

Chapter 2171: Don't Follow

Cheng Jinnian curled her lips. "Anyway, Dad has already agreed. My plane ticket has already been booked."

Jiang Yao would never let Cheng Jinnian follow her, so she was too lazy to waste her breath on him. The key was to remember how to operate the high-tech equipment.

She did not know where Liang Yueze got those high-tech things. The wireless communicator was a brooch, a pair of diamond studs were a pair of miniature cameras, and a ring had a mechanism with a sharp knife. The person who taught Jiang Yao how to use those things said that the sharp knife could cut through iron like it was mud.

Even though Jiang Yao had never tried to cut iron, she believed him.

"You'll have to wear these things when you leave the house; don't let others see these. Don't touch them deliberately after you've worn them. Treat them as normal pieces of jewelry."

Jiang Yao nodded. Then, she said, "I'm on my way to see my husband, who had been captured for several days, and his fate is still unknown. And I wear an ear stud, a brooch, and a ring that's not my wedding ring? Do you think I'll still have these things when they take my phone from me?"

The expression of the person, who had been teaching Jiang Yao, suddenly changed. That question seemed to make sense.

At least one person with superior observation skills could judge the individual's words and actions based on their appearance.

"It's very small," Chen Jinyan said.

"Can these things be taken apart? The brooch is not big. We can sew it on Yaoyao's clothes. It can be part of the style. Maybe sew that earring onto the collar?" Mrs. Jiang said.

"It should be fine, as long as it doesn't damage the wiring." The man wiped the sweat off his head and nodded.

"Then I'll get to it right away." Jiang Yao's mother quickly stood up to get Jiang Yao's clothes, needle, and thread.

"I'll just wear the ring, even if they might ask me to take it off. It'll be weirder if I don't wear anything. They'll always find something." After Jiang Yao finished speaking, she picked up the cat lying on her knee and handed him to the other party. "This is Moe. He has a very high IQ, so he might surprise you. He loves meat, but he won't starve even if you don't feed him for a day or two. He is sensitive to scents and has lived with us for a long time. Let him run freely. He won't disappear. He'll find you if he has found anything."

"Alright, we'll take good care of him." The person rolled his eyes when Jiang Yao mentioned that Moe would not starve even if he did not eat for a day or two. He looked at Jiang Yao curiously before he got up and left.

Since that person left, Jiang Yao's heart had been hanging on the number 36.

Cheng Jinnian saw that Jiang Yao was sitting there motionlessly, so he moved to sit next to her. He said, "Sister, don't worry. My father and brother are very powerful. Thirty-six hours is a lot of time. Maybe we don't have to go to Lanning tomorrow, and Dad will find my brother-in-law!"

"Yes." Jiang Yao felt the weight in her heart lighten after being comforted by Cheng Jinnian. With the help of the Liang family and Cheng family, they might be able to bring Xingzhi out in less than thirty-six hours.

Furthermore, Xingzhi was not a person who would wait for death. He would think of a way to escape..

Chapter 2172: The Final Tranquility

To some extent, Cheng Jinnian's words consoled Jiang Yao. Jiang Yao regained her composure and asked, "Master Cheng went as well?"

"Yes, Father accompanied Brother."

Cheng Jinnian said, "Father said that he hadn't returned there for many years. Some people don't recognize Brother, so he had to go."

Jiang Yao was stunned. She had no idea Master Cheng's influence in the country would crumble after so many years.

Jiang Yao's heart skipped a beat as she heard Cheng Jinnian's words.

Even though she and Madam Cheng were blood-related, she had nothing to do with Master Cheng. She was a little shocked that Master Cheng would do that for her.

"Sister, can I touch the baby? I haven't felt the baby for so long." Cheng Jinnian reached out with his hand, but he stopped in time to ask.

"Okay." Jiang Yao did not hear what Cheng Jinnian said and just replied to him. When she felt a small hand on her stomach, Jiang Yao's eyes softened. She lowered her head and saw Cheng Jinnian smiling. She laughed softly.

"I'm not made of tofu. You don't have to be so careful," Jiang Yao said.

"Mommy said that babies are very fragile. Even though I believe I am very strong, Mommy always says I am still a baby."

