

Chapter 2141: A Girl's Orientation

"There were also reports in Nanjiang City." Lu Xingzhi frowned. Nanjiang City was very close to Luo City. If Nanjiang City had already reported the case, then it would not take more than two days for the Luo City newspaper to follow suit. Therefore, he must remember to instruct people not to deliver newspapers for the next few days.

"There is no new progress for the time being, but there are two additional conclusions about the murderer—an adult with a strong body, and they are left-handed. At least we have something to look for. In two days, we should be able to find more helpful information," Lu Xingzhi said. After all, not many people would fit those two criteria.

"Okay." Please support our FreeWebNovel.com

Even if it was only a bit of new information, it was better than nothing. Jiang Yao felt a lot better after hearing that. If there was information, it meant that the police were taking it seriously. Instead of being indifferent, they worked daily to find the murderer.

"When you're in Lanning, remember to eat on time. Rest early and don't stay up late. Lanning's air is dry, so you must remember to drink more water. You must remember to apply the sunscreen I bought for you. Don't come home with burned skin." Jiang Yao's last sentence was to tease Lu Xingzhi.

After Jiang Yao gave her advice, she reluctantly hung up the phone. She was pregnant, so she could not travel far even if she wanted to. If it were any other time, she would have been able to relax. At that time, she would have gone to Yuan City to keep an eye on him.

Her eyes and ears were different from ordinary people's, so if she could go to Yuan City, she might be able to help a little.

Mrs. Jiang and Mr. Jiang were both thinking about how to make Jiang Yao eat more every day. After Lu Xingzhi left, Jiang Yao's appetite was even worse than when Lu Xingzhi was around because of her mood.

If Lu Xingzhi did not leave, he could still coax Jiang Yao to eat a few more. Once Lu Xingzhi was not around, no one could persuade Jiang Yao anymore. "What is the point of your father and I raised you since you were young? It is no surprise that our forefathers thought girls would never listen to their families. Your father and I coax you to eat daily, but it is not as effective as a single word from your husband."

"You should eat more. Don't worry about things that shouldn't be your concern. You should worry less." Mrs. Jiang was so worried that her hair was about to fall out.

Jiang Yao stuck her tongue out at Mrs. Jiang and lowered her head to drink the soup. Perhaps it was because Mrs. Jiang had been cooking some sour food those few days, or maybe her morning sickness had gradually slowed down, she had not been throwing up after her meals. However, she still did not have much appetite.

However, most of the food did remain in her stomach, unlike before, when she would vomit with just one bite.

“It’s not that at all; it’s just that my husband spoiled me too much.’

Jiang Yao’s grimace amused Mr. Jiang. “You’re about to become a mother, yet you still act like a child.”

Whenever Mr. Jiang saw how Lu Xingzhi spoiled Jiang Yao, he felt that his son-in-law was right. However, whenever he knew that Lu Xingzhi would not be by Jiang Yao’s side, he would feel sorry for his daughter for being separated from her husband.

As parents, they would always be biased toward their children and hope that their children would have the best.

Mr. Jiang had that kind of mentality.

After the meal, Jiang Yao was about to take a nap when she received a call from the lawyer of Changkang Group’s legal department.

It was not a lie that Jiang Yao had told Li Hong a few days ago that she had handed everything over to Changkang’s lawyer, who had arrived at Luo City the night after that..

Chapter 2142: Recanting Her Statement

The lawyer who came to Luo City was a 40-year-old man. He went to the army base the day after he arrived in Luo City to meet Jiang Yao. Lu Yuqing had told him that the person he would meet in Luo City was Changkang Group’s boss.

So the lawyer kept his mouth shut. Lu Yuqing was not worried that the man would say anything inappropriate. Furthermore, Lu Xingzhi’s lawyer brought the man in.

“Director Jiang, there’s bad news.” Please support our FreeWebNovel.com

The lawyer’s tone was a little low. “Li Hong has changed her statement.”

“What do you mean?”

Jiang Yao did not quite understand. “What do you mean by changing her statement?”

