

Wonder Doctor Chapter 2211

“Actually, I want to go back, but I just can’t find where your house is!”

White Mist said with a look of resignation.

“How can anyone not know where their home is! Can you find a better reason for lying?”

Lin Ran was speechless, could you even call this a reason?

“I really don’t know where my home is!”

White Mist said, somewhat aggrieved.

It was true that she had run away from home to play, but she also really didn’t know where her home was.

It was a place where it seemed like once you came out of it, you couldn’t find your way home at all.

“Alright, no matter what, you’d better be able to leave to marry a safe little world!”

Lin Ran said as he stopped in his tracks.

“I’d like to, but I don’t know the way!”

White Mist said with her head bowed.

“I can give you the star map!”

Lin Ran said.

“Do you hate me that much?”

White Mist said with a little red in her eyes.

“Give me the star map you’ve said many times, is it a sure thing that you can get there with a star map?”

“Or do you really hate me that much that you have to drive me away!”

“If that’s the case, why did you save me in the first place!”

White Mist said with tears streaming down her face.

“If you hate me, I’ll just leave!”

With that White Mist turned around and left.

Lin Ran was also helpless, he didn’t want to be the villain himself.

But the places he was going to were all war-torn small worlds, when he had first encountered White Mist in the second war-torn small world.

She was the one who was captured by the Puppet Sect.

He had easily rescued her, but it turned out that this ninny still wanted to follow him.

Lin Ran really couldn't help it either.

"It's good to be gone, at least the other small worlds are safe!"

Lin Ran comforted himself in his heart.

"Ah!"

Suddenly, a woman's shriek came violently from the back.

Lin Ran was startled and thought that the white mist had run into some kind of danger.

But as soon as he turned his head he froze, only to see that White Mist was standing not far behind him, looking at himself and giggling.

"Are you funny?"

Lin Ran was speechless.

"I knew it, you still care about me, I don't want to go to another small world by myself, or you could pay me to go!"

White Mist laughed.

"I'm not available!"

Lin Ran refused without even thinking about it.

It wasn't like he was out on a trip, and he had easily found the location of the third war-torn small world.

Asking him to go somewhere else was definitely out of the question!

"Then I'll go with you, I don't have anywhere to go anyway!"

White Mist said and ran back.

"Do as you please!"

Lin Ran was speechless and didn't bother to say more.

In fact, he had noticed that since he had an extra White Mist by his side, the journey had been a lot less boring!

....

Shuttling through the void, there was nothing within the long void passage, and in the absence of the white mist.

Lin Ran was all alone, silently cultivating while rushing along.

But since there was white mist, there was a little more joy on this road.

When it came to the White Mist, Lin Ran was also confused.

He didn't know which clan this girl was from.

Even she herself couldn't say for sure, she said.

"All I know is that my family is in a small village surrounded by white mist!"

"So Mum and Dad named me White Mist growing up!"

"I didn't like the name though, I grew up wanting to see the world outside the white mist!"

"So they found one and slipped out!"

Lin Ran was speechless even as he listened, according to what this nee-san said, she had already slipped out of her home for at least half a month.

But up until now, none of the family members had actually come out to look for her!

The two of them chatted along the way and finally arrived at the third war-torn small world a month later.

"Take care of yourself when you get inside, there's no need for me to say more!"

Lin Ran looked at the white mist and said.

"I know, don't worry!"

White Mist nodded and said.

Seeing this, Su Chen said no more, greeted him, and instantly, with a point of his palm, a gap appeared in the void barrier in an instant.

The gap was only the size of a fist at first, but it soon kept expanding, eventually forming a vortex that was as tall as a man.

"Let's go!"

Lin Ran greeted and instantly walked towards the vortex.

"Hey! Wait for me!"

Seeing this, White Mist was busy shouting, while her entire body quickly ran towards Lin Ran, pulling his hand in the process.

"Hey!"

Before Lin Ran could finish his sentence, the two people had all fallen in towards the vortex.

....

The third small world.

According to Lin Ran's ranking, it was the third in the radical battle level shoot!

When he first got the star map, Lin Ran had ranked the three of these small worlds with the most intense warfare, from one to five.

According to his thoughts, these small worlds were originally shelters sought for themselves by people who did not want to participate in the Immortal Emperor Wars.

It should reasonably be very peaceful.

But now five of these small worlds had erupted into a great war.

This situation was clearly not quite normal.

It was likely that within this small world of washing, there was a shadow of the Divine Shadow Clan hiding.

This was why, Lin Ran had decided to explore these five small worlds.

The more war-torn they were, the more likely it was that people from the Divine Shadow Clan existed.

And only if he found someone from the Divine Shadow Race would he be more likely to find where Song Nuan's physical body was trapped.

"Why is this place so dark!"

A voice suddenly rang out.

Only then was Lin Ran certain that the voice was that of the white mist.

"Don't make a sound!"

Lin Ran spoke.

"Shouldn't we have already reached the small world on earth? Why is it so dark around here! It can't be that it's still dawn!"

White Mist asked in confusion.

Lin Ran, however, pulled her over and covered her mouth with his hand in the process.

"Hey! What are you doing! I may be following you, but you can't plot against me!"

White Mist was busy transmitting her voice.

"Shut up, I'm not interested in you!"

Lin Ran was busy saying back.

"Why are you hugging me if you're not interested!"

White Mist was mortified.

"Don't make a sound, listen to yourself!"

Lin Ran said busily.

White Mist was stunned at his words, listen? Listen to what?

She was busy suppressing her breathing, and soon there was silence around her.

“What exactly are you listening to?”

White Mist couldn't help but continue to ask.

However, this time Lin Ran didn't even pay her any attention.

White Mist felt very curious, and at this point, she could only be patient and listen to the movements around her with all her might.

But time passed, but there was no sound at all!

Just when White Mist was wondering what the hell Mu Yang was up to!

Suddenly a sound of footsteps came in from outside.

“Someone is coming!”

White Mist busily transmitted his voice.

“Don't talk and listen!”

Lin Ran busily returned.

White Mist nodded not to say more.

In the darkness, the sound of footsteps soon stopped.

There seemed to be only two people.

“Lord Ghost, this experiment was a success, I'm absolutely sure we can proceed to the next stage of the experiment!”

One of the men spoke up.

“Very well!”

Suddenly a hoarse voice sounded out.

It should be the Ghost Lord that the other man spoke of!

“Lord Ghost, then I wonder about the people inside this mountain!”

The person who had spoken before asked.

“The usual rules! Ten minutes to settle it, and our matter must never be leaked out!”

Lord Ghost said.

“Yes! My subordinate will go and make arrangements now!”

The person who spoke first immediately left respectfully.

Soon there was no other movement in the room either.

Lin Ran and White Mist heard the clouds in the darkness, having no idea where this place was.

And what was going on!

Wonder Doctor Chapter 2212

It was quiet outside.

Lin Ran and White Mist were hiding in the darkness, unable to hear or see anything.

They didn't dare to radiate their divine sense out.

In such a war-torn small world, powerful enemies could exist anywhere.

If one was not careful, it was likely that both of them would have to be captured.

They waited up patiently in the darkness.

It turned out that the people outside had never left.

After ten minutes had passed, suddenly both Lin Ran and White Mist felt a fluctuation of power.

This power fluctuation appeared and disappeared very quickly.

It took almost only a few seconds to disappear from outside.

And almost at the same time, a scream came from outside.

There were the cries of women and children, the screams of men, and the roars of anger.

All sorts of sounds mingled as if it were hell on earth.

"Should we go out!"

White Mist couldn't help but ask with a voice transmission.

"We don't even know what's going on outside, are we going out to find death?"

Lin Ran said.

"Why don't you know the situation, something must have happened outside, can't you hear the children's cries?"

White Mist couldn't help but say.

Lin Ran didn't say anything.

His heart was also very uncomfortable, he knew that something was definitely going on outside.

But he really couldn't go out.

His own life he could give up, but if he couldn't find Song Nuan.

He admitted that he was a bit selfish, and that other people's lives were also lives.

But what did this have to do with himself!

He was not a Bodhisattva, how could he possibly care so much!

“What do you mean you’re not talking!”

White Mist couldn’t help but ask.

“I can’t go out!”

Lin Ran spoke.

“I didn’t expect you to be this kind of person! You didn’t save me in the first place!”

White Mist said angrily, while breaking free of Lin Ran’s restraints.

“Do you think I wanted to save you?”

Lin Ran was also furious.

“You get out! You save out now, and you see if I still save you!”

Lin Ran said in a cold voice.

“You mix and match!”

White Mist said and slapped towards Lin Ran.

However, Lin Ran caught White Mist’s wrist directly and said with an icy gaze in the darkness.

“You can call me cold-blooded, call me whatever you want!”

“I didn’t come here to be a bodhisattva, I have my own business to do!”