"Aren't you still a baby?" Mrs. Jiang laughed. She found Jiang Yao's younger brother very interesting the first time she saw him. He was very naughty but spoke like a little adult. However, sometimes he always acted like a child. "By the way, how is your mother's health lately?"

Madam Cheng had suffered severe injuries before and was vegetative for a while. Therefore, Madam Cheng's body had been weak ever since she woke up. Master Cheng and his family went to HL to take care of Madam Cheng's health. The weather was suitable for Madam Cheng. It was not until Madam Cheng had improved that the family moved back.

“Mommy has been in good health recently. Even the doctor praised her for recovering quickly. She takes a lot of medicine daily, but she doesn’t even frown. I’ve smelled it before. The medicine stinks. It’s traditional medicine. I think that medicine could probably take my life. It’s too scary.”

Cheng Jinnian would become a chatterbox when it came to his parents. Mrs. Jiang asked, and he could then go on for quite some time about that subject. He would talk about what Madam

Cheng ate, did, and read every day, where she liked to go for a walk, and what flowers she liked.

Mrs. Jiang was not interested in Madam Cheng’s private life. She just liked watching the child describe the life of an elderly person in detail, which showed that the child was respectful. Therefore, she always paid attention to his mother’s situation.

It also showed that the child’s temperament was more mature and steady than that of ordinary children.

Of course, the most interesting thing was that Cheng Jinnian and Jiang Yao were blood-related, and both were chatterboxes..

Chapter 2173: Lost Contact Too

Jiang Yao was very talkative at such a young age. As long as someone was sitting in front of her, she would talk until the other party walked away.

Cheng Jinnian was very similar to Jiang Yao. Listening to the boy’s childish voice, Mrs. Jiang even imagined returning more than ten years ago to when Jiang Yao leaned against her knee, a candy in her hand. Jiang Yao was still young then, and she would have endless conversations with her mother. In the end, the young girl would lean against her feet and fall asleep.

Thirty-six hours and each passing hour felt like a year for the Jiang family and those paying attention to that matter.

Liang Yueze quickly sent the information for the plane ticket to Jiang Yao. He told Jiang Yao that someone would pick her up at the airport. Support our Bonnovel.c0m

The time Liang Yueze booked Jiang Yao’s ticket was at the final threshold of 36 hours.

The plane landed in the last 15 minutes of the 36-hour flight.

Liang Yueze wanted to delay it for as long as possible. If they could save Lu Xingzhi, then they would not need to risk Jiang Yao.

The news of Lu Xingzhi’s incident did not reach the troops in Luo City. Old Master Chen was obviously still suppressing the information, but he knew Chen Feitang was also on the missing persons’ list.

After Chen Feitang went to Lanning’s troops, she tried her best to keep a low profile, so low that not many people knew her identity. It was also a coincidence that the people who knew her identity were not with the troops during that period. Consequently, Old Master Chen had not been able to receive any news from the Lanning unit.

No one informed Old Master Chen either. However, he finally learned about the situation from his good friend, Old Master Liang.

At that moment, Old Master Chen was so angry that he made another phone call to the Lanning unit and scolded the people there.

Chen Feitang was his granddaughter. Chen Feibai had already retired from the army and was living a carefree life. The Chen family only had Chen Feitang in the military.

If Old Master Chen were aware of it, Chen Feitang's father would undoubtedly be aware of it as well. Chen Feibai, who was far away in the border city, was also aware of it. Chen Feibai's first reaction was to call Jiang Yao and inform her.

"Chen Feitang had also lost contact with the army base. She was with the rescue team when they lost contact. I guess the old man will be angry for quite a while when he comes back from Lanning."

Jiang Yao did not understand why Chen Feibai called her and told her those things. When she inexplicably heard Chen Feibai hang up after he finished speaking and listened to the beeping sound, Jiang Yao only thought that Chen Feibai might be feeling depressed.

Everyone knew what it meant to lose contact, especially with those soldiers. Chen Feibai was probably worried that they would be injured.

Chen Feibai was a person with a sharp tongue but a soft heart.

Jiang Yao sighed.

