

Wonder Doctor Chapter 2221

“Friend, I don’t want to make things difficult for you, but if you don’t cooperate, I can only....”

Lin Ran said as a powerful divine sense already pressed towards Cheng Ying.

After all, Cheng Ying was only a soul body, and in front of such a powerful divine sense from Lin Ran, there was no way he would be able to resist.

“No! Don’t! I really don’t know anything!”

Cheng Ying shouted busily.

However, Lin Ran had no intention of stopping.

After so many years in the Immortal Realm, he had long since ceased to be that fledgling brat, and he knew very well in his heart whether or not Cheng Ying knew anything.

“Speak! What exactly is the relationship between the Moon Sword Villa and the Divine Shadow Clan!”

Lin Ran asked in a cold voice.

“I really don’t know!”

Cheng Ying said in pain.

The divine sense fluctuations Lin Ran imposed on him were almost crushing his entire consciousness.

“Hm?”

Suddenly, just at that moment, Lin Ran actually suddenly stopped coming.

“I really didn’t know, please spare me spare me!”

Cheng Ying shouted busily.

Lin Ran, however, looked at him, a cold smile appearing at the corner of his mouth.

“I’d like to spare you, but does the Divine Shadow Clan want to spare you?”

“You should be from the Divine Shadow Clan, right!”

Lin Ran looked at Cheng Ying, his gaze burning.

“You.... I’m not!”

Cheng Ying was busy denying it.

“No? No. How can you have the fluctuations of the Divine Shadow Clan within you!”

Lin Ran said in a cold voice.

Just now, he had clearly felt the power fluctuations of the Divine Shadow Race within Cheng Ying’s body.

There was an essential difference between the Divine Shadow Race and the cultivators of the Immortal Realm.

It wasn't difficult to tell this at all.

"I'm not, I'm not!"

Cheng Ying was busy saying, but he lowered his head as he said it himself.

"I am! I am a Divine Shadow Clan, but is it my fault that I am a Divine Shadow Clan member?"

Seung Sahn said and actually cried.

"Everyone's origin, again, is not something you can decide for yourself!"

"If I could, I'd rather just die here!"

"Come and kill me, kill me!"

Cheng Ying said angrily.

Lin Ran, however, looked at him without speaking.

At this moment, Cheng Ying was in an emotional state, and Lin Ran knew that it was useless to say anything to him.

And Lin Ran's lack of attention had actually had an effect.

Cheng Ying bowed his head in pain, but soon calmed down as well.

"Done venting? You can talk now?"

Lin Ran looked at Cheng Ying.

"What do you want to know!"

Cheng Ying bowed his head.

"How to find the Divine Shadow Clan, and what cooperation the Moon Sword Villa and the Divine Shadow Clan actually have!"

Lin Ran asked.

Cheng Ying smiled and thought for a moment, then said.

"I don't know how I can find the Divine Shadow Clan either, I was exiled a long time ago!"

"You've seen it all, I was sealed in a formation and became the Spirit of the Formation!"

"And where do I know where the Divine Shadow Clan is now!"

"I only know that Moon Sword Villa and the Divine Shadow Clan have a collaboration, and as for what the collaboration is, I don't know!"

Cheng Ying said indifferently.

Lin Ran looked at him and could sense that he wasn't lying.

But in that case, wouldn't he have pounced again!

“No, although you don’t know where the Divine Shadow Clan is, hasn’t Lord Ghost ever come to the Moon Sword Villa?”

“How did he get here?”

Lin Ran asked.

“Lord Ghost?”

“What does Lord Ghost have to do with the Divine Shadow Clan?”

Cheng Ying did not understand.

Lin Ran, however, didn’t explain and just looked at Cheng Ying quietly.

Cheng Ying thought for a moment and said.

“Lord Ghost, indeed, has come to the Moon Sword Villa.”

“But every time he came, he came from the back of the mountain, which is where he is now!”

Cheng Ying said.

Lin Ran’s spirits rose at his words, and he was busy getting up and looking towards the surroundings.

Lord Ghost had come from the back of the mountain, why the back of the mountain?

In Lin Ran’s opinion, it was likely that Lord Ghost and Moon Sword Villa were also in a cooperative relationship.

Since they were collaborating, then Lord Ghost would definitely not be living in the Moon Sword Villa.

And the most convenient way for him to come over every time would be the teleportation array!

This was also why Lin Ran had asked Cheng Ying.

If he could find a teleportation formation, he might be able to reverse the process and find Lord Ghost.

Lin Ran had always felt that this Lord Ghost was likely to be a member of the Divine Shadow Clan.

“Can I leave now?”

Seung Sahn asked.

“No! Lin Ran shook his head!”

“You!”

Cheng Ying smiled and instantly despaired.

“I’m sorry, I said I could let you go before, but I can’t now!”

“I have my own hardships, whether you understand or not!”

Lin Ran said as he waved his hand and took away Cheng Ying.

Following this, without another word, he raised his hand and slashed his sword directly onto the back mountain of the Moon Sword Villa.

“Rumble!”

The back mountain instantly collapsed, and then Lin Ran saw that an altar had actually appeared within the mountain peak!

This altar was hidden inside the mountain peak, so ordinary people wouldn't really be able to discover it.

“No wonder this mountain peak was full of formations, so it was all to hide this altar!”

Lin Ran's heart suddenly dawned on him.

He quickly arrived at the altar and took a closer look.

The entire Moon Sword Villa was completely finished.

Countless disciples had left in all directions.

The stewards also didn't know where they had gone.

Lin Ran couldn't care less at this moment.

He just wasn't sure where this altar led to!

“How does this altar work?”

Lin Ran looked at the altar in front of him with some difficulty.

The God Shadow Clan's were all soul bodies, and the altar they used was completely different from the altar in the Immortal Realm!

How to activate it alone was a problem.

“Out!”

Lin Ran instantly radiated his divine sense out, wanting to envelop the entire altar.

But just then, Cheng Ying spoke up.

“Don't bother, I can show you how to use it!”

“Ao?”

Lin Ran was stunned at his words.

“Why are you suddenly going to help me again!”

“I have conditions!”

Cheng Ying said.

“I can help you find the Divine Shadow Clan, but as a condition, you must also help me find someone!”

“Who!”

Lin Ran I asked.

“My mother!”

“Your mother? In the Divine Shadow Clan?”

Lin Ran asked, frowning.

The Divine Shadow Clan was dangerous, and asking himself to help him find his mother was not a simple matter.

“No, my mother is in this small world!”

Cheng Ying said.

“In this small world?”

Lin Ran was stunned at his words, it was true that many people from the Divine Shadow Clan had already infiltrated into the Immortal World.

“Deal!”

Lin Ran instantly agreed.

Afterwards, Lin Ran directly made a blood oath, sort of dispelling the last trace of concern in Cheng Ying’s heart.

“To activate this kind of altar, you need two things!”

Without any nonsense, Cheng Ying directly said.

“The first, essence blood certified by the Divine Shadow Clan, on the left side of the altar there is a statue of a deity, his eyes are a stone bead that hides the essence blood!”