The missing documents were recovered from the research institute where Li Hong’s classmate was not long after the lawyer arrived. Changkang Group wanted to pursue the responsibility of two individuals because the documents had already been opened. He also decided to file a lawsuit.

Although the documents were recovered, Li Hong stole the documents, so she needed to be sentenced. The documents were discovered in the office of the research institute’s director, so the research institute was also held accountable. Furthermore, Changkang Group’s losses had to be shared by all three parties.

Li Hong was officially expelled from the university. Li Hong’s friend was also fired from the research institute where he worked. Initially, everything was going according to the lawyer’s expectations, but unexpectedly, there was a sudden turn of events.

“Li Hong recanted her statement. Her previous statement, she claimed, was made under duress. Her friend allegedly threatened her family. He would have killed her family if she had not told the cops that. In fact, her friend stole the letter. She wanted to get it from her friend, but she was threatened. She had to decide between the document and her own life. The strange thing was that Li Hong's friend admitted to it. As a result, Li Hong was found to be innocent. If we cannot find evidence that Li Hong lied, we will release him."

That was not the end. The lawyer's stomach was filled with anger. "Because Li Hong was coerced, she had to bear less of the responsibility. Li Hong's family also said that they would accept the compensation. No matter how much the court decided Li Hong would have to pay, their family would pay even if they had to sell everything."

When Jiang Yao heard that, she was dumbfounded. That was a godly turn of events. Li Hong's friend had even spent money to buy that letter. When he was caught, he avoided responsibility. How did he suddenly become so kind that he took the blame for Li Hong's crime?

Spending money to steal scientific research secrets and stealing them were two completely different crimes!

"Then how did they explain the money in Li Hong's hands?" Jiang Yao asked.

"Li Hong's friend said that he gave the money as a token, just so that Li Hong wouldn't report it to the police."

The lawyer sneered. "The explanation was so real that even a fool almost believed it."

"I found out that Li Hong confessed after her friend's parents met her friend. Then, they went to meet Li Hong. Then, they went to Li Hong's house to meet her parents with gifts. After that, Li Hong's parents went to meet Li Hong. Then, Li Hong went to the police and said that she wanted to change her confession," the lawyer said.

"It seems the focus is on Li Hong and her friend's parents." Jiang Yao's thoughts sank. "Go find Li Hong's parents."

"That is the weird part. The bad news is also the weird part." The lawyer sighed..

Chapter 2143: Let Me Think About It

"When I found out about it, I went to Li Hong's house. When I arrived, I discovered that Li Hong's parents had left with the other two children. They claimed that their child had committed such a heinous crime that their family was too ashamed to live there any longer. They were afraid their neighbors would point fingers at them and harm their other two children, so they left quickly. Can you guess where Li Hong's parents moved to, Director Jiang?" Please support our FreeWebNovel.com

When Jiang Yao heard the lawyer's question, she was certain that she would not be able to guess it.

"If I didn't tell you, you probably wouldn't be able to guess it even if you racked your brains," the lawyer said. "The four moved abroad. We found the records of them leaving the country, but we still can't find out which country and place they went to."

"The family moved abroad in a short time." Jiang Yao finally understood the bad news that the lawyer had mentioned.

“Are you surprised? According to my information, Li Hong’s parents are just ordinary workers. They have three children, so they have a hard time raising them. Li Hong had to work part-time while she was in university. She didn’t continue her postgraduate studies because her family had no money. They were afraid that they wouldn’t be able to provide enough money for her to complete her studies. It’s a surprise to hear that they’ve moved abroad.”

Jiang Yao was silent after hearing the bad news. What was the reason behind Li Hong’s parents’ weird decision?

How could a low-income family move abroad so suddenly? Where did they get the money?

How did that happen? A research institute would fire someone like Li Hong the moment something like that happened. They would not give money to them.

Most importantly, Li Hong was the beneficiary in that situation.

She went from being a guilty person to an innocent and pitiful victim.

Could someone else have helped Li Hong? Did they give her a large amount of money?