“I don’t care what you want, just don’t follow me again!” ,

Said Lin Ran as he waved White Mist away and didn’t speak!

White Mist didn’t say anything more, just gave Lin Ran an icy look and turned around to go out!

Lin Ran’s heart was also very uncomfortable.

This was not his way of dealing with people in the world, but it was all he could do now.

If this doppelganger of his own died, he would have to let his djinn come over and risk his life.

How could this be fair to Qin Bing and the others!

There was only one Lin Ran in the world, and he couldn’t manage so many things.

So he could only choose to protect the people closest to him!

Lin Ran also prepared himself, ready to leave at any moment.

White Mist had by now touched the wall and was ready to go straight out.

But who knew that just at that moment, a girl’s cry suddenly came from far and near.

It seemed that someone had run in from outside.

“Little Yin you listen to Mother, we don’t have time, I have to go back to help your father!”

“You go in! Get in there!”

A woman’s pleading voice came through.

Lin Ran could tell that the woman seemed to be the little girl’s mother.

“Mother, Little Voice wants daddy, not you guys!”

There was a hint of desperation in the little girl’s crying voice!

“Little Yin, Mother wants to too, but right now your father is still in danger, will you wait here for Mother!”

“There’s really no time, just listen!”

The woman said with some excitement.

But the little girl seemed to be frightened too.

One by one, she refused to leave her mother.

At the end of the day the woman suddenly said.

“Little Yin, if you don’t want your father to die then go in yourself!”

The little girl finally stopped crying this time and she said timidly.

“But I’m afraid, it’s too dark inside!”

“Don’t be afraid, Mother will come to you later!”

“Do as you’re told!”

There was no movement outside.

But soon, in the darkness, Lin Ran and White Mist heard a creak.

Then a bright light actually appeared in the darkness.

In the light, a small figure trembled and walked in.

There was darkness all around and only a bright light at the entrance.

“Bang!”

As the entrance was closed, the light that was there disappeared.

The little girl’s body trembled even more.

She sat down in place and buried her head in her lap.

Lin Ran could tell that she was scared!

But she had been holding back!

There was still hope in her heart, hope that she could wait until the day her parents came to pick her up!

But Lin Ran knew that day would not come!

Because that woman's scent, shortly after she left, had dissipated!

"Go to sleep!"

Lin Ran suddenly spoke.

In the darkness, a white light lit up and entered the little girl's mind.

"What are you doing!"

White Mist said angrily at the sight.

"Why do I need to explain to you!"

Lin Ran gave White Mist a bland look and followed up with a wave of his hand to take the little girl into the scroll space.

"You!"

White Mist looked bewildered.

However, Lin Ran was not even bothered by her.

Lin Ran turned to look at the entrance, and with a bang, the wall at the entrance collapsed instantly.

A large amount of bright light shone through.

Lin Ran adjusted to the light outside for a little while, and immediately stepped out.

"Wait for me!"

Seeing this, White Mist was busy following, and a smile appeared at the corner of her mouth.

She had known that Lin Ran was not a cold-blooded person.

But I don't know why he wasn't willing to take a shot in the first place!

....

Outside was a hall, but it was already stained red with blood at this point.

Countless people had fallen to the ground.

There was a mess everywhere.

Lin Ran rushed towards the place where there was a fight.

Soon after, he saw some people in black.

These people were not strong and were killed by Lin Ran in almost one shot.

But he seemed to have come out a little too late.

When the other men in black saw how strong he was, they all ran away!

He had only captured one of the men in black and stripped all the memories from his mind.

However, there was a ban hidden in his mind, so Lin Ran didn't get a lot of information.

He immediately rushed towards the side of the courtyard, which had by now fallen silent.

He saw a man and a woman leaning against a large willow tree.

Above the willow tree, the green leaves were like a forest.

But the person under the willow tree was lifeless.

"They!"

When White Mist saw this scene, he couldn't help but have red eyes too.

"If we had come out earlier maybe they would have."

"It was their lives!"

Lin Ran spoke up.

"If everything had to be about ifs, then there would be no need for people to die every day in the sky!"

"Why are you so stone-hearted!"

White Mist couldn't help but say.

Just now, he thought this guy had some humanity at last, and now he was saying that.

"Whatever you say!"

Lin Ran didn't bother to argue and waved his hand to put both of the little girl's parents into the spatial scrolls.

Incidentally, the big willow tree was also taken away.

After doing all this, he didn't stop and instantly shot up into the sky.

Now he could see clearly that there was a huge manor below.

There was also a plaque hanging at the entrance, with three words written on it.

Immortal Sound Pavilion!

Wonder Doctor Chapter 2213

Three days later, on top of a mountain, Lin Ran was sitting on a huge rock.

Behind him was standing White Mist.

"It's been three days, haven't you gone to meet her yet?"

"How is she in a good mood?"

Lin Ran opened his mouth and asked.

“Calm down for now, but probably after seeing you.”

White Mist didn't say anything further.

On the first day Lin Ran left with the little girl, she woke up.

And also learnt what had happened.

Originally, White Mist hadn't wanted Mu Yang to talk about it, after all, they were standing on very different sides.

Moreover, the little girl's parents had indeed left, so telling them at this point would definitely cause unnecessary misunderstandings.

But Lin Ran insisted on telling the little girl the truth.

And that was when the misunderstanding between the two began to emerge.

“Go and meet, there's always a problem to be solved!”

Lin Ran said as he got up.

He hadn't come here by himself for a holiday, very all things were waiting for him to solve, he didn't have much time to waste here.

“Weng!”

A spatial wave rippled around him, and in an instant Lin Ran appeared within a formation.

This third war-torn world was drenched in war all year round, and it was not easy enough to carve out a pure land at the top of this mountain.

Within the formation space, a large willow tree was swaying in the wind.

It was the same one that Lin Ran had brought out from the Immortal Sound Pavilion.

And at this moment, under the willow tree, two strands of graves were stacked side by side.

A little girl was sitting in front of the graves, staring.

There was a strong sense of longing in her still somewhat reddened eyes.

“Continuing from where we left off, if I remember correctly you seem to be ten years old already!”

Lin Ran appeared and asked directly.

“What's it to do with you!”

The little girl didn't turn around and her voice seemed icy cold.

“It has nothing to do with me, and since you are still so determined, I will give you two ways!”

“First, I'll leave you here and you'll fend for yourself!”

“Second, I'll give you a chance to avenge your parents!”

“Your choice!”

Lin Ran’s voice was bland.

“Give me a chance? You’d be so kind as to give me a chance?”

“How come you didn’t give my parents a chance back then?”

“Even if you had come out a minute earlier back then, my parents might not have had to die!”

The little girl suddenly got up and looked at Lin Ran, with anger in her eyes.

Lin Ran’s expression remained bland, only a hint of helplessness flashed in his eyes.

“You said it yourself, those were your parents, not mine!”

“Then why did you save me!”

The little girl questioned angrily.

“I’m still wrong for saving you?”

Lin Ran laughed.

“Your family’s calamity was something you were destined to experience, I was just a passer-by!”

“Saving you was your chance, not saving your parents was their fate!”

“You think I’m wrong?”

Lin Ran asked rhetorically.

“You’re right, but why did you save me?”

The little girl questioned.

Lin Ran saw this and said no more, he knew he couldn’t even explain himself to the other party!

“I’ll take you to a place, if you still think so when you return, then do whatever you want!”

Lin Ran said with a wave of his palm instantly a stream of true qi had surged into the little girl’s mind.

The true qi poured in and instantly the little girl felt like her entire being was in the clouds.

Following that the consciousness began to become blurred.

◦ ◦ ◦ ◦

This was a space constructed from karmic reincarnation.

Everything within the space was created by Lin Ran’s intention.

The only person who was real was the little girl.

She seemed like a creator, looking down at everything in the entire space world from above.

Whether it was people or magical beasts, everything was under control.

She found herself as if she had any connection to the whole world.

But it was as if the whole world was connected to her again.

At first the whole world was uneventful, but soon war began.

A woman was born, and she became the most powerful being in the world, thanks to the creation of heaven and earth.

But all her life she had one regret: the one she loved most had died when she was very weak.

She always had an obsession to bring her beloved back to life.

To do this she gave much, and after quelling the war in the small world.

She faded away from the throne and gave it to a follower.

And she herself searched the mountains and rivers to find a way to resurrect her beloved.

But God played a big joke on her.

In the second hundred years of her search, all her followers had already died.

Even the follower who had inherited her throne had died, and the current heir had no idea she existed!

This successor was atrocious and soon the whole world was plunged into war.

The people living at the bottom were in dire straits.

The woman wanted to make a comeback and re-quell the misery of the whole world.

But just then she received a message, a message that would resurrect her beloved one.

She hesitated, she did not know what she should choose.

She had spent her whole life trying to resurrect her beloved.