It was already dark outside, but Liang Yueze did not give her any news.

Once it was 10 o'clock, Jiang Yao forced herself to sleep. There might be a tough battle the next day.

She tossed and turned. As soon as she closed her eyes, all Jiang Yao could see was Lu Xingzhi. All she could think of was whether she would miss any messages on her phone..

Chapter 2174: Don't Be Afraid

To fall asleep, Jiang Yao had no choice but to take sleeping pills from the system space that had no side effects on pregnant women.

That was the first time in her two lives that Jiang Yao needed to use drugs to make herself sleep.

When it was time for Jiang Yao to leave for the airport, Mr. Jiang and Mrs. Jiang became increasingly restless. The two of them looked very tired. Mrs. Jiang even accidentally cut her finger while making lunch. In the end, Mr. Jiang finished the rest of the cooking.

"Mom, Dad, Big Ke, and Ah Lu are waiting for me at the army entrance. I have to go." Jiang Yao looked at the watch on her wrist and stood up. She had nothing to pack, so she only had a small backpack. She looked in the bedroom direction and said, "I put sleeping pills in Xiao Nian's soda, so he will sleep for about six hours."

Jiang Yao's words made her mother burst into tears as if she had just touched a switch. "Why don't we wait for another five minutes? Maybe there will be new news in five minutes?"

Jiang Yao shook her head and went up to hug her mother gently. "It's okay, Mom. Maybe they'd rescue Xingzhi before I get off the plane."

"When Xingzhi comes back, why don't we persuade him to leave the army? These days have been too hard." Mr. Jiang's eyes were red. "I can't keep making you worry about him."

Mrs. Jiang held Jiang Yao's hand tightly and refused to let go. Jiang Yao wiped her mother's tears as she gritted her teeth and struggled to free herself. Then, she looked at her father, carried her bag, and left the house.

The moment she stepped out of the house, Jiang Yao reached out and touched her stomach. She said to the child in her stomach, "Baby, I wish us good luck. I wish you good luck too."

She wished her and Lu Xingzhi good luck—she would receive his message before the plane landed.

She wished the child good luck, too—after that incident, he would still be in her stomach.

She would do her best to protect that child, but she would also be helpless if she had no other choice.

At that moment, Jiang Yao hated the medical system's self-destructive program. At that moment, she wished she could kill Qian Yunen and rescue Lu Xingzhi.

Her parents chased after her to the door, three to five steps behind Jiang Yao.

Big Ke and Ah Lu stood at the army entrance and waited. There were several cars parked at the gate. They were all arranged to protect Jiang Yao to prevent the person who wanted Jiang Yao to go to Lanning and Qian Yunen from attacking her on the way to the airport.

Jiang Yao unexpectedly saw a person behind Big Ke and Ah Lu.

It was Madam Cheng.

"Director Jiang." Big Ke walked toward Jiang Yao and said, "Some of these people are from the Cheng family. We can't stop them."

"My child." Madam Cheng pushed Ah Lu, who was in front of her and shouted at Jiang Yao, "Don't be afraid. Master Cheng and Jinyan are in Lanning. They will protect you."

After saying that, Madam Cheng started to cry. "Protect yourself and the baby. We will wait for you and your husband."

Madam Cheng did not dare to refer to Lu Xingzhi as her son-in-law.

Madam Cheng felt guilty. She knew that she did not fulfill her responsibility as a mother and did not protect her daughter when her daughter was young. When her daughter grew up, she still did not protect her well..

Chapter 2175: Can't You Stay?

Madam Cheng knew how dangerous the situation was. That was why she was so scared. She wanted to kidnap Jiang Yao and hide her so that she would not go to Lanning.

It was akin to pleading for Jiang Yao's safety. Lu Xingzhi was her son-in-law, not her daughter, no matter how good he was. Her son-in-law could be anyone, but she only had Jiang Yao as her daughter.

However, she did not dare to do such a thing because she knew that Jiang Yao would hate her even more once she did it.

Compared to living alone, she knew Jiang Yao would gladly take a risk and bring her child's father back.

"It's time to go," Big Ke said as he looked at the time.

