

Chapter 2059: I'm Okay Now

"It's okay for me to sit like this. I slept all day yesterday. If I lie down again today, my body won't be able to take it." Jiang Yao smiled. "I care more about my child than you do, so don't worry. I'll take good care of your son."

Lu Xingzhi remained silent after learning that she could still laugh and joke with him. He knew her well. She was not stubborn. She was a doctor. Therefore she knew more about her capabilities and limitations than he did.

Jiang Yao thought that only Mr. and Mrs. Lu were there when Lu Xingzhi mentioned that their parents had arrived. However, they saw their four elderly family members when they pushed the door open. Jiang Yao said, "Why are you all here?"

Mrs. Lu was the first to respond. "Why can't we be here? We were worried sick about you! Your parents had to come when they heard about what had happened. They arrived in town at night to take the morning flight. So, we thought we might as well take the night train."

"How are you?" Mr. Lu asked with concern. Please support our website and read on FreeWebNovel.com

"I'm fine. The doctor is keeping her for observation for two more days. If everything is okay with her, then we can leave, and she can recuperate at home," Lu Xingzhi said. Then he took some chairs for the elderly guests.

Mrs. Jiang's heart bled as she noticed her daughter's vacant expression, and she began to cry. Jiang Yao used to have boundless energy every day. Her daughter was still in excellent shape when she last saw Jiang Yao. Her complexion had been great, as opposed to her sickly appearance then.

"Mom, I'm fine. Don't cry." Jiang Yao became anxious when she saw her mother cry. "Dad, please tell her I'm perfectly fine. The baby is also doing well. You'll see your grandson soon. You'll need to prepare gifts for the baby's arrival."

"I'm fine. I panicked last night. And when I saw you like this, I felt terrible." Mrs. Jiang shook her head and wiped her tears. She was afraid that if she cried, her daughter would cry too. She did not want her daughter to feel more burdens.

"Mom, Dad, please stay with her. I have to go back to the army base to take care of some stuff. I will bring some necessities for her when I'm back." Then, Lu

Xingzhi looked at Jiang Yao and said, "I'll head back to the army base. Are you okay with Mom and Dad?"

Jiang Yao nodded with a look of disdain. "Go on and do your thing. You make it sound like I can't do it without you."

Lu Xingzhi's expression froze, and his heart soured. His wife did not want him to be as reluctant to part with her as he was.

Lu Xingzhi did have something to do, so he did not waste time and returned to the army base. With the four elderly people around, Jiang Yao's mood also improved.

“Yaoyao, I took a month off work. I will take care of you before returning to my work. Your mother and I will also return to stay with you after you give birth. If you want to spend time here after you give birth, then we will wait for you at home. We’ll take you home if you prefer to go home.” Mrs. Lu caressed Jiang Yao’s face lovingly. “It’s hard being pregnant. We’ll cook your favorite dishes for you.”

“Thank you, Mom.”

Jiang Yao nodded. She planned to hire a nanny to help out after she had her baby. Her mom had her hands full with her brother’s child, and Lu Xingzhi’s mother had to work. They lived so far away that she did not want to bother them..

Chapter 2060: She Was In Shock

However, since Mrs. Lu had initiated the conversation, Jiang Yao was understandably moved and could not decline her offer. How could a servant be better than her mother-in-law?

The competition was still ongoing when Lu Xingzhi returned to the army base. Most people were unconcerned about what happened the previous night, so they could still smile and enjoy the sunshine.

Lu Xingzhi attracted a lot of attention when he returned to the army base. After all, many people saw Jiang Yao’s accident. Within a day, everyone in the army knew that Jiang Yao had nearly miscarried when Colonel Ye’s youngest son pushed her. Please support our website and read on FreeWebNovel.com

People with a little common sense realized Colonel Ye would probably die. Everyone saw the way Colonel Lu hugged his wife yesterday. He must have wished he was on the ground instead of his wife.

Although he had been able to keep his child, a rivalry had grown between Colonel Lu and the Ye family.

That was because of Ye Xueli and Colonel Ye’s youngest son. Many unkind people were laughing at how Colonel Ye had raised two troublemakers.

Unsurprisingly, Shao Fucheng was the first person Lu Xingzhi saw after his return. The five met outside the chief’s office. Shao Fucheng was also looking for the chief.

“How’s Doctor Jiang? I heard that your baby is fine too, right?” Shao Fucheng was sincere with his concerns. He had a good impression of Dr. Jiang. When he heard about Doctor Jiang’s accident, he was worried about her.

“Yes, they are fine now,” Lu Xingzhi replied expressionlessly. Then, he stepped into the chief’s office before Shao Fucheng.

Zhou Junmin was inside the room. When he saw Lu Xingzhi, he immediately said, “Colonel.

“You’re back? How’s your wife? How’s she feeling?” The chief waved at Lu Xingzhi.

“My parents and in-laws are with her at the hospital. The baby is fine, but she was in shock, so she couldn’t sleep well,” Lu Xingzhi spoke very clearly. He told the chief that Jiang Yao was scared out of her wits even though she and the baby were fine. She was so scared that she could not sleep well at night.

He hinted to the chief that the matter would not end well.

The chief acknowledged that. He understood the meaning behind Lu Xingzhi's words.

He did not even want to speak up for Colonel Ye. Lu Xingzhi would not let the matter go that easily; the people in Jindo City would not agree either.

Colonel Ye could no longer remain in the army base. He did not know if he would be transferred to another base or forced to resign. That would depend on Lu Xingzhi and the Liang family's intentions.

"These are the test results for the three pregnant women sent to the hospital. My wife said that the same abortion drugs caused their illnesses. Lu Xingzhi handed the list to the chief and said, "These are not accidents. I think they were premeditated and targeted. I suspect that someone deliberately targeted pregnant women in the army. However, I don't know how they did it."

"I agree with Colonel Lu."

Shao Fucheng stood behind Lu Xingzhi and said, "I also think that those incidents were premeditated and targeted at pregnant women."

Lu Xingzhi said, "Please get someone to investigate this. I have to take care of my wife, so I can't do it." He glanced at Shao Fucheng and said, "I think Colonel Shao will be great for this."

"Colonel Shao, you'll be in charge of this then. You have full authority over the arrangements and staffing."

The chief immediately handed the matter to Shao Fucheng..