But now this little world needed her too.

If she went to save the suffering beings in this small world, she would miss the chance to resurrect her beloved again!

Not knowing what choice to make, she looked up into the sky.

There, a little girl was watching her.

The little girl told her with a very sure look in her eyes that you were going to save all beings.

The woman agreed, and she righteously quelled the misery of the whole world.

But when she returned, the chance to resurrect her beloved had dissipated.

She began another long wait and search.

But again, two hundred years later, as she waited once more for her chance to come.

The world that had calmed down had fallen back into misery.

Once again she looked to the sky.

And this time, the little girl hesitated.

She did not dare to be making decisions for the other side.

These whole four hundred years, did she see that she had made the right decision?

The world is divided when it is united, and divided when it is united!

There is still talk of ancient times, and peace in particular is something that can be decided by one's own power?

How many 200 years does a woman have?

Even if she stood up for herself again, what could she do?

In two hundred years, the world will have changed hands, and will she be allowed to reappear then?

The little girl understood that her power would not be able to influence the rules of the world after all!

Why should she be made to suffer when she was just an ordinary person who wanted to be with the one she loved?

The little girl hesitated.

She left tears in her eyes.

"That's enough! Stop it!"

Finally the little girl looked to the sky, where there was endless darkness.

The darkness seemed to be touched by this one word of hers.

Innumerable darkneses collapsed.

When she saw the light again, the whole scene before her eyes had all changed.

She was still sitting under the willow tree, but all around her was already a white blanket of snow.

There were still tears in her eyes, but the anger was gone.

She rose violently and rushed forward to Lin Ran, who was standing with his hands in front of her, and knelt down.

"Please take me as your disciple, I want to avenge my parents!"

A simple sentence had made her attitude clear!

"It's good that you can think about it, all human strength is limited!"

"Don't pin your hopes on others, the people and things you want to protect, you can always only rely on yourself!"

Lin Ran's voice was bland, while turning his head.

"From today onwards, you are my Lin Ran's first disciple in the Immortal Realm, give your name to Xian Yin!"

Wonder Doctor Chapter 2214

"It's Master!"

Xian Yin was busy saluting.

Xian Yin's real name was Li Yin, her father's name was Li Feng Xian and her mother was Tian Yin, and this Xian Yin Pavilion was created by them.

Later on, Lin Ran also learnt that the Immortal Sound Pavilion was mainly about making a kind of puppet.

According to Immortal Sound, their Immortal Sound Pavilion's puppets were different from ordinary puppets.

In this small world, puppets were a very common thing.

It could even be said that everyone used puppets.

However, the puppets made by their Immortal Sound Pavilion were completely different from the ones outside.

Because the puppets they made were not only powerful, but also possessed their own intelligence.

In order to make such puppets with intelligence, not only do they need a lot of materials, but they also need to be able to use their divine sense.

They also need to be guided by their divine consciousness.

Therefore, the puppets of the Immortal Sound Pavilion were very famous in the whole small world of war!

Originally, their Immortal Sound Pavilion had ignored the world and just concentrated on making their own deficit.

In this war-torn little world, it was a paradise of sorts.

But who knew that she, who should have grown up with a carefree life, would experience something like the extermination of her family.

"Do you know who the murderer is?"

Lin Ran asked.

"My uncle! Lang Chen!"

Xian Yin said, anger clearly in her eyes.

"Lang Chen?"

Lin Ran frowned slightly at his words.

“Yes! That’s him!”

There was an icy coldness in Xian Yin’s eyes.

“Lang Chen was my father’s sworn brother and was brought back to Immortal Sound Pavilion by my father in his early years of upheaval!”

“But who knew that he would actually do such a thing!”

“How strong is he?”

Lin Ran asked once again.

“One hundred and eight thousand realms!”

Immortal Voice said.

Lin Ran nodded at his words.

One hundred thousand eight hundred thousand realms, although it was weak for him at the moment, was somehow stronger for Xiangyin!

“Then, do you want me to take action, or do you want to take revenge yourself!”

Lin Ran didn’t bother with nonsense and asked directly.

“If I can, I want to take revenge myself!”

Xian Yin said, with determination in her eyes.

“Hm!”

Lin Jean nodded and fell into contemplation.

One hundred and eight thousand realms, it had taken Lin Ran quite a few years to cultivate to this realm from the time he had arrived in the Immortal Realm.

Xian Yin was just a young child who hadn’t been involved in the world, how easy would it be to reach or even surpass this realm!

“In this way, how about I make a pact with you!”

Lin Ran said with a wave of his palm, and instantly a huge barrier emerged from the entire mountain.

“This place has been cut off from the outside world by an array I’ve used!”

“I’ll department a time acceleration formation here, one year outside, ten years here!”

“I’ll give you ten years, that’s a hundred years here!”

“Within ten years, if you can avenge yourself, you will go!”

“If after ten years, I’ll do it for you!”

“And within those ten years, you will most likely not see me!”

Lin Ran said.

What he said was also true, he still had to go out to look for the shadows of the Divine Shadow Clan after he had settled down Immortal Voice.

In the first two small worlds, he hadn't stayed for long.

But this small world he was prepared to stay for more time.

After all, the five warring small worlds had now reached the third.

He didn't want to miss any hints either.

Ten years was not only for Xiangyin, but also the time he had given himself as well.

“Thank you, Master!”

Xiangyin didn't say much, she just bowed respectfully.

White Mist stood by and watched quietly, wanting to say something, but moved his mouth and still didn't say anything.

Xiangyin turned and left, not knowing what to do!

White Mist saw this and then said.

“You're really going to let her take revenge, she's still just a child!”

“Doing so will make her sow the seeds of hatred!”

Lin Ran smiled but shook his head and said.

“In such a war-torn small world, living without strength is a luxury!”

“What's more, I think not allowing her to take revenge is what will breed hatred in her heart!”

“There are some things that can't be broken until they are broken, and to get her to come out of this matter!”

“One has to let her go through it on her own!”

“But!”

White Mist still wanted to say something else, but Lin Ran waved his hand.

At the same time, she saw that Xiangyin, who had just left, had returned.

“Master, this is the situation of our forces in this small world! You might need it!”

Lin Ran was stunned at his words, not expecting Xiangyin to be so clever, he did indeed need this information.

“Master, if you come across Lang Chen outside, please spare his life, I want to go and get it myself!”

Xiangyin looked at Lin Ran and said seriously.

Lin Ran saw this and nodded his head.

Time passed day by day, and soon it was three days later.

Lin Ran and White Mist had also decided to leave.

Originally, Lin Ran wanted White Mist to stay behind.

However, this girl insisted on following him, so Lin Ran had no choice but to leave behind a thought of divine awareness, so that he could stay here with Xiangyin on the one hand.

On the other hand, he could also guide her in her cultivation.

When they left, there were not many words.

Lin Ran and White Mist went straight away.

Although Xiangyin was young, she had already experienced a lot of things.

Lin Ran wasn't worried about whether she could carry it off!

"Where are we going?"

In mid-air, White Mist spoke up and asked.

"To the Moon Sword Villa!"

Lin Ran spoke.

"Moon Sword Villa? Why?"

White Mist didn't understand.

This Moon Sword Villa could be quite extraordinary.

On this small world, the major powers had been fighting for a long time.

One of them was this Moon Sword Villa.

In the distribution of powers in the entire small world given by Immortal Voice.

The Moon Sword Villa was definitely at the top of the list.

Leaving aside those small forces that muddied the waters.

This Moon Sword Villa was one of the sides in the fight.

The other side was the native power of this small world, and the one that was originally in control of the small world.

Lin Ran didn't have much interest in the small world's battles.

However, this Moon Sword Villa was one he felt the need to visit!

“Do you still remember the conversation we heard in the dark chamber back then?”

Lin Ran opened his mouth and asked.

“Yes, I remember! But what does this have to do with the Moon Sword Villa!”

White Mist asked, puzzled.

“Feelings!”

Lin Ran said.

The information Xian Yin had given showed that her father, Li Fengxian, had found Lang Chen near this Moon Sword Villa back then.

And this Moon Sword Villa itself was also proficient in the art of puppetry, in addition to being very strong in the sword dao.

“Think about it, back then in the secret room, we clearly heard what seemed to be someone conducting some kind of puppet experiment at Immortal Sound Pavilion!”

“And the experiment was a success!”

“The Immortal Sound Pavilion’s puppet technique is unique, but of a very high standard!”

“Those who can get the Immortal Sound Pavilion to cooperate with them must also be people with deep attainments in puppetry!”

“Then who else could there be but the Moon Sword Villa!”

“But there are many other powers within this small world that are proficient in puppets, so we can’t conclude that it must be the Moon Sword Villa just because of that!”

White Mist held a different opinion.

Lin Ran, however, laughed and shook his head.