Jiang Yao grunted and looked away from Madam Cheng. She bent down to get into the car.

Just as Big Ke was about to start the car, Jiang Yao could not help but look at the person outside the vehicle. "Wait a minute."

Jiang Yao opened the car door and got out. She stood there and hesitated for two seconds before walking toward Madam Cheng. Suddenly, she took Madam Cheng's hand and placed it on her stomach. Her voice was a little stiff when she said, tremblingly, "Touch him."

Maybe she would say goodbye after that.

She would let the older woman say goodbye to the baby.

After all, Madam Cheng was the baby's grandmother.

They were related by blood.

Jiang Yao's action was so sudden that Madam Cheng was caught off guard.

The baby seemed to have sensed it. When Madam Cheng's hand touched Jiang Yao's abdomen, he suddenly moved as if he were saying hello. He moved a little and then returned to his calm state.

Madam Cheng's tears, which she had managed to stop with much difficulty, fell again.

"Yaoyao, can't you stay? Don't go to Lanning. Come with me. Master Chen can keep you hidden. No one can find you. No one can hurt you." Madam Cheng did not dare to say those words initially, but she pleaded with her after that.

If Jiang Yao did not go, she and the baby would remain safe. The child would come to that world safely.

If she went, what if the person who captured Lu Xingzhi had something to do with Qian Yunen?

Qian Yunen was able to lay his hands on Jiang Yao in the army base, demonstrating how badly Qian Yunen wanted to get rid of Jiang Yao. Would he let Jiang Yao's baby survive?

Was Qian Yunen not a pervert and a lunatic?

Even if the people who took Lu Xingzhi and the others had nothing to do with Qian Yunen, Jiang Yao was a woman whose family member had fallen into their hands. If they were not careful, she might lose her baby.

Pregnant women were more fragile than ordinary people, and the child in a mother's womb was equally weak.

"I'm leaving." Jiang Yao pulled her hand back and got back into the car. She looked at Big Ke and said, "Let's go."

Big Ke nodded and started the car. The first two cars drove in front, and Big Ke followed behind them.

The car slowly left the army entrance, but Jiang Yao's ears were still filled with Madam Cheng's cry, pain, reluctance, and self-blame.

"Big Ke, can I ask you a question?" Jiang Yao's voice was a little choked up. When she spoke, her eyes looked out of the car window..

Chapter 2176: Smooth Sailing

"Director Jiang, you want to ask me about Madam Cheng, right? Let me guess. You probably want to ask why Ah Lu and I are mercenaries. Do we miss our parents? Ah Lu and I are both alone." Big Ke laughed. "There's nothing to miss."

Jiang Yao pursed her lips. "Why didn't I realize you were so smart before?"

"Director Jiang, Ah Lu and I saw what happened between you and Madam Cheng." Big Ke laughed self-deprecatingly. "To be honest, we're quite envious of you."

Ah Lu said, "That's right. At least your parents are well. Big Ke and I are orphans."

"Director Jiang, Madam Cheng didn't abandon you on purpose back then, so don't hate her."

"I don't hate her," Jiang Yao explained hurriedly. "I don't, because I'm also very happy. I didn't live a miserable life because of her absence. My parents gave me what she did not, and they even gave me twice as much."

"She gave birth to you, but she did not raise you. She was forced into that situation. She loves you, and she indeed cares about you. Your family members in the Jiang family don't oppose you and Madam Cheng recognizing each other as family members, so you don't have to feel any pressure. You've returned her favor. You don't owe her anything, and you acknowledged her too. You're lucky that you have another family member who loves you."

"Director Jiang, I'm sure many people have said you're very lucky, right? Your life is smooth-sailing. You have the right to choose. No one will blame you, and no one will put pressure on you. Young Master Lu has already said that he wants you to live your life as you please, so why do you have to think so much? It's good to do as you please."

Jiang Yao gradually quieted down.

"Director Jiang, the most unfortunate thing in your life is the relationship between you and the Lin family's mother and son. However, the heavens have compensated you with a better relationship. The heavens favored you; maybe you saved the human race in your previous life." After Big Ke finished speaking, he laughed. "I don't know how many brothers and sisters in our mercenary group have the same word written on their profiles. Most of us are orphans."

