

Wonder Doctor Chapter 2041

Originally, Lin Ran didn't even want to care.

It was only when he saw that the other party wanted to kill someone that Lin Ran couldn't help but take action.

Although Mai Shen and himself had some problems, they had all come from East Flag City.

He hadn't killed them yet, but these people from the Chen family were so dry.

These days, human life was cheaper than grass, but it wasn't such a cheap way.

"Brother Lin Ran!"

Suddenly, just as Lin Ran was about to leave, Mai Shen at the back suddenly spoke up.

"Is there anything else?"

Lin Ran turned his head and asked.

"Brother Lin Ran, although there's nothing we can do about the letter talisman, it's a fact that you saved us!"

"I'll tell you one thing!"

Mai Shen said, pointing ahead.

“Before we were ambushed by this group of people, we once saw the Buji Swordsman here, you should be looking for him, he’s not far ahead!”

“Hm! Thanks!”

Lin Ran nodded his head.

He hadn’t expected Mai Shen to tell him this news either.

He himself had no intention of returning their letter talisman!

“Brother Lin Ran, I don’t mean anything else either!”

“Think of it as my repayment for you saving us this time!”

“It’s true that we were wrong about what happened in the past, but there’s one thing to say, we didn’t expect you to have such a powerful background, Brother Lin Ran!”

“Let’s call this matter a definitive end today!”

Mai Shen lamented.

“You’re smart! Let’s put an end to this matter long ago, go out!”

Lin Ran said, and then turned around and left.

Mai Shen was indeed very smart, and even had a very thorough understanding of the situation.

Mai Yang and Bai Qiu were unwilling to bow down to Lin Ran because of face.

However, Mai Shen could see that the three of them were no longer Lin Ran's opponents at all.

Even in terms of strength or background, Lin Ran was no longer something they could mess with nowadays.

Instead of creating a powerful enemy for themselves, they should find a way to resolve the conflict.

Even if they could not have a powerful friend in the future, it was still better than having a powerful enemy.

Not long after Lin Ran left, Mai Shen and the three of them left Tai Cang Tu.

This was how the Chance Conference was, a chance for some people.

But more people would only be the cornerstone for others to rise.

Lin Ran was still in no hurry to hurry on his way.

He felt increasingly strange, Linglong was the disciple of Ling Sa and Long Ya.

These two women were not weak nowadays, so how come Linglong had not caught up with him after half a day.

After feeling Linglong's position, Lin Ran felt more and more strange.

It was always just that much further away from himself, and it hadn't been close or far away for half a day.

"What the hell is this ninny up to?"

Lin Ran was somewhat speechless.

But time waited for no one, he really didn't want to stop and wait for her on purpose.

At this moment, the information on the leaderboard had changed drastically.

The number one ranking was no longer Blade Thirsty and Sword Thirsty.

Instead, it had become Chen Hu, Leng Qian, and Immortal Fox Water, people from the four great clans.

There was no need to think about it and Lin Ran was clear.

The people who truly controlled the overall trend of this Chance Conference were the people from these four great clans.

They were the ones who had pulled in the most people.

Therefore, the talismans would also be pouring into their hands in large quantities.

But in the end, the four clans are bound to come into conflict.

Alliances are alliances, but at the end of the day, it's the chance of the individual that counts.

The number of talismans is only so many, so the first step is to help the four clans, and the second step is for the four clans to feed back the people they have brought in.

This all required a process.

Lin Ran raised his speed slightly.

The Bu Er Swordsman was ahead, and he still wanted to catch up with this guy.

The archers in the Tai Cang Tu were like clouds, and it would be hard to get to the end with Bu Er Jian Ke's strength.

So he was also afraid that this guy would be in some kind of danger.

It would be fine if he left safely, but if he ran into someone like the Chen family, who wanted to kill and exterminate him.

That outcome was also something he didn't want to see.

....

As he hurried along towards the front, Lin Ran also noticed that there were significantly more footprints midway through the journey as well.

At this point, he already had a rough idea of where he was.

His own luck was really bad, as his position in this Tai Cang map was actually in the west.

And Linglong was even worse than himself.

Her position was even further west than my own.

Those who had captured a large number of talismans right from the start, like Sword and Dagger, were obviously in a better position.

At least they were close to Mount Tai Cang, as most of them were, or were mainly close to Mount Tai Cang!

This was also why Lin Ran had barely bumped into a few people along the way.

After only half an hour, Lin Ran felt the scent of someone coming from ahead.

And there were quite a few of them.

Lin Ran and Li Ba quietly felt their way over.

And this time the situation that appeared in front of the two was even more incomprehensible to see.

Only to see that in a mountain depression, the Fuyi Swordsman and several disciples of the Sword Immortal Sect were sitting paralyzed together.

And opposite them, there were actually seven or eight people from the Chen Clan sitting.

These people were dressed just like those who had attacked Mai Shen earlier.

“What are they doing here? Talking about peace?”

Lin Ran looked puzzled and instantly walked over.

“Brother Bu Er you guys are?”

“Deceased brother? You’re here!”

Seeing Lin Ran, Bu Er Swordsman was busy standing up from the ground with excitement on his face.

“Actually, my name is Lin Ran!”

Lin Ran explained roughly about his name before asking.

“These should all be people from the Chen family! You guys are?”

“That’s right, they’re all from the Chen family!”

Bu Er Swordsman said with a bitter smile.

“But now they are just as hopeless as we are!”

“No more games?”

Lin Ran listened even more puzzled.

“It’s like this, these people came to snatch our letter talisman at first!”

Bu Er Swordsman explained what had happened, and only then did Lin Ran understand what was going on.

It turned out that at first, the people from the Chen Clan had also discovered them, so they had lined up a group of people to come over.

But who knew that they had just robbed the Bu Er Swordsman of a few people’s messengers.

Following that, a young man dressed in black robes appeared.

That man was extremely strong and didn't even make a move, he just emitted his aura and shook these few Chen Clan members into meekly handing over the amulets.

"Brother Lin Ran, that guy is extremely strong, you should be careful!"

Bu Er Swordsman warned.

Lin Ran nodded, while glancing at the information list above his head.

There were too many names on the list at this time, and they were changing very drastically.

So Lin Ran couldn't tell for a moment who the mysterious expert who had robbed Bu Er Swordsman really was.

But there was one thing that Lin Ran did not disagree with.

That was that this person should be extremely strong.

Otherwise, he wouldn't have been able to make these people meekly hand over the amulet just by emitting his aura.

Although there was a gap between the Three Dao Realm and the Extreme Dao Realm, if there were many people bent on leaving.

Unless it was a thousand year old demon like Li Ba, it would be very difficult for an ordinary Extreme Dao Realm to keep these people!

"Alright, go out! Think of it as an adventure!"

Lin Ran smiled and patted Bu Er Swordsman's shoulder.

To be honest, it was really better to stay here at the Third Dao Realm than to go out.

Staying here would put his life in danger at any moment.

Whereas by choosing to go out, at least one could still live well.

Although it was a chance conference, if one's strength was insufficient and one's life was at risk, how could one talk about chance?

Lin Ran watched the Buji Swordsman and the others leave.

He then drove these people from the Chen Clan out again.

Once again, only himself was left around.

Lin Ran scouted and found that Linglong hadn't actually followed him.

He couldn't help but be very helpless.

"Hey! Women are really troublesome, wait for her here!"

Lin Ran said as he sat down on the side and waited patiently.

Wonder Doctor Chapter 2042

As he sat down at the side and waited for Linglong, Lin Ran was also thinking about the mysterious man that Bu Er Swordsman had spoken of earlier.

According to what Bu Er Swordsman had said, this person should be so strong that just one look made them all lose the ability to resist.

But then again, could such strength really exist within this Tai Cang Diagram?

In the entire Tai Cang Diagram, only the strongest of the Extreme Dao Realm could participate in this Opportunity Conference.

And the Buji Swordsman was now at the strength of the Third Dao Realm.

Even if he ran into someone at the peak of the Extreme Dao Realm, he wouldn't be unable to fight back even if he couldn't defeat them!

Not to mention directly scaring them off with a single look.

This was obviously somewhat illogical.

Unless this person was really extremely powerful!

Lin Ran thought in his mind.

Because the Tai Cang Diagram was a quasi-immortal artifact, there was no way that some people whose strength exceeded the Extreme Dao Realm and wanted to blend in could get in.

So even if this person was really powerful, he would definitely only be at the peak of the Extreme Dao Realm.

"Forget it, we'll always run into each other later!"

As he couldn't figure it out, Lin Ran didn't bother to think about it anymore, and looked at the time Linglong should be arriving soon.

He immediately got up and sensed Linglong's location.

"Hmm?"

Suddenly, Lin Ran felt that something wasn't quite right.

He himself had been waiting here for almost fifteen minutes.

But why had this Linglong ninny stopped again?

"What the hell is going on?"

Lin Ran frowned, waiting like this wasn't an option either, so he rushed directly towards where Linglong was.

The distance between them wasn't too far, which was why Lin Ran wanted to wait for her.

At this moment, he took the initiative to seek her out, and the distance between them was rapidly decreasing.