Based on Cheng Ying’s words, Lin Ran had indeed discovered that the deity statue’s eye was movable!

It was immediately plucked off.

“The second one is the soul power of the Divine Shadow Clan!”

“This, I have!”

“But I can’t give it to you now, you must first take me to my mother!”

Cheng Ying said.

“Don’t worry, you can just lay a formation around this altar, the God Shadow Clan’s altar, no one can destroy it unless they are Immortal Realm powerhouses!”

“You take me to find my mother, we’ll come back when we return and I’ll send you to the Divine Shadow Clan!”

Cheng Ying said.

Lin Yan pondered for a moment at his words, before finally nodding his head.

Most importantly, he himself had concerns about his current situation, if he were to enter the Divine Shadow Clan directly.

Once he encountered danger, I was afraid that the white mist would also

Wonder Doctor Chapter 2222

After all, White Mist was a coincidental encounter on Lin Ran's way, so Lin Ran naturally did not want to bring her into danger.

But if he wanted to do so, he was afraid that White Mist might not necessarily agree.

He knew this girl's character, so Lin Ran was wondering how he could get her to stay!

"Let's go!"

Lin Ran left a formation on this back mountain of the Moon Sword Villa, and then set off.

After almost tossing and turning all night, and not seeing the Moon Sword Reality return, Lin Ran had almost been umm sure that the Moon Sword Reality was afraid that he would not return.

This guy had been hiding for so many years in order to deal with the emperor clan.

Now that he had come out, I was afraid that he would not be willing to come back without a complete bloodbath with the Emperor Clan.

Lin Ran couldn't help but feel in his heart that his luck was really good this time.

If True Moon Sword had brought someone back, the lack of progress on his side of things would be secondary.

Most importantly, it was likely that he would have alerted the snake as a result, allowing the people of the Divine Shadow Clan to detect him.

And the current situation was undoubtedly the most satisfactory for Lin Ran.

The appearance of the already Cheng Ying was something Lin Ran hadn't expected.

Perhaps through this fellow, Lin Ran would also be able to learn a lot about the internal affairs of the Divine Shadow Clan.

Halfway through the journey, Lin Ran called out to Cheng Ying and served him with good wine and food.

Although Cheng Ying was a soul body, this wine and food was really not a problem to eat and drink.

"Alright, you don't need to be so warm to me, I know what you're thinking!"

After having enough wine and food, Cheng Ying was a little embarrassed and laughed.

"What do you mean?"

The white mist on the side looked stunned.

Lin Ran, however, did not deny it either and laughed.

“Since you know, do you still need me to ask?”

“You don’t need to ask, I won’t say anything!”

Cheng Ying said.

“What the hell are you guys talking about, why can’t I understand?”

The white mist on the side was foggy.

Seeing that Lin Ran didn’t say anything and just looked at himself, Cheng Ying spoke up helplessly.

“Brother Lin Ran must want to know about the Divine Shadow Clan, but it’s something I can’t talk about!”

“The Divine Shadow Clan? What clan? How come I’ve never even heard of it!”

White Mist was confused.

Lin Ran sighed helplessly, some days he felt that this White Mist was a young lady from a large clan.

But other times, it felt as if this White Mist didn’t know anything about anything.

Even the Divine Shadow Clan actually didn’t know, and she dared to roam around these small worlds of Chaos Space.

It really made Lin Ran a little speechless.

“Why can’t you say anything?”

Lin Ran asked as he shook his head and looked at Cheng Ying.

“Because I’ll die if I say anything!”

Cheng Ying said.

“People of the Divine Shadow Clan are branded with a host of prohibitions by the power of karma from birth!”

“Once this prohibition is broken, no matter who or where they are, they will die instantly!”

“Think about it, after so many years of the Divine Shadow Race appearing, does the Immortal World know much about the Divine Shadow Race?”

Lin Ran shook his head, while his heart drifted off.

No wonder, the entire Immortal Realm knew very little about the Divine Shadow Race.

It turned out to be that everything about the Divine Shadow Race could not be spread out.

At least the people of the Divine Shadow Clan were unable to spread it.

But if that was the case, then I was afraid that the only person who knew the most about the Divine Shadow Race in the entire Immortal Realm was the Immortal Emperor.

After all, the Immortal Emperor had worked with the Divine Shadow Clan back then.

“Regarding the situation within the Divine Shadow Clan, I can’t even reveal it, being able to help you open the teleportation array can already be the most dangerous thing I can do!”

Cheng Ying said.

Lin Ran nodded at his words, and said no more.

Cheng Ying’s life was in his hands right now, and he didn’t believe that Cheng Ying would dare to take any risks.

Moreover, this fellow had asked himself to go to his mother.

There was obviously no reason to lie to himself.

Because the consequences of that would be just as heavy.

“Where’s your mother!”

Lin Ran said as he changed the subject.

As Cheng Ying’s side couldn’t ask about the Divine Shadow Clan, Lin Ran wasn’t thinking too much about it.

It would be better to settle the matter of Cheng Ying’s mother earlier, so that he could also set off to find the Divine Shadow Clan.

“I don’t know if it’s still there, I only remember the general location!”

Cheng Ying said, while nodding on the map.

Lin Ran took a glance at it and found that it was a place called Fengjia Town.

Within the entire Third Small World, it could only be considered a small place.

There wasn’t even a single powerful clan in this Feng Family Town.

The average strength was only at the Enlightenment Realm!

The distance wasn’t too far, and with Lin Ran’s speed, a day would definitely be enough.

It was just that according to Cheng Ying, he hadn’t gone back in many years, ever since he had refined into a weapon spirit.

He had been at the Moon Sword Villa for almost a hundred years!

His own parents’ strength was not high and their life expectancy would not be too long, even if they were alive they would probably be in their old age by now.

Lin Ran didn’t ask too many questions, as long as he helped Cheng Ying find his mother, his mission would be complete.

....

The Feng family town was indeed very small.

The entire area of the entire town combined was not even as large as the Li Family City where Li Ba was at the time.

This was true even in these small worlds, where weaknesses could not have more area after all.

And at this moment in Feng Family Town, countless people were flooding onto the streets.

This was because today, the Feng Family Town was going to hold a powerful tribute event.

The initiator of the event was none other than the Long Family, the strongest family in Fengjia Town today!

The Long Family was a family that had only risen to prominence in Fengjia Town in the last ten years.

The more remote a place like this was, the more intense the rivalry was.

Although Fengjia Town was close to the sphere of influence where the Moon Sword Villa was located.

But in the end, this kind of poor place, no matter if it was the Moon Sword Villa or the Love is Empress clan, they simply did not see it.

So the change of ownership of such a place was also something that almost no one cared about.

“What is the Dragon Family up to again in a few days?”

“Who knows! But it must be related to the two major powers!”

“I think it’s 80% too!”

On the street, a crowd of people discussed in low voices.

“Hey hey granny, what are the two major powers?”