Li Hong’s family background was also simple. According to the three people Li Hong’s family knew, they would not have known anyone like that.

If there was, Li Hong would not have begged then. With such a backer, it was impossible for someone with Li Hong’s personality to talk courteously to others. Li Hong would want everyone to know that she had such a powerful person backing her.

Strange.

That was Jiang Yao’s first reaction after hearing that matter.

“Li Hong’s parents are important. We have to find them,” the lawyer said. “Do you know anyone who has such connections abroad?”

“Let me think about it.”

Jiang Yao hung up the phone and sat alone for a few seconds. Then, she called for Du Chen.

She did not beat around the bush with Du Chen; she said directly, “Is there any way to find out who is in a country? I want to find out about a family of four who went abroad in the past few days. I only know where they landed, but I don’t know where they are now.”

“Other than YN, I can try. I don’t have that much influence in other places.” Du Chen laughed helplessly. “What about the Cheng family?” They have power in many countries. Maybe they can help you.

Chapter 2144: Of Course

“The Cheng family? Master Cheng?” Jiang Yao raised her eyebrows.

Du Chen said, “Yes. The Cheng family had influence in the north in the early years, but they have moved abroad in the past ten years. The Cheng family has also developed very well abroad. Master Cheng might be able to do it. If I’m not mistaken, the Liang family had dealings with Master Cheng in the early years. If the person you are looking for is significant, then ask Master Liang to help you. Ask Master Cheng for help.”

“I got it.” Please support our FreeWebNovel.com

Jiang Yao’s voice gradually became softer. She was absent-minded for a moment before casually asking about Du Chen’s condition.

“Thanks to you, I’m doing very well now. I feel like a new person once again. Thank you for what happened with Zhou Hailan last time,” Du Chen replied with a smile.

Jiang Yao nodded and hung up the phone. She casually threw her phone on the table and lay on the bed with her eyes closed, wanting to take an afternoon nap.

The Cheng family.

Why did it have to be the Cheng family?

Jiang Yao pouted. The last thing she wanted to do was owe the Cheng family a favor. It would be difficult to repay them if she owed them a favor.

However, was there anyone else she knew who had such a powerful influence overseas?

Gu Haoyu?

Gu Haoyu might be fine in his city or surrounding area. He would not be able to do anything about other countries. Otherwise, Du Chen would not have let her go so far.

Did they want to let Li Hong’s matter go just like that?

Was it better to have less trouble?

It should be fine as long as she had the compensation.

Jiang Yao comforted herself, but when she thought of the person behind Li Hong, she shook her head again.

Jiang Yao consoled herself, but when she considered the person behind Li Hong, she shook her head again.

She would always feel anxious if she did not find out.

Clearly, the Li Hong family had never met such a capable and wealthy individual. That person appeared out of nowhere and assisted Li Hong. Why?

Who would benefit from that?

Jiang Yao even had the impression that the person who assisted Li Hong deliberately went against her to make her unhappy.

She would be neither satisfied nor at ease if that matter was not discovered.

Jiang Yao sat up and took out her phone. Du Chen called her just as she was about to call Cheng Jinyan.

Jiang Yao responded quickly. "Do you have any good news?"

"No," Du Chen answered faster than Jiang Yao. "I suddenly remembered something that I forgot to ask you. It's about your college classmate."

"Zhou Xiaoxia?"

Jiang Yao became emotional when she learned it had something to do with Zhou Xiaoxia. "Please tell me."

"The Zhous were silenced. Because of the newspaper coverage, all of Zhou Xiaoxia's relatives were aware that the Zhou family had been murdered out of hatred. As a result, no one dared to assist with Zhou Xiaoxia's family's funeral. Would you like me to organize people to help them?"

"Okay, I'll leave it to you."

Jiang Yao could not go to Yuan City by herself, so she needed someone to help with the funeral arrangements of the Zhou family.

The Zhou family's autopsy had already been completed. Nobody knew when the case would be solved, but it was time to deal with the funeral arrangements.

