

Chapter 2071: Severe Vomiting

“Go ahead.” The chief was in no position to blame Lu Xingzhi for being sentimental at a time like that. After all, Doctor Jiang was injured in the army base.

“What’s causing her to vomit?”

Zhou Junmin was worried. “I thought she had a good appetite?”

Did not the sister-in-law have a good appetite in the past? I even heard she ate a large bowl of noodles for a midnight snack. What about the baby? Is the baby okay?”

Lu Xingzhi shook his head. When he thought about how his mother said that Jiang Yao’s face was pale from vomiting and that it was so unbearable that she cried, he did not have the mood to care about the child.

Lu Xingzhi said, “Then I’ll leave now. You guys can continue to investigate the matter here. Oh, right! Just in case, we still have to send people to keep an eye on Sergeant Hu’s father.” Then he quickly slipped his phone into his pocket and dashed out of the chief’s office. Lu Xingzhi said, “Then I’ll leave now. You guys can continue to investigate the matter here. Oh, right! Just in case, we still have to send people to keep an eye on Sergeant Hu’s father.” Then he quickly slipped his phone into his pocket and dashed out of the chief’s office.

Lu Xingzhi arrived at the hospital an hour later. When he arrived, Jiang Yao was already asleep. Perhaps it was because she felt much more comfortable, so her complexion had recovered.

“You’re here?”

Mrs. Lu noticed that Lu Xingzhi was there and heaved a sigh of relief. “It’s good that you’re here. Spend more time with Yaoyao. She is suffering. It’s hard for a woman when they are pregnant. Try to spend some time with her whenever you have time.”

“Did she eat lunch?”

Lu Xingzhi sat beside Jiang Yao’s bed and gently touched her sleeping face. However, he did not expect her to sleep well. The moment he touched her, she opened her eyes and woke up.

“She did not eat. She vomited almost everything in her stomach. After that, she drank some water to feel better and lay down to sleep for more than half an hour.” Mrs. Lu sighed and turned around to find that Jiang Yao had opened her eyes. She was shocked. “Yaoyao, you are awake. Are you still feeling unwell? Are you hungry? Do you want to eat something? Or drink some water?”

Jiang Yao shook her head gently and turned to look at Lu Xingzhi. Then, she moved and leaned against him a little. She buried her face in his palm and rubbed against it.

“Dad, Mom, you guys should go back to the hotel.” Lu Xingzhi turned around and said to the four seniors, “I’ll stay here to accompany my wife this afternoon.”

Mrs. Jiang's brows had not relaxed since noon. She was reluctant to leave and wanted to spend more time with her daughter. However, seeing how dependent Jiang Yao was on Lu Xingzhi, she did not say anything else and nodded. She thought that her daughter was feeling unwell. It was better to let her son-in-law accompany her.

Lu Xingzhi did not see them off since Jiang Yao clung to him. Mr. Lu was the last to leave the room; he closed the door after they left.

"Do you still feel uncomfortable?"

Lu Xingzhi moved his palm and kissed Jiang Yao's forehead. "Mom said that you vomited all afternoon. You were fine this morning. What happened?"

She had not had a good appetite since breakfast. She did not expect that she would vomit like that in the afternoon.

"I felt uncomfortable when I vomited. I even cried. I felt better after I stopped vomiting," Jiang Yao pouted. "Don't you think this is too irritating? I was eating yesterday, and it was so delicious. I couldn't stop eating all day long. I haven't had an appetite since I woke up today. When my mother got me lunch, my stomach churned when I smelled it. However, I didn't eat much in the morning. I told myself to eat more for lunch. I didn't expect that it would be useless to force myself to eat. In the end, I vomited even more violently."

"Do you want a warm cup of milk?" Lu Xingzhi's heart ached when he heard that. He was not prone to sickness, but he knew that vomiting never felt good..

Chapter 2072: Are You Afraid?

"Okay." Jiang Yao nodded and asked, "Did you call me before you came here? I think Mom picked up the phone. What did you tell her about the bottle?"

Lu Xingzhi said, "We suspect someone put abortion drugs in the water." Colonel Ye's son said he pushed you because Sergeant Hu's father instigated him. He said that if he pushed you, Sergeant Hu's father would treat him to a soda."

"Sergeant Hu's father?"

Jiang Yao was stunned. "The man who brought us water yesterday morning? Yesterday, Commissar Lin's mother even praised him in front of us. Didn't we meet him when he brought us water again? I remember him. He was wearing gray clothes. He was about 40 years old."

If it were not for that old madam who praised that man, Jiang Yao might not have had such a deep impression of him.

Jiang Yao was shocked and said, "We don't have any feud with him. We haven't even met him before, and we don't have any grudges against his son. Why did he want to harm me?"

After saying that, Jiang Yao shook her head again. "That's not right. He didn't just harm me. He hurt those pregnant women too. Two sets of parents lost their child yesterday."

However, there was another problem that Jiang Yao did not understand. "Since he had already put the abortion drugs in the water, even if he didn't encourage Colonel Ye's son to push me, under normal circumstances, I would be in the same situation as the other pregnant women."

Jiang Yao might have said under normal circumstances, but her situation was extraordinary. She had a medical system, and it could remove the drugs in the body. It would not have affected her.

However, no one knew that. Therefore, if Sergeant Hu's father wanted to attack a pregnant woman, a bottle of water with abortion drugs would be enough. There was no reason for him to ask Colonel Ye's son to push her.

It was as if Sergeant Hu's father feared the drugs would not affect her. He might have been worried that she would not miscarry.

"Don't worry about that. Your priority is to rest and take care of yourself. I should be the one to worry about those things." Lu Xingzhi passed the milk toward Jiang Yao. He conveniently picked her up and sat her on his lap.

Lu Xingzhi to take care of Jiang Yao. He rang the call bell to summon the head nurse. He got a cup and poured the water so that the head nurse could test it. He asked for the results as soon as the head nurse received them.

After the head nurse left, Lu Xingzhi put the bottle back in its original position and asked, "The water is useless against you?"

Jiang Yao drank quite a lot yesterday. He even gave her the same water after the accident, but it seemed like Jiang Yao's body did not react to it.

"Well, any medicine harmful to my body is useless against me." Jiang Yao playfully winked at Lu Xingzhi. "Are you afraid of my power?"

Lu Xingzhi did not answer but pulled her into his arms.

He held her gently as if he was afraid that he would crush her if he used too much strength.

Soon, he could not control his emotions at all.

His grip grew stronger; he wished he could always keep her with him..