A young man dressed plainly and thrown in the crowd without a wave asked.

“You don’t even know about the two major powers, they are the Moon Sword Villa and the Imperial Clan!”

One of the grannies said.

“These two major powers have something to do with this place too?”

The youth couldn’t help but ask.

“It originally had nothing to do with us here, after all, our place is very remote!”

“But who made the head of this Dragon family, a wallflower.”

“Hey hey! Don’t talk nonsense, watch out for people’s lives!”

Before the granny finished her sentence, someone next to her was busy reminding.

“Yes, yes, you can’t talk nonsense, young man, just take a look and you’ll see!”

The granny was busy explaining.

The youth nodded at her words, but there was more than a little curiosity in her eyes.

Was this Long family head a wallflower?

But that's not so bad, holding a big event, who is he trying to show his loyalty to?

As the young man was thinking, a group of children ran past him.

As they ran, they sang a song.

"Fengjia Town, Fengjia Town, the place is not big Longjia Town!"

"Today we are the emperor's clan, tomorrow we will be the moon sword powder!"

"Ask us why, whoever wins the fight will be in charge of the sky!"

"There's an old turtle in the Dragon Family who can count the sky when he shrinks his head!"

"Whoever comes in the future, the tail will wag the dragon for three days!"

....

"A dragon for three days? I think we just heard someone say that the head of this Dragon Family is named Dragon Three Days!"

The youth recalled.

"Who cares who he is, we're not here to watch the fun, hurry up and leave!"

A voice rang out in the youth's mind with urgency.

Wonder Doctor Chapter 2223

"Fine!"

The youth nodded his head and turned around to prepare to leave.

The youth was no other than Lin Ran.

And according to what Cheng Ying had said, his mother lived in a remote village outside this Feng Family Town.

And this town was first built by the Feng family, so it was also known as the Feng Family Town.

However, the Feng family was not very strong, so much so that the Feng family town changed hands several times later and finally fell into the hands of the Long family.

Lin Ran followed the flow of people in the opposite direction towards the outskirts of the town.

However, just as he arrived outside the town and discerned the direction to leave.

Suddenly there was a rumbling sound coming from the middle of the town at the back.

Lin Ran turned his head to look and found that a statue had risen from the square in the middle of the town.

The statue was twice as tall as an ordinary person.

This height seemed very abrupt.

One should know that normal towns would also have statues that were used to commemorate very great people.

For example, in Moon Sword City, the statue commemorated the owner of Moon Sword Villa, the Moon Sword Master.

The statue of the Moon Sword Master is very large, almost as high as the city wall.

An ordinary person standing under the statue would not even be able to reach his knees.

Because many of the cities in the Immortal World were built to match the formations, the walls were also built very high.

But this statue that appeared at this time was only two people high.

This height was obviously not meant to commemorate some great figure.

Instead, it is more like it was prepared for some kind of event.

The shape of the statue is also very strange.

It appeared to be a woman, tied to an iron frame, with her legs bent trying to kneel in submission.

“Who is this statue! How come it looks as if she is being punished!”

White Mist couldn't help but ask.

“I don't know!”

Lin Ran said.

However, just as he was about to ask Cheng Ying if he wanted to continue on his way.

Suddenly, the Cheng Ying within the scroll space actually became agitated.

“Hey!”

Suddenly Lin Ran opened his mouth and shouted, and almost at the same time, the Seung Ying within the scroll actually rushed out in an instant.

“What's going on!”

White Mist looked stunned as well.

Lin Ran shook his head and said.

“I don't know! But that statue might have something to do with him.”

Before Lin Ran finished his sentence, in an instant, Cheng Ying rose up into the sky, and a huge wave of intent instantly enveloped the entire Wind Family Town.

Although Cheng Ying was a soul body, he was a member of the Divine Shadow Clan.

His divine sense was extremely powerful.

In the entire Feng Family Town, even the Dragon Family's Patriarch, Long Tian San, could not possibly be his match.

The difference in strength between the two was simply too great.

It was only when he was facing Lin Ran that Cheng Ying appeared to be underpowered.

But outside here, he was definitely already able to walk across the street with his strength!

"Not good!"

Lin Ran's face instantly changed when he saw this scene.

The entire person instantly rushed towards Cheng Ying.

And almost at the same time, Lin Ran's divine sense enveloped the entire Feng Family Town.

Blocking the power of Cheng Ying's divine sense from falling.

Lin Ran frantically chased towards Cheng Ying.

As long as he was one step slower, in the event that the fellow had evil intentions, it was likely that the entire town would have to suffer.

However, the people inside the town acted as if nothing had happened.

No one even noticed that two forces had enveloped the town.

A figure even walked up to the square, and it was in none other than the patriarch of the Dragon Family, Long Tian San!

"Gentlemen! Quiet and quiet!"

Long Tian San stood in the square, his voice booming and resounding in everyone's ears.

"Today, our Feng family town is hosting a grand event here, in order to express our loyalty to the Imperial Clan!"

"Of course, speaking of which, we similarly expressed our loyalty to the Moon Sword Villa a few days ago!"

"I know some people are saying behind my back that I'm a wallflower! But I don't care!"

"Isn't it this wallflower style that our Feng Family Town has been able to keep the wind and rain flowing for so many years?"

Long Tian San laughed.

“According to the latest news, the Moon Sword Villa suffered a change of heart last night!”

“Now the Moon Sword Realm is out there fighting with the Imperial Clan, and the Moon Sword Villa has indeed suffered a change of heart!”

“It’s the right time for us to make our position clear!”

“Everyone should have seen this statue behind me!”

“It’s said that this woman is a lackey of the Divine Shadow Clan and gave birth to a monster with one of the disciples of the Divine Shadow Clan back then!”

“Today we’ll whip her!”

“Let’s get started, everyone!”

Long Tian San laughed.

And the crowd below was very cooperative, surprisingly, they actually went up to whip the statue one by one.

Meanwhile in mid-air, Lin Ran had finally stopped Cheng Ying.

“You’re crazy!”

Lin Ran asked in an angry voice as he looked at Cheng Ying.

“I’m not crazy! They’re the ones who are crazy!”

Cheng Ying pointed down and said angrily.

“What the hell is going on here!”

Lin Ran asked angrily, his brows furrowed.

“What exactly is the relationship between that statue and you!”

“What relationship?”

“She’s my mother!”

Cheng Ying said with tears streaming down her face.

And Lin Ran’s entire body was instantly confused when he heard this.

The statue below was actually Cheng Ying’s mother.

That meant that his mother had.

After all, a living person wouldn’t take a statue and whip it out!

“Bang!”

Suddenly, just at the moment Lin Ran was distracted, Cheng Ying had actually broken through Lin Ran’s block.

Countless amounts of divine sense power instantly fell down, enveloping the entire town.

And it was at this instant that the entire Feng Family Town went mad.

One by one they looked up at the sky, their eyes filled with panic.

Although it was only Cheng Ying's divine sense that had landed, this divine sense had already enveloped all of them.

As long as Cheng Ying had a thought, they would all die in an instant.