After just a few moments, Lin Ran had already arrived near Linglong's location.

"Hm?"

As soon as he arrived, he noticed that Linglong was actually being chased back and forth again by a dozen people.

All of these people were wearing uniform leather armour and looked somewhat backward.

However, the strength of these people was not weak, each of them had the strength of the middle stage of the Extreme Dao Realm.

After a cursory glance, Lin Ran found that there were actually twelve of these people.

“Boss, these people seem to be the natives of the Tai Cang Tu!”

To the side, Li Ba was busy reminding.

“Indigenous?”

Lin Ran frowned as he listened.

When Immortal King Fu Gu had explained the rules earlier, he had made it very clear that everyone was not allowed to make a move against the natives here.

How could Linglong come up here and seek death?

“Lin Ran! Save me!”

Lin Ran was thinking in his mind when Linglong’s voice came over.

“You’re crazy to provoke the natives here!”

Lin Ran said without good humour.

“I didn’t invite them, they’re the ones who came after me!”

Linglong wanted to cry.

At this moment, it was not the time to ask more questions, Lin Ran's body moved and rushed towards Linglong.

The leader of the party was a big man with a red beard, this man had a tough figure a huge axe in his hand that was endlessly domineering.

"Another outsider! Do you really think our world is a vegetable market?"

"Kill them!"

The big red-bearded man scolded angrily.

"Yes!"

The others around them responded in unison.

Lin Ran was just about to make a move to shake these people back when Linglong, who was at one side, said.

"Don't fight them, these people don't want to die, if you keep fighting you'll definitely be disqualified!"

"What the hell is wrong with your family?"

Lin Ran was a little speechless.

Although these people themselves were outsiders, the natives here obviously knew what everyone was here for.

They wouldn't come looking for trouble for no reason.

“Oops can’t explain it to you, it’s because of a picture! Let’s go first!”

Linglong urged.

“Alright!”

Lin Ran was helpless, at this moment, the other party and the others had already killed them, so if they didn’t leave, they really wouldn’t be able to leave.

Thinking of this, Lin Ran also stopped delaying and instantly several formation flags fell out and a formation appeared out of thin air.

“Go!”

As the formation was formed, the divine wings on Lin’s back were also chopped open in an instant, and he instantly dashed out towards the front with Linglong in one hand.

“Bang!”

Just a few moments later the formation was blown apart by these natives.

“Is the chief still chasing?”

Someone next to him asked.

The red-bearded big man’s face was ugly as he said in a cold voice.

“What chase! He can’t catch up at all with his divine wings!”

“Then what should we do? Is it hard to just spare them?”

“Impossible!”

There was ice in the eyes of the big red-bearded man.

“Go straight to the Seven Killings Valley, they will definitely go there too, then we will block the outside and wait for them to come out on their own!”

....

But Lin Ran, who had been running all the way with Linglong for ten minutes, saw that the two of them were not being chased by the others behind them, and only then did they land on the ground.

“What’s going on?”

As soon as they landed, Lin Ran asked.

“Would you believe me when I say that I was wrongly accused?”

Linglong said speechlessly.

“Then you’ll have to tell us how you were wrongly accused!”

Lin Ran said.

“Fine!”

Linglong said as he fished out a scroll from his arms and threw it to Lin Ran.

“This is the thing!”

“You stole someone else’s stuff?”

Lin Ran looked at Linglong in surprise.

“Hey! What are you talking about, does this lady look like a thief?”

Linglong was displeased.

“That’s where I was resting before, it was them who accidentally threw this scroll into my hands by themselves!”

“It’s not like this lady took the initiative to rob it, since they gave it to me then I naturally have to take it away!”

“Don’t you dare!”

Lin Ran didn’t believe Linglong’s bullshit, the other party cared so much about this scroll, how could they have accidentally thrown it to Linglong.

This kind of talk was only fooling children.

Lin Ran didn’t care, he had already offended her anyway, so he might as well see what was on the scroll.

Opening the scroll, a pair of maps instantly appeared in front of the two.

“Seven Killings Valley?”

Looking at a name marked on the map, Lin Ran couldn't help but be stunned.

“What is this Seven Killings Valley?”

“I don't know, but it seems like this is the place they're going to!”

Linglong said.

“Before I was about to do the stealing, I heard them say that this Seven Killings Valley had something they needed, it seemed to be a place where precious herbs were hidden, as soon as I heard there were treasures so I did.”

“So you still stole it?”

Lin Ran heard clearly.

“No, don't you care to try precious herbs?”

“Besides, the Immortal King only said that the natives here couldn't be harmed, and didn't say that they couldn't steal from them!”

Linglong pouted.

“Exactly convinced!”

Lin Ran was speechless and tossed the scroll back to Linglong.

“No, there might be treasures in this place! Aren't you going to take a look?”

Linglong saw that Lin Ran wasn't interested and busily asked.

"Are you here for the treasure hunt or the chance conference?"

"Is there a conflict here? 100,000 people are vying for a hundred spots, what are the odds of me getting into the top hundred?"

"It's better to go and find something good to take out!"

Ling Ling said.

"Exactly convince you!"

Lin Ran was speechless, what kind of disciples Ling Ling and Long Ya had taken on, it was too practical too.

"You go and find your treasure, I have to go!"

Looking at the list that was changing from moment to moment, Lin Ran was too lazy to wait any longer.

"Hey! If you don't come with me, how am I going to get there by myself! Those natives will definitely be guarding the Seven Killings Valley!"

Linglong was busy catching up with Lin Ran and kept persuading him.

However, Lin Ran was ignoring her and was still hurrying on his own.

Wonder Doctor Chapter 2043

The entire area of the Tai Cang Map was half the size of the East Flag Domain.

If one knew how vast the Immortal Realm continent was, it would take Lin Ran a month to travel from Beast Hunt City to East Flag City at full strength.

And within this Tai Cang map, excluding the magical beast drawings and the interference of other cultivators, it would also take half a month to reach the top of Tai Cang.

Lin Ran and Linglong were unlucky enough to be in the far west of the Tai Cang Map, so it would take them half a month to reach the top of Tai Cang with all their might.

After all, the journey would be uneventful.

Linglong was still trying her best to persuade to take Lin Ran to the Seven Killings Valley.

However, Lin Ran was not the least bit interested.

He had only two purposes for coming this time.

The first was to fight for the first place, and the second was to find this Fuchun.

Fuchun was very strong and must be on his way to the top of Tai Cang.

So he didn't have much time, and if someone else got to him before he found him, then he wouldn't have the chance to learn about the whole chance conference.

Time seemed extremely important to Lin Ran at this point.

"Hey hey! There's a fight going on over there, let's go check it out!"

“Hey! There are dead people over there, don’t you even want to go take a look? Do you even want the messenger anymore?”

All along the way, Linglong would pull Lin Ran to change his path whenever he had the chance.

However, Lin Ran acted as if he hadn’t heard, not bothering to care at all.

The messengers were indeed important, but the messengers on this journey were just small shrimps to him.

To really gather enough for a thousand, he would still have to wait at the top of Tai Cang, when everyone had arrived at the top of Tai Cang.

By then, everyone would have more talismans in their hands, and they would only be able to grab them faster.

Three days later, Lin Ran and Linglong had finally arrived at a place that was more central.

A winding mountain range had also appeared in front of the two of them.

The Top of Tai Cang was originally the highest mountain range within the entire Tai Cang map.

Around it stretched a very large number of mountains.

Lin Ran roughly looked in a direction, as long as the two of them crossed the cluster of mountains here, they would be able to directly reach the range of the Top of Tai Cang.

And once there, that was where the whole fierce grab for the talisman would begin.

“Rest well tonight, go into the mountains first thing in the morning, and don’t make any more trouble for me!”

Lin Ran said as he raised a campfire.

“How am I making a mess, you don’t care if people die along the way, you’re really straightforward!”

Linglong sat next to her and was angry.

The treasure map that he had easily gotten himself, but it turned out that this guy was not interested at all.

“Humph! I don’t believe it, this lady still can’t take you away!”

Linglong calculated in her mind.

This Seven Killings Valley was actually located near this mountain range.

This was also why she had followed them all the way here.

Her real thought was that when the two of them got close to the Seven Killings Valley, she would then find a way to bring Lin Ran over.

Of course, if this fellow really didn’t go, she would go herself.

After all, it was more realistic to look for a chance here than to be in the top 100 of the Chance Conference.

Neither of them spoke, and the night gradually deepened.

Early one morning, just after dawn, Lin Ran was suddenly awakened by a sound of fighting.

“What’s going on?”

Ling Long also woke up with a wary face.

“I don’t know, never mind let’s just set off!”

Lin Ran greeted.

He didn’t want to get involved in any fighting right now, it was still most important to rush to the top of Tai Cang and find Fu Chen first.

“And!”

Linglong gave Lin Ran a blank look at his words and didn’t bother to say more.

But not long after the two of them had set off, suddenly the sound of fierce fighting was heard from the surrounding trend.

Lin Ran was ready to lead Linglong around, but as a result, he didn’t know who suddenly shouted.

“Liu Tian you’re crazy!”

Hearing these words, Lin Ran froze in his tracks.