Big Ke and Ah Lu felt they had said enough when Jiang Yao did not say anything, so they quieted down and did not say anything else.

Jiang Yao did not get comfortable until the plane took off.

She stared at her phone every second before the plane took off, wondering if it would suddenly ring in the next second.

So her mood was very depressed and nervous during that time.

The plane took off, marking the beginning of her journey to Lanning. As a result, her mood improved.

Things would fall into place. She could have told Ah Lu that God favored her. She had already encountered a reincarnation. What else would she be afraid of?

After more than four hours, the plane finally landed at Lanning's airport. Jiang Yao did not receive any messages from Liang Yueze during the flight. Her phone did not ring until the plane touched down.

"Big Brother, the plane had already landed on the taxiway." Jiang Yao was extremely calm.

"We still haven't found the person. After you get off the plane, try to stall for time. Be careful." Liang Yueze's voice was terrifyingly gloomy..

Chapter 2177: It Won't Be Waiting

"Okay." Jiang Yao was not surprised by the outcome. The other party would not be hiding there if it was so easy to find.

Liang Yueze considered it but did not inform Jiang Yao that they had discovered something. They had located the first few individuals who had lost contact with the captain.

However, they were all dead.

They were buried in the barren wilderness, their bodies incomplete. When Liang Yueze's men arrived, a pack of vicious wild dogs was feasting on them.

Big Ke and Ah Lu accompanied Jiang Yao as they exited the plane. The original plan was for their people to mix with the passengers, leave the airport together, and continue to follow Jiang Yao.

However, no one expected Big Ke and Ah Lu to be pestered by two women carrying children as soon as they left the airport. The two women insisted they were human traffickers for snatching the children and insisted that Big Ke and Ah Lu follow them to the police station.

Snatching children, no matter where they were, was a heinous crime. The airport exit became chaotic almost immediately. A large crowd became enraged and began fighting with Big Ke and Ah Lu.

The crowd was dense and chaotic, and Jiang Yao was quickly dispersed. She turned around to see Big Ke and the others, including everyone protecting her, after carefully protecting her stomach and finally finding a small space to rest. They were all trapped inside and could not move.

Jiang Yao pressed her lips together. It did not take much thought to realize that the show had been planned. Except for her, the rest of the passengers on her flight were trapped inside, and no one could get out.

The cell phone in her pocket rang. Jiang Yao picked it up and pressed the answer button. "I'm already at Lanning Airport."

It was the number that had previously called her, so the moment Jiang Yao opened her mouth, she said she was already at the airport. She feared that if she waited too long, that person would harm Lu Xingzhi.

That person said, "You're punctual. I know you brought people with you."

"Really? Then you're smart," Jiang Yao sneered sarcastically.

"I know you must be eager to find your husband. So, come out and immediately go to a silver car at the door. You have five minutes. It won't be waiting for you after that."

The other party hung up without giving Jiang Yao a chance to speak.

Jiang Yao clenched her phone. After a while, the phone sent a text message. After reading it, Jiang Yao deleted it.

The people Liang Yueze had arranged to record the conversation between her and the person must have already done so. They would follow her once she got into the car.

The people trapped inside did not rush out because Liang Yueze and Master Cheng still had people outside.

It was just an act. It was a competition of acting skills to see who could act more realistically.

Jiang Yao followed the other party's instructions and found a car. She got into the car.

Unsurprisingly, the other party took off everything on her body, including the ring, earrings, and necklace, and even reached out to pull the flowers on her clothes. They gave up after seeing that those flowers were sewn onto her clothes.

Those people quickly saw through the ring. They spoke a few words before handing it to a man in his 30s sitting in the front passenger seat..

Chapter 2178: What Else Could There Be?

"These earrings and necklaces are also nice. They appear to be valuable. Listen, that woman's man is extremely wealthy. These items will undoubtedly be valuable if sold." As a result, the earrings and necklaces were also divided.

Jiang Yao hid in a corner with a frightened look. "Where are you taking me? Didn't you say that you were taking me to see my husband? Where is my husband?"

