

Chapter 2049: Go To The Hospital

If she had allowed herself to slack off because she did not think it was necessary, she would lose her baby, the child she and Lu Xingzhi had been looking forward to for a long time.

“Fortunately, you reacted very quickly to cushion your fall. Otherwise, your stomach might have hit the ground first. We might need a miracle to save your baby then,” the System Admin said. “You need to treat the wounds on her arms and knees. Otherwise, it will get infected. After treating the wounds, lie down on the bed and rest.”

The System Admin chased Jiang Yao out. The military doctor arrived in a flash. The doctor had already arrived when she emerged from the system. Lu Xingzhi hugged her tightly, her ears ringing with the sound of him conversing with the military doctor.

“You must protect the child...” Support our FreeWebNovel.com

His voice was trembling, just like the hand he used to feed her with the water bottle. He used a lot of strength to wrap his fingers around her shoulders. It felt as if he was about to press his fingers into her shoulders.

“Colonel Lu, don’t be anxious. Let’s take a look at the situation first.

The military doctor heard that someone had pushed Colonel Lu’s wife. She fell to the floor, and her stomach hit the ground. She hugged her stomach and cried out in pain; there seemed to be blood on her dress.

“Child...”

Lu Xingzhi’s heart clenched as he looked at the person in his arms; she did not move, and her face was pale. His eyes sank, and he changed his words. “It’s okay if you can’t save the baby, but you must save my wife.”

Even though it was a decision the military doctor would have to make, Jiang Yao was still pretty early into her pregnancy. He would try his best to save the child, but he would also prioritize the mother’s safety.

However, he learned that Lu Xingzhi would save the mother over the child. The doctor sighed discreetly. It seemed like Colonel Lu loved Doctor Jiang deeply.

“It doesn’t look too serious.

The military doctor checked over Jiang Yao. “The situation shouldn’t be too serious. Someone saw her taking some medicine, right? She is also a doctor. I’m sure she handled it in time. There is no more bleeding. She should be fine for the time being. However, just in case, Colonel Lu should send Doctor Jiang to the hospital for a detailed check-up. We have limited equipment here. We can’t do anything else.”

“Colonel, I’ll get the car!”

Xiao Shan immediately stood up when he heard that.

However, Jiang Yao managed to pull Xiao Shan's sleeve. "There's no need."

Then, she looked at Lu Xingzhi. "Carry me home."

"She is awake!"

Xiao Shan was surprised and happy when he saw that Jiang Yao had woken up.

"Doctor Jiang, are you not going to the hospital?"

The military doctor shook his head. "You still have to go to the hospital in your current condition. Let Xiao Shan drive you. I will treat the wounds on your hands and feet. It was fortunate that you were able to break your fall with your hand. But look at your elbows. Those wounds don't seem light. It might get infected if we don't treat them now."

"Xiao Shan, get the car." Lu Xingzhi finally found his voice. Then, he comforted Jiang Yao in a low voice, "I know you are in pain. Let's go to the hospital. When the doctor says everything is fine, we will go home."

When he saw Jiang Yao's unwilling gaze, he coaxed her gently. "Be good. Be obedient. I won't be at ease if we don't go to the hospital.."

Chapter 2050: Xingzhi, I'm In Pain

Jiang Yao was speechless when he saw Lu Xingzhi's concern and self-reproach in his eyes. She reached out and caressed the back of his hand with her hand. She agreed with a nod.

She decided to go to the hospital because he was concerned. She needed to put him at ease.

Xiao Shan wished he could drive the car as quickly as a rocket. His journey went unhindered because he knew Jiang Yao was in peril. Everyone made a determined effort to make room for him.

"Be careful when you carry her. Don't touch her stomach. Later, when you drive, you must keep her steady. Drive slowly," the military doctor said. In the end, he went with them. "I'll go with you. If anything happens along the way, I'll be able to take care of her."

Even though the medicine was starting to take effect, the pill did not have much calming effect. Jiang Yao curled beside Lu Xingzhi's leg and leaned against his body. She did not have much strength to move.

"Hang in there. We'll be at the hospital soon." Lu Xingzhi held Jiang Yao's hand tightly. "Pinch me if it hurts. Bite me if you want. Support our FreeWebNovel.com

Jiang Yao wanted to roll her eyes at Lu Xingzhi. If she still had the strength to bite him, she was not in pain.

After the car drove out of the army base, Jiang Yao gradually fell asleep in Lu Xingzhi's arms. That was probably the first time she slept so well. No matter how bumpy the car was on the mountainous road or how many twists and turns it took, she did not feel them.

Jiang Yao was asleep. Once she fell asleep, she would not feel any pain.

Lu Xingzhi wiped the sweat off her forehead and turned to look at the military doctor. "Is it okay for her to fall asleep?"

"It's fine."

The military doctor shook his head. "She just took medicine, and the effects have started to kick in. Under normal circumstances, she would have to stay in bed to rest. It's good that she's asleep. She won't feel so bad after sleeping."

Lu Xingzhi heaved a sigh of relief when he heard the military doctor's words. He lowered his head and looked at Jiang Yao, who curled into herself. He knew she must have worried about the child. She was also in pain.

She had fallen to the ground and stretched her hand toward him. She looked at him with a flustered and helpless expression. When she told him about the child, Lu Xingzhi felt that his heart had almost stopped beating.

He hugged her and looked at the blood on her dress. He prayed for her to be okay.

Jiang Yao finally reacted when the military doctor treated the wounds on Jiang Yao's hands and feet. She was in so much pain that she moved around in Lu Xingzhi's arms a few times. It felt like she was trying to run away.

The military doctor hurriedly called out to Lu Xingzhi, "Hold on tight, or else it will hurt even more if her wounds rub against her clothes. I'll treat her external injuries."

Lu Xingzhi did as he was told and reached out to pull Jiang Yao's wrists so that the military doctor could apply the medicine more conveniently. Her hands twitched a few times, and her eyelids moved. He did not know if she opened her eyes, but she whispered in a sobbing voice, "Xingzhi, I'm in pain."

It was only a short sentence, but it was like a sharp blade that pierced into Lu Xingzhi's heart.

"Be good; it will be over in a short while."

Lu Xingzhi lowered his head and kissed her cheek. He knew she was in pain, but he could do nothing to ease her pain..