“Liu Tian?”

Lin Ran recalled the youth who had accompanied him to Immortal Emperor City.

At that time, after he had returned to the Luo Ran Trading Firm with Luo Qiqi, he had been arranged to rest by Luo Qiqi.

Later, when he hadn't seen him the next day, Lin Ran thought that he should have come alone to attend the Chance Conference, so he didn't bother anymore.

Unexpectedly, he had really come and bumped into him here.

"Go and have a look!"

Lin Ran greeted.

"Take a look? Don't you not like to get together?"

Linglong was puzzled.

"That Liu Tian is the boss's friend!"

Li Ba explained next to him.

"Friend? Just a cold-blooded person like him actually has friends?"

Linglong snorted.

"The boss is very nice, you just don't understand it yet!"

Li Bajie laughed.

However, Linglong was not impressed.

Lin Ran didn't bother to explain either, and was already feeling his way towards the place where the fight was taking place in the first place.

A few moments later, an open space appeared in front of him.

There was a large group of people standing in the clearing.

They could be roughly divided into three parties.

One of the parties was dressed in black robes, and it was impossible to see their faces clearly.

The other side, however, had clothing that Lin Ran recognised, which were people from the Liu family of Immortal Emperor City.

"Hmm? How come Chen Xuan is also there?"

Suddenly, Lin Ran saw that the people on one of the sides were actually from the Chen family.

"Boss, that Liu Xu seems to have been injured!"

Li Ba suddenly reminded.

Lin Ran looked at the youth next to Liu Tian, and indeed, he found that one of Liu Xu's arms was missing, and blood was currently pouring out.

"Liu Tian you're crazy, she's no longer a member of the Liu family!"

Liu Xu hissed, his face full of anger.

"Brother Xu I know, but she..."

There was anxiety in Liu Tian's eyes.

Lin Ran could see clearly that this guy's gaze was looking right next to Chen Xuan.

Of course the look was naturally not at Chen Xuan, but at Liu Shan, the woman next to Chen Xuan.

"Don't you guys just want the letter talisman? I'll hand mine over, so you guys don't give her a hard time!"

Liu Tian shouted at the other party.

"You stupid bastard! Do you think they're grabbing one of them?"

Liu Xu was so angry that he gritted his teeth.

The other party was extremely strong in their tactics, and with himself injured like this, it was obvious that the other party could not be just for a letter talisman.

"Kid! What do you think you are?"

Suddenly, one of the black-robed men spoke up.

"Hand over all your amulets or die!"

The black-robed man said as a scimitar with a cold glow in his hand had surfaced.

"Friend, I am a member of the Chen family of Immortal Emperor City, are you sure you want to do this?"

Chen Xuan spoke with an icy cold face.

“Yes! Young Chen is a member of the Chen Family of Immortal Emperor City, you can’t do this!”

On the side, Liu Shan also spoke up.

“The Chen family? Does it have anything to do with me? Of course, if you can give your life, I can do without your amulet!”

The black-robed man sneered.

“Bullshit! The person is dead, it’s not a matter of you moving your hand if you want the amulet or not!”

Liu Xu said disdainfully.

“Then I have no choice, let’s start with this pretty beauty first!”

The black-robed man said with a flash of his body, and the next moment Liu Shan disappeared in the same place.

The speed of this guy was simply staggering.

Chen Xuan on the side didn’t even react, the other party had already taken Liu Shan captive.

“No!”

Liu Tian’s eyes turned red when he saw this.

“Don’t hurt her, I’ll replace her! Please don’t hurt her!”

“Liu Tian, wake up! She is no longer a member of the Liu family!”

Liu Xu was so angry at the situation that his lungs were practically exploding.

“But she’s Shan Shan!”

There was anxiety in Liu Tian’s eyes.

No matter what, Liu Shan was the one who had a marriage contract with him.

Although Liu Shan was unkind, he, Liu Tian, was really fond of the former.

At this moment, with his life hanging in the balance, his reaction was his truest self.

Wonder Doctor Chapter 2044

“You all heard him, he’s willing to come for me, he’s willing to change!”

Liu Shan snapped out of her shock and busily shouted.

“Kid! You really want to swap?”

The black-robed man smiled at his words.

“Swap! I am willing to swap, I will give you my amulet and you can take my life, I only beg you to spare her!”

Liu Tian said busily.

“Still a lover! Too bad it’s an idiot!”

The black-robed man said disdainfully.

“Fine! I promise, but I have one condition!”

The black-robed man said and pointed at Chen Xuan who was off to the side.

“Bring him over to me!”

“Yes!”

Immediately, someone moved next to him. Although Chen Xuan’s strength was not bad, he was simply not good enough in front of these black-robed men.

A few moments later Chen Xuan was also tied up.

The black-robed man released Liu Shan, and then had someone grab Liu Tian over.

“Love in the human world, interesting!”

“Come on beauty, I now have these two in my hands, choose one! Hand over the amulet and I’ll let you go!”

“But the other one, I will kill him!”

“Now it’s your choice!”

“I...”

Liu Shan hesitated at once.

“Liu Shan! You have to think clearly!”

Chen Xuan suddenly spoke.

“Your choice is a matter of a lifetime! What’s there to save about that wimp!”

“Me!”

Liu Shan was a little shaken.

“Liu Shan you choose, if you dare to choose Chen Xuan, you and the Liu family will forever be enemies!”

“The immortal kind!”

Liu Xu said in an angry voice.

Hearing Liu Xu’s words, Liu Shan suddenly laughed.

“Immortal? And an enemy? Do you think I’ve ever treated the Liu family as family?”

“I choose him!”

Liu Shan pointed at Chen Xuan and said.

“Following Young Chen, at least I can still live a little, your Liu family in Immortal Emperor City is the Liu family!”

“Is our Liu family in Mill City a Liu family? That’s just a piece of shit! This lady can’t look at it!”

“It’s like Liu Tian, I can’t even look at it in my life!”

“If he’s willing to die for me, that only means he’s an idiot!”

“I don’t want to play with you!”

“I choose Liu Xuan!”

“Haha!”

The black-robed man suddenly laughed.

“This is your self-proclaimed cultivators of the righteous path? What a show! Long time to see!”

“All listen to the order, leave no one behind! Kill them all and take the amulet!”

“Yes!”

“You guys!”

Liu Shan’s face instantly turned pale at the sight.

“A bunch of fools!”

There was a cold smile in the black-robed man's eyes, and instantly the black scythe in his hand slashed through, and Chen Xuan's head at the side was instantly thrown straight out.

The blood spilled directly onto Liu Shan's face, and also scared her into standing still and not daring to move.

"Liu Tian!"

Liu Xu saw the situation and shouted, while at that moment the sickle in the black-robed man's hand had already slashed towards Liu Tian's neck.

"Whoosh!"

Just in the nick of time, a white light suddenly shot out and instantly crashed into the scythe only.

"Bang!"

With a muffled sound, the scythe was knocked and changed direction, while a black shadow flashed violently.

"Who!"

The black shadow man's face changed greatly, but before he could react.

A palm was already slapped on his chest, while Liu Tian in his arms was snatched away.

"What man?"

The other men in black around them all reacted and quickly rushed over, surrounding the figure that had just landed on the ground.

“Lin. Brother Lin Ran?”

Seeing the other party’s familiar face, Liu Tian couldn’t help but be stunned.

“Is this kind of woman worth it?”

Lin Ran looked at Liu Tian and sighed helplessly.

“!”

Liu Tian opened his mouth, but in the end, he didn’t say anything.

“You go over first!”

Lin Ran pushed Liu Tian to Liu Xu, and then only then did he turn his head to look at these people in black.

He noticed that the dress code of these people in black was very similar to the one that Bu Er Swordsman had said.

But there was only one person in the Bu Er Swordsman’s mouth, but here was a group of people at this moment.

And the strength was different too.

The man the Buji Swordsman had encountered could make the Chen family simply give up with a single look.

But these men in black obviously couldn’t do that.

Could that man be their leader?

Lin Ran mulled it over in his mind.

If this was all true, then this chance meeting would be even more brutal, I was afraid.

This group of black-robed forces that had appeared for no apparent reason had quietly begun to operate within this Tai Cang Tu.

Just what is their purpose?

Was it also the chance to finish in the top 100?

Not really.

“Kid, who are you?”

The black-robed man in the lead looked at Lin Ran with caution in his eyes.

To be able to save someone from himself, this strength really made him a little wary.

“Lin Ran!”

Lin Ran’s voice was bland.

“Lin Ran?”

The black shadows were all clearly stunned when they heard this name.

However, they quickly regained their composure.

All of them did not speak, and the leading black shadow man suddenly said after a moment of contemplation.

“We don’t want to be enemies with you, you take that boy and leave!”

“No way!”

Lin Ran refused outright without even thinking about it.

“Then what do you want?”

The black-robed man in the lead said.

“They have to come with me too!”

Lin Ran pointed at Liu Xu and the others on the side.

“As for her? As well as these Chen family members, you do as you please!”

“You!”

Liu Shan’s face instantly turned ashen when he heard that.

“Brother Lin Ran!”

Liu Tian was also anxious.

