

Chapter 204

Alyssa turned around and found a wooden stick and hit Kyle directly in the mouth. Kyle's mouth immediately swelled up like he had two sausages hanging on it.

Kyle froze. He was really hit, and at the same time, he was quiet.

He looked up and cautiously at the woman in front of him. This woman was pretty. She was also pregnant. Who the hell was this woman?

He had investigated the Wilsons long ago.

They didn't have any relatives at all.

Even if they did, their relatives were poor.

They were no threat at all.

Who was this woman?

Beaten by a woman, he was very angry, but he didn't dare to say anything.

Alyssa looked at Kyle's scared face.

She immediately said, "Don't let me see you again. If I see you come over again, I will knock your teeth out, got it?"

"You ... This is Kelly's house, and it's also my house. I'm going to sue you."

"Go ahead!"

Alyssa said while picking up the nearby basin and throwing it directly towards him.

The water in the basin spilled directly onto his body.

He instantly was fully soaked without the fierceness that he just had.

Ruby looked at Kyle like this and suddenly she wasn't afraid of him anymore. She had nothing to fear. He was just a bully who was afraid of the tough.

Kyle looked at Alyssa and his face turned sullen, "You ... I will make you pay."

"I'll be waiting for you. You better show me what you can do sooner rather than later."

Alyssa couldn't wait for Kyle to do something.

If Kyle did something, she would have a way to send him to jail.

This man was so bad and should have been taught a lesson long ago.

Of course, someone like him with a bad heart would go to jail sooner or later.

After Kyle left.

Ruby thanked Alyssa, "Thank you, Alyssa, if you hadn't come, I wouldn't have known what to do. These two kids were so scared that they kept crying, and I couldn't do anything about it."

"Aunt, don't be afraid."

Ruby wanted to say something, but she just looked at Alyssa and smiled.

"Aunt, if you have anything to say, just tell me directly."

"Nothing, I just want to thank you. But I've said thank you so many times to you, and it doesn't help. I'm sorry, Alyssa, for keeping you in such trouble because of us."

There were so many things she wanted to say.

But she didn't know what to say.

It wasn't good to keep bothering Alyssa with her business.

She was too embarrassed to say any more about it.

Alyssa, however, could read Ruby's mind and said softly, "Aunt, don't worry. Just feel free to tell me if you need anything."

"It's okay. I can handle it."

"That's good."

Alyssa nodded and looked at the two children and smiled.

The two children smiled at Alyssa as if they knew her.

Ruby saw the two children smiling and sighed softly, "These two children are so smart. They know that you are our benefactor, so they smile when they see you. Alyssa, look at the way these two girls look at you. They are so attached to you."

"Yes! Just grow up! It's all good when you grow up."

Alyssa also liked the two children. She subconsciously glanced at her belly. Her children must be very cute when they were born too.

Suddenly, one of the children cried.

Alyssa had some experience with children before. She opened her pants to check if she had peed.

Once she opened her pants, she found that the diaper had turned into a cloth diaper.

Ruby saw Alyssa changing the baby's diaper and rushed over to her.

"Alyssa, you just sit down. I'll do it." She said as she changed the diaper quickly.

Alyssa understood. It seemed that all the diapers she had bought for the children earlier had been used up. She stood up and looked around the room and saw the box of formula that had fallen to the side. It looked like the formula had run out too.

The children's formula and diapers were expensive.

Ruby probably wanted to talk about this just now.

Seeing that Ruby was done, Alyssa said she had to leave first. She went to the baby store and bought some formula and diapers, and a lot of clothes and supplies for the children. Then she had someone deliver these things directly to Ruby's place.

After she did all this, she suddenly found it nice to do something for those two children.

From a distance, she saw two outfits hanging in the shop window. The boy's was blue and the girl's was pink, and the patterns were the same. Alyssa liked both outfits as soon as she looked at them. The shop assistant read Alyssa's mind, "Miss, this outfit is new. The fabric is baby cotton, very soft. It's very comfortable for children to wear. The pattern is also the latest, very beautiful."

Alyssa also thought it was beautiful, "Can newborns wear it?"

"Of course, they can. They are mainly designed for newborns. Miss, you are going to have a baby soon! You can prepare some baby stuff now, like bottles, formula, diapers, and so on."