"What's the rush? Aren't we taking you now?" the man in the car shouted. "Don't worry. Your man is still fine. His arms and legs haven't been dismembered yet. He's not dead yet. He's still breathing."

"Still breathing? Is he injured? Did you guys attack him?" Jiang Yao looked so worried that she was about to cry. "Didn't I say not to touch him?"

“It’s your man’s fault for being stubborn! We told him to talk to you, but he refused. Our young master was angry, so he attacked him. How can you blame our young master? It’s your man’s fault for refusing that!” The big bearded man who was driving spat. “He looks like a pretty boy, and he’s a soldier. But didn’t we beat him up as well?” Support our Bonnovel.c0m

“If you speak again, I’ll cut off your tongue before we let you talk to the young master.” The person who kept the ring cursed coldly. The bearded driver immediately quieted down.

Jiang Yao immediately understood. The people in the car listened to the words of the person in the front passenger seat.

Besides the two people in the front, there were four other people in the car. They looked like locals.

Jiang Yao knew that the car was heading toward Danmu Town. After the car left the airport, it did not head toward Lanning. Instead, it went around a remote path so they would not be discovered. The car behind did not dare to follow too closely on that kind of path.

“Drink some water.” The person sitting in the front passenger seat suddenly handed a bottle of water to Jiang Yao.

Jiang Yao was wary of that kind-hearted action because that person had given her the impression that he was not a kind person.

“What’s in the water?” Jiang Yao asked.

“What can it be? It’s a long journey, and I’m afraid you won’t settle down, so I’ll let you sleep.”

That person did not hide it. Then, he looked at Jiang Yao with disdain. “You’re afraid of death? Drink it. It won’t poison you for the time being. It’s just some sleeping pills.”

After saying that, he cursed again. “Coward, there are actually people who are afraid of death.”

Then, they laughed. Jiang Yao looked fearful as she took the water. Those people were speaking of death like they were not afraid at all.

There were people who were not afraid of death?

They were a group of people who had gathered to do evil things and were not afraid of death.

Jiang Yao was speechless. Then she looked at the water in her hand and pretended to drink it. She raised her head and took a small sip. When that person became impatient, she picked up the water and gulped down a few more mouthfuls with the look of a scared little rabbit.

She was unconcerned, even though there was a ton of medicine that could kill her.

They could not possibly bring her to Lanning just to poison her to death, so if they said it was a sleeping pill, it should be a sleeping pill.

Jiang Yao calculated how long it would take for the sleeping pill to take effect under normal conditions. Then, she nodded as if she was very sleepy but did not dare to fall asleep, then dragged it out until the end and fell to the side as if she was bending over to protect the child in her stomach. She appeared to be sleeping..

Chapter 2179: She's Asleep?

"She's asleep?"

Jiang Yao had just closed her eyes when she heard a question from the large bearded man in front of her. Then someone looked at her and said, "She's asleep. Those are strong sleeping pills. She was trying to hold on just now. This woman is too sentimental. She's pregnant, and yet, she has come to Lanning. She said that she did not care about her husband and did not want a disabled husband. However, it looks like she does care for him."

"Why wouldn't a woman be loyal if she married someone? Besides, her husband is extremely powerful, so she is not worried about him. Wouldn't she be a widow if something happened to her husband?"

A few of them argued whether Jiang Yao truly loved her man or just wanted his money.

Jiang Yao listened to them and pretended to sleep. On the other hand, those people who heard the discussion through the bugs on Jiang Yao's chest were also embarrassed.

They did not want to hear about that topic. Could they change the topic, like what was their boss' name? Who was their young master? What exactly were they going to do?

Jiang Yao guessed that those people were probably not core team members, so they did not know much, and there was not much to talk about because they did not know much.

Jiang Yao pretended to be unconscious, but the people who heard the conversation knew they had given Jiang Yao sleeping pills. They became anxious and reported the situation to Liang Yueze.

Liang Yueze and Master Cheng were racing against time to search for Danmu Town. They could not be too obvious because they were afraid of alerting the mastermind behind the scenes, so they had to do that in secret. Even if Moe was there, there was no more tension in the search.