"Should we bury the Zhou family in their ancestral graves?" Du Chen asked. "Isn't there an unwritten rule in the Zhou family that the women were not allowed to be buried in the ancestral graves? What about Zhou Xiaoxia?"

Even though Du Chen had his own ideas, he checked with Jiang Yao just in case..

Chapter 2145: I Already Know About It

Jiang Yao said indignantly, "What nonsense! Zhou Xiaoxia died with her family. She died on the same day as them. Why can't she be buried in the ancestral grave? Of course, she will be buried together with her family. We must move her sister's grave too. Keep them together."

"Alright. I'll get someone to arrange it. I don't know when we can arrange for the burial. I'll move Zhou Xiaocheng to the family's ancestral grave. Yes, I need to get a Feng Shui master to do that. I pray they can be reincarnated into a wealthy family in their next life." Du Chen did not think Jiang Yao's decision was wrong because he believed Zhou Xiaoxia had died with her family. It would be a pity if they were buried separately.

A lone grave stood alone, just like Zhou Xiaocheng.

"Thank you," Jiang Yao said sincerely.

She would not have thought of that if Du Chen had not reminded her.

Lu Xingzhi's people were only concerned with the progress of the case, not the funeral of the four Zhou family members.

Jiang Yao could not blame Zhou Xiaoxia's relatives because she knew that ordinary people were afraid of danger and instinctively wanted to avoid it. After all, the murderer who killed the four Zhou family members was a heinous man. No one could guarantee that if they helped Zhou Xiaoxia's family, they would not be targeted by that terrifying murderer.

"That makes me feel bad. Thank you. We've known each other for so long, and you've helped me more. I can't accept your thanks for now." Du Chen smiled.

When Jiang Yao wanted to call Cheng Jinyan again after being interrupted by Du Chen's phone call, she felt the need to cheer herself up again.

She had previously assisted Master Cheng in treating his gout, so finding someone should be a piece of cake for him. Then she would just dismiss it as canceling each favor out. They would not owe each other anything.

Jiang Yao felt confident enough to call Cheng Jinyan after thinking about it. She dialed the number. She thought she could be direct or more tactful about her request.

Finally, when Cheng Jinyan answered the phone, he was even more direct than she was. There was no reason for her to be hesitant.

"Are you calling me because of your classmate's death?" Cheng Jinyan's voice was usually as gentle as a person without a temper, but in reality, he was one of those who always had a smile. However, even Cheng Jinnian was afraid of him when he became serious.

Jiang Yao said, "Yes. You know about this?"

"

"I know everything.

Cheng Jinyan did not try to hide it. After all, there were people in the Cheng family who had been paying attention to Jiang Yao. So, the Cheng family was aware of Jiang Yao's situation. They also knew that Jiang Yao's letter had been stolen, so there was no reason Cheng Jinyan was unaware of such a significant case.

"I have already dispatched people to look into the whereabouts of Li Hong's parents. If it is quick, the result should be available in one or two days. Otherwise, it should take four to five days." He tried to console her. "Do not worry. It should not take long to find out if they enter any country through normal channels. However, if they enter through a different route, it may be more difficult and time-consuming."

Jiang Yao did not have to say anything about those topics. The Cheng family had already initiated the investigation..

Chapter 2146: Much Better

After more than ten seconds of silence, Cheng Jinyan said, "If you are in a hurry, I will ask my men to speed things up."

"It's okay."

Jiang Yao subconsciously shook her head, bit her lip, and said, "If you help me this time, it'll cancel out the last time I helped Master Cheng with his illness. We're even."

"If that makes you feel better, you can think of it that way."

Cheng Jinyan's laughter carried a hint of helplessness. She savored it carefully, and there was also a hint of doting, just like when he doted on Cheng Jinnian.

"Are you feeling better? When Xiao Nian returned last time, he did not tell us clearly. We were all quite worried." Cheng Jinnian was afraid that Jiang Yao would have a psychological burden, so he always changed the topic. Jiang Yao was in the army base, so the Cheng family could not get anyone in. Therefore, Cheng Jinyan had not received any news about Jiang Yao for a few days.