Lin Ran, however, looked at him and said.

“I’m not a saint, so I only save people I know, and Liu Xu was saved for your sake!”

“Of course, you can stay and let Liu Shan replace you!”

“But no one will remember you well! Including her!”

“There are times when giving depends on the return, giving mindlessly is not love, it’s stupidity! If you don’t love yourself, who do you expect to love you?”

“That’s all there is to say, choose for yourself!”

Lin Ran was not saying more.

He and Liu Tian could only be considered friends, and there was only so much he could do to help, so if he was still obsessed, Lin Ran would not care.

He never did anything more than to the point, for those who were determined to die, he didn’t care!

“I know!”

Liu Tian lowered his head and said no more.

Lin Ran, on the other hand, turned to look at the black-robed men and saw that they indeed had no intention of making a move.

Only then did he greet them and take Liu Tian and Liu Xu and some of the Liu family members away.

As for Liu Shan's death, he didn't bother to care!

A few moments later, in a depression in the mountain range, Lin Ran and the others finally stopped in their tracks.

"There are only a few last mountain ranges left further on, so go out!"

Lin Ran looked at Liu Tian.

"Lin."

Liu Xu opened his mouth to say something, but Liu Tian interrupted him.

"Forget it Brother Xu, I know my strength very well, I'm going out!"

"This time I have come, I have seen Liu Shan's true face clearly, I am content!"

Liu Tian said as he took out his own amulet and finally handed it to Lin Ran.

"We're friends, there's nothing I can give you, leave it as a reminder! I will go straight back to Grindstone City!"

Liu Tian said one last time.

A few moments later, after sending Liu Tian away, Lin Ran then looked at Liu Xu and the others.

"You..."

Liu Xu was stunned and busy taking two steps back.

To be honest, because of Liu Pan's matter, their Liu family's relationship with Lin Ran was actually not good.

"You guys go away, I won't be polite the next time we meet!"

Lin Ran said indifferently.

"Many thanks!"

Liu Xu said with an arch of his hand.

"Your kindness to Liu Tian is a kindness to our Liu family, I will tell Liu Pan about this!"

"Our Liu family values kindness the most!"

"Farewell!"

Liu Xu said and left with his men.

Wonder Doctor Chapter 2045

However, just at that moment, suddenly behind him was the sound of several breaking winds.

Lin Ran turned his head to look, and his face instantly changed.

"Hurry up and go!"

Lin Ran rushed at Liu Xu.

“They’re natives?”

Liu Xu looked stunned.

“Go! It’s none of your business!”

Lin Ran said with a frown.

Liu Xu still wanted to say something, but when he saw a full twelve natives rushing towards him, he could only still grit his teeth and lead the group away.

He was seriously injured at this time and had a large group of Liu family members to protect, so he could only listen to Lin Ran’s arrangements.

Lin Ran naturally didn’t take it to heart, he hadn’t wanted Liu Xu to stay either.

He would have been better off dealing with these natives on his own.

As for Liu Xu’s words about the ultimate kindness of the Liu family, he still believed in that.

He had heard Liu Tian say before that the Liu family was able to make their fortune solely because of their kindness to the Immortal Emperor back then, and this kind of heavy kindness from the family was completely believable.

Liu Xu quickly left with his people.

And Lin Ran Linglong as well as Li Ba were surrounded by these natives at about the same time.

“Kid! You really did come to the Seven Killings Valley after all!”

“Heaven and earth can see that I really didn’t want to come!”

Lin Ran was speechless, he hadn’t listened to Linglong all the way, so how did he still run into this group of natives.

“That, I actually didn’t tell you, the Seven Killings Valley is right around here!”

Linglong spat out her tongue.

“You! Ai!”

Lin Ran was helpless, the three of Leng Zhan were not giving themselves a follower, they were simply giving themselves a pitiful thing.

Especially Ling Ya and Long Ya, how could they have taken on such an unreliable disciple.

“What now!”

Ling Ya asked busily, surrounded by so many natives, how they were going to get out at this point was in question.

“How should I know!”

Lin Ran said helplessly.

Immortal King Fugu had set the rules that no harm could come to these natives, but the other side was overwhelmingly crowded.

If the two Lin Ran wanted to leave, then they would have to fight with the other side.

Once the fight started, who could guarantee that the swords would not hurt these natives, but once they hurt these people.

Then the two of them would also be directly disqualified from the competition.

“Friend, how about we return the map?”

Lin Ran said after thinking about it, if it could be defused naturally it was better to defuse it.

“Return the map? Kid do you think our leader is stupid?”

A bearded middle-aged man next to him scolded.

“I didn’t say that, you did!”

Lin Ran was busy dumping the pot on the other party.

“Eh?”

The middle-aged man in the lead turned his head to look at the bearded man, and was immediately frightened, so he was busy waving his hands.

“No chief, that’s not what I meant, I didn’t really mean that you were stupid!”

“So that’s what you think in your heart?”

Lin Ran interjected.

“You!”

The bearded man was so angry that his face turned green.

“That’s enough!”

The big man in the lead scolded.

“Kid! Don’t play the poor talker here, you stole our map and you still want to leave?”

Said the leading big man who was about to make a move.

“No senior you listen to me first!”

Lin Ran was a little anxious.

Shit you can’t fight, if you don’t fight you’ll get beaten up, what’s all this.

“Senior, although we do know about this Seven Kill Valley, we’re not going to go in! Or else you will pretend that nothing has happened?”

“We’ll pretend nothing happened either? We’re all quite busy aren’t we!”

“As if nothing had happened? Do you know what the Seven Killings Valley means to us?”

The big man in the lead said in a cold voice.

“In this Tai Cang Tu, the Seven Killings Valley is our foundation, and now that you know the location of the Seven Killings Valley, you can only die!”

“Isn’t there any other way out?”

Lin Ran asked.

The big man leading the group was silent for a moment at his words, and a tall man with a thin build next to him came over.

“Chief, why don’t we let them go? We have too much to lose if these people go in!”

The tall, thin man seemed to be the military commander, and the leading man fell into deep thought at his words.

“Chief, according to our chronicle, these outsiders seem to be unaffected by the formations within the Seven Killings Valley!”

The tall, thin man said.

“But you know if we let them in, in case he takes everything inside, then we will be completely finished!”

The chief frowned.

They, the natives, had lived within the Tai Cang Tu for generations.

And the Tai Cang Diagram was not a masterless object, it now belonged to an Immortal King’s magic weapon.

This kind of magic weapon that hid the world within was actually extremely unstable.

If the Immortal Kings didn't fight, it would be fine, but once they fought and this Tai Cang Tu was destroyed, when the time came, all of them from these small worlds would be finished!

"Chief, it's useless even if we guard the Seven Killings Valley! This small world is a small world after all, if we can leave here, we still have to take our clansmen away!"

The tall and thin man said.

The chief fell into deep thought.

"Why wouldn't I want to leave, but right now my strength is still one step short after all, and I'm the only one who is closest to the method of leaving that has been passed down by the ancestors over the generations!"

"Yes! So chief, you can't go and risk it!"

The tall, thin man was busy saying.

"Instead of guarding the Seven Killings Valley and not knowing when we can wait for you to break through, Chief, why don't we detain this woman and let that boy go to the Seven Killings Valley to fetch something for us!"

"This way, even if the Seven Killings Valley is exposed, but you, Chief, can break through as soon as possible, and only then can our entire clan hope to leave here!"

The chief nodded, and the concealed tall man had a point.

Guarding a dangerous treasure, it would be better to find a way to leave this small world for the best outcome.

"Kid! It's fine if we don't kill you, but you have to do one thing for us!"

The chief spoke.

“What is it?”

Lin Ran asked, frowning.

“A very short answer! Leave this girl behind, you go to the Seven Killings Valley alone and help me take out a fruit!”

The chief said with a wave of his hand, and immediately a sheepskin scroll flew over.

Lin Ran caught a glance and found a red fruit engraved on the parchment scroll, lifelike but he didn't recognise what it was.

“You outsiders, the Seven Killings Valley's formations are useless to you, so I'll only give you one day, if you don't come out within a day or run away!”

“Then I will take this little girl back and let her stay within our clan for generations to come!”

“Of course, if any clan member takes a fancy to her, I don't mind letting her add two dolls to our clan!”

“Lin Ran save me, I'm not going to go and have babies! Master will beat me to death if he finds out!”

Linglong was instantly anxious.

“What if you don't go? It's better for one person to have an accident than two!”

Lin Ran laughed.

“You! You're not a good person at all, Uncle Leng Xuan and the others pitted me!”

“Who pitted who! Just stay honest!”

Lin Ran waved his hand and then said.

“Lead the way!”

“Cool! Lao San lead the way!”

The chief shouted, and the large bearded man at the side immediately stood out with a smile.

“Kid come with me!”

Lin Ran didn't say a word and followed the other man before disappearing into the area.

“Lin Ran you son of a bitch, I'm going to tell my master when I get back!”

“Lin Ran!”

“Lin.”

Hearing Linglong's voice fade away, Lin Ran also sighed helplessly.

What kind of sins had he created.

