

Chapter 2037: Let Her Kneel

That was right. Why had they not thought of that?

Soldiers devote their entire lives to the army. How would they have time to find a mistress?

Colonel Lu adored his wife and wanted to be with her whenever he had free time. He could not possibly have time to look for a new woman.

“What about the woman, Colonel Lu? Are you planning to see her?” the soldier asked.

“No.”

“If she wants to kneel, let her kneel,” Lu Xingzhi said as he shook his head. “I can’t be forced to meet with anyone simply because they wish to meet me. What will I do then? Does she have the authority to come and go as she pleases? Don’t we have rules in the army?”

“What?” Support our FreeWebNovel.com

The young warrior was utterly taken aback. “Do you really want her to continue kneeling at the entrance? That’s not very good, is it?”

“You can ask her to kneel further away if you believe that’s not nice.”

Lu Xingzhi let out a snort. “Anyway, I am going for a walk with my wife. I don’t have time to worry about those people.’

“No, Colonel Lu. She is a young lady. Why don’t you go out and introduce yourself to her? Make an effort to persuade her? At the very least, encourage her to go.” The soldier thought the woman’s dignity had vanished. She was also a well-known figure. She must have cared about her reputation.

“You can do that if you want to.”

Lu Xingzhi stepped around to the side, holding Jiang Yao’s hand. Then he addressed Zhou Junmin and his parents. He was unconcerned about what Zhou Hailan wanted to do.

For a few seconds, the soldier stood and waited. He scratched his head and walked away with a blank expression when he noticed Lu Xingzhi did not want to go out. Colonel Lu was just like what everyone said. He thought, ‘I don’t know what prompted such a big star to kneel at the entrance like that. Colonel

Lu is ruthless and cold. If it were anyone else, they would at least show pity to the attractive woman kneeling outside once they learned about it. They would coax her, at least.

...

However, Lu Xingzhi seemed unconcerned about it.

Zhou Junmin could not take it any longer as he waited for the soldier to leave. He asked about Zhou Hailan’s reason for being there.

“All she needs is to learn a lesson.”

Lu Xingzhi was too lazy to explain himself, so he only said, "Didn't you mention your grandparents would be coming as well?"

"My mother said that my grandfather has been in poor health recently and has been coughing a lot. My grandmother stayed at home to take care of him. Furthermore, it's a long way. She was afraid they wouldn't be able to take it, so they didn't come." Zhou Junmin sighed. "It's a little regretful, but there's nothing we can do. Their health is more important."

"Did you take them to the doctor for a check-up?" Lu Xingzhi had met Zhou Junmin's grandparents. He had only met them once, but they were upbeat and joyful. He had not seen them in a long time.

"No, the old man is stubborn. No one can make him do anything. He has a bad temper, like a child. He refuses to go to the hospital no matter what. He is afraid of spending money and will be admitted to the hospital if there are any bad results." Mr. Zhou shook his head helplessly. "I've been trying to persuade him for a few days. I can't convince him no matter what."

Jiang Yao was sympathetic to Mr. Zhou's plight. They experienced similar problems like her parents. They were terrified of spending money, so they had never agreed to go to the hospital for a check-up. They also feared that they would have to stay in the hospital indefinitely if something terrible happened.

They were even more afraid that their children would be worried for them.

"No matter what, especially when someone has reached a certain age, they must have regular check-ups," Jiang Yao said. "Actually, it's good if you can bring him here. I'm here. I can take a look at him.."

Chapter 2038: Hold You To That

"I will hold you to that, Mrs. Lu." Zhou Junmin smiled; he looked appreciative. "Dad, get Second Uncle to send Grandpa and Grandma here tomorrow. They've wanted to come anyway."

Zhou Junmin's grandfather had lived such a long life. When Zhou Junmin enlisted in the army, they only saw each other a few times a year. Over the years, they saw each other less. They did not know if that would be their last meeting.

Therefore, the two elders wanted to attend that family visit. However, Grandfather Zhou was not feeling well. He was afraid he would cause trouble for his son and grandson, so he said he would not attend instead.

Mr. Zhou and Mrs. Zhou had heard about Jiang Yao from Zhou Junmin, so they were surprised and grateful with her offer. They had only mentioned it because Lu Xingzhi had asked about Zhou Junmin's grandparents. They had not intentionally brought it up because they wanted Jiang Yao's help.

Jiang Yao was willing to help because she was kind. They were friends, after all. Support our FreeWebNovel.com

Even if Jiang Yao had not made that offer, they would not have felt that there was anything wrong.

Furthermore, Jiang Yao was pregnant. Colonel Lu would not want his wife to worry and tire herself out.

Mr. Zhou hurriedly thanked her.

“Mrs. Lu, my grandfather did not want to go to the hospital. It would be best if you could help him with his checkup. He won’t be so resistant as long as he doesn’t have to go to the hospital. He and Grandma will be happy to be able to visit me here.’

Zhou Junmin told himself to remember how good Mrs. Lu was. In the future, he would stand by her side if Colonel Lu mistreated her.

Lu Xingzhi looked at Jiang Yao and reached out to pat her head. His wife was very soft-hearted. She was kind to anyone who treated her well.

She was a delicate person, and she had a gentle heart. She was soft to the core.

Initially, he planned to take Jiang Yao for a stroll to help her digest, but Zhou Junmin and Lu Xingzhi began to discuss the next day’s competition.

Lu Xingzhi had an undefeatable record in the previous military base. Many people wanted to break his record. After all, Shao Fucheng was there. He was the same age as Lu Xingzhi and had similar abilities. Therefore, the two of them were the competition to beat.

Lu Xingzhi was new at that base. Many eyes were watching him, and many people were preparing to mess with him behind his back. Therefore, Zhou Junmin would have to keep an eye on him at all times.

...

When Lu Xingzhi and Zhou Junmin discussed that, Jiang Yao talked to Zhou

Junmin’s parents. They knew that Jiang Yao was pregnant, so they talked about the baby in Jiang Yao’s stomach. Mrs. Zhou was a mother. Although she knew that Jiang Yao was a doctor, she still reminded Jiang Yao of some things to take note of when she was pregnant.

She spoke from experience, so Jiang Yao listened carefully and did not refute a single word. Even if she felt there was no need to take note, she indulged the kind-hearted elders.

When Lu Xingzhi and Zhou Junmin turned around to look for Jiang Yao after their conversation, they saw her chatting cheerfully with Zhou Junmin’s parents. Lu Xingzhi thought Jiang Yao was wrong when she said she was not popular at the base. At least she was great with the elders.

She looked like a well-behaved woman. When she did not speak, or when she did not reveal her true nature, she looked like the quiet girl that the elders liked. Furthermore, she had a gentle personality and could talk well with senior citizens..