"I'm much better."

Jiang Yao responded quickly. "Then I'll wait for your news. I'm taking a lunch break. I'll contact you later."

"Okay."

Cheng Jinyan looked up toward the door when he heard it open. When Cheng Jinnian's small figure appeared in front of him, he was unsurprised. Only Cheng Jinnian would open the door and walk in without saying a word.

"Brother, are you calling Sister? I want to chat with her too!" Cheng Jinnian ran over quickly. He leaped to his feet, grabbed Cheng Jinyan's hand, and snatched his phone. He held it up to his ear, but it responded with a beeping sound.

"She's going to take her lunch break, so she hung up," Cheng Jinyan said.

Cheng Jinnian looked at the phone records and saw that it was indeed Jiang Yao. He pouted and mumbled unhappily, "Dad and Mom always told me not to call Sister, saying that I would disturb her, but I haven't seen her for a long time. I think she is cold to me because I was very fierce when I first met her. Dad is right. Girls don't like intense boys."

Cheng Jinyan could not stop laughing. He raised his hand and patted Cheng Jinnian on the head, unsure how to explain things between adults to Cheng Jinnian.

Cheng Jinyan, on the other hand, thought Jiang Yao was a sharp-tongued but gentle soul. She was a sweetheart. Her mother's concern and love for her came from the bottom of her heart. She had no ulterior motives. Jiang Yao was about to become a mother as well. He hoped that she would soon understand her mother's difficulties and helplessness.

Jiang Yao sent a message to the lawyer after the phone call with Cheng Jinyan, asking the lawyer to think of a way to postpone the progress. Lu Xingzhi was not in Luo City at the time. She was concerned that the person who assisted Li Hong would continue to work behind the scenes to assist Li Hong in confirming her earlier role as the victim.

The lawyer responded to Jiang Yao as best he could. Jiang Yao returned to her bed after that. She was accustomed to sleeping at that time of day, so her eyelids were already twitching.

The electric fan by the bed turned and blew. It was October, and the cicadas in the courtyard had already disappeared. In the living room, the voices of Mr. Jiang and Mrs. Jiang could be heard occasionally. The two seemed to be talking about who Jiang Yao inherited her love of durian from. They were chatting happily, forgetting that Jiang Yao was not their biological daughter and that there was no question of who she inherited it from..

Chapter 2147: Becoming More Successful

However, Mrs. Jiang insisted that Jiang Yao must have inherited her father's genes because Jiang Lei also liked to eat durian. On the other hand, Jiang Lei's personality was more biased toward Mr. Jiang. More importantly, Mr. Jiang was not picky about food.

That afternoon nap was very relaxing. Jiang Yao awoke to find a cup of water by her bedside. The temperature was ideal. Mrs. Jiang must have brought it in not long ago, so she did not need to ask.

Mrs. Jiang would pour water for her every day because she awoke around that time every afternoon.

When Jiang Yao walked out of the room, Mrs. Jiang was on the phone with Jiang Jie, asking about their little grandson.

Jiang Jie and Wang Xian's son was only a few months old. He was fair and plump. When Mr. and Mrs. Jiang arrived in the city, they could not relax as they missed their eldest grandson.

Jiang Jie was assigned a two-bedroom dormitory in town. He installed a phone in his home after he moved in. Wang Xian took days off to care for the child at home.

Mr. Jiang and Mrs. Jiang could easily talk to them on the phone. When they missed their eldest grandson, they could make a phone call and listen to his babbling voice.

"Yaoyao, you're awake?"

Mr. Jiang noticed Jiang Yao coming out of the bedroom and smiled at her. "Half an hour ago, your in-laws called from Jindo City. They purchased two durians and some fruits from Jindo City and will get them delivered here. Your second brother and Xingzhi's second uncle have already established their business. I have heard it is quite large, with many employees.

Jiang Yao smiled. "Second Brother is becoming more successful. He often sends me things from Jindo City. Sometimes, he would go shopping. He always remembers to buy me things. He treats me like a little girl. He would buy me clothes in pink and other tender colors. Oh, right! Half a month ago, he also sent me some milk bottles and some children's toys. He said that he personally picked them."