It had been several days since he had entered this Tai Cang Tu, and he hadn't even heard half a word from Fu Chen, and he hadn't had time to grab the letter talisman.

Now he actually had to help these natives to find something!

But Linglong he still couldn't leave alone, if something happened to this ninny.

How was he going to face Ling Sa and Long Ya in the future.

"Exactly the headache!"

Lin Ran shook his head helplessly.

Wonder Doctor Chapter 2046

Lin Ran was still relieved that Linglong was in the hands of the natives for the time being.

These natives did not look like sinister and cunning people, and since he still had a use for them, Linglong thought that she was safe.

Another thing was that with Linglong in their hands, they naturally did not have to worry about other cultivators snatching the talisman.

Lin Ran followed Lao San and soon arrived in front of a mountain range.

The cliffs of this mountain range were very steep, and Lao San directly rushed to a broken cliff with one arrow step.

Lin Ran saw this and had to follow.

"Wait! I'll open the entrance here!"

Lao San said.

Following this, he only saw his palm slap out with one hand, and instantly five drops of blood shot out from his five fingers.

The blood instantly slapped on the rock wall, and a small formation appeared with the entire rock wall.

“No way, this entrance to the Seven Killings Valley of yours is too random, what if others accidentally stumble upon this place?”

Lin Ran asked.

Normally this kind of hidden treasure place should be very hidden, but these natives were too straightforward, the entrance was actually right on the mountain wall.

“What do you know!”

Lao San sneered.

“This Seven Killings Valley is a place started by our ancestors, you simply can’t open it without the blood of our clan members if you want to enter!”

“And you think this is the entrance? When you go in and the blood disappears this is still a rock wall!”

“Only our chief knows where the real entrance is! These entrances are just temporary ones!”

“Eh!”

Lin Ran was dazed.

“All right! Cut the crap and hurry up and get in, you still have less than a day to go!”

Lao San urged.

Lin Ran sighed helplessly, and then whirled towards the formation.

He found that the formation seemed to have opened up a passage in the mountain wall.

One could still see the entrance outside by walking forward and turning back.

“Hurry up!”

Lao San saw Lin Ran turn back and couldn't help but urge him on.

Lin Ran didn't bother to ignore him and continued to walk forward, and after a few minutes of walking, he found that the entrance behind him had disappeared.

Being in this passage at the moment, Lin Ran found that the passage was surrounded by black.

It was as if a separate space had been carved out.

Luckily, this space was not long, and after Lin Ran had walked for half an hour the blackness around him was gone, replaced by the normal passage through the mountain wall.

I'm afraid this formation leads directly to this place, so if we want to get out, we'll have to come back!

Lin Ran calculated in his mind, while continuing on his way.

The entire mountain wall passage was not long, and after another half an hour of walking, a bright light appeared ahead.

The moment he stepped out of the passage, a valley appeared in front of him.

The entire valley was lush and lush with huge trees that were even more frightening.

Lin Ran's gaze swept around and found that the valley was not very big.

He could have finished it in half an hour at most by using his divine wings.

Taking out the parchment scroll, Lin Ran took a look at this fiery red fruit that the other party wanted and immediately spread his divine wings and prepared to go searching for it.

"Qing Zi, do you recognise this thing?"

Lin Ran asked as he moved Li Ba out of the scroll space.

"No, I don't recognise it!"

"Boss, I don't recognise it either!"

Li Baba also added.

"You all don't know each other?"

Lin Ran frowned, Qing Zi was a divine weapon, and it was surprising that even she didn't recognise it.

"Master this fruit is very strange looking, there are many kinds I know of that look like this!"

"It's true that you can't tell by looking at the pictures, if you could see the real thing you might be able to recognise it!"

“Hm!”

Lin Ran nodded, and immediately emitted his divine sense directly out.

One’s divine sense covered a larger area, so it was faster than looking at it bit by bit.

Under the shroud of divine sense, the situation below soon appeared in Lin Ran’s mind.

Lin Ran was instantly frozen in his tracks.

“This.... There are actually Heavenly Envy Grasses on this side!”

Lin Ran exclaimed in shock as he had quickly rushed down.

On a cliff, he saw a snow-white plant that was none other than the Heavenly Envy Grass.

What was the Heavenly Envy Grass? This herb was extremely toxic, and its original name was the Heavenly Poison Grass.

The name naturally comes from its toxicity.

However, this herb was so toxic that it gradually disappeared from the Immortal World.

When Lin Ran was in the Sword Immortal Sect, he had once read the introduction of this herb.

It was extinct because it was too toxic and created heavenly envy!

That’s why it also became the Heavenly Envy Herb.

“Master, I thought of a question!”

Suddenly Qing Zi spoke up.

“What’s the problem?”

“Don’t you think it’s strange why this valley is called the Valley of the Seven Killings?”

“Seven Killings Valley? Isn’t that a random name given by the natives?”

Lin Ran frowned.

“Not true! The Too Cang Diagram is an Immortal King’s magic weapon, when were the natives inside born?”

Qing Zi asked.

“This.... I don’t know either! I don’t even know how the small world was born!”

Lin Ran had two heads at once.

“There are only two kinds of situations where small worlds are born, the first natural conception pillow book kind is!”

“Secondly, they are created artificially!”

Qing Zi said.

“This Tai Cang Diagram was born in Chaos Space and was later brought back by the Immortal Emperor to be repaired and eventually became a quasi-immortal weapon!”

“That means it was broken before, a broken magic weapon is still broken even if there is a small world inside it! It’s simply impossible for a cultivator to be born!”

“An Immortal Emperor refining and repairing it would definitely destroy the small world as well!”

“So the small world in this Tai Cang Tu must have been created by someone later!”

“What does this have to do with the Seven Killings Valley?”

Lin Ran asked.

“It has a lot to do with it!”

Qing Zi said with a smile.

“If the small world in this Tai Cang Diagram was created artificially!”

“Then it would only mean that the first person to come here in the first place was sent in deliberately by the Immortal Emperor!”

“And for a man to be willing to come here to start a world can only mean that he simply couldn’t get out! So there’s plenty of time for such things!”

“The natives of this Tai Cang Tu are likely all descendants of this person!”

“And this Seven Killings Valley is most likely a place of blessing prepared by this person for his offspring!”

“To put it mildly, it’s to make the descendants of his descendants powerful!”

“But to put it more seriously, it’s likely a way for him to leave the Tai Cang Tu for his descendants!”

Lin Ran was stunned as he listened.

“You can speculate so many things with just this little information?”

“It’s perfectly normal! The cycle of heavenly justice is nothing more than the word dou!”

“Man and man fight for wisdom, and man and magical beast fight for strength!”

“If I’m right, there must be seven extremely poisonous herbs within this Seven Killings Valley!”

“And one of them is definitely the Purgatory Grass!”

“Purgatory Grass?”

Lin Ran was stunned as he listened.

“That’s right, this Purgatory Grass is the greatest nemesis of magic weapons!”

“Adding Purgatory Grass within the formation is something that can break through the spell weapon barrier!”

“If these natives want to leave, they can only use the formation, going out from the front would simply be a death wish!”

“Awesome awesome!”

Lin Ran couldn’t help but give a thumbs up!

“But from what you said, these natives seem to be really pitiful enough, since that’s the case I’ll help them out!”

Lin Ran laughed.

“Help them out? Boss, you haven’t taken the wrong medicine! They’re the ones threatening you!”

Li Ba was busy saying.

Lin Ran, however, laughed.

“They’re a threat I like! I even have to thank the old indigenous brother!”

“Why?”

Li Bajie was confused.

“Are you stupid! This Seven Killings Valley is such a big place, there are enough seven herbs with virulent toxicity!”

“As the saying goes, five poisons but five battles must have antidotes, there must be many precious herbs in this Seven Killings Valley! I’ve made a fortune this trip!”

“If I can find the Hidden Spirit Fruit, I’d be happy to be threatened a hundred times!”

Wonder Doctor Chapter 2047

Having a general idea of the situation in this Seven Killings Valley, Lin Ran did not delay any longer and began to resume his search.

He soon found a second extremely poisonous herb not far away.

This also confirmed Qing Zi's suspicions.

A few moments later with the discovery of the Purgatory Grass, Lin Ran was almost certain that Qing Zi's speculation was completely correct.

Lin Ran did not rush to search the middle of the Seven Killings Valley.

He first circled around the Seven Killings Valley and after locking in seven of the more toxic herbs, he corresponded with the Seven Killings Valley.

It was found that all seven herbs were located more towards the edge of the Seven Killings Valley.

And there was an advantage to such an arrangement of layout.

That was that it would allow all the good things to appear within the Seven Killings Valley.

After all, there were too few herbs suitable for growing on the rock walls.

It was still more suitable for herbs to grow within the valley.

With his location locked, Lin Ran stopped talking and began to search the interior of the Seven Killings Valley piece by piece.

He had a day to himself, so he wasn't in a hurry at all.

It was so hard to come in once, so naturally he had to find all the good things inside.

Moreover, the natives of this place were obviously not too willing to come in.

So Lin Ran wasn't worried about them finding out that he had come for a sweep!

As soon as he started searching, the smile on Lin Ran's face never disappeared.

