

Chapter 2047: The Tyrant

Of course, those words were meant as a joke. Xiao Shan still admired their colonel's spirit of dealing with people and matters. During the selection, Xiao Shan was the first person to speak up at Lu Xingzhi. He was also one of the people who helped Lu Xingzhi deal with Chen Feitang.

"There are some things that he hates to be perfunctory about."

Jiang Yao was aware of Lu Xingzhi's personality. He was a touch too domineering, to put it bluntly. They would have won if it had been someone else. They would never make their opponent start again as they might lose.

He was overbearing and proud. Besides that, he also had a strong stubbornness toward certain things and rigid rules that could not be broken.

For example, no matter how close he was to her in private, he would only hold her hand or put his arm around her in front of the troops. That was his rule. Support our FreeWebNovel.com

However, that spirit and attitude did not make people dislike him. On the contrary, it would inspire people, just like in the competition. Even Lu Xingzhi's opponent would go all out.

Lu Xingzhi still defeated his opponent. However, he still gave his opponent some pointers on his shortcomings. He would tell his opponent later on how to attack and defend with one fewer move.

The people who were initially cheering gradually quieted because they realized that the match had become Lu Xingzhi's on-site teaching ground. Each of them stared at the stage without blinking. Some even dragged another person to demonstrate the changes that Lu Xingzhi had mentioned. With one try, they could tell that what Lu Xingzhi said was true.

Those people's thoughts were in sync. Some people felt that Hades Lu was not as cold and heartless as the legends said, but some actually felt that Lu Xingzhi was too arrogant.

No matter what other people thought, Lu Xingzhi won the competition. Then, he talked to his opponent as he walked off the stage.

When Lu Xingzhi came down, he was immediately surrounded by people. They all asked him some questions about his moves. Xiao Shan accompanied Jiang Yao as she stood there and waited. She looked at Lu Xingzhi, who was frowning and answering questions like he was a man of few words.

He was only five meters away from her. He seemed to know that she was looking at him, so he looked in her direction as he spoke.

The two looked at each other across the crowd and smiled.

"Mrs. Lu, look at the way Colonel Lu looks at you. It's so mushy." Xiao Shan stood beside Jiang Yao and teased her. "I've heard of Colonel Lu's nickname, Hades Lu, before this. How did you and Colonel Lu get together? Did he court you first? I can't imagine what it's like for Colonel Lu to court someone."

How was it when he courted someone? The word plunder was the most appropriate to describe that.

Jiang Yao secretly agreed in her heart, but she did not say it out loud.

“When Colonel Lu courted you, did he send you flowers? Did he say nice things?” Xiao Shan asked one question after another as if he wanted to gossip. “We were chatting with Zhou Junmin the other day.”

Xiao Shan’s words came to an abrupt stop. His face, which had before been filled with smirks, had abruptly turned from a joyful to a fearful one.

“Mrs. Lu!”

Xiao Shan had not expected that. The person standing by his side and listening to his words a second ago suddenly flew forward and fell to the ground..

Chapter 2048: My Baby

The sudden change was so fast that when Xiao Shan turned around, he could see a little fat boy making an extremely ugly face at him and then running away.

Jiang Yao was pushed far away, scaring the people around her so much that their faces turned pale.

On the other hand, Lu Xingzhi was so scared that he could not even speak. He pushed away from the people in front of him and ran toward Jiang Yao.

“Jiang Yao!”

Lu Xingzhi wanted to help Jiang Yao, but she was lying on the ground, her head covered in a cold sweat. Her voice was faint as she reached out to pull his wrist. She bit her lip and said, “My stomach... Xingzhi, my stomach hurts.”

“Call the doctor! Get the military doctor here!” Xiao Shan was so scared that his face turned pale. He quickly called his comrades to get the military doctor, then ran toward Jiang Yao. When he saw her covered in a cold sweat from the pain, he blamed himself. Support our FreeWebNovel.com

“Mrs. Lu, I’m sorry. I was right beside you, but I didn’t protect you well.” Xiao

Shan did not dare to look at Lu Xingzhi. He was standing right beside Jiang Yao. He should have protected her. However, he could only watch helplessly as someone pushed her.

Jiang Yao grabbed Lu Xingzhi’s wrist with one hand and clutched her lower abdomen tightly with the other. She could feel herself bleeding.

“My baby...” Jiang Yao could not even cry in pain when she thought she could lose the baby. She let go of Lu Xingzhi’s hand and pretended to reach into her pocket to touch her abdomen. Then, she took a prenatal drug from the medical system and put it into her mouth.

“Water.”

Lu Xingzhi did not know what kind of drug Jiang Yao took, but he knew that she must have made it herself, so he immediately opened the bottle and brought it to her lips. Then, he held her and let her lean against his body.

Lu Xingzhi did not know Jiang Yao's condition, so he did not even dare touch her body. He was afraid that he would hurt her.

His hand holding the bottle was trembling slightly. He was afraid; he was terrified. He feared that his and Jiang Yao's first baby would be gone just like that. However, he was even more fearful that something would happen to Jiang Yao. He was afraid that her body would be harmed.

"Yaoyao, Yaoyao, it's okay. It's going to be okay. The military doctor will be here soon," Lu Xingzhi comforted Jiang Yao weakly, but he could not even convince himself.

His words were weak, just like how he was feeling at the moment.

Jiang Yao put all her strength into leaning against Lu Xingzhi's body. The pain in her lower abdomen felt like there was a blade twisting inside her. She spent a lot of effort saying, "I'll sleep for a while."

Then, she immediately closed her eyes and pretended to fall asleep. She entered the medical system.

The System Admin immediately appeared. "What's the condition of my body now? How's my baby?"

Even though her subconscious mind had entered the medical system, Jiang Yao could still feel the pain in her body.

"The results are out."

The System Admin was also worried for his master. "There are signs of miscarriage, but you took the prenatal drug in time. Even though it still hurts now, the symptoms will slowly ease up. In the future, you must stay in bed for a while to rest and properly take care of the baby. "

Jiang Yao cried when she heard that. She was glad that she had developed the prenatal drug in the early stages of her pregnancy. She had access to all the information in the system. She had learned all about it as long as it was related to prenatal care. Although she did not think she would need to use it, she still made a lot of prenatal medicine in the system..