“Have you forgotten about that Ghost Lord?”

“Lord Ghost?”

White Mist was stunned, she clearly remembered that back then at the Immortal Sound Pavilion, there was indeed a Lord of the Name Foot Ghost!

“To be able to wipe out a big puppet clan like the Immortal Sound Pavilion, how strong the other party must be!”

“And this Lord Ghost, even more so, didn’t make a move, so obviously he’s the one behind these forces!”

“A force that could easily wipe out the Immortal Sound Pavilion, who else could it be but the Moon Sword Villa!”

“It couldn’t possibly be the native forces at the other end of the spectrum!”

White Mist instantly understood that the Immortal Sound Pavilion was within the control of the Moon Sword Villa.

Obviously it couldn't be the native forces that were up to no good!

Wonder Doctor Chapter 2215

The so-called Moon Sword Villa is actually not a solitary mountain villa.

The Moon Sword Villa was actually a clan in the very early days.

It was just that this sect called itself Moon Sword Villa, and most of the disciples it recruited were people from the local Moon Sword City.

Moreover, due to the restrictions of the rules of this small world itself, almost anyone who joined a sect had to make a blood oath.

A lifetime of allegiance, so there would rarely be anyone who rebelled.

Of course, because once one rebelled, it would also mean a fall.

"This Moon Sword City seems to be quite famous, it was recorded in the information given by Immortal Voice!"

Said White Mist on the side.

The two had been rushing for over a month, and by now they had finally seen the outline of the Moon Sword Villa.

"Tell us the specifics!"

Lin Ran surveyed the outline of a huge city that appeared at the end of the sky while he did so.

As he did so, he spoke.

The information given by Immortal Voice was brought out by him from Immortal Voice Pavilion.

It was coincidental to say the least, Xiangyin was only eight or nine years old, and at that age she should have already started to come into contact with cultivation in the Immortal World.

But within this small world, especially this place, the Immortal Sound Pavilion, the requirements for strength were not that difficult.

The main thing was that it depended on the talent of making puppets, so Xian Yin cultivated rather late.

Instead, she was curious about the whole small world, so she spent the whole day hugging the records about every place in the small world and reading them.

The account about Moon Sword City also came from here.

"It is written here that Moon Sword City is also a famous city within this small world!"

"It's said that a Moon Sword True Man once appeared in this city!"

"A Moon Sword Real Man? What kind of strength?"

Lin Ran asked at his words.

“It seems to be at the half-step perfection realm!”

White Mist said.

“It seems that the strongest person in this world is only at the small perfection realm!”

“This Moon Sword Realm’s strength was already very powerful back then!”

“This Moon Sword City also got its name because of him!”

Speaking here, White Mist continued after a pause.

“But for some reason, after this Moon Sword True Man became famous, he disappeared after just a hundred years of being attached to the imperial power!”

“Later on, there was no news of him in Moon Sword City either!”

“It’s said that in the beginning Moon Sword City thought he was the one who was sealed as Moon Sword City! There is still a statue of him in the city!”

“But then after he disappeared, the statues within the Moon Sword City were also shrouded in fog all day long, and no one could see the statues’ faces at all!”

“Not even the strongest people can!”

White Mist also stopped here and looked at Lin Ran.

“This is a bit strange, since this Moon Sword real person is missing, but why are the statues within Moon Sword City shrouded in white mist?”

“Don’t you think that doesn’t make sense?”

Lin Ran, who was at the side, asked.

“That’s right, if it was dead, then there would be no need for the statue to be shrouded in fog!”

“It’s good to set an example for future generations! Why would this happen!”

The white mist murmured.

“The way I see it, this Moon Sword real person should have something to do with trying to hide his appearance, that’s why it’s like this!”

Lin Ran laughed indifferently.

“Is there a need for that? After all, he was already at the very top of his game at the time!”

White Mist said.

“That would be something to ask the Moon Sword Mortal himself, besides if I’m right, this Moon Sword Villa should also be a result of the Moon Sword Witness Mortal!”

“Just ask, if the Moon Sword True Man really died, then why does this Moon Sword Villa still exist to this day and has become such a powerful existence in this small world?”

Lin Ran asked with a smile.

“This...”

“I don’t know either, but when you say that it seems like there is indeed something inside, when we get to Moon Sword City later on why don’t we go and see this statue too?”

White Mist said excitedly, looking curious.

“You’ve said there’s a white mist enveloping it, what else to go see? Look at yourself?”

Lin Ran laughed.

“You! What’s wrong with going to take a look, it won’t take long!”

The white mist said discontentedly.

“Fine fine, if it’s on the way later I’ll go and have a look!”

Lin Ran laughed.

This information provided by Xian Yin was good though.

But after all, so much time had passed, who would know what the current situation was, so it was better to see some things on the ground when they arrived at Moon Sword City.

Although the distance from Moon Sword City was very far at this point, Lin Ran’s speed was actually only half a day’s journey.

The two of them chatted as they rushed along, and by the time the sun was setting in the west, they had already seen the entrance to Moon Sword City.

The information given by Xian Yin said that the Moon Sword City was crowded on weekdays.

But the Moon Sword City that appeared in front of the two of them was a little empty.

Apart from the security guards on the city walls, there was not a single person at the gates.

It was as if it was a private mansion.

“There’s something wrong with this place!”

White Mist said with a frown.

“I don’t know, just go in and take a look!”

Lin Ran said.

This place did seem a little different, but I just didn’t know what the problem was.

The guards at the city gates didn’t stop the two.

The two of them entered Moon Sword City without a hitch.

When they reached the city, there were gradually more people.

But at this moment, these people were all in a panic, as if they had something important to do!

“Hey hey this brother, what are you guys doing here?”

Lin Ran stopped one of the youths and asked with a smile.

“Foreigner, right!”

The youth looked at Lin Ran and said with a smile.

“Do you know the statue of our Moon Sword City? It’s going to reveal its true face today!”

“The big guys are all anxious to see the statue!”

“The statue revealing its true face? Is it the one of the Moon Sword Reality?”

Lin Ran asked busily.

“Yes! You know the Moon Sword Real Man too! That’s right, it’s him!”

The youth laughed.

“Can you take us with you?”

On the side, White Mist was busy laughing.

It was just as well that she also wanted to go and have a look.

“Yes, you can! Let’s go!”

The youth was enthusiastic, and with a greeting, he set off with the two people.

Lin Ran found it strange how the true nature of the statue would be unraveled today after so many years for good reason.

What the hell was this all about?

“Hey brother, hasn’t this statue of your real Moon Sword been shrouded in fog for a long time, how come it’s suddenly going to unravel today!”

Lin Ran couldn’t help but ask.

“It’s normal for you outsiders not to know, there’s this legend in our Moon Sword City!”

“When the statue of the Moon Sword Reality reappears in the sky, it will be the day our Moon Sword City goes to glory.”

“Since the beginning of the war between Moon Sword City and the Imperial Clan, everyone thought that this legend at the beginning must refer to this fight with the Imperial Clan!”

“Now it seems that this is indeed the case, otherwise the statue of the Moon Sword Reality wouldn’t have been revealed at this time!”

“Haha, it seems that the day is really coming when our Moon Sword City will rise to power!”

“Then our Moon Sword City will be the centre of the entire world, and all the powers will have to come to our Moon Sword City to tide towards and drink!”

“Hey hey the white mist has dispersed, that’s the pride of our Moon Sword City, the real Moon Sword!”

The youth suddenly said excitedly.

Lin Ran and the white mist looked up, only to see a huge statue revealed in front of them he was none other than the Moon Sword True Man.

But when the two saw the statue’s face, they were both dumbfounded!

Because this face was actually none other than Xiangyin’s uncle, the Lang Chen she was talking about!

Wonder Doctor Chapter 2216

“How about that, isn’t that shocking!”

The youth on the side asked with a smile.

However, at this moment, where did Lin Ran and White Mist have time to pay attention to him.

The two looked at the statue in front of them, both with shock in their eyes.

“Lin.... Lin Ran!”

Suddenly, White Mist turned his head to look at Lin Ran, the shock in his eyes already somewhat unspeakable!

“Don’t get excited, there must be something inside this matter that we don’t know about!”

Lin Ran said busily.

At this moment, all the people present were full of admiration, only the two of them looked out of place.

It really wasn’t appropriate to be too flamboyant.

“What’s wrong with you guys?”

The youth next to him saw this and asked busily.

“No, it’s nothing!”

Lin Ran was busy laughing.

“Ao, it’s not surprising that you guys are shocked, after all, in this Moon Sword City of ours, the Moon Sword Villa is the sky!”

“And the Moon Sword Villa was also cultivated by the Moon Sword Realm!”

“Therefore, the people of Moon Sword City treat the Moon Sword Realm like a true immortal!”

The youth laughed and said.

Lin Ran and White Mist nodded as they listened.

