

Chapter 2043: You Know Everything?

“Are all the competitions you’ve participated in so lively?” Jiang Yao looked around curiously. As the weather was quite hot, a drinking place was at the back. A few family members were helping out there. They were not very interested in the commotion.

“Not really.”

Lu Xingzhi shook his head. “The competitions were delayed until now because of the rainy season, and it just so happens that the National Day clashed with it, so the atmosphere is a little different. This kind of competition was particularly strict in the Jin City army base when I was there. There were no strangers in the vicinity. The opening ceremony was just the chief speaking for two minutes.” Support our FreeWebNovel.com

By that time, the chief had already spoken for almost ten minutes. Besides the incident with Jiang Yao and Ye Xueli, which made the chief emphasize the importance of the army’s ethos, he also expressed some moderate nonsense, intended to mobilize those military families to support the soldiers.

There were too many people at the opening ceremony. Some were talking and laughing, so it seemed a bit noisy.

The chief spoke for almost 20 minutes. Jiang Yao wondered if his mouth was dry at the end of his speech when he announced the start of the competition. The already noisy field suddenly became noisier.

“Let’s go. I have a competition in the morning.” There were too many people on the playground. Lu Xingzhi frowned the whole time and protected Jiang Yao as they walked around. He was afraid that someone might push or hit Jiang Yao. It would be fine under normal circumstances, but Jiang Yao was pregnant, so he had to pay attention to everything.

Jiang Yao knew Lu Xingzhi’s competition events like the back of her hand. Of course, she paid attention to her husband’s affairs.

“You know everything?”

Lu Xingzhi’s heart was filled with joy. Even though Jiang Yao did not seem to care about his competition, in reality, she did care.

However, she did not know when it started, but she liked to make him squirm.

She knew he would participate in a competition, and she wanted to watch it. However, she wanted to appear bored and uninterested.

After leaving the field, there were slightly fewer people. Lu Xingzhi held Jiang Yao’s hand as they headed to the competition venue. They met Shao Fu Cheng halfway there, who wanted to go with them.

Lu Xingzhi only considered Shao Fucheng as his competition.

“Doctor Jiang.”

Shao Fucheng took the initiative to greet the couple when he saw them. "Doctor Jiang, are you going to watch Colonel Lu's match?"

Obviously, Shao Fucheng favored Jiang Yao more than Lu Xingzhi.

Jiang Yao nodded and looked at Shao Fucheng. "Are your family members commg?"

Shao Fucheng did not answer that question. He smiled and said, "I haven't thanked you for what happened last time. That day, I was so sick that I was confused. Later, I discovered that no one would have known how sick I was if it weren't for you."

Shao Fucheng did not feel anything that day at the military doctor's office. He could not even open his eyes because he was so ill. He could not even move his fingers, but he sensed being escorted out of the dormitory. He was in a coma for a long time after that. He awoke later and appeared to have heard Doctor Jiang's speech.

When he woke up, his subordinates told him what had happened. Doctor Jiang had indeed been there for him..

Chapter 2044: You're Too Kind

"You're too kind. Since you called me Doctor Jiang, that is what I should do as a doctor. "Jiang Yao smiled mischievously, then raised her eyebrows. "Even though you're Xingzhi's opponent, I still have to cheer you on!"

"Aren't you afraid I'll defeat Colonel Lu after you encouraged me?"

Shao Fucheng smiled provocatively.

"I haven't said anything yet. Young man, don't be so anxious." Jiang Yao shook her head. "Do your best. Xingzhi would look better when he beat you after this."

Jiang Yao raised her hand and patted Shao Fucheng's shoulder as she walked past him. She looked as if she wanted to cheer him on. Then, she stepped forward with Lu Xing, leaving the stunned Shao Fu Cheng behind.

The morning sunlight was spectacular. It gently shone on the two people. Shao Fucheng would not have been able to tell that she was pregnant if he had not heard the news.

She was as beautiful as the first time he saw her. He could not help but take another look at her.

Shao Fucheng turned around and followed them. However, he kept a distance from them. He watched as the two people walked hand in hand to their destination as if there was no one else around. Support our FreeWebNovel.com

The martial arts competition venue was outside. After Lu Xingzhi received his number from drawing lots, he held Jiang Yao's hand as he tried to find a seat for her. The sun was not hot yet. However, the sun would be too hot to bear after less than an hour.

However, the venue was empty. Lu Xingzhi searched all around but could not find a suitable place for Jiang Yao to sit down and rest. When he turned around, he saw that Jiang Yao's head was already sweating. After Jiang Yao became pregnant, she seemed more afraid of the heat than before. He sounded a little regretful that he called Jiang Yao out.

“Why don’t you go home?”

Although Lu Xingzhi was hesitant, it was preferable to let Jiang Yao return home and wait than to endure the sun.

“I’m already here. Do you want me to go home now?” Jiang Yao shook her head repeatedly. “I don’t want to.”

She pointed to the front. “There’s still no sun over there. Let’s go there and wait. They will call your number soon. It shouldn’t be long.

Jiang Yao pointed at the water station, and there was a woman there.

“If you feel uncomfortable, you have to tell me.” Lu Xingzhi reminded her before holding Jiang Yao’s hand and walking toward the water station.

Lu Xingzhi and Jiang Yao could be considered minor celebrities in the army. When the old woman saw the two of them, she greeted them with a smile.

“Colonel Lu, you have a match in the morning, right? Then I’m very lucky to be here. Everyone says that Colonel Lu is the number one in martial arts. I can finally see you in action today.”

There were two chairs under the table. One was for the old lady to sit on, and the other was for Jiang Yao. He reached out and touched the pot of water. When the old lady saw it, she smiled and said, “The water has been here for a while. The temperature is just right now. Get some for your wife. Otherwise, there won’t be enough water when there are more people, and the water delivered later will be too warm.’

Since most had just arrived, not many people wanted to drink water. The water had been here for half an hour, and the old woman had stayed idle at that station.

Lu Xingzhi thought it made sense, and then he reached out to Jiang Yao. “Give me the bottle, and I’ll fill one for you.’

Lu Xingzhi did not bring water for Jiang Yao since he knew there would be water stations everywhere. He only asked her to carry an empty bottle.

That water stations were set up for the family members visiting the soldiers. The purpose was to let the families feel the warmth of the troops. However, it was convenient for everyone. After all, the weather was so hot that everyone would want to have a sip of water when they got off the field..
