, the opportunity to enter the martial arts temple and climb to the top of the martial arts power, turned down?

"Damn!" "Mark, are you crazy?" "Stupid?" "This is an opportunity that my generation of warriors couldn't ask for. You refused?" "You are kicked by a donkey in your head, and you can't refuse. Ah."

Mark didn't say anything yet, but Lu Tianhe was suddenly anxious.

Mark can be said to be recommended by Lu Tianhe.

At the beginning, he recommended Mark to join the military area to become the chief instructor of the armed forces.

It was him who described Mark's amazing talent to the God of War.

Therefore, he certainly hopes that the people he recommends can stand at a higher position and enjoy greater power.

Just like a teacher, expecting that the disciples he cultivated will become talents.

Therefore, Lu Tianhe, who was anxious, hurriedly said to Ye Qingtian: "God of War, he is a kid, don't listen to his nonsense."

“He agrees, one hundred agree.”

“You just let him enter the Martial God Temple. .”

Lu Tianhe was still talking, Mark suddenly smiled.

He was not angry for Lu Tianhe’s nosy. He knew that Lu Tianhe was also good for him.

“However, General Lu, I really don’t want to join any organization right now.”

“Nonsense!” “Mark, do you know what the Martial Arts Hall represents?” “That is the highest hall in the Vietnamese Martial Arts world.”

“Martial God Hall VI The big giants can control all things in the Vietnamese martial arts. There is a world, regardless of black and white. Six statues.”

“In the martial arts world, the temple of martial arts is the imperial palace, and the six giants are the six masters.”

“Their decision, This is the law that no one in the martial arts dared to defy.”

“Now, an opportunity for you to be the lord of the country is in front of you, do you want to refuse?” “Don’t be stupid.”

Lu Tianhe persuaded that iron is not a steel. .