Alyssa smiled, "I'm only five months pregnant."

"Five months? Your belly looks so big."

"I'm pregnant with twins."

To be exact, she was pregnant with a boy and a girl. The doctor had already told her.

"Then congratulations."

"Hmm." Alyssa nodded, "Thank you."

The shop assistant told Alyssa a lot of things that she should pay attention to when raising a child and recommended a lot of baby products to Alyssa, who was very serious and ended up buying a lot of baby products.

When Alyssa got home with her things, she got a call from Ruby.

Ruby was so grateful to Alyssa.

To reassure Ruby, Alyssa told Ruby that she could pay her back later when she had money.

Ruby was relieved by Alyssa's words. She put down the phone and looked at the two children. Alyssa was right. She had to stay alive even for the sake of her two children.

8:00 PM.

Leon came back and saw Alyssa buying a lot of baby stuff.

"Isn't it a little early for you to buy these things?" Leon was very unhappy. Ever since Alyssa came back, she hadn't laid eyes on him. Her attention was all on the baby stuff.

Before, she had said she only cared about him.

Now the two children's things had already occupied her mind.

Leon was upset and wanted to take all those things away.

Alyssa glanced at Leon, "Why are you being so petty? These are just children's clothes!"

When did Leon become so ... petty?

These were just children's clothes!

"You've been looking at them for quite some time." Leon took away the clothes in front of Alyssa and put them carefully to the side. He looked up at her, "How long are you going to look at these clothes? I've been standing in front of you for a long time and you didn't even look at me! No more looking at these clothes. All you can do is to look at me!"

Alyssa's body was straightened by Leon.

He wanted her to look at him.

Alyssa looked at Leon's unhappy face.

She hurriedly coaxed him, "You're right. I only have you in my heart, so don't get mad. Leon, are the babies yours? Is it worth it for you to be angry?"

The babies were his!

But he just didn't want Alyssa's attention to be drawn to other things. He just wanted Alyssa's eyes to be filled with him.

"Leon, you're the only one I love. Your place in my heart can't be replaced, so don't worry! I will always be with you."

"Okay."

Hearing Leon's words, Alyssa was relieved.

Alyssa knew that Leon had been clinging to her lately and knew that he was still under a lot of pressure lately. It was only after MJ's order ended that he was able to relax a bit. But Colton still fought against the Hunters.

Colton was a tough guy.

Alyssa knew that Leon should have taken measures, but they hadn't worked.

The fact that the number of people following him had increased was proof of that.

Alyssa looked at Leon with some nervousness, "Leon, I saw more and more people following you recently. Is there any change?"

"Nothing has changed. Don't think too much about it."

"Really?"

"Colton can't do anything to my grandfather, so naturally he has to send more people to follow me."

"Grandpa is safe?"

"With George, he's safe."

"George?" said Alyssa, frozen.

"He's smart. He was smart when he was a kid, and so is he now. So with him, grandpa should be fine. And you don't have to worry about me."

"You and George aren't at odds, but you don't seem to have that good relationship either, do you? He will help you?"

"He's just protecting grandpa. Don't worry!"

"Leon, is George really trustworthy? Before, he wanted to replace you as the president of Hunter Group, didn't he?"

"As far as I know, he doesn't really like fame and money. But for the sake of his family, he can drop everything. Grandpa loves George very much, and he loves George no less than he loves me, so George used to be pampered by grandpa when he was a child. Maybe grandpa is more important to him than his mother, so grandpa's words are very important to him."

"I see." Alyssa understood what Leon meant. As long as grandpa was there, George wouldn't do anything. She looked up at Leon, "What about you? What do you think of George?"

"His last name is Hunter, so he should follow the rules of the Hunters. When he's next off for the summer, I'm going to let him take over the finance department."

"At first, you forgave George because you didn't have any conflicts before, but now it's different. Besides, before George was tricked by Audrey to replace you. Is he really worthy of your trust? If Hunter Group's finances go wrong, you won't be able to get away with it!"

"It's okay. George is one of the Hunters and sooner or later he will join Hunter Group inevitably."

"You really trust him."

"I just wish I could spend more time with you. By the time George is on summer vacation, you will be in labor soon. I'll be with you then."

Alyssa was five months pregnant and would probably be in labor by the time George went on summer vacation.