His guesses proved to be accurate, and he soon found a large patch of antidote herbs near one of the poisons.

Of course these herbs naturally didn't interest him.

But the most important thing was that near these antidotes was a large area of God Condensing Grasses growing.

These God Condensing Grasses were good for cultivation.

Somewhat similar to incense, lighting these God Condensing Grasses on fire would allow one to enter the state faster when cultivating.

"Take it all away!"

Without saying a word, Lin Ran directly recycled a large area of God Condensing Grasses and took them all away.

"Gathering God Fruit! Hey hey Qing Zi this one is for you!"

Soon, Lin Ran found another fruit tree in another place.

It was full of Gathering God Fruits, which were very good for the divine sense.

Seeing that there were too many fruits, Lin Ran directly let Qing Zi eat half of them and put the other half away himself.

All the way over, Lin Ran had scavenged almost all the herbs he had that were useful or worth a lot of money.

It was a waste to leave them here, the natives didn't want to come in at all, and even if they did, they definitely wouldn't be able to stay for long because of the formation.

So Lin Ran considered himself to be doing a good deed, he couldn't waste good things.

As he searched, he scavenged.

After a few hours, Lin Ran was already happy.

The harvest from this trip was more than enough to cover all the benefits he had received since he arrived in the Immortal World.

According to Lin Ran's calculations, he could sell a lot of spirit liquid when he went out with his harvest this time.

Even if he had nothing, he would still be able to buy whatever he wanted with this spirit liquid!

After a full morning, Lin Ran had finally searched through the Seven Killings Valley.

The only thing he hadn't searched was the place in the middle of the Seven Killings Valley.

In the middle of this Seven Killings Valley was a lake, and on the lake was an isolated island.

Lin Ran had never found the fruit that the natives wanted after this trip.

It was thought that it should be on this island.

“Let’s go last stop!”

Lin Ran laughed.

The two of them didn’t hesitate, and immediately moved onto the island.

This island was not small, and Lin Ran’s divine sense could cover almost a tenth of the area.

However, this time, Lin Ran was a little confused.

In the area he was exploring, there was not a single herb to be found, apart from the giant trees.

“What is this situation?”

Lin Ran was a little surprised and busily continued to look ahead.

But the result was still that nothing had been found.

“There can’t be nothing on this island, right!”

Lin Ran was somewhat speechless.

He continued to search ahead, and after just a few moments the entire periphery of the island had been searched.

“This is troublesome, if the final middle part is still missing, how will we deliver this when we go out!”

Lin Ran felt a headache.

He had made a fortune this time, but if he couldn't find the herbs these natives needed, then there was no way he could go out and exchange them for Linglong!

Thinking of this, Lin Ran was busy running towards the middle.

"Hmm?"

Suddenly Lin Ran's face was pleased, he had actually found that there were really herbs in the central area of this island.

"Go!"

Lin Ran didn't dare to delay and immediately led Li Ba towards the middle of the island and ran over.

Soon, when he arrived in the middle of the island, two light herbs appeared in front of him.

These two herbs were not far apart, one large and one small.

There was not even a single weed around them.

Even the giant trees around them were deliberately avoiding them and were at a certain distance from the two herbs.

Lin Ran walked over quickly.

But just as he approached the two herbs, he suddenly realised that the ground beneath his feet had actually turned into a stone path.

The stone path was not large in scope, just a dozen square metres or so.

And these two herbs were growing in two pits in the middle of the stone path.

“Why is there still a stone path here!”

Lin Ran frowned in his heart, but at this moment he didn’t bother to think too much about it, the herbs were right in front of him and it was better to pick them first.

Quickly running over, Lin Ran soon arrived in front of the two herbs.

When he saw one of the herbs, his entire body immediately became excited.

“Hidden Spirit Fruit! It’s actually really a Hidden Spirit Fruit!”

There was a glint in Lin Ran’s eyes.

His own Undying Art was just short of the last Hidden Spirit Fruit.

Luo Qiqi had helped himself search for it at the Luo Ran Trading Firm before, but there was never any news.

I didn’t expect that there was actually a Hidden Spirit Fruit in this Seven Killings Valley.

Looking at the Hidden Spirit Fruit in front of him, Lin Ran could not hold back any longer and directly raised his hand to pick it off.

When the hidden spirit fruit was in his hand, Lin Ran quickly put it away, so that the night would not be too long before a change occurred.

Only then did Lin Ran look at the herb next to him.

The herb was blood red in colour, and on top of it grew a fruit that was clearly exactly fire red.

“This should be something the natives want, can you tell what it is?”

Lin Ran asked.

Qing Zi pondered for a moment then said.

“This thing, it should be a Great Elemental Pill!”

“Great Origin Pill?”

Lin Ran was stunned to hear this.

“No! It’s not a Great Origin Pill, but a Great Origin Fruit, the Great Origin Pill is refined from this kind of thing!”

“This Great Origin Pill is so precious that each person can only eat it once in their lifetime, take a pill and eat it below the Perfection realm!”

“The strength will all be raised by a small level, and there are no side effects!”

“This thing is very precious!”

“Holy shit, no side effects to raise a small level?”

Lin Ran couldn't help but be greedy even as he listened.

The stronger the strength was the harder it was to cultivate, especially at the later stages.

But this Great Yuan Fruit could actually directly raise a small level, which was undoubtedly very precious!

"Ai! It's a pity!"

Lin Ran sighed and waved his hand to put away the Great Origin Fruit.

Although he himself wanted it, Linglong was still in the hands of the natives after all, and he had no choice!

"Let's go!"

Having obtained what he wanted, Lin Ran was also ready to leave.

However, just as he was about to leave and return.

Suddenly, the entire island actually began to shake.

At the same time a strong aura instantly filled out.

Both Lin Ran and Li Ba's faces changed almost simultaneously.

"This is the aura of a magical beast! There are magical beasts here!"

Wonder Doctor Chapter 2048

“Let’s leave this isolated island first!”

Lin Ran reminded, and with a whirl, the two of them flew straight into mid-air.

And as the two of them left the isolated island, the situation below gradually became clear.

The entire island was shaking violently, and the sky-high trees on top had collapsed near the edge.

Only the middle area was still stable and did not collapse.

But at this moment, the whole island was lifting up violently, as if it had come to life.

“Boss, look, the middle place is not moving!”

Li Ba suddenly pointed at the place where the two had just picked the hidden spirit fruits.

Lin Ran looked and indeed found that there was no movement in the place where the stone path had been turned over.

All that had moved were the surrounding dirt paths.

“Rumble!”

As he spoke the whole isolated island shook even more violently by a few degrees.

And the original isolated island was rising rapidly, as if something below was holding it up, trying to lift it up.

The island rose higher and higher, and soon the edges began to crack and then fell into the lake.

Immediately below the island, a large black object appeared.

It was like an iron plate, flat and smooth but with curves around it.

“Bang Bang”

Suddenly, several rays of light shot out from the black thing, and in an instant the whole island shattered directly.

A huge armor-shaped magical beast appeared in front of the two.

“This is the Seven Star Heavenly Bull!”

Lin Ran was shocked.

The gigantic magical beast below was clearly none other than a Seven Star Heavenly Bull.

“Boss, this is troublesome, this kind of magical beast has thick skin and flesh, I’m afraid we won’t even be able to break its defenses!”

Li Ba was busy saying.

Lin Ran also frowned as he listened, this Seven Star Heavenly Bull was notorious for its terrifying defence.

But similarly, the attacking power of this magical beast was also much weaker.

“Never mind him let’s go!”

Lin Ran said.

Since this thing had thick skin and flesh that couldn't be broken, it was better to just ignore it, as he had already gotten what he wanted anyway.

“Good!”

Li Ba nodded his head.

This thing was too difficult to deal with, so it was naturally best not to provoke it.

“Weng!”

Suddenly, just as the two of them were about to leave, a buzzing sound was actually violently remembered on the surface of the lake.

Followed by a glorious light that shot up from the entire lake.

“Is this? A teleportation formation?”

Lin Ran looked stunned, and at the same time, he saw that this formation was emanating from the very same area of the stone path where he had picked the hidden spirit fruits before.

It turned out that this Seven Star Heavenly Bull had previously been cooped up around this teleportation formation.

It was only after a long time that it was gradually covered by the soil and looked like it had become one with the teleportation formation.

“Let’s go first!”

Lin Ran greeted, this thing was too difficult to deal with, he did not want to stop at all.

However, if he wanted to leave, the Seven Star Heavenly Bull refused to do so.

Although this creature’s attack power was no good, it had four arms and two tentacles.

At this moment, one of its tentacles was already smashing towards Lin Ran’s body as if it was a steel whip.

“Hm?”

Lin Ran frowned slightly when he saw this, he didn’t want to provoke you, but you are still unforgiving.

“Whoosh.”

Lin Ran slashed out a sword in a smooth manner, and instantly the sword arrows converged a white sword shadow heading straight for the Seven Star Heavenly Bull.

One sword was the third style, Lin Ran didn’t have the slightest nonsense.

The sword mane sliced through mid-air and instantly collided with the Seven Star Heavenly Bull’s tentacles.

