“Yaoyao, it’s me. Everything’s fine,” Lu Xingzhi lowered his voice and spoke softly into her ear.

Jiang Yao opened her eyes and looked at him as if she was trying to confirm if it was him. Then, without saying a word, she closed her eyes and went back to sleep. She looked exhausted.

It was not difficult to sleep for a few hours. It felt as if the sun had risen just as she opened her eyes to think about something.

When it was close to six o’clock, more and more doctors and nurses were outside. When Jiang Yao opened her eyes, the doctor pushed the door open and walked into the room.

“You just woke up? You must have slept well. How do you feel?” When the doctor saw the patient rubbing her eyes, he smiled at her. When he saw her eyes darting around the ward, he smiled and said, “Looking for your husband? He is downstairs with his friend.”

Lu Xingzhi said, “Do you want to take the report or leave it with me for now? If you want to take it, I will look for you when my wife wakes up. We can’t understand it, but she is a doctor. She can understand it. I will help you talk to the military about that and get them to investigate.”

There was no doubt that those three couples did not know each other. They were not even in the same regiment. They could not have eaten something bad together. Furthermore, the three women could not have agreed to eat abortion drugs together. Support our FreeWebNovel.com

They were also sure that the three women wanted their pregnancies. They were looking forward to meeting and loving their children.

“Colonel Lu, please keep it. I’ll have to bother your wife to help us check if there’s something wrong with those results. It’s fine. Why would it be because she took some abortion drugs?” The soldier clenched his fists. “My wife will not take any abortion drugs. I’m very certain about that.”

“Alright.”

Lu Xingzhi agreed. Then, he took the papers and quickly walked toward Jiang Yao’s ward.

Jiang Yao was in a single ward. Lu Xingzhi was afraid that she was still waiting for him to return, so he rushed back to the room. However, he saw Jiang Yao sleeping soundly when he entered the room. The corners of his lips curled up slightly. He sighed. How could he forget that Jiang Yao was different from usual?

She would have opened her eyes and waited for him to return if it was a usual circumstance. However, her body was weak, so she needed a good rest.

Lu Xingzhi called Zhou Junmin from outside the ward and told him about the situation with the pregnant women. Everyone, including Zhou Junmin, was shocked when they heard what the head nurse said.

“Go and check if the three women ate anything together today,” Lu Xingzhi said.

“Colonel, that is not right. One of the women came here because she was visiting her family, and the other five live on base. They must have cooked by themselves, and the woman who came to visit her family must have eaten in the canteen. They ate different things today. What could they have in common?" Zhou Junmin felt that it was unlikely.

"Tell the chief about this. The rest can wait until I go back tomorrow." Lu Xingzhi thought about it and felt it was not easy to investigate. It was better to wait until Jiang Yao woke up and let her confirm the list's contents first.

After hanging up the phone, Lu Xingzhi stood at the door for a while before returning to the ward. He took off his shoes and lay on the bed before hugging Jiang Yao in his arms.

Jiang Yao did not get a good night's sleep. When she was at home, she would usually not wake up as long as she was asleep, no matter how he moved her. However, merely touching her then made her appear to be on the verge of waking up; it was as if she had been startled..

Chapter 2058: Nothing Wrong With The Results

Lu Xingzhi reached out and touched Jiang Yao's lower abdomen. He gently pressed his face against hers and said softly, "I'm thankful he's still here."

Jiang Yao was aware that Lu Xingzhi admitted to feeling a little terrified due to what had occurred to his fellow soldiers. How much pain would she and Lu Xingzhi be experiencing if she did not have access to the medical system?

They had been waiting for a long time—a surprise gift from heaven. They had been trying to be careful, but their dream could have been taken away. The pain was heart-wrenching.

Therefore, he was glad that their child was alive and well.

"He will grow up healthy in my stomach and grow up well in the future."

His action warmed Jiang Yao's heart. She caressed Lu Xingzhi's chin with her outstretched hand. "We will take good care of him."

Lu Xingzhi held Jiang Yao's hand and did not say anything.

He thought, 'Yes, I will.' He would protect her and the child well.

The two of them spent some intimate time for a while before Lu Xingzhi got Jiang Yao a toothbrush and a washbasin so that she could refresh herself. Then, he accompanied her to have some breakfast. Jiang Yao's appetite was not very good. After eating half a bowl of porridge, she could not finish it. Lu Xingzhi tried to get her to eat more. Then, she retched and almost vomited the food she had eaten. Lu Xingzhi was terrified when he saw that; he dared not let her eat anymore.

"That's enough. I'll put the leftovers away." Lu Xingzhi hastily cleared the table of the leftovers and tossed them in the outside garbage can after noticing how much Jiang Yao was suffering. He opened the window for some fresh air.

Jiang Yao did not feel much better until the smell of food was gone from the room. She no longer wanted to throw up.

Then, Lu Xingzhi told her about the results. It was also a good opportunity for Jiang Yao to change her focus.

“Abortion drugs?”

Jiang Yao’s expression was what Lu Xingzhi had imagined.

“Let me take a look.”

She took the list from Lu Xingzhi and read it in detail. Then, she nodded and said, “The head nurse is right. It’s an abortion drug. The ingredients on the list are very obvious. They are the same type of medicine. They must have taken it around the same time, from the looks of the effects and their physiques, but in varying levels of doses. It looks like the woman who had been one-month pregnant had the highest dose in her body.”

...

Jiang Yao believed that even if she had given it her all last night, she would not have been able to help if the substance was an abortion drug.

She had wanted to help last, but she gave up the idea because her body did not allow it.

However, even if she had made every effort to help, it would have been for naught. The abortion caused by the drug was unavoidable, and the medical system was powerless to stop it.

“Is there anything wrong with the test results?” Lu Xingzhi asked.

“They ran the test in the middle of the night. There were fewer tests then, so the margin for error is quite small. Did the head nurse say anything else? Did she suspect that the test results were wrong or the equipment was faulty, so she re-checked it? Since the results were the same on both occasions, there shouldn’t be any errors. Furthermore, the data on the tests were not the same, so the results shouldn’t be wrong.” Jiang Yao looked at it again, then shook her head. “I don’t see any mistakes.”

“Okay.”

Lu Xingzhi put the test results away and urged Jiang Yao to lie down and rest.

“The doctor said you should stay in bed and rest..”
