

Chapter 2079: On The Contrary

Lu Xingzhi ran into the washroom almost immediately after seeing Jiang Yao's reaction. He closed the door and picked up the suicide note again.

He read the first line of the suicide note. The words were neat, but every word almost penetrated the paper. Sergeant Hu's father must have been very calm when he wrote that note. However, the strength of his writing betrayed his mood; it must have been very heavy.

[I know I'm guilty, and I no longer want to continue living in this world. I've done something evil and caused the loss of two lives. I know it's useless to apologize, so I can only offer my life. I have hurt you guys. You guys are innocent. No, this is not right.]

The letter was long, but it got harder to read because of the blood stains. The last sentences were slightly clearer.

[I failed in harming the person I wanted, and I've hurt innocent people instead. Fortunately, you are still young. I wish you a happy future. I will atone for my sins in the underworld.] Please support our FreeWebNovel.com

Lu Xingzhi's gaze stopped at that sentence. He failed to harm the person he wanted to hurt?

Did Sergeant Hu's father have a purpose for doing those things? Then, who was the person he wanted to harm?

Unfortunately, there was no more content at the end, and the long paragraph in the middle was utterly unclear.

Lu Xingzhi kept the suicide note. He wanted to get someone professional to restore its content. Then, he washed his hands. After making sure that there was no longer any smell of blood on the note, he opened the door and walked out again.

When Lu Xingzhi finally came out, Jiang Yao asked, "What was in Sergeant Hu's father's note? Did it say why he did those things?"

Lu Xingzhi shook his head. "Most of the note was stained with blood. I can only read the first few sentences and the last few sentences. Sergeant Hu's father must have had a target, but we don't know the person. He said he did not manage to hurt his target, only innocent people.

Then, Lu Xingzhi said, "However, that suicide note explains the reason for his suicide."

"Did he feel guilty for implicating the innocent people and couldn't get past it, so he committed suicide to atone for his sins?"

That was Jiang Yao's guess, and that was based on whether Sergeant Hu's father was a person with a conscience.

"He only used abortion drugs in the water supply at the martial arts arena, so his target must have been someone with a pregnant family member participating in that competition. His target was one of the four people, including me."

Jiang Yao touched her chin and said, "I've never met Sergeant Hu's father, and I've not had much contact with his family, so logically, it shouldn't be me. Sergeant Hu's father had no motive to attack me."

Lu Xingzhi's eyes suddenly darkened. He shook his head and rejected Jiang Yao's guess.

"You're wrong."

Lu Xingzhi walked toward Jiang Yao. "On the contrary, I think his target

Lu Xingzhi's tone and expression made Jiang Yao's heart jump. His voice was a little hesitant as he continued to speak..

"It's me?"

Then, Lu Xingzhi nodded.

Jiang Yao's expression suddenly changed. "Because I'm the only one who was pushed after I drank the drugged water."

"Sergeant Hu's father instigated Colonel Ye's son. He also drugged the water that you drank. He was afraid that it would not be enough. He must have thought that you had not drunk enough water, so it might not be as effective." Lu Xingzhi thought about that after he came out of the bathroom.

Jiang Yao shook her head. "Maybe you're mistaken? I've never met Sergeant Hu's father, and I'm not familiar with his family. There's no reason for him to target me." Please support our FreeWebNovel.com

Jiang Yao moved from her lying position to a sitting position. She stretched out her hand and nervously tugged at Lu Xingzhi's sleeve. "If I've offended him somehow, why did he choose to kill himself instead of killing me? Why did he only drug me and use a child to push me? That doesn't make sense. There's no explanation for that.

"You're right. I can't explain that. It doesn't seem to make sense because it's unreasonable to drug the water. If he hated you, wouldn't it be better to kill you directly?"

He had chosen to use the abortion drugs. If he hated a person so much, wouldn't it be more satisfying to kill that person?

Since he had the courage to commit suicide, why would he not kill his target before that?

"Chu Sheng is an expert in criminal psychology."

Lu Xingzhi reached out and patted Jiang Yao's head. "I'll send a message to Chen Xuyao and ask Chu Sheng to come to the city to help us."

Jiang Yao nodded. After a while, she grunted in gratitude and asked, "Didn't you say that the suicide note is smudged? Why don't you show it to me?"

Her eyes were not like other people's eyes; even the wall could not obstruct her eyes. She could make out the phrases clearly through the blood stains.