However, to his surprise, the moment his sword mane touched the Seven Star Heavenly Bull’s tentacles, it was directly slapped and exploded.

“Rumble!”

A huge rumble instantly shook the entire space around him and rippled.

The Seven Star Heavenly Bull's tentacle, however, was merely shaken and sent flying backwards, without even a single wound appearing.

"Shit!"

Lin Ran couldn't help but burst out when he saw this, the defence was so amazing, how else could this be played!

"Boss let's go, it can't be beaten!"

Li Ba was busy saying.

This Seven Star Heavenly Bull had a reputation for its defensive power, he had no intention of engaging in a fight at all.

"Go!"

Lin Ran greeted and was about to leave.

However, just then, a sudden wave of black Qi emanated from Lin Ran's body, instantly enveloping him towards the Seven Star Heavenly Bull.

At the same time, Lizzy's figure had also emerged.

"Lizzy?"

Lin Ran was stunned at the sight.

“I’ll take it, you guys wait a moment!”

Lizzy said, and with a whirl, her figure directly surged up several times, transforming into the state Lin Ran had ridden in before.

Li’s figure was usually transformed into a very small one, but at this point in the encounter his figure skyrocketed and his strength increased in an instant.

Countless black Qi seemed like a dark cloud, instantly enveloping the entire Seven Star Heavenly Bull.

Lin Ran and Li Ba could even see that the Seven Star Heavenly Bull within the black mist was struggling frantically.

But it was never able to break out of this black fog.

Within the black fog, as moments passed, a gaping hole began to appear on the Seven Star Heavenly Bull’s hard, iron-like surface.

Black mist continued to rise from these gaps, as if they had been corroded out of thin air.

“Boss, the black mist of this magical beast of yours is too fierce, the Seven Star Heavenly Bull’s shell can even corrode!”

Li Ba couldn’t help but marvel.

Lin Ran, however, shook his head helplessly, his understanding of Li Li was actually very limited.

He only knew that Lizzy was from an extraordinary background and that her future achievements would be unlimited.

But why Lizzy’s black mist had such great power, he didn’t know either.

“No matter what wait and see, if Lizzy can solve him, we can do a golden escape!”

Lin Ran said.

“Boss, you’re not going back to find Linglong?”

Li Ba asked.

“Looking! But it’s best not to deal with those natives again! Who knows if they have any other ideas!”

Lin Ran said.

Although he had gotten what they needed, who knew if they would have other strange demands.

So saving Linglong was a must, but it would naturally be best if he could not over-contact these natives!

As the two were talking, the Seven Star Heavenly Bull in the black mist struggled even more violently.

Even at this moment, both of them could see that the entire body of the Seven Star Heavenly Bull within the black mist was swaying rapidly.

It seemed to want to break out, but the black fog was like a tarsal body, wrapping him firmly inside.

Not only did it fail to break out, but it caused the wounds on its body to tear.

Eventually, even two tentacles broke off straight away.

“This thing is finished!”

Li Ba said.

Lin Ran also nodded, this black mist of Li's was so corrosive that even if he did nothing, he would be able to consume this Seven Star Heavenly Bull to death just by consuming it.

However, it was obvious that it was impossible for Lizzy to do nothing.

In the black fog, one could only see Lizzy quickly approaching the Seven Star Heavenly Bull, and then two sharp claws grabbed directly at one of the Seven Star Heavenly Bull's gaping holes.

Li's claws were incomparably sharp, plus at this moment, the Seven Star Heavenly Bull was already on the verge of disintegrating.

When Li's claw went down, it almost instantly ripped the Seven Star Heavenly Bull into two halves.

"Holy shit!"

Li Ba couldn't help but gulp down his saliva.

Lin Ran on the side also drew in a breath of cold air as he watched.

The two of them couldn't even break through this Seven Star Heavenly Bull's defence, but Li had dismembered it in three blows.

I can't help but be convinced!

Lin Ran said helplessly.

At this moment, Lizi naturally did not know the shock of the two of them, as he grabbed an inner bile from the Seven Star Heavenly Bull's body with a paw and swallowed it without saying a word.

Wonder Doctor Chapter 2049

After swallowing the inner guts of the Seven Star Heavenly Bull, Li quickly went back to the scroll space.

This fellow would fall into a deep sleep every time he swallowed the inner guts.

When he said he was sleeping, he was actually digesting the power of these inner urchins.

It was just that as he became stronger and stronger, the speed of refining the inner guts was also increasing.

With Li's current strength, refining this inner urchin was basically just a matter of a day or two.

"Let's go!"

Lin Ran took a glance at the formation on the lake and turned to greet him.

If Linglong wasn't still in someone else's hands, he really didn't want to go back.

It would be much better to leave directly from this teleportation formation.

Thoughts aside, but he couldn't really leave Linglong alone.

If something happened to her, he would not have the face to face Linglong and Long Ya.

The two of them quickly returned to the nearby shore, and then followed the direction Lin Ran had come from before and found the cave they had come out of.

Lin Ran entered the cave and then kept heading ahead.

Just half an hour later, he reached the end of the cave.

Sure enough, everything was just as he had thought.

The original journey to this cave was only half an hour.

He had walked for a whole hour when he came himself, which meant that the passage that the natives had broken through was at least half an hour's journey.

Lin Ran stood at the bottom of the cave and wondered how the other side knew he had come.

Soon the black vortex appeared again in front of the cave.

Lin Ran didn't say anything, he immediately put Li Ba into the scroll space, and then stepped inside.

It was still dark inside the vortex, and Lin Ran was alone as he hurried forward.

And at that moment, outside the mountain wall.

The indigenous leader and the others had all arrived.

The tall, thin warlord said.

"Chief, that boy will be coming out soon, do you think we should!"

Said the warlord, making a gesture of wiping his neck.

The chief pondered for a moment and said.

“Better forget it, this kid is not weak, if we really anger him, he is afraid that he will not be willing to give up!”

“Moreover, this time they came to participate in the Chance Conference, once they make a move against us, it is likely that they will be moved out by the Immortal King!”

“So it’s almost impossible to kill him!”

“What the chief said is true, but there are so many treasures within the Seven Killings Valley, this kid surely won’t be unable to get greedy!”

The tall and thin man said.

“I’ve thought about this, he won’t be able to take away anything in the Seven Killings Valley!”

The chief said and his eyes turned a few degrees colder.

“Understood!”

The tall, thin military commander nodded his head.

As he spoke, a human figure had stepped out on the mountain wall ahead only.

Lin Ran had left the cave and was currently standing in front of the mountain wall.

However, he did not come out all together, but stood in the middle of the mountain wall and the whirlpool passage, so that he could immediately retreat within the Seven Killings Valley whenever the other side made any movements.

Naturally, Lin Ran was not aware of the thoughts of these natives, and he did so purely out of vigilance.

Having been out for so long, he knew profoundly that there were times when one had to be extremely careful, and if one wasn't careful it was likely that one would capsize in the gutter.

"I've found what you want, let them go!"

Lin Ran spoke.

"Kid, you know the situation clearly, we have the man!"

The chief's face was icy cold as he said.

"Hand over the stuff first!"

Lin Ran smiled back at his words.

"You have the man, but I have the item you want, and I don't need to tell you much, this item you want is the only one in the entire Seven Killings Valley!"

"And I'm not afraid to tell you, the entire Seven Killings Valley has been swept away by me inside!"

"You won't be able to find a second one even if you go in!"

"So let them go first!"

Lin Ran laughed indifferently.

“Kid, what you say makes sense, but don’t forget that the fruit will still be there a thousand years later when it’s gone!”

“But if the person is gone, then it’s really gone!”

The chief said in a cold voice, the threat in his words very strong.

Lin Ran smiled at his words.

On the side, however, Linglong’s heart lifted as she listened.

This was a matter of one’s life.

This Lin Ran was actually bargaining with the other party, shouldn’t he first hand over something in exchange for his own?

“Speaking of people being lost, I wonder if the chief thinks it’s serious for a person to be lost, or for a clan to be extinguished?”

“This Opportunity Conference is the first time it’s opened, so you should know very well what it means!”

“If a great war breaks out, how long do you think this Tai Cang Diagram will be able to protect you?”

“Time! I’m not short of it, but you are!”

“So think about it yourself! Whether you want to let people go first or you want the fruit first!”

Lin Ran laughed indifferently.

“You! How did you know that!”

The chief’s face had turned pale.

The other natives to the side also paled one by one at the sound of his words.

This was their clan’s biggest secret, and it was even affecting the fate of their clan.

Therefore, they had always regarded this matter as the biggest secret within the clan.

But now this secret had actually been discovered by an outsider.

“This matter is not difficult to guess, so you can think about whether you will let people go first, or I will hand over the fruit first!”

Lin Ran laughed indifferently.

Earlier, he had thought that Qing Zi’s analysis of so many things didn’t seem useful.

But now it seemed that it was true that only by knowing oneself and one’s opponent could one never lose a hundred battles.

Only by knowing one’s opponent could one understand exactly what his opponent was thinking.

“This bastard! I won’t even let him go if something happens to me as a ghost!”

Linglong was in a great mood.

