

Love At First Night

Chapter 218

After she got changed, she looked for something in her suitcase. She fumbled for a while and suddenly saw a platinum ring in the corner. She looked at it with some doubt, and then something bad instantly occurred to her. But when did she put this ring in her suitcase? She thought about it and found that she did not take it when she left that night. Now its appearance reminded her of the humiliating thing that night. Judith narrowed her eyes. Since she was back, why not do something? She was no longer the former Judith Cooper. She had now transformed herself.

She thought about it, and then a touch of cunning crossed her beautiful big eyes. She thought, "Julissa, you hit me with your car and made me lose my family. You ruined my life. Now I will let you pay everything back!" She got up, and a strong hatred appeared on her face. She glanced at Lucas and found that he was still washing up. She then took out another phone from the interlayer of the suitcase. Julissa had never changed her phone number these years. She turned on her phone, quickly typed a message, and sent it over. Adam prepared this SIM card for her. No one could find her information via it. After sending the message, she turned off her phone and put it back in the interlayer. The Cooper's was as luxurious and noble as seven years ago. On the weekend, Julissa received a message when she was enjoying her breakfast with her family at home and chatted. She just glanced at it as she thought it was from the service provider. But then she quickly picked up the phone and saw that it was from an unknown number. "You hit someone and ran. Do you think you can escape?" Julissa trembled in fear because of these simple words. The phone fell on the table and bounced down, making a crisp sound.

Sherly and Baron looked at her in surprise. Her face was pale and there was obvious fear in her eyes. Sherly asked doubtfully, "Mom, what's wrong?" His words pulled Julissa back from her daze. A trace of panic appeared on her elegant face as she struggled to pull out a smile, "It's nothing. You guys have breakfast. I didn't hold it steadily." She slowly lowered her head and picked up the phone on the ground and then walked upstairs. As she turned around, her face was filled with worry and fear. After doing that guilty thing, she had always felt uneasy. But that happened a few years ago. She had done many bad things, but she still lived a prosperous life. Gradually, she did not believe that she needed to pay the price one day. However, this strange message reminded her that her happy life was coming to an end. It must be Judith! No, she knew nothing about what happened back then. Only the Coopers knew that. Who could she be? Was that woman Judith? She looked exactly like Judith. Julissa did not believe that two persons would look so similar. Julissa returned to the room upstairs, uneasy. When she opened the door, everything extremely luxurious inside could be seen.

Scott stood in front of the bright mirror, putting on a tie. Although he was already middle-aged, he looked still handsome with his thick black hair, extremely charming.