"Who is it? Which senior is it, please be merciful!"

Long Tian San looked at the sky and shouted busily, a deep fear in his eyes.

"Even if he is your mother, but what is wrong with these ordinary people, it has been so many years, your mother's death has nothing to do with them!"

"They were just trying to stay alive!"

Lin Ran looked at Cheng Ying and said angrily.

At this point he could no longer stop Cheng Ying, the shroud of divine sense was too fast. ,

Wanting to kill these people was just a matter of a single thought from Cheng Ying.

Lin Ran wanted to stop it was impossible to do so.

"They want to live, doesn't my mother?"

Cheng Ying looked at Lin Ran and asked in an angry voice.

Although he was a soul body, tears were left in his eyes.

"These ordinary people are innocent, I don't care about the three days of the dragon! This is my bottom line!"

Lin Ran said as he looked at Cheng Ying.

Although Cheng Ying's mother had left a long time ago, Long Tian Tian must have had nothing to do with Cheng Ying's mother's death!

But it was clearly wrong for him to use Cheng Ying's mother to show his loyalty.

Lin Ran couldn't care about that many people either, so he had no choice but to keep these ordinary people!

"If you can, it's best to leave him alive, after all, your mother's death really doesn't have much to do with him!"

Lin Ran finally said, while patting Cheng Ying's shoulder!

Cheng Ying looked at Lin Ran's back, the anger in his eyes then slightly diminished!

Wonder Doctor Chapter 2224

And just after Lin Ran Lin Ran turned around, an instant wave of the power of divine sense swept out.

Following this, Lin Ran saw that the power of divine sense that had originally enveloped the bottom instantly rippled, and following this, all the people within the town, except for Long Tian San, actually fell to the ground.

“Whoosh!”

There was a sound of breaking wind behind him, and the next moment Cheng Ying had already arrived in front of Long Tian San.

When Long Three-day saw Cheng Ying, his entire body was so scared that he directly knelt down and submitted.

The entire person’s entire body was trembling.

“Seniors! Senior has bypassed me, I’m loyal to you!”

Long Tian San thought that Cheng Ying was from the Imperial Clan and directly started to express his loyalty.

“Loyal to me? When you had my mother’s statue flogged just now, weren’t you still upbeat about it!”

Cheng Ying asked in an angry voice.

“I....”

Long Three-day was dumbfounded, knowing that he had shot himself in the foot.

“No my lord, this is all a misunderstanding, a misunderstanding!”

“I didn’t know she was you....”

“Then you know now!”

Before Long Tian San could finish a sentence, he was instantly choked by Cheng Ying.

“My lord I....”

“How do you! Does my mother even have to be used by you to take advantage of her when she is gone?”

Cheng Ying asked angrily.

“My lord, I am innocent, I don’t even know your mother!”

Long Three-day felt wronged!

He didn’t know anything about himself, but now.

“Don’t know you to whip my mother in order to achieve your loyalty?”

Cheng Ying’s voice gradually became icy cold.

The force in his hand was also strengthening.

By now a trail of blood was already running down the corner of Long Tian San's mouth.

"My lord, have mercy!"

Long Tian San begged bitterly.

He did not expect that he would end up in such a situation just to show his loyalty.

But there were times when the cultivation world was like this, apart from strength and chance, there were times when one did need that little bit of luck as well.

"Ka-chow!"

Suddenly, a sound of bones rubbing against each other came from Long Tian San's neck.

It was obvious that Cheng Ying's strength had been used to a great extent.

I was afraid that in a moment's time, Long Tian San would have to be strangled to death alive by him.

"Have mercy!"

Lin Ran's voice suddenly rang out from the side.

Although Long Tian San was not a good person, in the end, he hadn't done much wrong in the first place.

A little punishment would suffice, and it would inevitably be a little too much if he was killed.

However, in the face of Lin Ran's persuasion, Cheng Ying was indifferent.

The power in his hands didn't even have the slightest intention of weakening.

"Ai!"

Lin Ran sighed helplessly at this.

If this matter was placed on himself, I was afraid that he wouldn't spare this fellow easily either.

However, just when Lin Ran even felt some sympathy for Long Tian San, a voice rang out violently.

"Bang!"

As the sound rang out, Long Tian San, who was instantly being choked by Cheng Ying, actually disappeared directly in place.

All that was left behind was a puff of smoke that dissipated with the wind.

"Hm?"

Seeing this, Cheng Ying could not help but frown slightly.

Although Long Tian San's skill in escaping had taken him by surprise.

But the entire town was under his divine sense envelope.

Under such circumstances, it was almost impossible to escape without a trace!

The first thing that Cheng Ying said was that he had a deal, but before he could chase him out!

Instead, Lin Ran had already clasped Cheng Ying's shoulder.

"That's enough, this guy is already seriously injured in order to survive!"

"Why do you need to kill him?"

"You!"

Cheng Ying snorted coldly in anger, and didn't say anything more.

Lin Ran patted Cheng Ying's shoulder, and then walked towards the outside of the town.

Cheng Ying looked at the statue beside him for a full moment before he instantly destroyed it with a wave of his hand.

Although it was a statue of his mother, he was not willing to keep it for others to insult.

After destroying the statue, Cheng Ying then quickly caught up with Lin Ran.

"Alright? Going back now or?"

Lin Ran asked blandly as he stood outside the town.

"Go see my mother, then go back!"

Cheng Ying left a sentence and walked towards the front.

Lin Ran didn't ask too many questions and quietly followed behind Cheng Ying.

The two people walked slowly, one in front of the other.

It seemed that Cheng Ying did not want to leave too early, so he did not use his power along the way, as if he had come for a walk.

Lin Ran was not in a hurry either, and just followed him quietly.

The two soon arrived at the foot of a mountain.

Only then did Cheng Ying walk up towards the mountain.

Lin Ran followed closely behind him.

Soon he saw that Cheng Ying had stopped at a place.

The vegetation on this hill was growing lushly and luxuriantly.

Cheng Ying waved his hand to blow away the vegetation in front of him, and soon a lone tomb was revealed ahead!

The lone tomb looked very dilapidated, obviously no one had been here for a long time!

Without a word, Cheng Ying quietly stepped forward.

Lin Ran didn't follow him this time, and waited outside.

He wasn't afraid that Cheng Ying would flee, at this point he probably really needed to be alone for a while.

Lin Ran sat down quietly at the side, cultivating and waiting at the same time.

He just didn't expect that waiting would be a full night.

It wasn't until the next morning that Su Chen went to look and found that Cheng Ying had actually fallen asleep against a newly erected stone tablet!

Looking at this scene, Lin Ran couldn't help but feel sad.

Although Cheng Ying was a member of the Divine Shadow Clan, it didn't seem to be much different from someone from the Immortal World.

It was just that the two civilisations had appeared at the wrong time and in the wrong place, which had caused the enmity between the two camps.

Lin Ran didn't call out to wake up Cheng Ying, he just stood by and waited in silence!