In their hearts, however, they were both wondering, since this Moon Sword Reality was of such a high status.

Then why did he still want to blend into the Immortal Sound Pavilion? He was even willing to be Li Fengxian’s righteous brother?

“There must be a lot of things involved, it’s just a pity that we don’t belong to this small world!”

“And it’s basically certain now! That uncle Lang Chen that Xian Yin is talking about is the owner of this Moon Sword Villa! The Moon Sword Reality!”

Lin Ran transmitted his voice.

“Then wouldn’t Little Voice be in danger, with the Moon Sword Realm being so powerful, would she still be able to take revenge?”

White Mist couldn’t help but ask.

“Nothing is impossible if you want it!”

“And don’t you forget, that place has time acceleration, it’s already been a hundred years outside for ten years inside!”

“A hundred years as long as she’s talented enough, revenge isn’t impossible!”

Lin Ran said.

“So what do we do now!”

White Mist couldn’t help but ask.

She didn’t expect to come across such shocking news just after Dao Yue Sword City.

She was a little unsure of how to proceed at this point!

“What how can we do? I’m here to find the Divine Shadow Clan, and this Lang Chen Xiangyin has also said that she wants to solve it herself!”

“It has nothing to do with me!”

“But I always feel that things won’t be so simple here!”

“After all, there’s still a Ghost Lord who doesn’t know who or where he is!”

Lin Ran muttered to himself.

In his opinion, I’m afraid that things are far from as simple as they seem!

This Ghost Lord was hiding too deeply, and even he wasn’t sure who this Ghost Lord really was.

“Rumble!”

Suddenly, just as Lin Ran and White Mist were thinking in their minds.

A large dark cloud unexpectedly appeared high in the sky in front of them.

The dark clouds were interspersed with lightning and rumbled throughout the high school of Moon Sword City.

“What’s going on here?”

White Mist frowned as he watched.

Lin Ran’s gaze trended to lock firmly on the statue.

He could feel an aura that was rapidly emerging above the statue.

“Boom!”

Suddenly, a lightning bolt instantly struck out from the thunderclouds above the sky.

The lightning instantly struck the statue below.

When the people of Moon Sword City below saw this scene, each and every one of their faces changed.

Surprisingly, they all knelt down in unison.

“They!”

White Mist frowned at the sight, could it be that he had to kneel as well?

“Why don’t you all kneel down, the Moon Sword Reality is about to come out!”

The youth next to him was busy reminding.

Lin Ran frowned slightly at this.

Kneel to the heavens, kneel to the earth, kneel to your parents!

Asking him to kneel to someone he didn’t know was something he couldn’t do!

But....

Suddenly, Lin Ran thought of something and his divine sense instantly radiated, following which it enveloped him and the white mist.

And at that moment, looking in the eyes of the youth on the side, the two men were already on their knees.

His own strength was far too much higher than these people.

It was still very easy to disguise himself.

Only just now he had forgotten.

The two men had just disguised themselves when the dark clouds above the sky actually dispersed.

However, a figure was already standing on top of the statue.

He was dressed in white robes, standing with his hands folded!

The whole person looked graceful.

The moment he turned around, Su Chen and White Mist both looked stunned.

This was none other than Lang Chen, except that his appearance was very young looking, just like a young man in his twenties!

“My people!”

Suddenly, Lang Chen spoke.

“When the statue reappears in the sky, it will be the time when our Moon Sword City will go to glory!”

“I know that many people are wondering in their hearts why I have disappeared for so many years!”

“On this very day, I will make it all known!”

“Because today, not only is it the time for me, True Moon Sword, to make a comeback, but it is also the time for me to declare war on the Imperial Clan!”

“From now on, I, True Moon Sword, and the Imperial Clan will not stop until death!”

The voice boomed through the clouds.

Lin Ran and White Mist watched, but they were confused.

They had no idea what had been issued.

Especially the declaration of war, was this the Moon Sword Reality declaring complete war on their local Imperial Clan?

Just as the two were puzzled, the Moon Sword True Man was speaking again.

“Back then, as a subordinate of the Imperial Clan, I was tragically suppressed by them!”

“Later on, I was even framed by them and jailed!”

“They even tried to kill me, but the gods opened their eyes!”

“I, Moon Sword, have survived my ordeal and have been lying in wait ever since!”

“I vowed that one day I would learn the Imperial Clan once and for all!”

“Today I am back!”

“His day will be the extinction of their Imperial Clan!”

“Out!”

With an explosive shout from Real Moon Sword, immediately above the sky.

Countless white dots of light began to emerge.

At first, these white dots of light had faint formation fluctuations.

But soon these formation fluctuations disappeared.

In their place, these white dots of light began to expand.

In the end, they actually turned into a single general wearing white armour.

The aura of these men was monstrous, each with at least half-step perfection realm strength!

Such an army was already considered very powerful when placed in this small world!

“This is the result of my silence for so many years, such an army all the way is enough to trample down the entire Imperial Clan!”

“Disciples of the Moon Sword Villa!”

Suddenly, the Moon Sword Mortal chided aloud.

“Present!”

A deafening sound rang out, and following Lin Ran and White Mist saw it.

On a hillside outside of Moon Sword City, a stream of light shot up into the sky.

Who else was it if not the disciples of Moon Sword City!

These people were of varying strengths, but the lowest strengths were all at the Star Realm!

Obviously, they were already the most powerful group of existence in Moon Sword City!

“Follow me to kill the enemy!”

“Yes!”

The voice rang out, and at once the Moon Sword Realm rushed off into the sky.

And in mid-air, a white eagle fiercely appeared, spreading its wings and soaring!

The Moon Sword Man landed steadily on the back of the white eagle.

In a flash, it was as if an emperor had set out on an expedition!

“Let’s go!”

With an order from the met real person, everyone rushed out towards the outside of Moon Sword City.

The direction was exactly where the Emperors were!

“This....”

White Mist hadn’t looked back until now.

Lin Ran, however, frowned slightly and said in a low voice.

“This Moon Sword Reality is definitely Lang Chen, and he definitely has something to do with the destruction of the Immortal Sound Pavilion!

“Why!”

White Mist didn’t understand!

“Because those in white armour aren’t human at all, they’re puppets!”

“So is that eagle!”

“These puppets, they all have the mysteries of the Immortal Sound Pavilion puppets in them!”

“A hundred years of hidden grudges, not seeing that it’s actually a fight over this small world!”

“Poor Xiangyin, but she has to bear the consequences of all this! To suffer the pain of losing her parents!”

Lin Ran said softly, and a hint of anger couldn’t help but flash in his eyes.

Wonder Doctor Chapter 2217

The crowd soon dispersed.

With the departure of the Moon Sword Realm with his people, the entire Moon Sword City also quickly regained its calm.

However, the people of Moon Sword City all had anticipation on their faces.

It seemed that they were all waiting for the Moon Sword True Man to step on the Imperial Clan and bring back the glory to their Moon Sword City.

“What do we do?”

White Mist asked from the side.

Lin Ran thought for a moment and said.

“Let’s find an inn to stay at first!”

The two of them then stayed in Moon Sword City.

True Moon Sword had just left with his people, and although now was a great opportunity!

But Lin Ran didn’t want to take any chances either.

First of all, this Moon Sword Mortal was about as strong as himself, although he was confident that he could kill this Moon Sword Mortal!

But if he killed him himself, wouldn’t that make it impossible for Xiangyin to take revenge!

So this Moon Sword Mortal had to be left to Xiangyin.

And if he didn’t confront this Moon Sword Mortal head-on, then he would have to wait for him to go far away!

Lin Ran's thoughts were simple.

There was no need for a Moon Sword City to lay out so many years in order to target the Immortal Sound Pavilion!

So there must be other secrets hidden in this.

It was just that at this point he couldn't find out what the secret was for a while!

But with these clues, naturally he still had to work on the Moon Sword Villa!

The time soon reached the latter part of the night!

Only then did Lin Ran walk out of the room.

He had just left the tavern when White Mist followed him out.

"Hey! You didn't call out to me again!"

"Why did you come out!"

Seeing White Mist, Lin Ran was a little speechless, why was this ninny like a dog's skin plaster, she stuck over everywhere she went.

"If I didn't come out, wouldn't you have run away!"

White Mist said discontentedly.

"What am I running for, I'm going to the Moon Sword Villa! It's too dangerous you'd better stay here!"

Lin Ran said.

"I'm not staying here, if something does happen here, it doesn't necessarily mean it's safe!"

White Mist insisted to.

"Fine fine, let's go together then!"

Lin Ran was too lazy to waste any more time, and immediately led White Mist towards the Moon Sword Villa.

The Moon Sword Villa was not that far from Moon Sword City!

The two of them left Moon Sword City and arrived outside of Moon Sword Villa just half an hour later.

And at this moment, inside the Moon Sword Villa, it was still lit up!