"You are like a little girl who hasn't grown up. Even your eldest brother's son doesn't have the same treatment as you." Mrs. Jiang handed the phone to Jiang Yao, making fun of her.

Jiang Yao stuck out her tongue and took the phone. Moe lay on the sofa and wagged his tail. His gaze was fixed on Jiang Yao's phone, and his claws pulled at Jiang Yao's pocket. It seemed like he wanted to play with Jiang Yao's phone again.

Jiang Yao handed the phone to Moe, and with a meow, he happily hugged Jiang Yao's phone and jumped into Lu Xingzhi's study. Jiang Yao's indulgence in that pet was nothing new to her parents.

At night, Mr. Lu volunteered to cook for Jiang Yao, while Mrs. Jiang took Jiang Yao for a walk in the courtyard.

The two could hear noises coming from the next door as they stood in the courtyard. Jiang Yao saw Colonel Ye, dressed in his usual clothes, moving things.

Jiang Yao had not gone out for a few days, and Lu Xingzhi was not at home, so Jiang Yao did not know much about the situation next door. However, from the looks of it, Colonel Ye's family was preparing to move away. He was already packing the big pieces of furniture in the house.

"Those children next door..."

Mrs. Jiang shook her head. "I only learned about what Colonel Ye's daughter and son have done in the past two days.

"They are too vicious. It's good that they're moving out. If they continue to be neighbors with you, who knows if their children will do more crazy things?"

Chapter 2148: Continue To Stay

Seeing Jiang Yao's indifferent expression, Mrs. Jiang said, "You haven't left the house for the past few days, so you don't know what happened next door. Previously, Colonel Ye applied to transfer to a local unit in the city, but he did not get it. Later, he applied to change his residence. He used some connections to transfer to a new place. He might continue to stay in the army until he retires."

Jiang Yao's mother only knew about it from other people. Otherwise, how would a woman from the countryside know how to switch employment, local units, and other things?

"Continue to stay in the army?"

Jiang Yao scoffed. "Then Colonel Ye will have to show a lot of courage in the future."

"His son, a child, is encouraged to do bad things just because of a little food. Apart from the fact that the child has not been taught well, the most important thing is that the person who instigated the child is detestable. As for Colonel Ye's daughter, I heard that she likes Xingzhi. That makes me feel disgusted. Tell me, why is the girl so shameless? Why does she have to like a person who has a wife?" Mrs. Jiang said, "Xingzhi is good-looking, young, and promising. Many girls want to kiss him. However, I think that Xingzhi is not that kind of person. So, if something happens in the future, don't throw a tantrum with Xingzhi before you figure it out."

"Mom, you can rest assured on that point. Even if a celestial being descended on the mortal world, Xingzhi wouldn't take a second look at them. In Xingzhi's eyes, I'm probably the divine being descended to the mortal world." After saying that, Jiang Yao laughed dryly in embarrassment. However, she succeeded in making Mrs. Jiang laugh.

After taking a short walk in the courtyard, Jiang Yao became much more energetic. She did not feel entirely weary and like she had just woken up when she returned to the house.

As soon as Jiang Yao entered the living room again, Moe grabbed her phone and dashed over to her, tossing the ringing device to her.

“That’s the second time it’s ringing. Hurry and answer it. After you answer it, I can continue playing! Why don’t you give me a new phone? If I have one, I won’t take yours.” Moe sat on Jiang Yao’s shoulder unhappily. That was because every time he was in the middle of playing a game, a call would come through. That was like an unbreakable spell.

Moe had already pressed the button once and was prepared to return the phone to Jiang Yao after the game was over. However, he did not know who it was. They were persistent and kept calling until he lost his temper.

Jiang Yao glanced at him and picked it up.

It was an unfamiliar number. Jiang Yao patted Moe to comfort him as she pressed the answer button.

Before she picked up the call, Jiang Yao probably would not have thought that it was Li Hong who had called her.

