

Chapter 2077: Get Someone To Keep An Eye On It

“Where’s the note now?”

That surprised everyone. Sergeant Hu’s father’s death was obviously a suicide.

Lu Xingzhi had thought that Sergeant Hu’s father would run away; he never thought he would commit suicide.

“The note has been sent to Luo City. You should get it tomorrow morning. Sergeant Hu’s father committed suicide by lying on the train tracks, and his death was a little unsightly. The weather is hot, so I’m afraid that we can’t send the body to Luo City. If you want to examine the body, you will need to come here.”

“Okay, get someone to keep an eye on him. Also, get someone to check the body. Also, check if he had any contact with anyone else after leaving Luo City.” Lu Xingzhi could not find the time to leave Luo City.

“Okay, I got it,” the man replied. After making sure that Lu Xingzhi had no other instructions, he hung up the phone.

After receiving that news, Lu Xingzhi did not delay any further. He called the chief and Shao Fucheng to inform them of the matter.

Just as Lu Xingzhi had said, Sergeant Hu’s father’s suicide shocked everyone.

The chief’s tone on the phone was filled with disbelief. “It’s hard to understand what kind of mentality Sergeant Hu’s father had to do that. What did he feel when he committed suicide?”

Yes, they could not understand it. Please support our FreeWebNovel.com

If Sergeant Hu’s father used the abortion drug to kill those unborn babies, why would he do that? What was the reason? Was it because he hated babies or because he hated pregnant women?

A person’s psychological endurance should be quite good if they could calmly put the abortion drugs into the water. Why would a criminal commit suicide after committing a crime?

Why would a person commit suicide?

Those who tried to commit suicide must have done so because they despised the world. A successful criminal would not feel that way after they committed a crime. A person who committed a crime for the first time should typically experience a psychological shift that would make the subsequent offense much more heinous.

Lu Xingzhi could only place his hopes on that suicide note. He hoped that Sergeant Hu’s father’s suicide note would give him a good answer.

It was already late at night, but one mystery after another made it difficult for one to fall asleep.

Lu Xingzhi sat on the edge of the bed and looked at the sleeping person. He was afraid he would wake her up if he made a call there. So, he got out of bed and went to the corner to make a call. Jiang Yao did not have his embrace, so she changed to a curled-up sleeping position that was a position where she subconsciously protected her abdomen. It was clear how important the child was to her.

Lu Xingzhi lay on the bed and pulled her back into his arms. That woke her up.

She opened her eyes and saw that it was him. She moved her lips and mumbled something before moving closer to him. However, that was not enough. She reached out and placed her hand on his waist, pinching the back hem with her fingers.

He never imagined she would rely so much on him when they got married. However, he felt an inexplicable pain in his heart.

She had always trusted him, but he always hurt her, again and again.

Lu Xingzhi received a note at seven the next morning. The bloodied note was in a clean envelope. When the person with the note arrived, the doctor happened to check in on Jiang Yao. The two of them spoke, and they talked about Jiang Yao's condition..

Chapter 2078: Getting Discharged In The Afternoon

Lu Xingzhi put the envelope into his pocket and thanked the person who delivered the letter before leaving. Then, he stood at the door, reached into his pocket, and touched the suicide note in the envelope. His gaze fell on the person who was still talking in the room.

"It should not be a problem for me to be discharged this afternoon, right? I don't need a nurse. Staying in the hospital is a waste of resources. And I'm bored." Jiang Yao pouted. "I want to go home."

The doctor smiled and nodded. "There are still many people around even though you are in a single room. The hospital is always noisy. Of course, it's more comfortable to stay at home. Tell your husband or your family members to handle the discharge papers for you in the afternoon. You can be discharged in the afternoon. There's nothing more to discuss after you're discharged. Anyway, you're a doctor too. You probably know more than me."

Jiang Yao's eyes lit up when she heard that she could be discharged from the hospital. Even a luxurious hospital was not comparable to one's own home. Please support our FreeWebNovel.com

The doctor laughed when he saw Jiang Yao's expression. "Actually, if you think about it carefully, living in the hospital is not much different from living at home. You're in a single room with an ensuite bathroom. You can have someone to accompany you and take care of you 24 hours a day. You even have your elderly family members making delicious food for you. Your husband also treats this place as your home, guarding you every day. Why do you still want to go back so badly?"

Jiang Yao pretended not to understand the doctor's teasing of her and Lu Xingzhi. Her eyes darted around the room, and then she noticed Lu Xingzhi was at the door. He was leaning against the door and looking at her with a smile in his eyes.

Jiang Yao winked at Lu Xingzhi playfully. She did not care whether the doctor was still teasing her. She waved at Lu Xingzhi and asked, "When are you returning to the army base?"

"When you're discharged in the afternoon," Lu Xingzhi replied as he walked into the room. "I'll take you and your parents back to the base."

Under special circumstances, even if there were not enough rooms for four people, two of them could stay in the army base's guest house for two days.

The doctor did not stay in the room; he did not want to be the third wheel. He left with the medical records in his hands. He even laughed as he walked out of the room. It was as if he was helpless against the couple who acted as if no one else was around.

He had long heard that Colonel Lu doted on his wife. He had seen that in those two days.

After the doctor left, Lu Xingzhi took out the things in his pocket. Perhaps it was because of her profession that Jiang Yao was sensitive to the smell of blood. She could even smell blood through the envelope.

“What is that?”

Jiang Yao glanced at the envelope in Lu Xingzhi’s hand. “Who wrote you a letter? A bloodied letter, right? It smells of blood.”

“Sergeant Hu’s father committed suicide by lying on the train tracks. This is the suicide note he left behind,” Lu Xingzhi explained. Then, he paused for a moment. When he noticed that Jiang Yao was expressionless, he opened the envelope in front of her and took out the paper dyed red with blood.

The smell of blood immediately became stronger when the envelope was opened. Jiang Yao’s stomach immediately churned. She quickly gestured to Lu Xingzhi to let her go as she clutched her stomach and retched.

Before that day, as a doctor, Jiang Yao had long become numb to blood and the human body. That was the first time the smell of blood made her uncomfortable. She was as pale and uncomfortable as an intern.

In other words, Jiang Yao realized that she was useless that day..