"Come on! Everyone raise your glasses of wine, the Tai Shang has taken the masters on a journey!"

"Although we are only caretakers, when the Imperial Clan is overthrown!"

"By then the whole world will be ours, Moon Sword Villa!"

"Ahaha!"

Inside the living room, a young man raised his wine cup and laughed aloud.

“Eldest Brother, when our Moon Sword Villa has power over the world, how can you be a king when the time comes!”

“Right, Eldest Brother, don’t forget us when the time comes!”

The others around us all echoed.

“Don’t worry, if you have a bite to eat, you will have a sip to drink! Come on, cheers!”

Big Brother laughed.

This Eldest Brother, whose real name was Qu Gang, was the best of the four generations of Moon Sword Villa’s disciples.

Even though the Moon Sword real person was crazy, he was not stupid!

In every generation of the Moon Sword Villa’s disciples, he had selected outstanding disciples to stay!

In order to be able to leave some of the payroll to the Moon Sword Villa.

If he had a problem up front, the Moon Sword Villa would not have to be destroyed!

And this Qu Gang was the one with the highest strength among the Moon Sword Villa!

“Qu Gang, it’s getting late, let’s all disperse later!”

“We still have to keep watch at night!”

Suddenly an old man with white hair next to him walked over.

This person was none other than the chief steward of the Moon Sword Villa, and an existence whose status was second only to the Sect Leader as well as the Elders!

Although he was not as strong, he was the real Moon Sword’s own brother, so his status in this Moon Sword Villa was also strangely high.

“Yes, Steward!”

Qu Gang busily answered.

The others were also a little helpless at the sight of this, although they were a little spoiled, they couldn’t disobey the Grand Steward’s matter.

“Hoo!”

Suddenly just as the crowd was about to leave.

The entire Moon Sword Villa was filled with a fierce wind.

It blew the lamps out in an instant.

Countless people couldn’t even tell the direction clearly.

But this gust of wind came and went as quickly as it came.

When the wind dissipated, someone soon lit the lamps, but at that moment the people present found out.

Qu Gang and the steward had disappeared!

“Forget it, let’s hurry back and rest, Eldest Brother and the housekeeper must have both left.”

“Yes, yes, let’s go back too! If the steward gets angry, we’ll all be finished!”

The group of disciples said then left.

No one noticed that there was a still hot blood stain where Qu Gang was standing before.

....

In the hall of the Moon Sword Villa.

At this moment, there were four figures.

Two of them were clearly none other than Qu Gang and the Grand Steward.

“Who the hell are you guys!”

Qu Gang’s face had anger on it, and there was still a bloodstain at the corner of his mouth.

“Does it matter who we are?”

Lin Ran looked at Qu Gang with a bland voice.

“You’re quick to react, but not strong enough!”

“If you don’t want to die, then cooperate with me honestly!”

“You are from the Imperial Clan!”

The butler on the side asked in a cold voice.

“No!”

“And you’d better make it clear, you’re the ones in my hands now!”

Lin Ran said with a wave of his palm, and in an instant two seven-coloured sword maces had reached the two.

“Don’t even think about informing the Moon Sword Mortal, it’s useless!”

“You!”

The steward was so furious that his face turned blue!

“Tell me, who is Lord Ghost!”

Lin Ran looked at the two without any nonsense and asked directly.

“Lord Ghost? Who’s Lord Ghost?”

Qu Gang smiled with a dumbfounded look!

The butler at the side, on the other hand, had a sudden change of expression.

“Looks like you know!”

Lin Ran laughed at this.

“I don’t know!”

The butler said busily.

However how could Lin Ran believe him, just that instantaneous change in Zi Ah’s eyes just now said it all.

“Come here!”

Lin Ran waved his palm violently, and instantly the entire Qu Gang at one side rushed straight over.

“Weng!”

An instant surge of true qi directly invaded Qu Gang’s mind.

It stripped him of his memories.

But very quickly Lin Ran felt that there was actually a layer of prohibition in Qu Gang’s mind.

It prevented him from probing too much about the Moon Sword Villa at all.

“It’s useless, everyone at Moon Sword Villa has a ban in their minds, you can’t even come close to anything!”

The butler at the side said in a cold voice.

Lin Ran smiled blandly at his words and said.

“And what about you?”

“If you don’t say anything, I don’t mind sending all of you to the Emyrean clan!”

“How do you think this war will go with you all as hostages?”

Lin Ran laughed lightly.

“You!”

The steward was instantly furious at his words.

If it were anyone else perhaps True Moon Sword wouldn’t care, but he himself was his own brother.

He also knew the most about the character of the Moon Sword Reality.

If he was really sent to the Imperial Clan, this great war would be almost tantamount to an end!

“How dare you!”

The steward said angrily.

“You can try whether I dare or not!”

Lin Ran laughed indifferently.

“If you don’t tell me where Lord Ghost is, then we’ll set off for the Imperial Clan!”

Lin Ran said with a wave of his palm, instantly having put Qu Gang away.

“I’ll give you a minute to think about it, after that, we’ll set off, as for the others within this mountain!”

“Catching them is just a matter of a thought for me! You should understand!”

Lin Ran’s voice was bland without the slightest possibility of negotiation!

Wonder Doctor Chapter 2218

“What the hell do you want!”

The butler looked at Lin Ran with a gloomy face, his body was even trembling from anger.

He was not a cultivator, just an ordinary person, and this was due to his body.

Therefore, any of his mood swings were unconcealable in Lin Ran’s eyes, and joy was visible.

“I’ve made it very clear, I don’t want to repeat it a second time!”

“You have half a minute to think about it!”

Lin Ran’s voice was bland.

It was as if he was talking about something that had nothing to do with him.

However, to the butler’s ears, these words sounded like a life preserver.

“Ten seconds!”

“Nine seconds!”

“Eight seconds!”

Lin Ran said, word by word.

A voice was like steel nails poking themselves into the butler’s heart.

“Kid, don’t bully people too much, this is the Moon Sword Villa!”

Finally the butler couldn’t help but rebuke.

“Three seconds!”

“Two seconds!”

Lin Ran, however, didn't even bother with the butler and counted to himself.

“Time's up!”

Finally, Lin Ran's voice stopped.

This time he didn't stop in the slightest, and instantly a strong aura enveloped the butler in front of him

And almost at the same time, the butler saw that Qu Gang, who was standing on the side, had actually exploded into a bloody mist instantly.

The blood splashed all over the butler's face!

“You! You actually did.”

The butler was instantly dumbfounded.

Where was this place? This was their Moon Sword Villa! A place where everyone had to worship in the entire Moon Sword City or even in the great area enveloped by the entire Moon Sword City.

But now someone actually dared to kill someone here!

And to kill a disciple of their Moon Sword Villa!

“You're crazy! You are absolutely insane!”

The steward said angrily.

He couldn't believe, no matter what, that someone would dare to strike at a disciple of the Moon Sword Villa.

“I'm not crazy, it's you who's crazy!”

Lin Ran laughed indifferently, and almost at the same time, a powerful aura enveloped him towards the entire Moon Sword Villa.

The butler saw in awe that a figure was soon able to glance over from all directions of the Moon Sword Villa.

Fixing his eyes, he saw that these people were no other than the other disciples of the Moon Sword Villa!

“You! What the hell are you doing! Stop stop stop!”

The steward said angrily.

His eyes turned bloodshot at this moment.

Although the Moon Sword Villa was just a sect with many disciples.

A batch of deaths would be harmless, and they could quickly train up new ones if they wanted to.

But to slaughter their sect's disciples on such a large scale within the Moon Sword Villa, this was something he absolutely could not tolerate!

"Aren't you afraid of Heaven's wrath for killing innocents so indiscriminately!"

The steward suddenly said in an angry voice.

"Heaven's wrath? I'm helping this piece of heaven, and you're telling me about the wrath of heaven?"

Lin Ran laughed, while pointing remotely, and instantly the dark clouds over the entire Moon Sword Villa tumbled.

That scene was simply as if the world was ending!

"You! How could you possibly mobilise the Heaven's Condemnation! This is impossible, absolutely impossible!"

The butler's face was filled with shock.

"I told you, I'm helping this piece of heaven, the Heaven's Condemnation? Do you think that's possible?"

Lin Ran had madness in his eyes.

"The Divine Shadow Clan wants to invade this heaven and earth, do you think the heavenly dao of this heaven and earth will stop a person who helps it?"

"Haha!"

Lin Ran laughed madly.

"Devil, you are the devil!"

The steward exclaimed angrily.

"I'm the devil? Then what is Lord Ghost? And what is your Moon Sword Villa?"

Lin Ran smiled and asked rhetorically.

"You!"

The steward was at a loss for words.

"Fine! Since you want to destroy my Moon Sword Villa, then you don't want to live either!"