“Miss Jiang. ”

Li Hong’s voice came from the phone. It was slightly distorted and light. “I’m out.”

Jiang Yao ate the washed raisins from the coffee table while lounging on the sofa. She asked in an unflattering tone.

“Are you surprised? Are you angry?” Li Hong burst into laughter. “You thought you could destroy me, but I survived. I begged you so much back then, but you wouldn’t let me go. Are you terribly disappointed? I no longer need to plead with you. I can still step outside in the sunshine and breathe the fresh air. Just so you know, Miss Jiang, I don’t believe Professor Ouyang holds you in high regard. Don’t think you are a good person just because you have a relationship with the Changkang Group. ”

Chapter 2149: Who Moved Her Grave?

“I can tell. Are you here to show off?” Jiang Yao straightened her posture, but the expression on her face was still contemptuous and arrogant. “Li Hong, do you think you don’t have to go back in after you come out?”

“I’m very curious. How much did the person who helped you spend on you? Tell me, why did he help you? Is there anything in you that’s worth him helping you? He shouldn’t take those crocodile’s tears seriously.” Jiang Yao wanted to test her, so she did not say it too directly.

Li Hong’s breathing could be heard clearly on the phone. She stopped, and her breathing became heavier and faster.

When she opened her mouth again, her voice was sharp and harsh. “What does it have to do with you? Anyway, I’m out. There’s nothing you can do to me!”

Li Hong shouted the last sentence and hung up.

Jiang Yao snorted and threw the phone back to Moe. Li Hong’s brain must have been damaged. She dared to call Jiang Yao when she was released. She probably thought that Jiang Yao would freak out and cry when she heard from Li Hong.

Jiang Yao thought that it was funny. If she only had that little patience, would she still be able to eat, drink, and be happy every day?

Jiang Yao did not take Li Hong's call to heart at all. At night, Jiang Yao's father cooked dinner. Jiang Yao ate more that night, and her father felt proud. It was as if she meant that her mother's cooking skills were not as good as his.

Before she went to sleep at night, Jiang Yao made another call to Lu Xingzhi. They just spoke on the phone for a short time—roughly ten minutes. Jiang Yao could tell that Lu Xingzhi was not feeling well.

Jiang Yao assumed that it was primarily due to what transpired during the day. Therefore she purposefully asked only the necessary questions.

Jiang Yao did not feel anything when she hung up the phone, and she had no idea that she would be unable to reach Lu Xingzhi again for the next two days.

His phone would always be off if she could not reach him. Since it had only been two days, Jiang Yao did not worry to the extent that she was unable to eat or sleep since she believed Lu Xingzhi had been assigned to a task where he could not communicate with the outside world.

Li Hong's parents, who Jiang Yao had asked Cheng Jinyan to hunt, had yet to respond after two days. The telegram from Du Chen in Jindo City was the first thing that caused Jiang Yao the most concern.

She received the message after four in the morning. At that moment, Jiang Yao was still fast asleep.

"We can't bury the Zhou family members yet. A few days ago, I found a master to look at the Feng Shui of the Zhou family's ancestral grave. Then, I found a good piece of land. I also told the master about the relocation of Zhou Xiaocheng's grave. The master gave us a good date to do that. Today is an auspicious day, so we followed the master to Zhou Xiaocheng's grave in the evening and prepared to perform a ritual to move Zhou Xiaocheng's grave before dawn. Please Keep reading on FreeWebNovel.com

"When we opened Zhou Xiaocheng's grave just now, the master said that her grave had been moved recently. When we opened the coffin, there was nothing inside. There was no trace of Zhou Xiaocheng's remains."

The sky had not brightened yet. Jiang Yao could not help but feel a chill down her spine when she heard that news.

"Who moved Zhou Xiaocheng's grave?" Jiang Yao felt that the matter was simply unbelievable. How could something happen to a dead person who had already been buried?

