

Chapter 221

Several people let the director of the medical office clean up the disheveled face, especially Zhang Fan, who was taken care of. Another transferred doctor has not been said much. The main job of the director of the medical department is to find the doctor's mistakes and kill the danger in the bud in advance. Those who can be competent as the director of the medical department are the top doctors, otherwise you can't find the mistakes even if they are not proficient in business. Even if they are wrong, you can't tell them!

How can you educate people and use official positions if you don't even agree with them? That's bullshit! We should convince people by virtue. After the others went out, the director specially left Zhang Fan, "sit down and have some tea. These innocent people are busy. The hospital is full of patients, and the elderly and children at home have colds. If the flu doesn't pass, I guess I'll fall too. " Then the director poured a cup of tea for Zhang Fan.

Almost all the doctors who can drink the tea of the director of the medical department are at the senior level, and Zhang Fan is a special case“ Thank you, director. " Zhang Fan quickly got up and took the tea.

"You said you were dangerous or not. What if you had heart failure! The doctor scared the patient to death. He can be on the news directly! " The director of the medical department also said with a little palpitation.

"I really didn't care at that time. One was going to suffocate and the other was not flexible."

"I know that when I say you, I love you. If I don't love you, I don't bother to say you. The Chinese New Year is coming soon. How about going home this year? If you don't go home, I have a task I want to give you. " The director of the medical department began to play games.

Chinese New Year is a tradition of China. At this time of year, everyone is homesick and has worked hard for a year. People eagerly start to return home, no matter how hard and far the road is, because this time is the time for family reunion, especially college students like Zhang Fan who come from other places miss their hometown more. But he also knew that Zhang Fan loved surgery and studying, so he gave Zhang Fan a pie.

In fact, even if he doesn't give pie, Zhang Fan won't go home. This year, we just moved here, and all the relatives and friends of Shaohua's family know about Zhang Fan and Shaohua's relatives, so Shaohua's parents mean to invite everyone to dinner and gather their relatives and friends during the new year. And Zhang Fan's sister wants to come here.

Because of Zhang Fan, the family conditions are better. They don't worry about food and drink. There are new houses. The little girl also misses Shaohua a little. Now the little girl's living expenses are played by Shaohua every month. They have more contact. Zhang Jingshu occasionally calls Zhang Fan. Sometimes no one answers. Zhang Fan is either in surgery or on the night shift. Jing Shu doesn't want to interfere with her brother's rest.

Originally, I planned to let my parents come to the frontier for the new year this year. By the way, I confirmed the affairs of Zhang Fan and Shaohua. As a result, Zhang Fan's mother didn't know that it was not suitable for engagement this year. So the couple had a quarrel and changed the plan based on the principle of trusting what they had and not.

Zhang Fan is also helpless. Even if the old man believes it, you can't ask them to come to the frontier. They won't come either, because Zhang Jingshu wants to go to the frontier. When Jing Shu goes to the frontier in a few days, they will travel with the old workers in the yard.

Zhang Fan didn't listen very reliable and wanted to stop him from going. As a result, his father said to Zhang Fan, "why don't you go? I don't spend your money!"

This tour is really wonderful. You can travel to the capital for seven days. When you go, you can fly, when you come, you can have a berth, and the charge is very cheap. You can eat, drink and stay alone. Zhang Fan felt unreliable as soon as he heard it. He was worried that his father and mother would let someone pull him for a sale.

"Mom, don't I give you enough money to spend? You change to a slightly more formal travel company. Besides, what are you doing in the capital for the new year? It's so cold. "

"Stone, you don't have to worry about us. We are all old men and women. What's the fear? Moreover, this company is very formal. Aunt Li's family on the fifth floor of our family have been there before. You must take good care of yourself and look after your sister. She doesn't listen to me more and more. You say something about her. When we come back from our trip, we'll be ready to clean up and look after your children! "

My mother is more reliable than my father. Zhang Fan is relieved to hear that someone has been there.

"Be careful when you go out. Don't be reluctant to spend money."

"I see. My stone has grown up and knows it hurts. Say hello to the Shaohua family for me. The fortune teller is very accurate. The daughter-in-law of the Chen family can't conceive a child. Guess what. They calculate a divination and conceive the next month. It's accurate! "

Zhang Fan hung up reluctantly. No wonder the business of such a large IVF center is bad. It turned out that there are too many immortals!

"Director, you said, I won't go home if I have a task. You don't speak easily. You have to raise your spirit anyway." Zhang Fan said solemnly. He is also slowly learning to speak with a mask. Mature? ha-ha!

"You're getting smarter and smarter, boy. But that's very encouraging. " The smiling face of the director of the medical office blossomed. He got up from the office seat and walked to the sofa next to Zhang Fan. After patting Zhang Fan on the shoulder, he continued: "well, the director of anorectal department is going to get married! Please take the marriage leave, because it's the second marriage, so it's quiet. I'm going to travel and get married quietly. "

As he spoke, the director of the medical office smiled obscene, alas! Everyone gossip.

"Oh, so it is. What do you mean? " Zhang Fan asked. The director of the anorectal department, in his forties, divorced his original mate for unknown reasons. He found a young, at least a director. He was a little embarrassed to entertain his colleagues and simply came to a trip to get married.

"Because this department is assigned out late, and the doctors can't afford to pick up the beam, I wonder if you're still transferred anyway. If you can't do it next month, let you pick up the anorectal department."

"Director, how long do you want me to work? Don't put me directly in the anorectal department at that time!" Zhang Fan deliberately exaggerated.

"There's no way for you to decide the anorectal department. The dean will certainly disagree. About a month. How about not being familiar with anorectal department? Don't let anorectal patients be embarrassed at that time. Don't say you, I can't get down. "

"It's not a big problem. Which other doctors in the anorectal Department ~ ~" Zhang Fan doesn't want to make the anorectal doctors complain about him for a month. It's unnecessary.

"Ah! There is no one in the anorectal department. There are only a few inpatients now, and it will take three years for those closest to the main treatment. Therefore, as soon as their director leaves, the Department will be closed! "

"OK, if the director can see me, I'll go." As soon as Zhang Fan heard that they were all inpatients, there was nothing to worry about. They were all at the same level. There was nothing to pay special attention to. Just speak with technology.

"Well, you take a two-day break first. Then I'll call you and take you to work. The youngest department director of our hospital in history will be born! Ha ha! " The director of the medical department joked.

"Hey!" Zhang Fan who let the old man flirt can't talk.

I'm really tired this week. There are too many patients. Zhang Fan hasn't finished writing several medical records. Seeing that the Chinese New Year is coming, the family hasn't cleaned up yet. Zhang Fan wants to help, but the old couple directly refuse. Joking, they know how busy the hospital is with the flu in the city.

Shao Hua is also at a critical moment. Reading and learning is a matter of perseverance, and she is so strong that she can't. If she wants to win the CPA in a year, she has to work hard and stay up late day by day.