The steward suddenly said angrily, followed by a jade slip appearing in his hand at some point!

The jade slip appeared, and with a bang, he crushed it instantly.

With the shattering, layers of formations rose up around the entire Moon Sword Villa.

The entire Moon Sword Villa was wrapped up.

"If you want to meet Lord Ghost, I'm afraid you're not so lucky!"

The butler sneered, and almost at the same time, a terrifying aura within the entire Moon Sword Villa swept over towards Lin Ran.

This aura could not be seen at all, it was invisible and colourless, as if it didn't exist at all!

But Lin Ran could clearly feel that this aura was extremely powerful!

"It's the Great Sect Protection Formation, what on earth have you done to the Steward!"

Qu Gang's voice suddenly came from the side.

White Mist also stood to the side and worried.

"What do we do now! We're trapped!"

"Are we trapped any less?"

Lin Ran, however, didn't care at all and laughed blandly.

At the same time, he only saw him point his palm, and immediately Qu Gang next to him went straight into a coma.

"The illusionary realm is only useful for ordinary people like the butler, now the entire Moon Sword Villa's formation has been completely activated!"

"You should hide first!"

Lin Ran said and with a wave of his hand, he took the white mist into space as well.

That's right, the scene the butler saw before was actually an illusion created by Lin Ran.

In order to make this butler tell the whole Moon Sword Villa all the secrets he knew.

But who knew that this guy would be so fierce that not only did he not say it out, but instead he directly activated the entire Moon Sword Villa's formation.

However, this was good, after the formation was activated, with Lin Ran's attainment in formation, he would definitely be able to reveal some of the secrets of the Moon Sword Villa.

It was that for now, this invisible and terrifying aura was somewhat difficult to deal with, causing him to be careful!

"What exactly is this power that isn't aura, the power of divine sense, or the power of the dao?"

Lin Ran's brow furrowed as he could clearly feel the presence of that aura, but was unable to send a lock on it.

It was as if this power was hidden in the void, separated from him by a layer of paper.

The other side could see him, but he could only feel the other side, not where they were!

"Watch out!"

Suddenly, Lin Ran's figure jerked to a halt, and following that he clearly saw that a strand of wind hair in front of him had actually broken straight away!

The break was so dry and crisp, as if it had been cut directly by something sharp.

“Go!”

Lin Ran also jumped at the sight, and in an instant a sword mane had slashed out!

However, his sword mane shattered, but the other party was even faster at dodging!

Although Lin Ran could only see his own sword mane, at the same time, he could feel the other party's breath dodging quickly!

“Afraid? That's good!”

A hint of excitement flashed across Lin Ran's eyes.

I'm not afraid of how strong you are, I'm afraid of you not being afraid!

Now that Lin Ran had discovered that his opponent was actually afraid of his own attacks as well, that meant that he must not be able to evade his own attacks!

In this way, Lin Ran was completely confident that he would be able to fight his opponent hard!

Not knowing the opponent was the most terrifying thing, and now that he knew, Lin Ran naturally could not hold back his hand.

In an instant, his entire body's aura skyrocketed, followed by a rapid convergence of sword arrows, which instantly formed a huge seven-coloured sword aura.

This seven-coloured sword mane must have been at least half the size of the Moon Sword Villa.

If it wasn't for the fact that the Moon Sword Villa was enveloped by a formation at this moment.

I'm afraid that the entire Moon Sword City would be boiling over at this moment!

“Go!”

Lin Ran gave a command, and instantly the huge seven-coloured sword aura was like a heaven-opening divine axe, slashing towards the Moon Sword Villa below.

If this hit, I'm afraid that the entire Moon Sword Villa would be razed to the ground!

Wonder Doctor Chapter 2219

“Li Ran you dare!”

Seeing this scene, the butler's face instantly turned pale.

He had thought that he had activated the Moon Sword Villa's formation and that it would be enough to kill Lin Ran.

But who knew that the result would actually be like this.

One should know that the Moon Sword Villa's formation was already very powerful.

It had been personally perfected and improved by the Moon Sword Realm for so many years.

Even some unusual near Perfection realm powerhouses would not be able to get out alive inside this formation.

Some minor perfection realm powerhouses might also be seriously injured if they fell into the formation.

But Lin Ran had actually dealt with it so easily.

This shocked the steward's heart.

"Is this the calamity of my Moon Sword Villa?"

"Such a powerful person, I'm afraid that he has long since reached the level of the second brother, where on earth did he come from!"

The steward's heart was incomparably shocked, while his palm flipped and he had already taken out a scroll.

This scroll was left behind by his second brother, the Moon Sword Master.

With this kind of thing happening to the Moon Sword Villa and him being just an ordinary person, he had already done his best to make it this far.

"Rumble!"

Suddenly, a deafening sound of breaking air actually rang out above the sky.

When he looked up, he saw that it was the seven-coloured sword mane that Lin Ran had slashed out that had fallen.

Unfortunately, the seven-coloured sword mane seemed to have been stopped by some force.

It was actually frozen in mid-air at this moment, unable to fall down for a long time.

"It really did strike after all?"

Lin Ran was currently suspended in mid-air, simply watching the scene.

He had seen the end before.

This power was very powerful, and he couldn't even lock onto it himself.

Rather than passively defending, it was better to take the initiative, as long as this formation wanted to preserve the Moon Sword Villa.

It would have to come and block its own attack.

Now it seemed that Lin Ran had guessed correctly.

"Go!"

The opponent's power was also powerful, and Lin Ran no longer held back at this point.

The power of the seven-coloured sword mantle instantly exploded!

At once, countless rays of light emanated from the sword blade only.

In an instant, it actually tore a gaping hole in mid-air.

The torn gash tried to heal up, but Lin Ran's sword mane was too powerful.

The other side was simply unable to heal.

But both sides were at a standstill, and neither could do anything about it for a while!

"Bang!"

Suddenly, a crisp sound came out from below.

Lin Ran looked down, only to find that one of the scrolls in the butler's hand had actually shattered.

"Hm?"

Lin Ran frowned slightly as he looked.

Although he didn't know what the scroll was, at this moment it was crushed by the housekeeper, so it was obviously something that was not good for him!

"Shatter it for me!"

Lin Ran saw this scene and knew that he couldn't delay any longer, if this butler had some way of teleporting the Moon Sword Reality back!

Together with the power of this formation, something was bound to happen to him!

Even though Lin Ran was confident in his own strength, he was facing a Moon Sword Mortal who was about as strong as himself.

With the addition of a formation, the pressure to face would be immense!

"Rumble!"

As Lin Ran's voice fell.

The huge seven-coloured sword aura above the sky also collapsed in an instant.

The violent power instantly stirred up the surrounding space and rippled.

And the torn opening was finally unable to carry the load.

In an instant, the opening widened and actually revealed a figure.

The figure was silver in colour, as if it was a spirit spirit, and at first glance it was not a real person!

"A spirit of the formation!"

Lin Ran's heart was shocked as he watched, no wonder this formation was so difficult to deal with.

There was actually a formation spirit present.

The Spirit of Formation was just like the Pillowside Book and Qing Zi.

One of the Pillow Book and Qing Zi was an immortal weapon, while the other was a divine weapon.

They were both born out of the natural forces of heaven and earth!

And the essence of this kind of formation spirit is similar.

There are two kinds of spirits of these artefacts.

The first type is the one that is naturally bred, and the spirit of such a bred artefact has the potential to progress.

For example, the Pillow Book and Qing Zi can both cultivate on their own.

One day they may even be able to break free from the shackles of the artefact.

The second kind, on the other hand, is artificially infused.

For example, some cultivators have had their souls brought by others and forcibly refined into the artefact.

Such a spirit of the artefact would have no possibility to continue cultivating.

How strong it was in life is also how strong it will be after being refined.

If it was the former, then it could definitely be said to be a treasure.

If Lin Ran could get a formation spirit to recognise his master, then it could be said that it would help him tremendously in the future!

This was why Lin Ran had looked so excited when he saw that this formation actually had a formation spirit.

“If it was naturally bred, it would definitely have to be captured!”

Lin Ran thought in his mind, while his entire body was already rushing towards the spatial rift.

The spatial rift had completely lost its resistance, and naturally, it would not be able to heal in a short period of time.

Lin Ran had plenty of time at this point.

“I just don’t know what the scroll that the butler crushed was!”

Lin Ran said to himself in his heart.

The thing that the butler had crushed was always a problem in Lin Ran’s heart.

He didn’t know what it was that the other party had crushed.

But something that was crushed at this juncture could obviously not be useless.

Therefore, Lin Ran also cherished time, wanting to get a quick fix.

....

At this moment, in a place far away from the Moon Sword Villa, a huge warship was advancing rapidly under the moon sky.

There was a flag on the ship.

On the flag was drawn a crescent moon and a sword design, which was the totem of the Moon Sword Villa.