Jiang Yao thought for a moment and said, "Arrange for someone to ask around in the nearby village. Ask if they have gone up the mountain recently and if they have seen any suspicious people near the Zhou family's ancestral grave. "

Chapter 2150: Helping The Qian Family

"We can only wait until dawn." Du Chen said, "I am a little suspicious whether the family who killed Zhou Xiaoxia's family felt that killing those four people was not enough to vent their anger. So, they took Zhou Xiaocheng's body out of the grave to vent their anger. Zhou Xiaocheng's grave had recently been moved, and something had recently happened to Zhou Xiaoxia's family. Otherwise, who would want to move a dead person's grave?"

"Mm, I'll go to the village at the foot of the mountain tomorrow morning and ask."

Jiang Yao rubbed her eyes. That phone call energized her.

However, Jiang Yao felt the possibility of getting helpful information was very low.

The Zhou family's ancestral grave was located at the mountain's base, far from the village. In order to visit covertly, individuals who touched Zhou Xiaocheng's grave would do so at night. Naturally, since it was late at night, nobody would notice them.

After answering the phone, Jiang Yao kept her eyes open until dawn.

Jiang Yao informed Lu Xingzhi through text message that Zhou Xiaocheng's grave was empty shortly after sunrise. She requested that he call her as soon as he had some free time. Please Keep reading on FreeWebNovel.com

Jiang Yao awoke early because Lu Xingzhi was not at home. She had to get the milk herself if she wanted to drink it. Mrs. Jiang was shocked to see Jiang Yao holding a glass of milk that she had consumed all of when she got up to prepare breakfast. She was so shocked when she woke up that she initially believed she was dreaming.

"It's the first time I've seen you wake up so early."

Mrs. Jiang walked over to Jiang Yao curiously. "Didn't you sleep well last night?"

Jiang Yao pouted and replied that she was fine.

She slept very soundly in the first half of the night. She did not sleep in the second half of the night. It could be considered insomnia, so she felt energetic.

"Xingzhi didn't call you before I went to sleep last night. Did you wait for his call the whole night?" Mrs. Jiang thought that Jiang Yao did not sleep well because of that, so she comforted her.

"He said that as long as he's on a mission, it's normal to be unable to contact him for ten days to half a month. Sometimes, I can't get to him for several months. '

After a pause, Mrs. Jiang said, "You just have to wait patiently."

"Yeah, we can only wait."

Jiang Yao felt that she had already fallen into the cycle of waiting.

Where were Li Hong's parents? They were waiting!

When would they be able to contact Lu Xingzhi? They had to wait!

As for Zhou Xiaocheng's grave, they could only wait!

After Mr. Lu woke up, he went to the courtyard for a walk. As a person who had been doing farm work all his life, he felt that his bones would rust after a few days of rest. However, he did not expect someone to knock on the door as soon as he arrived.

“Who is it? It’s really early,” Mrs. Jiang muttered curiously as he went to the door. Jiang Yao stood back and watched.

When Mr. Lu opened the door, Jiang Yao recognized the person standing outside the door. It was Shao Fucheng.

“Colonel Shao!”

Jiang Yao took the lead in greeting the person at the door. “This is my father. Oh, right! It’s so early in the morning. Are you looking for Xingzhi? He’s out on a mission.

Jiang Yao remembered that Shao Fucheng had left the army base for some unknown reason before Lu Xingzhi left.

“Colonel Lu isn’t here?” Shao Fucheng frowned. “Well, I can tell you as well.”

Jiang Yao stood out to Shao Fucheng as being unique from other military wives. He believed that he should be able to tell Jiang Yao about the items he had looked into, given Jiang Yao’s intelligence and decisiveness.

“The situation involving Sergeant Hu’s father is concluding.”

Shao Fucheng stood in the courtyard and chatted with Jiang Yao a few meters away. “These past few days, I’ve visited many retired soldiers and learned about some matters that could not be found in the military records. After many investigations, it has been confirmed that Sergeant Hu’s father is most likely working for the Qian family.”

Seeing Jiang Yao’s stunned expression, Shao Fucheng spoke even more clearly, “The Qian family of Jindo City and General Qian have a grudge with Colonel Lu’s brothers. “.