

Chapter 2039: It Was Very Scary

However, Jiang Yao's obedience was only in front of the elders.

"I'm so tired."

As soon as they left the Zhou family, Jiang Yao immediately leaned on Lu Xingzhi's body like a lazy bone. "Next time, when I eat, you better watch me. Don't let me eat so much that we'd have to go out for a walk. I'm too lazy to walk."

Jiang Yao would want Lu Xingzhi to carry her back if they were not in the army base; many people were coming and going in those days.

Lu Xingzhi reached out and wrapped Jiang Yao's hand in his palm, saying, "Didn't Mrs. Zhou tell you that you have to go for a walk even if you're pregnant? Will it help with your labor? The book also said that you have to walk properly."

Jiang Yao glanced at Lu Xingzhi and smiled slyly. "Weren't you talking to Zhou Junmin? How come you can hear what Mrs. Zhou and I are saying?"

"I keep my ears open."

Lu Xingzhi could not stand Jiang Yao's mischievous expression. He raised his hand and pinched her nose gently. He lowered his voice slightly and said, "I also heard you say that it's better to have more children."

Jiang Yao's feet paused. She slapped Lu Xingzhi's hand away and strode forward.

Her face was burning because she had jokingly told Mrs. Zhou she wanted a football team.

Even though she had amused Mr. Zhou and Mrs. Zhou at the time, she felt it was quite funny. However, it was a little embarrassing for Lu Xingzhi to say it so bluntly.

Even so, it was not the first time she had said such a thing.

That night, the army base was bustling with activity because of the arrival of many of the soldiers' relatives. There was a figure kneeling unmoving at the army's entrance, which sparked speculation.

Fortunately, because it was dark, not many people noticed that person. They could only tell it was a woman from her clothes and hair.

Lu Xingzhi said that he did not care. He really did not care. When he got home, he boiled water for Jiang Yao's bath. Then, he hugged his wife in bed.

Lu Xingzhi urged Jiang Yao, who was lying on the bed and texting Wen Xuehui on her phone, to rest early. "Don't stay in bed tomorrow morning."

"Just a little while longer."

Jiang Yao held her phone and moved closer to the bed. She was afraid that Lu Xingzhi would snatch her phone. "Let me tell you something terrifying."

"What?"

Lu Xingzhi pretended not to notice Jiang Yao's movements and thoughts. She moved closer, and he moved nearer to her. He just wanted to be next to her anyway.

"Xuehui said Gu Haoyu has been going to her school to look for her daily. Sometimes, he would ask her out for dinner, and sometimes, he would bring her snacks. That was not the most important thing. Xue Hui stated that she became aware that the senior brother pursuing her had abruptly distanced himself from her. At first, she thought it was strange, but later, she found out that it was Gu Haoyu who went to talk to the senior brother. It was Gu Haoyu who scared the senior brother away."

"Those who can be scared away by Second Brother are not good people." Lu Xingzhi lowered his head and kissed Jiang Yao's forehead. "Foreigners are usually different from our fellow countrymen. They are not suitable for Wen Xuehui. However, I am a little surprised that my second brother would do such things."

"That's my main point too. It looks like he would do such things in private. It's very scary!" The last time Jiang Yao was abroad, Wen Xuehui and Gu Haoyu acted like they would not rest until one of them was dead. It seemed like Gu Haoyu had changed his temper in such a short period..

"If Xuehui had not known that Second Brother didn't like her, she would have assumed he was wooing her. Their feud probably started when they first met at the dinner table," Jiang Yao said, clicking her tongue.

Lu Xingzhi did not really hear what Jiang Yao was saying after listening for a long time. He only knew that the topic was about Gu Haoyu and Wen Xuehui.

At first, he listened attentively, but later, the two soft masses on his chest made it difficult for him to concentrate on Jiang Yao's words.

Half of her body was on top of him, and she even found the most comfortable position to lie in him. At that moment, their chests were close to each other.

For a carnivore who had been forced to be a vegetarian for so long, it was inevitable that she would distract him. It was sweet torture.

Lu Xingzhi did not give Jiang Yao any response. Instead, he gently lifted her and placed her back in her position. Then, he lay down, trying his best to calm down.

Jiang Yao was stunned for a few seconds. That was the first time Lu Xingzhi had pushed her away.

In the past, he had always yearned for her to stick to him and lean against him. Even when she slept at night, she would push him away. His expression would darken before he hugged her tightly in his arms.

Lu Xingzhi’s voice was a little hoarse, and there was a hint of helplessness in his tone.

Logically speaking, it should be fine after three months, but Lu Xingzhi was afraid that he would accidentally hurt Jiang Yao and the child in her stomach, so he endured it.

Jiang Yao’s gaze slowly slid downward from Lu Xingzhi’s face. She threw a pillow towel at Lu Xingzhi’s face, saying, “Are you a lewd hooligan? I was just chatting with you, and all you could think about was that nonsense.”

Lu Xingzhi removed the pillow covering his face and casually threw it on the chair beside him. “You’re my wife. It’s normal for me to have feelings for you.”

After Lu Xingzhi finished speaking, he turned his head and looked at Jiang Yao again. She was wearing a nightgown. Her shoulders were exposed, and the thin fabric perfectly exposed her beautiful chest because she was lying flat on her back. Lu Xingzhi felt that the fire in his lower abdomen seemed to be burning even hotter.

He felt as if his mind had exploded. His body moved faster than his thoughts. He pounced on her and firmly held her lips.

Jiang Yao was startled by Lu Xingzhi’s sudden movement. Before she could react, he kissed her.

That kiss was not gentle at all. It was like the palm he had placed on her body.

It was very wanton.

“Go away!” It took Jiang Yao quite a while to snap back to her senses. It was tricky for Lu Xingzhi not to do anything with her.

She pushed Lu Xingzhi away forcefully. Her red and swollen lips parted as she panted softly. Her slender fingers pointed in the direction of the door. “You will sleep in the study tonight.”

“Huh?”

How was that possible? Lu Xingzhi propped his head up with one hand and lay on his side like a reclining Buddha as he looked at the somewhat arrogant Jiang

Yao.

“I have an advice for you.”

Jiang Yao stuck her head against the wall again. “Calm your heart, and your body will cool down.”

She quickly turned her back toward Lu Xingzhi, laughing complacently at the same time.

Was she waiting for him?