“Bang!”

Suddenly, the Moon Sword Reality, who was meditating in his room, suddenly turned ugly.

“Tai Shang!”

Followed by an urgent voice coming in from outside.

It was none other than the current lord of the Moon Sword Villa, the favourite disciple of the Moon Sword Realm, Situ Jian!

“Come in!”

Real Moon Sword’s voice was icy cold as he said.

“Tai Shang, sense the scroll induction just now, have you ever.”

Situ Jian said busily.

“I feel it!”

Real Moon Sword’s voice said indifferently.

“Tai Shang, then what do we do now!”

Situ Jian was busy with a nervous face, while saying.

“Something is definitely wrong on the Moon Sword Villa side now!”

“But we’re already close to the Imperial Clan’s side, if we retreat now, I’m afraid we’ll become the laughing stock of the whole world!”

“I know!”

There was an icy coldness in the eyes of True Moon Sword, he had been holding back for many years for this time of revenge!

This time, he had even appeared in a high profile, and all the cultivators in the world were watching their movements at this time.

If he were to bring his people back at this time, he would really become the laughing stock of the whole world!

But if he wouldn’t go, wouldn’t the Moon Sword Villa, which he has been painstakingly operating for years, also have to be....

“Tai Shang what can be done about this!”

Situ Jian asked, the situation at this time was also clear in his mind, and he couldn't help but also be a bit stumped.

"Do not go back!"

Suddenly the real Moon Sword on the side spoke up.

"You, Tai Shang?"

Situ Jian was stunned.

The Moon Sword Villa could be said to be the life's work of the Moon Sword Mortal.

But he was actually giving it up now.

"If the Moon Sword Villa is gone, I can still build it again!"

"But if this world is gone, it's really gone!"

The Moon Sword's voice was bland, but it was a bit determined!

Wonder Doctor Chapter 2220

The Moon Sword Villa was destined to have no one return.

But at this moment, the steward obviously didn't know that yet, he was still waiting for the Moon Sword Reality to return with his people.

At this moment, halfway up in the air, Lin Ran had already rushed inside the rift.

The spirits of the formation in the rift were also fleeing frantically.

Without the concealment protection of the formation, exposed to Lin Ran, he had almost no resistance.

"Stand still! Don't come over!"

Finally, seeing no way ahead, the Spirit of the Formation stopped.

"Were you birthed naturally or were you sealed here?"

"If it's the second, I can let you out!"

Lin Ran opened his mouth and went straight to the point.

It was a cruel thing to have one's divine sense sealed, and Lin Ran didn't care about releasing him, after all, releasing him would be good for him.

"You won't be able to release me!"

The other party spoke.

"So you've been sealed here?"

Lin Ran couldn't help but be a little disappointed at his words.

Originally, he had wanted to capture this formation spirit, but it turned out that it was actually a divine sense that had been sealed here by someone.

It wasn't one that was born on its own.

"Right!"

The Spirit of the Formation didn't argue, and directly admitted it.

"Hey, who are you and how did you end up here? Also you said I can't release you? Why is that?"

Lin Ran asked three questions in a row.

The other party listened with a slight frown, and after a moment said.

"My name is Cheng Ying, as for why I'm here, I don't know!"

"You just can't get to me because."

Cheng Ying said here without continuing.

There seemed to be something he didn't want to say.

"I can try, if it really doesn't work, just put away the formation and I won't make things difficult for you!"

Lin Ran said.

This formation was something he could break open with his full strength though.

But he was also worried about what the scroll the butler had crushed earlier was actually for.

So he didn't want to waste this time either.

"I can't, if I don't deal with you, I'll die too!"

Seung Sahn exclaimed.

Lin Ran frowned slightly as he listened, the other party should have been restricted in some way himself by saying that.

"In that case, then I'll have to destroy this formation, I hope you can resist!"

Lin Ran didn't say anything, so he raised his hand and slashed his sword towards the Moon Sword Villa below.

At this point in the conversation, there was actually not much point anymore.

After all, this Cheng Ying was only the spirit of the formation, although he could control the entire formation.

But in the end, he was still subservient to the Moon General, and he could not disobey the orders given by the Moon Sword.

Otherwise, the result would still be death.

It would be almost impossible for Lin Ran to save him from going out!

“Rumble!”

A sword slashed out, and Cheng Ying quickly marshalled the power of the formation to resist.

In an instant, the two forces collided together.

However, this time, Lin Ran clearly felt that the power of the formation mobilized by Cheng Ying was much weaker.

And there seemed to be a hidden guidance in it that was hinting at itself!

“Hm?”

Lin Ran looked up at Cheng Ying, who was also looking at him with his gaze.

Although he didn't open his mouth, the meaning contained in his eyes was very clear.

He was still guiding himself!

Lin Ran instantly understood.

“Go!”

Without any further ado, Lin Ran's body instantly dashed out, heading in the direction that Cheng Ying had guided him.

The formation controlled by Cheng Ying enveloped the entire Moon Sword Villa.

And at this moment, under his guidance, Lin Ran had actually arrived at the back of the Moon Sword Villa's hill.

“Don't kill him yet!”

The steward was busy shouting at this moment, as he already sensed that something was wrong with the situation.

“Don't you forget that you are a member of our Moon Sword Villa! Are you going to betray us!”

“I have not betrayed you! Otherwise I wouldn't still be alive!”

A voice came out, and it was none other than Cheng Ying's!

“There was no betrayal, so why did he still get to go to the back mountain!”

The steward asked in an angry voice.

“I'm not as strong as him, what's wrong with that!”

Cheng Ying said angrily.

“You!”

The steward was also furious, yet in the face of this statement from Cheng Ying, there was nothing he could do at all.

Lin Ran had almost understood what Cheng Ying meant when he heard this.

This fellow was unable to voice his claim because of his status.

So it was in the middle of a confrontation with himself that he was guiding himself to the back mountain.

This was enough to show that there must be some secret hidden in the back mountain.

Lin Ran didn't want to waste time, and since Cheng Ying had already done so, he naturally didn't speak nonsense.

“Open up for me!”

Lin Ran roared, and in an instant a sword aura had swept across the entire mountain.

The countless sky-high trees on the mountain peak were instantly churned into ashes.

And at the same time, Lin Ran could clearly feel a resistance.

The resistance was very subtle and warded off his attack.

He soon saw that not far from this mountain peak there was an area that had not been swept away by his own attack.

There, there were still giant trees in the sky.

“Here?”

Lin Ran smiled at this.

This place must be the place where Cheng Ying had guided himself to.

Thinking of this, Lin Ran didn't say anything and instantly slashed out with his sword.

“Bang!”

With a crunching sound, in an instant, this partial place in front of Lin Ran actually shattered directly.

And with the shattering, Lin Ran recoiled and saw that the sky-high tree in front of him had actually turned into a dot of light, following which it dissipated.

“This is.... A formation!”

Lin Ran looked shocked.

This was clearly an illusion formation.

And just as Lin Ran's heart was excited.

The butler on the side saw this scene, but his entire person directly sat down on his butt.

His face was ashen.

The butler sighed softly.

Almost at the same time, countless figures within the Moon Sword Villa instantly shot up into the sky.

Hastily this was the disciples within the Moon Sword Villa.

Lin Ran thought that these disciples were going to fight in a bloodbath.

As a result, he didn’t expect these people to run off in all directions.

Not even one person came over!

“This is the Moon Sword Villa you’re so proud of?”

Lin Ran couldn’t help but laugh.

“Many thanks!”

In mid-air, Cheng Ying waved his hand at Lin Ran and followed to leave as well.

But where would Lin Ran let him go, things had progressed so far, and it was time for him to come and help himself.

“Come here!”

Lin Ran waved his hand and instantly a force of divine sense swept Cheng Ying over.

“You!”

Cheng Ying looked at Lin Ran with puzzlement in his eyes, wasn’t this guy going to let himself go? How come he was still now.

“Don’t worry, I will definitely let you go, but before you go, I have one more thing I need your help with!”

Lin Ran laughed.

“What is it?”

Cheng Ying asked busily.

“You’ve been in this Moon Sword Villa for so many years, you must know this place very well!”

“I want to know what secrets this Moon Sword Villa and Lord Ghost have!”

“Or how the Divine Shadow Clan can be found!”

Lin Ran got right to the point.

“The Divine Shadow Clan?”

Cheng Ying’s entire face instantly changed when he heard that.

“No.... I don’t know, I don’t know anything! You’d better find someone else to help you!”

“You must know!”

Lin Ran frowned slightly at this, such a big contrast in demeanor and you say you don’t know? You’re lying to hell!

“I really don’t know, please let me go, I really don’t know!”

Cheng Ying pleaded, without the protection of the formation at this point, he was incomparably vulnerable.

A soul body was just a matter of a thought to Lin Ran.