It was only after waiting until noon, as if the bright light of the sun was making Cheng Ying uncomfortable, that he came to his senses.

"Thank you!"

Cheng Ying didn't say much, he just said two words.

Lin Ran didn't say anything more either, this kind of separation he had experienced up to now.

"It's time to leave!"

Lin Ran said.

Cheng Ying nodded, then turned into a stream of light and entered the spatial scroll!

Lin Ran didn't delay and immediately waved his hand, an array enveloping the lone tomb in front of him.

In an instant the lone tomb disappeared since it was in place.

"No one will disturb her during the time you're away!"

"Thank you!"

Cheng Ying said.

Lin Ran then said no more and turned to leave the place.

....

What had happened to Cheng Ying had also allowed Dark Lin Ran to see a side of the Divine Shadow Clan that was not known to others.

But at the same time, Lin Ran had also discovered a problem.

That was that Cheng Ying's mother seemed to be from the Immortal Realm.

Which meant that his father should be from the Divine Shadow Clan.

And he was the child of someone from the Divine Shadow Clan and the Immortal Realm.

No wonder he, a member of the Arching God Shadow Clan, would be sealed in a formation and be a formation spirit.

Obviously with such a birth, he was also ostracised in the Divine Shadow Clan.

And the Immortal Realm was because there was no place to stay.

That was why it had created this situation of being an alien everywhere.

Thinking about this, Lin Ran instead felt some sympathy for Cheng Ying.

Compared to Cheng Ying, he himself still seemed to be lucky.

At least he now knew where his parents were, he just hadn't found a way to leave the Immortal Realm yet.

When the tribulation in the Immortal Realm had passed, Lin Ran would also choose to leave and go to the Chaos Spatial Tunnel to find his parents.

But where else could Cheng Ying go? Which one of the Immortal Realm or the Divine Shadow Clan could accept him?

Wonder Doctor Chapter 2225

No one spoke on the way, it seemed that because of what had happened to Cheng Ying, it had left everyone in a bad mood.

But fortunately, they were not too far from the Moon Sword Villa in the first place, so they soon arrived here.

The Moon Sword Villa was in much the same condition as when they had left.

The entire mountain villa looked empty.

However, Lin Ran did notice that there were a lot of things missing inside the villa, so the disciples who had left before had come back.

Looking at the large Moon Sword Villa, which was now empty, Lin Ran couldn't help but feel a sense of emotion.

Was this the so-called force that could not have traitors?

It was true that no traitors had appeared, but when problems did arise, the disciples ran faster than one another.

This seemed to be worse than the traitors.

At least the traitors would remain on the scene, but these disciples were running faster than anyone else.

“It’s your turn!”

Lin Ran looked to Cheng Ying.

Without saying anything, Cheng Ying nodded his head and walked towards the teleportation formation ahead.

At the same time, Lin Ran waved his hand and sent the white mist out.

“What for?”

White Mist looked at Lin Ran a little puzzled, the formation was about to be activated, what was this guy doing releasing himself now!

“You’d better not go, it’s very dangerous inside!”

Lin Ran spoke.

The place where the Divine Shadow Clan was located, even he didn’t know if he would be able to come out alive.

He really didn’t want White Mist to risk going along with him.

“Hey! What time is it that you’re talking to me about this!”

“Have you ever treated me like a friend!”

White Mist asked under his breath.

“I… I’m not worried about your safety!”

Lin Ran said helplessly.

“Worried about my safety? Is this lady weak? Although not as strong as you, at least she’s still somewhat strong, right!”

“Besides, I’ve known you for so long, how can I be considered a friend, do you want me to watch you go in by yourself?”

White Mist retorted.

“But it’s really dangerous inside, I’m going in for something, and you don’t have to take that risk at all!”

Lin Ran said, even he wasn’t sure how the situation inside the Divine Shadow Clan really was.

It was likely that if he went in this time, he wouldn’t even have a chance of coming out.

Even Lin Ran had already placed the Cause Breaking Fruit in his hand, as long as the situation was not right, he would be the first to take this Cause Breaking Fruit.

Otherwise, it was likely that even the other doppelganger far away in the Immortal Realm would be in danger.

“Don’t mind you, I must go! Don’t even think about knocking me out, or I’ll find my own way in!”

White Mist insisted.

“Why are you so willful!”

Lin Ran was speechless.

It really didn't make any sense at all to say that this ninny was going to go in.

“I'll be capricious, I want to go in anyway!”

White Mist put her head down, as if this matter was not negotiable.

Lin Ran saw this and shook his head, and said no more.

He had done everything he should have said and done, but this girl was still indifferent.

He really had no choice either.

“Weng!”

And just as the two of them were talking, there was a buzzing sound coming from the teleportation array on the side.

Lin Ran and White Mist were busy turning their heads to look and found that a red aura had risen up on the teleportation formation at this moment.

This red aura wrapped up the entire teleportation array.

From the outside, one could clearly see that the wind was howling within the entire teleportation array, but just one step away from the envelope of the array, there was not a bit of wind to be felt.

“The formation has been activated, you only have one minute to decide for yourself!”

Cheng Ying had by now disappeared within the formation and returned to the scroll space.

Obviously what he had to do, was already done, and the next step was up to Lin Ran to make his own choice.

“I'll ask you one last time, do you really want to go in?”

Lin Ran finally looked at the white mist and asked solemnly.

“Humph!”

White Mist grunted in exasperation, not answering positively at all.

Seeing this, Lin Ran shook his head helplessly and didn't say anything as he took a step forward and walked towards the formation.

The place he was going to this time was extraordinary.

Even Lin Ran wasn't sure if he would be able to come out alive.

He even had to deal with the karmic attacks that could appear at any moment, and Lin Ran knew very well.

If he really ran into an expert of the Divine Shadow Clan, I was afraid that he would have to completely lose contact with the other doppelganger as well!

Death wasn't terrifying, what was terrifying was the loss of contact.

Once contact was lost, the two doppelgangers would have no idea what the other was doing!

Lin Ran also had no way of knowing what was happening on Song Nuan's side, and that was what made him most desperate!

The wind was howling within the formation, and Lin Ran could clearly feel that the space around him was shifting.

However, as he stood within this formation, he could not feel himself travelling through space at all.

"The divine Shadow Clan's formations are still subtle enough!"

Lin Ran couldn't help but nod his head as well.

There was still a difference in essence between the divine Shadow Clan's teleportation formations and those of the Immortal Realm.

The feeling of this word teleportation alone was considerably stronger than that of the Immortal Realm's.

Soon the fierce winds that swept around gradually became quieter.

And at the same time, the blood mist around them began to weaken.

Vaguely, Lin Ran and the others saw a foggy space.

"This is the space of the Divine Shadow Clan?"

Lin Yan couldn't help but feel a little excited.

After searching for so long on their own, they had finally found the place where the Divine Shadow Clan was located.

Although it was supposed to be a stronghold, at least his efforts for so long had not been in vain.

The blood mist around them soon disappeared completely.

The formation had also completely disappeared.