To Moe, the north was a vast place with all kinds of animals. It was a vast place but mixed with all kinds of strange smells. It was difficult to distinguish Lu Xingzhi's scent there.

Jiang Yao expected to be sent to Danmu Town, but that was not the case. About 20 kilometers from Danmu Town, the car drove onto a small mountainous road that diverged from the main road, which could only accommodate a small car and was winding and rugged. The road was uneven, and the car drove very bumpily and much slower than the main road.

That road tested the driver's skills and courage because the slightest carelessness would result in a steep cliff on the side, and they would die if the car went off that.

The car drove for nearly an hour on that mountain road before arriving at a populated area that should not be considered a village. The houses here were sparsely scattered, and they were all built with mud and heads mixed together. They looked quite new, and they should have been built recently, and there were not many houses there at first glance.

Jiang Yao was carried and thrown into one of the rooms. After that, the people left.

She leaned on the bed and did not move. Instead, she surveyed the area within a few kilometers. There were only about seven or eight houses, but the largest and most imposing one was the innermost one. Besides the large area, the helicopter parked in the courtyard was the most eye-catching thing.

Chapter 2180: Meeting

Jiang Yao was unfamiliar with airplanes, but a few letters were printed on the fuselage. Jiang Yao had no idea what they meant, but she had remembered them.

Jiang Yao realized that the people who had brought her there could not enter the house. They had no choice but to stand outside and speak with the gatekeeper. That could be interpreted as confirming the hypothesis that the few people did not hold high positions in the organization.

“Young Master, the people are here. They said that they found a car following them on the road, but it did not take long for them to lose them. They are familiar with the terrain and roads here, so it would be easy for them to lose those them. Even if they found this place, they were not afraid. The roads here are narrow, and military trucks can't enter. Even if they entered, it would be convenient for our people to ambush them. We will definitely make it so that they won't be able to return.”

“Let's go and meet the woman,” a man's voice that sounded like the spy was heard.

The man's back was toward Jiang Yao; she could only see that he was a thin man about 1.7 meters tall. His voice sounded a little similar to the voice on the phone.

However, when the man turned around and left the courtyard with his men, Jiang Yao saw the man's face clearly.

Jiang Yao could recognize that person's identity with just a glance. It was, without a doubt, Qian Yunen.

The 18-year-old youth's appearance was still young, but what did not match his age was the vicious look on his face. Qian Yunen looked like Madam Chai, but upon closer inspection, some parts of his facial features resembled Qian Zhibin.

Jiang Yao's heart trembled. Just how capable was Qian Yunen?

Jiang Yao used the fact that those people had yet to arrive to say to the wireless communication device, “The young master is Qian Yunen. He has a helicopter parked here. The road leading to this location is extremely narrow, and large vehicles will not be able to enter. This is not a village but a barren mountain that has been opened up.”

A message was received from the communication device a few seconds later.

That group of people moved quickly. When they walked in, Jiang Yao had just laid down. She had just finished speaking when she noticed a young man in a white coat among the crowd. That man did not appear to be much older than Qian Yunen. He looked to be in his early twenties.

Qian Yunen pushed the door open and walked in. He stood in front of the bed and looked down at Jiang Yao. Then, his gaze fell on Jiang Yao's face. He turned his head and looked at the man in the white coat beside him. He said, “Give her an injection to wake her up.”

Before Jiang Yao could react to what the injection was, she noticed the man taking a syringe from his white coat's pocket. He injected the yellow medicinal liquid in the syringe directly into Jiang Yao's body through her arm.

Even if the medicinal liquid did not affect Jiang Yao's body, the injection caused her such pain that she nearly cried out.

Pervert! How thick was that guy's needle?

Even though she was a doctor, she was afraid of needles.

'When I get free, I'll give him eight to ten needles!'

It should be something being tested because it was a reagent. Jiang Yao listened to Qian Yunen's words and guessed it was something that could jolt her awake. She did not know when the medicine would kick in, and she was afraid of being discovered if she woke up too early. She would also be discovered if she woke up too late.

Just as she was wondering when she should wake up, she heard Qian Yunen ask impatiently, "How long will it take for her to wake up?"