"I'll let other people look at it. If they can't read it, I'll bring it to you then. The smell is bad for you. Don't try to be brave. If you smell it, you'll be uncomfortable," Lu Xingzhi said.

She had wanted to say she could hold her breath and try, but she did not insist when Lu Xingzhi looked like he did not even want to discuss it with her. She decided not to pursue it. Why should she try to be brave when he cared so much about her? After all, blood never smelled good.

Zhou Junmin arrived more than an hour later. He was there to take the suicide note. He came abruptly and left swiftly. Even though he cared about Jiang Yao, he did not have the time to speak to her before he left.

After lunch, Lu Xingzhi brought Jiang Yao out of the hospital. Jiang Yao had wanted to visit the other three women, but she did not dare to do that since they might have been implicated because of her.

She was afraid to see the pain of losing a child etched on their faces. They might not want to see her since she would not understand their pain. She could only offer some words of comfort.

So, Jiang Yao left the hospital. She could not summon enough courage to see the women.

Their parents followed them to the army base. They went to the market to purchase some things before they went home. They bought food that Jiang Yao loved.

They also bought some plus for Jiang Yao; she loved them. She was pretty comfortable during the ride as she enjoyed one.

She usually disliked sour food and would stay away from them. However, she seemed greedy for that taste during those two days..

Chapter 2081: You Don't Have Any Luggage

Jiang Yao was the first of the four women to return to the army base after the accident. Her home was filled with people the moment she returned. The chief and his wife were there, too; they wanted to comfort those involved in the incident.

For the time being, the incident involving Sergeant Hu's father drugging the water with abortion drugs remained a secret. According to Shao Fucheng, Sergeant Hu's family was ignorant of his father's actions. Therefore, that matter was investigated secretly to safeguard Sergeant Hu's family.

Few people were aware that the three military spouses were in difficulty due to consuming the water that Sergeant Hu's father had provided for them. As a result, the army continued to keep silent for the time being.

The competition was still going on. They could only weep and lament the unfortunate and tragic circumstances of the women who had lost their babies.

However, most people still focused their attention on Jiang Yao.

Almost everyone envied how lucky Colonel Lu's wife had been.

Colonel Ye's son pushed her, but she still managed to leave the hospital so early. No one imagined she had such lovely in-laws, and even her parents seemed great. Her husband even cared for her as she stayed and rested in bed. The four seniors took turns looking after her; they conversed with her to pass the time.

It was said that a woman's marriage was her second reincarnation. Many people were jealous that Colonel Lu's wife had such a great deal.

She had great parents who doted on her. They did not mistreat her even though she was a daughter.

Then, she had a pair of tolerant and considerate in-laws who treated her as if she were their own daughter.

Those words were quietly conveyed to Jiang Yao by Moe, who had been out all day. Moe was like a little spy who would lie beside Jiang Yao and talk for a long time every time he came back. He was relaying all kinds of gossip to Jiang Yao.

After Jiang Yao heard it, she smiled, but she did not take it to heart. Her life was her own. She did not care if other people envied her.

Chu Sheng arrived at the army base in the late afternoon of the second day. She was accompanied by Chen Xuyao.

They each arrived with a sizable suitcase. Chen Xuyao threw one of the luggage to Lu Xingzhi as they walked through the door. He looked like he wanted to throw the bag away. "These are for Jiang Yao, prepared by Grandma Liang, Auntie Liang, and my parents. Remember to inform Grandma Liang and the others that you've received them. Otherwise, they will suspect that I threw them away."

Lu Xingzhi raised his eyebrows and took the suitcase. He picked it up and weighed it. It was not light at all. No wonder Grandma Liang and the rest suspected that Chen Xuyao would throw it away.

"You didn't bring any luggage?"

Lu Xingzhi opened the suitcase and looked inside. There was nothing in it that belonged to Chen Xuyao. It was full of nutritional food for Jiang Yao.

Chen Xuyao pointed at Chu Sheng's suitcase. "It's all stuffed into her suitcase. It's so hot in the south, so bringing two sets of summer clothes won't take up much space. Besides, Chu Sheng doesn't wear makeup, so she doesn't need to bring any bottles. Her suitcase is empty."

Chen Xuyao might have looked like he was taking it for granted, but Chu Sheng nearly scratched him in the face when he shoved his things into the luggage.

He pried Chu Sheng's box open and looked at her clothing before placing each of his belongings inside her bag. He locked the bag and handed it to her..