Lin Ran discovered that they were still standing on the formation altar.

The formation altar had the same shape as the one inside the Moon Sword Villa.

However, it was clear that he was no longer at the Moon Sword Villa.

Instead, he had arrived at the place where the Divine Shadow Clan was located.

Lin Ran looked towards the surroundings.

He found that where he was, there was nothing but this altar of the teleportation formation.

There was a foggy mist all around, and his range of vision would not exceed a hundred metres.

It was completely impossible to see what kind of place this was.

“Why does this place look so bizarre!”

White Mist couldn't help but transmit a voice.

However, before Lin Ran could say anything, suddenly there was actually such a white chain ahead of him surging right towards him.

“Not good!”

Upon seeing the white chains, Lin Ran's heart immediately chilled.

It was obvious that he had been discovered.

“Who dares to trespass on my Divine Shadow Clan's important land!”

An angry rebuke rang out, followed by countless white chains surging towards Lin Ran.

Lin Ran's heart sank, he didn't expect that he had just entered the place and was discovered by the other party.

With this in mind, Lin Ran was busy dodging, however, there were too many white chains.

He had just dodged the ones in front of him, but the ones behind him had already arrived.

Lin Ran turned his body around and narrowly dodged the ones behind him, but the ones on either side had also arrived.

“Ka ka ka!”

In almost the blink of an eye, Lin Ran's two arms were locked up in these white chains.

He mobilised the true qi in his body to break free of these chains, but the result was that he was unable to break free at all.

“Hm? This kid actually has the Divine Shadow Clan inside him!”

Suddenly a surprised voice came out.

“It's Cheng Ying! I didn't expect that Cheng Ying had actually become a traitor!”

“Cheng Ying you!”

White Mist watched from the scroll space as Cheng Ying was captured, and those people trended as if they didn't see White Mist!

Seeing this scene, White Mist's heart sank.

“Cheng Ying was you the one who betrayed us? You're a traitor!”

“I am not a traitor!”

There was anger in Cheng Ying's eyes, but as soon as the words were finished, he had already disappeared into the scroll space.

Wonder Doctor Chapter 2226

"What the hell is going on here!"

There was anger in Lin Ran's eyes, and at this moment, he couldn't break free of these white chains at all.

There was no telling what these chains were refined from.

Even his powerful strength today was unable to break through them.

Even whenever he tried to forcibly break through these white chains, he would feel a tingling pain in his divine sense.

"Kid! Don't struggle, these are the chains of our divine Shadow Clan that target the divine sense!"

"No matter how strong you are, you won't be able to break free, this is the suppression of divine sense understand?"

A triumphant voice rang out in mid-air.

Lin Ran then saw a line of people in black robes flying towards him.

These people were all shrouded in black robes, and underneath them there were only two red rays of light that seemed to be eyes.

The rest was actually all but invisible.

Lin Ran didn't know what these people were doing, and when they reached close to him they were actually dragging themselves, directly dragging themselves into mid-air.

At the same time, Lin Ran felt that the chains binding his arms were suddenly being pulled taut.

These chains were of unknown material.

They were firmly wrapped around his body and had no intention of falling off at all.

"Kid, say! How did you come to our Divine Shadow Clan! Did that traitor Cheng Ying bring you in!"

One of the slightly larger black-robed men questioned angrily.

At the same time, the whip in his hand kept striking Lin Ran.

The whip in the other's hand was somewhat similar to a god-beating whip, and it was actually designed to strike the divine sense, causing Lin Ran to feel a dull stinging pain in his divine sense with every whip that landed.

According to the other party that White Mist had with Cheng Ying before, White Mist also seemed to suspect that Cheng Ying had betrayed them, otherwise how could they have been caught as soon as they entered.

However, Lin Ran thought otherwise.

With such a birthright, Cheng Ying had been sealed into a formation by the Divine Shadow Clan as a formation spirit!

This clearly meant that he didn't have a good relationship with the Divine Shadow Clan.

In that case, there was absolutely no need to make up all this, and mother and all, to trick himself in!

Moreover, Lin Ran could feel that when Cheng Ying had shed tears in front of his mother's lonely grave before, he did indeed have true feelings.

As Lin Ran thought in his mind, he suddenly thought of a way that he could use to blow up and see if it was Cheng Ying who had betrayed the two of them or not.

"That's right! Cheng Ying is the traitor, he's the one who brought us in!"

Lin Ran suddenly opened his mouth and laughed.

"I was the one who broke the formation outside and saved him from coming out, and in return he would bring me in!"

"At the same time, he also told me everything about what was going on in here!"

With these words, Lin Ran heard the other party's eyes grow even colder by a few degrees.

But the black-robed man leading the group wasn't even making a move.

"Kid, you still haven't learned the skill of sowing discord!"

"Want to use these few words to sow discord between our divine Shadow Clan?"

"First, there's no way Cheng Ying could have told you what's going on here, or he would have died long ago!"

"There is a prohibition within the soul of every Divine Shadow Clan member, you can't fool me!"

"Secondly, just because you want to break through the formation outside and save Cheng Ying? You're dreaming!"

"It must be this kid who deliberately guided your foolishness in order to get out!"

The leading Divine Shadow clan member said disdainfully.

Lin Ran smiled outwardly in anger at his words, but in his heart, he was already laughing.

As expected, not all of the people of the Divine Shadow Clan had brains.

For example, the one in front of him probably didn't have a brain.

He had actually analyzed so many things from his own three words and two sentences.

Moreover, he had actually analyzed a set of causes and consequences.

This bombing was a real success.

To be honest, Lin Ran didn't believe that Cheng Ying would betray himself either.

Saying so was a deliberate attempt to make the other party find out what was broken.

This way, at least Cheng Ying's side was safe.

Otherwise, if he let Cheng Ying get away with anything because of himself, Lin Ran's heart would be more or less overwhelmed.

Although he was also of the Divine Shadow Clan, he was still at least half of the Immortal Realm's bloodline.

"Bang!"

A thick, white chain instantly smacked Lin Ran's body.

It struck him, causing the clothes on his body to instantly explode apart.

"And stirring up trouble, you enjoy stirring up trouble!"

The leading Divine Shadow clan member said in a cold voice.

"Bang!"

Another whip instantly struck Lin Ran's body again.

"Speak! Who the hell are you! What exactly is the purpose of barging into our place!"

"Misguided entry!"

Lin Ran said through clenched teeth.

Although each whip from the other side appeared to be hitting his own body.

However, Lin Ran knew very well that each whip was not only hitting his body.

They were hitting his own divine sense.

It was a painful blow to his own divine sense.

It was only because his own divine sense was strong enough, otherwise if it was someone else, I am afraid that his consciousness would have been blurred by now.

But even if Lin Ran was resistant to the beating, it was impossible for him to resist his opponent's continuous thrashing.

Finally, after the other party had spared no effort in beating him for three hours.

Lin Ran only felt his eyes go black and he completely passed out.

"Damn it! This kid's divine sense is really strong, he actually took a full three hours!"