To gamble with one's own life, I'm afraid that no one would be too comfortable if it were anyone else.

Especially since Linglong and Lin Ran didn't really know each other very well, they had only entered this Tai Cang Tu together.

They hadn't had any contact with each other before, so it was normal for them to have such emotions.

Of course, Lin Ran was aware of Linglong's identity.

Otherwise, he wouldn't have come back to save her again.

It was just that he had his own style of doing things.

With absolute certainty, he naturally didn't want to be held hostage.

"Good! You win!"

Finally the chief had compromised.

Lin Ran was right, in front of the fate of an entire clan at stake, one person's life did seem somewhat insignificant.

If he didn't get that great yuan fruit he wanted, the deadline for his strength breakthrough would have to be delayed indefinitely.

And this would directly affect when their clan could leave this Tai Cang Tu.

If it wasn't very important, how could he have brought so many people ready to venture into the Seven Killings Valley again!

"Let them go!"

Lin Ran smiled indifferently.

Linglong was also finally relieved.

Fortunately! Fortunately, the other party had sort of compromised.

Otherwise, he would have really been taken by them to the indigenous clan, along with having a baby ◦ then one might as well just die!

"The thing you want!"

Lin Ran didn't say anything and directly took out the Great Yuan Fruit while gesturing for Linglong to come over.

"What for?"

Seeing that Lin Ran was still standing within the passage, Linglong couldn't help but be stunned.

Since the deal was already done, why are you still standing inside, just leave!

However, she was thinking simplistically.

Just as she reached Lin Ran, Lin Ran grabbed her and yanked her into the passageway.

And almost at the same time, the chieftain got the great yuan fruit and spoke at the same time.

“Do it!”

“I knew it, bye!”

Lin Ran guffawed, and the next moment had picked up Linglong and rushed in towards the inside of the passage.

Soldiers were not afraid of deception, how could Lin Ran trust them completely!

Wonder Doctor Chapter 2050

“No!”

Linglong hadn't even reacted until then.

It was only when Lin Ran was holding her and had rushed deeper into the passage that she reacted.

“No how did you know that they were going to do the dirty deed!”

Linglong asked busily.

“Didn't your master even teach you that?”

Lin Ran was speechless, Ling Ya and Long Ya couldn't have taught Ling Long even such simple common sense, could they?

“Of course they’ve taught you, but these natives don’t look like such scheming people!”

Linglong said.

“Simple! Who has thoughts in their hearts that are written on their faces?”

“You!”

Linglong’s pretty face turned red with anger, but she couldn’t find the words to retort.

What Lin Ran said was right, no one’s inner thoughts would be written on their face, she herself had still experienced too little.

But then again, how could this kid tell? He seemed to be about the same age as himself.

Could it be that he had experienced a lot?

There was some doubt in Linglong’s mind.

Lin Ran, however, had no intention of explaining at all.

The two of them rushed all the way in the direction of the Seven Killings Valley.

And at this moment, outside the mountain wall.

“What about the chief! Should we chase them in!”

Lao San asked.

“Chase in? You don’t want to live!”

The chief’s face was icy cold.

“Chief, it looks like we’ll have to give up this time!”

The tall, thin warlord next to him said.

“Is this great yuan fruit alright!”

The chief asked.

“It’s been checked, no problem!”

“What about the strength? Can it help me break through?”

The chief asked again.

“Ninety percent hope!”

The chief was silent.

After a full moment, the chief seemed to have made up his mind and said.

“Go! The fate of the clan is more important!”

“Yes!”

The crowd around them did not dare to say anything more, and immediately followed the chief and left the place directly.

The Seven Killings Valley was very dangerous to them, and they did not want to go in rashly.

Compared to the fate of the clan, the Seven Killings Valley was just as well to be sacked by Lin Ran, it wasn't like the place was destroyed, the herbs inside would still grow back in a thousand years.

Inside the Seven Killings Valley.

“No, even if you knew they were going to sneak in, but you brought me in here again, how are we going to get out!”

Linglong asked.

By now, she had already gotten off of Lin Ran, her pretty face flushed as she followed behind.

“If I brought you in, there's bound to be a way out! Just follow me!”

Lin Ran didn't bother to explain.

“And!”

Linglong didn't bother to ask any more questions either.

The two of them just hurried along, and soon the exit of the Seven Killings Valley appeared.

“Wait, don't run around, follow me! There are a lot of highly poisonous herbs in here, I can't save you if you run into them!”

Before entering the valley, Lin Ran gave a final reminder.

“Got it!”

Linglong looked a little impatient.

Seeing this, Lin Ran did not bother to say more, and rushed all the way towards the lake in the centre of the Seven Killings Valley, following the direction he had travelled in before.

Half an hour later, the two of them finally arrived at the edge of the lake.

At this moment, the light of the formation in the lake was still emanating, and it was obvious that it had not yet closed.

It was just that the light was much weaker than before, and I was afraid that it would not last long.

“Go!”

Lin Ran didn't dare to delay, and immediately greeted Linglong and rushed towards the teleportation formation.

The light of the teleportation formation quickly enveloped the two of them, and in an instant, Lin Ran only felt the space around him begin to distort.

“Hmm?”

Suddenly, Lin Ran felt a warmth coming from his hand, and only when he looked down did he realise that it was Linglong who had taken his hand.

“Pull! Save yourself from being scattered later!”

Linglong said.

“Ao.”

Lin Ran responded.

“No what do you mean by that? Are you looking forward to being separated from me?”

Linglong was displeased at the situation.

“It’s alright, but being apart naturally enables me to be very.”

Lin Ran hadn’t finished his sentence when the entire formation’s light had completely submerged them.

The next moment Lin Ran felt a lightness in his hand, Linglong’s hand had actually disappeared.

“This. It can’t be that accurate! I just said it casually!”

The thoughts in his mind came together, and Lin Ran disappeared from his spot in the next moment.

◦ ◦ ◦ ◦

The mountain range where the top of Tai Cang was located was very huge.

And at this moment, on one of the sides of the Tai Cang Mountain Range, there were two groups of people who were tensely facing each other.

“What about cousin!”

Leng Qiu stood in the middle of the group with a wary look on her face.

“What else can we do, Chen Hu is obviously prepared this time, if it doesn’t work later you can take the messenger out and go out first!”

Leng Qian reminded.

“Go out?”

Leng Qiu was stunned, this if he handed over the amulet it would also mean that his journey to this chance had come to an end.

“Don’t try to be brave, there are many people on the other side or you have to keep yourself safe first!”

“Mm!”

Leng Qiu nodded, if things really came to that point, then she could only choose to give up.

“I don’t know how that guy is doing either!”

Leng Qiu suddenly thought of Lin Ran.

If this guy was around, maybe the situation could still be turned around, after all, this guy had created so many miracles.

“Leng Qian, are you going to surrender yourself or wait for me to do it!”

Chen Hu stood not far away with a cold smile on his face.

“Chen Hu, do you really think I’m afraid of you? Our men are not much less than yours, and if we really want to fight you will have to pay the price!”

Leng Qian’s voice was icy cold.

Chen Hu, however, laughed.

“Leng Qian, don’t you think your words are ridiculous?”

“Our two families know each other’s backgrounds!”

“Putting aside these people within the clan, you have lost just on the point of the external help you have pulled in!”

“I admit that Liu Suixin is also very strong, but can he still be stronger than the combination of Swordlust and Swordlust?”

Leng Qian Qi that listened with a gloomy face.

Although Chen Hu’s words were hard to hear, they were the truth.

The two clans had been fighting for so many years, and the people from the clan who had come in for this chance meeting were almost evenly matched.

The only thing that could really decide the winner was the hermit experts who had been brought in.

Although there was a month of time beforehand, very few people were actually brought in by them.

Even fewer could show their cards.

On Chen Hu's side, there were only two brothers, Sword Thirsty and Sword Thirsty.

On the other hand, Leng Qian's side was even smaller, with only one Liu Suixin.

“I'm not going to bother talking to you, I'll give you one more minute to think about it, if you don't hand over the amulet! Then I'll just have to beat all of you out!”

“Also don't blame me for not reminding you that it's possible to kill people in this Tai Cang Tu as long as you don't strike out at the natives! I can't guarantee how many of you Leng Clan can get out alive!”

“Then when you come!”

Leng Qian's face was icy cold and his palm was already gripping the long sword at his waist.

“Humph! If you don't know how to behave, then prepare to get out!”

Chen Hu snorted coldly, and was about to make his move.

However, at this moment, suddenly a ripple actually appeared out of thin air in the middle of the two parties.

Then a figure was spat out from within.

When the crowd saw the person's appearance, they could not help but be stunned.

“Lin Ran!”

“Brother Lin Ran!”

“Why is it this kid?”

Lin Ran was also stunned and was busy looking around, and when he saw the situation in this scene, he couldn't help but feel a chill in his heart as well.

Where had he been transported to by the formation? The place where the two clans were fighting?

“No, I seem to have taken the wrong path, can you let me go back?”

Lin Ran said awkwardly.

“Go back? Since you're here then don't leave!”

“Make a move!”

Chen Hu scolded with icy cold eyes.
