

Chapter 2063: Kind Father, Trash Son

The four seniors returned to the room after hearing Jiang Yao's words. They exchanged glances and smiled when they noticed Jiang Yao's haughty expression.

"I should have known you'd do that."

Mrs. Lu smiled and tapped Jiang Yao's head. "Your fainting scared all of us."

"I don't know what to do, so I thought I might as well faint. He's a scoundrel, but I can be a scoundrel too. What else can he do if I've passed out? I won't forgive his family."

Jiang Yao snorted. "Did he really think I'm a soft-hearted person? He took advantage of Xingzhi's absence to force my hand. He thought he could do that because I'm a woman. Did he think I would be afraid of offending our neighbors and Xingzhi's colleague?" Please support our website and read on FreeWebNovel.com

"Yaoyao is right. A scoundrel like him needs to be treated like a scoundrel. Look at the way he made his son kneel. He must have predicted that he needed to do that to get Yaoyao to forgive them. His son is six years old, and if Yaoyao doesn't forgive him, people might say she's fighting a child."

Mr. Lu felt that Jiang Yao's act of pretending to be unconscious was good.

"You're smart. You immediately reacted and knew how to deal with it."

A forced pardon and an uncoerced one were two different things. The former would make people feel disgusted.

"Everything is okay if you are fine."

Mrs. Jiang sighed in relief when she noticed that Jiang Yao was alright. Then, she looked at the time and said, "Your father and I will go to the market. I will cook something for you for lunch."

"Where will you cook it?"

She had wanted to direct them to her room at the dormitory, but it was quite far away. Furthermore, they did not welcome outsiders.

Mrs. Lu said, "Xingzhi has already arranged it. He has booked a hotel suite near the hospital. There is a kitchen that we can use. You don't have to worry about these things. Just tell us what you want to eat. What about some beef?"

Jiang Yao shook her head. "I don't have much of an appetite. Besides, you guys took the overnight train. You don't have to make a fuss. Please rest in the afternoon."

"We'll talk about it later when Xingzhi is back." Even though Jiang Yao did not have an appetite, Mrs. Jiang thought she should still go to the market and buy more of Jiang Yao's favorite dishes. What if she wanted to eat in the afternoon? Perhaps she would eat a few more mouthfuls of her favorite dishes when she saw them.

Lu Xingzhi knew many people in the hospital. He had heard about how Colonel Ye brought people to the hospital and angered Jiang Yao until she had fainted. Lu Xingzhi received the news when he was still at the army base.

When he received the news, Lu Xingzhi was in the chief's office. The people that the chief had called over had returned with the information. They learned that Colonel Ye had left the army base with his wife and child.

Zhou Junmin knew about that. He told Lu Xingzhi that Colonel Ye had sent his wife and child back to their hometown to seek refuge. Most likely, he was worried that Lu Xingzhi would do something to his youngest son in a fit of rage, so he had sent them away early in the morning.

"Everyone says that a kind father makes a trash son. I would slap that child if he were my son. Why should I clean up after him?"

That was what Zhou Junmin said at the time.

The chief was muttering about how the younger man still did not have a wife, let alone a child.. Would he behave like Colonel Ye when he finally had a wife and child?

Chapter 2064: Too Difficult

A few of them were talking about something in the office. Lu Xingzhi stopped midway to pick up the phone. After picking up the phone, his entire being became cold and gloomy.

"What's the matter?"

Even the chief could feel how terrible Lu Xingzhi's mood was.

"Colonel Ye brought his wife and son to the hospital and made my wife pass out from anger." Lu Xingzhi almost gritted his teeth as he said those words. "Good job. We'll wait for him here. He went to the hospital to make my wife pass out from anger before he was willing to come back here."

Lu Xingzhi did not say anything else. He looked at the chief, then at Zhou Junmin. "I'll call my family to ask about the situation." Support our FreeWebNovel.com

Then, Lu Xingzhi left the chief's office and went outside. He did not go far. He called Jiang Yao back from the corridor. The chief did not wait for him. He also called the hospital to ask about the situation.

Then, Lu Xingzhi left the chief's office and went outside. He did not go far. He called Jiang Yao back from the corridor. The chief did not wait for him. He also called the hospital to ask about the situation.

Jiang Yao answered the call. Jiang Yao told him how Colonel Ye had brought his son to kneel before her so that she would forgive him. She also did not hide that she pretended to faint to avoid doing that.

When Lu Xingzhi heard that Jiang Yao did not faint from anger, his cold, ghostly aura shifted. However, Colonel Ye's behavior undoubtedly fueled the situation further.

Lu Xingzhi was on the phone with Jiang Yao outside. The chief also asked about what had happened at the hospital, so he had a general idea about it.

The chief's doctor friends in the hospital reported that Doctor Jiang had fainted because of Colonel Ye and his family. Doctor Jiang's family had shouted and chased Colonel Ye and his family away. They did not know what had happened in the room, so they could not say much about that.

After the call, the chief sat there and tapped on the book with the tip of his pen. He raised his eyebrows and looked at Lu Xingzhi, who was at the door.

He was near the door, so everyone in the office could still hear his voice.

Therefore, the chief could tell he was on the phone with his wife. Since Lu Xingzhi did not rush to return to the hospital, it meant that Jiang Yao was fine.

The chief suspected Lu Xingzhi's wife must have faked fainting. Based on his understanding of Doctor Jiang, he knew she was not so delicate. He knew no doctors were called to Jiang Yao's room after Colonel Ye and his family left. Jiang Yao's family did not call for a doctor either.

It had only been a short while, but she could still talk to her husband, Lu Xingzhi, on the phone. Therefore, Jiang Yao's mental state must have been fine.

Therefore, no matter how he thought about it, she did not seem like someone who had fainted from anger.

However, even if the chief had guessed it, he would not expose her.

He felt that Colonel Ye had underestimated Lu Xingzhi's wife. He thought Doctor Jiang was as easy to manipulate as other ordinary women, so it would not be difficult to ask for her forgiveness.

However, Jiang Yao was not an ordinary woman. It would be difficult for anyone to ask for forgiveness from a woman with a similar temperament to Lu Xingzhi.

However, the chief did not care about Colonel Ye. Even if he wanted to help, he could not stop Colonel Ye's family from seeking death. Colonel Ye's son and daughter had caused trouble for their father. Then, Colonel Ye did not act appropriately when dealing with the situation.

The higher-ups had already tacitly agreed to let Lu Xingzhi handle that matter on his own.

Lu Xingzhi would exert as much pressure as he could on Colonel Ye. It would depend on Colonel Ye's competence to deal with that..