The leader of the Divine Shadow clan gasped for air.

"Chief, what about him now?"

One of the men next to him asked busily.

“Take him to help, we are so short of manpower now, and he actually broke in on his own, it’s really God helping us!”

The leader said.

“Yes!”

The henchman nodded at his words and immediately greeted a few people to come over and help, taking Lin Ran with him and leaving.

It was strange to say the least, but for some reason, all these people seemed to be unable to see the white mist.

They were completely deaf to her who was hiding in the scroll space.

....

There was no telling how long had passed.

When Lin Ran opened his eyes again.

He found himself in a place that resembled a prison.

This place was white all over.

It seemed to be the same material as those white chains.

And all around was a cage built out of this white material.

There were quite a few people being held inside these cages!

“You’re awake!”

Just as Lin Ran was thinking, a strange voice suddenly came from the side.

Lin Ran also jumped and hurriedly turned his head to look.

He found that the person who spoke was actually a pimply-faced youth.

The beard on the youth’s face was very long, and it was obvious that he hadn’t tidied it up for many years.

However, Lin Ran could still tell from his eyes and voice that he should be a youth.

“You are?”

Lin Ran looked at the other party and was just about to open his mouth to ask, this was the moment he opened his mouth, a sharp pain immediately rushed straight to his head, causing his entire eyes to go black and he almost didn’t pass out.

“Don’t speak, your divine sense is very fragile right now, you need to rest!”

“My name is Seven Thousand, you shouldn’t know me, but I know you!”

“You should also be a disciple of the Thunder Dignity Pavilion!”

The youth said, two simple words but they caused Lin Ran’s entire body to tremble.

“You know about the Thunder Zun Pavilion?”

Lin Ran asked busily.

The youth led the way and then said.

“I’m also a Thunder Dignity Pavilion disciple, and my name is Seven Thousand! Technically speaking I should be your senior brother!”

“The Thunder Zun Pavilion token on you has a record of when you were initiated, and I was already here when you were initiated!”

The youth laughed blandly, seemingly not caring at all about his current situation.

Wonder Doctor Chapter 2227

“Senior brother?”

Lin Ran felt a little baffled, he had actually run into his senior brother here.

“But senior brother, how did you know I had the Thunder Zun Pavilion token on me!”

Lin Ran asked in confusion, this was unscientific, had his senior brother rummaged through his belongings?

“You’re silly, they wanted to rob you in the first place!”

Suddenly a familiar voice came from the side.

Lin Ran was busy turning his head to look, and he saw White Mist standing to the side.

“You! Why are you out here! It’s too dangerous go back!”

Lin Ran was busy transmitting his voice.

If this was seen by the people of the Divine Shadow Clan, it wouldn’t be a problem.

“It’s alright, they can’t see me!”

White Mist said with a smile.

“Can’t see you?”

Lin Ran was stunned to hear this, what was the situation, what did it mean that they couldn’t see you?

“Senior brother? What’s your name!”

The seven thousand next to him asked busily.

“Er.... My name is Lin Ran!”

Lin Ran said with some embarrassment.

But at the same time, he noticed that it seemed like no one here could see the white fog.

Even the senior brother in front of him, Seven Thousand, didn't seem to be able to see the white mist next to him.

The eyes were just looking at themselves.

Lin Ran also noticed that the place he was in at the moment was a dungeon.

There were also quite a few people imprisoned around the dungeon, but none of these people seemed to be able to see the white mist.

One by one, they were all lying on the ground sleeping, and not a single one of them actually glanced towards the white mist.

"What the hell is going on?"

Lin Ran busily sent a voice to White Mist.

White Mist, however, smiled and shook his head. , "What's going on?"

"You'd better get familiar with the situation first, I still have some business, I'll talk to you later when I return!"

White Mist said and turned around and ran out.

Lin Ran wanted to stop but it was already too late.

Instead, White Mist didn't even seem to be at the guards around the dungeon and the various buildings.

It went straight through.

Lin Ran's entire body was dumbfounded by this scene.

Was this ninja dead? A ghost now?

That couldn't be, how could there be ghosts in the Immortal Realm, could it be a soul body?

Lin Ran felt like his head was spinning, wasn't White Mist a human? How did it suddenly turn into a soul body?

Could it be that her physical body had been destroyed?

At this moment a whole lot of questions flooded Lin Ran.

"Senior brother? What's wrong with you?"

Seeing Lin Ran's head lowered and not speaking, Qi Qian, who was at the side, busily asked.

"Uh nothing I'm fine!"

Lin Ran reflected and was busy saying awkwardly.

"It's good that you're fine, it's probably just an after-effect left behind, we were like this when we first arrived!"

Seven Thousand laughed bitterly.

“Aftermath?”

Lin Ran didn’t understand.

“Yes, you should have tasted their broken hands too!”

“These Divine Shadow Clan people are all soul bodies, and they’re very good at dealing with divine sense!”

“No matter how strong you are, their white whips can hit you directly on your divine sense and make you suffer!”

“It’s fine at first, but after a long time, even the most determined divine sense will be shaken!”

Seven Thousand said.

Lin Ran nodded as he listened, no wonder it hurt so much when those white whips lashed at him earlier!

It even ended up giving himself a direct knockout blow.

“By the way, senior brother, what exactly is this place? Why are so many people from the Immortal World imprisoned?”

Lin Ran asked busily.

What White Mist had said before she left seemed to be that she was telling herself to hurry up and familiarise herself with the situation.

It seemed like she had found out something she didn’t know.

“Ai! This place is a purgatory on earth!”

Seven Thousand sighed, then sat down on the ground to the side before speaking.

“This place was made by the Divine Shadow Clan, in order to refine something!”

“But what this thing is, we don’t know, only some traitors who have voluntarily submitted to the Divine Shadow Clan know!”

“And those of them will not be imprisoned, they are mainly responsible for the production here!”

“And those of us are the ones who are unwilling to submit to the Divine Shadow Clan!”

Lin Ran’s brows furrowed as he listened.

Especially after learning that some of them had even defected to the Divine Shadow Clan!

One must know that the Divine Shadow Clan and the Immortal Realm hadn’t even gone to war yet!

But now there were actually people who had already started being traitors!

“Senior brother, be prepared, here we people are not treated as human beings at all!”

“They will make you refine things day and night, and only if you refine well will you have food to eat, but if you refine badly you might even lose your life!”

“And the most important thing is that this place doesn’t get replenished with spiritual energy you can’t even resist if you want to!”

Seven Thousand lamented.

Lin Ran couldn’t help but feel his heart sink at his words, what kind of place was this that actually required the Divine Shadow Clan to respond like this.

And what exactly did the Divine Shadow Clan capture these people of theirs to come here for?

Lin Ran couldn’t understand it in his mind, and now he could only wait for news from White Mist.

However, after White Mist ran out, he didn’t return for half a day.

Instead, Lin Ran waited for the people of the Divine Shadow Clan to come over.

“My lord, this is the boy, he has woken up!”

The man who was guarding the dungeon walked in with a youth.

Yet this youth was not a soul body, but an actual human being!

“This boy’s name is you Chen Fei, he is someone who has defected to the Immortal World in the past, and is now in charge of those of us who are in charge!”

The Seven Thousand next to him explained in a low voice.

“Seven Thousand, that’s quite a good explanation! Defected to the past? How come you don’t call me a traitor anymore? How come you’re afraid of getting beaten up?”

The youth had a cold smile on his face.

“I pooh! What’s there to say to a traitor like you!”

Seven Thousand snorted coldly, with disdain in his eyes.

“That’s right! A traitor, what’s there to say!”

“A traitor to the Immortal World, scum!”

“You’re just a piece of trash!”

The other cultivators around them were also startled, and one by one, they cursed angrily.

It was obvious that this Chen Fei was not well liked.

However, Chen Fei wasn’t angry either, as if he had gotten used to it long ago.

With a wave of his hand, a crisp “pop” sounded throughout the dungeon.

The crowd then saw that there was a long white whip in his hand!

This long whip looked all too familiar, it was the same kind used by the people of the Divine Shadow Clan.

It was this kind of long whip that had knocked Lin Ran unconscious before.

“Does anyone have any nonsense left now?”

Chen Fei swept his gaze over the crowd with disdain in his eyes.

And as soon as this long whip came out, everyone present fell silent.

They were not afraid of the Divine Shadow Clan, but they were only afraid of this long whip.

When this long whip reached a person, it was really not something that ordinary people could endure.

“Chen Fei, what the hell are you doing! It’s rest time!”

Seven Thousand looked at Chen Fei and said angrily.

“Rest time? The rest time is also set by the old man!”

“Now that the break is over, everyone go work for Laozi!”

“You!”

One by one, the crowd looked at Chen Fei with anger in their eyes, but no one dared to say anything.

That long whip hitting the body was really too painful.

“Humph! Each and every one of them said that I was a traitor, but now don’t they still have to listen to me, a traitor?”

Chen Fei said disdainfully, and with a swirl of his hand, someone came in with a long whip and began to drive people out.

Lin Ran’s brow furrowed as he watched, but there was nothing he could do in the face of the long whips, and he was not at all familiar with the place.

He could only hold back for the time being and follow them out to see what the situation was before he said anything!

I don’t know where this white mist girl has gone, but don’t let anything happen to her!

Lin Ran said in his heart, if something happened to White Mist, he would feel too guilty.

She didn’t need to get into this mess in the first place!

Wonder Doctor Chapter 2228

Chen Fei led the group all the way out of the dungeon.

Halfway there, Lin Ran noticed that the place seemed to be really in a big mountain.

This was because there were mountain walls all around.

This camp of theirs seemed to have been carved into the mountain wall in general.

Apart from them, there were quite a few people dressed like them around, who should be captives controlled by the Divine Shadow Clan.

“The people here are all captives held captive, and the cave over there is where we work!”

Seven Thousand said, pointing to a cave off to the side.

Lin Ran followed his gaze and found that there were actually quite a few caves opening up in the mountain walls around here.

And inside each cave, there were people constantly going in and out of the caves, busy.

“What’s in these caves?”

Lin Ran asked.

“Mining!”

Seven Thousand said.

“Later!”

Seven Thousand suddenly blushed and was busy lowering his voice.

Almost at the same time, Lin Ran felt a gaze fall on him.

Turning his head to look, he saw that Chen Fei was looking at him with a cold smile on his face.

However, he did not say anything and was still leading the way.

Lin Ran also did not speak and silently followed behind.

Soon the group arrived inside the cave.

As soon as they entered the cave, Lin Ran saw that the cave walls were covered with traces of mining.

There was no one inside the cave at the moment, but there were a lot of mining tools.

Apparently the last wave of diggers had already left.

“The usual rule, five hours! The amount cannot be reduced at all, or you know the consequences!”

Chen Fei smiled smugly, and with a wave of his hand a chair and a table appeared at the entrance of the cave.

Chen Fei was not polite and sat down directly on the chair, looking as if he was going to watch the fun.

“Let’s begin!”

Seven Thousand swept his gaze over the crowd and spoke.

Although everyone was very unhappy in their hearts, it was still themselves who would suffer if they didn’t dig.

At that moment, the crowd stopped talking and one by one, they came to their positions and started working.

Seven Thousand glanced at Lin Ran, his gaze seeming to say, "We'll have to resign ourselves to fate when we get here!"

Let's get to work, brother.

Lin Ran didn't say anything either, and after watching how everyone operated, he also came to the side and operated.

He didn't even know what the hell was going on in this place.

It wasn't the right time to resist.

And no matter what, he had managed to come to a place where there was a divine Shadow Clan.

He just didn't know if Song Nuan's physical body was here.

As he was thinking in his mind, a figure suddenly appeared next to him.

Lin Ran was also startled and was busy turning his head to look, but he actually found that the white mist had actually appeared in the cave at some point.

Turning his head to look, Lin Ran then realised that Chen Fei was still sitting there at the entrance.

It was completely as if he hadn't noticed the white mist.

"What the hell is going on here?"

Lin Ran asked as he busied himself with the work in his hands.

"What else can happen, we've sort of fallen into the wolf's den!"

White Mist said helplessly, while making his way to the side.

"I've just given this place a stroll all around."

"This digging place of yours should be the lowest level!"

White Mist said, while his finger began to gesture on the ground.

Lin Ran didn't say anything, but looked at the shapes that White Mist had drawn on the ground and asked.

"What is this thing?"

"A topographical map of this place!"

White Mist said.

"There are four areas in this place!"

"This area of yours is the mining area, these mines will be used to refine a metal when they are dug up! This is the second area!"

“The third area, where these metals will be refined into puppets!”

“And this area is also a very important place, I found out that the people there are basically all from the Divine Shadow Clan!”

“And a form walker like Chen Fei at the entrance has no right to go to that kind of place at all!”

White Mist explained.

“Formal walking meat? What does that mean?”

Lin Ran asked, puzzled.

“What else could it mean, people like Chen Fei who have defected to the Divine Shadow Clan have actually long since ceased to be himself!”

“In other words, it’s the people of the Divine Shadow Clan who have taken over their bodies and controlled them!”

White Mist said blandly.

“The people of the Divine Shadow Clan controlled them?”

Lin Ran’s heart sank as he listened.

The people of the Divine Shadow Clan were all soul bodies, this was something he knew very well.

They made puppets Lin Ran could also understand.

After all, the Divine Shadow Clan was not from the Immortal Realm.

For them to stay in the Immortal Realm for a long time was something that would be reversed by the Immortal Realm!

So whether it was taking over someone else’s body, or refining a puppet themselves.

In the end, it was actually all about being able to stay in the Immortal Realm.

And only by staying in the Immortal Realm could they gradually gain control of the entire Immortal Realm.

“What about the fourth region!”

Lin Ran asked.

White Mist smiled but shook his head.

“I didn’t dare to go!”

“There’s a scary aura within this fourth region, and he should be able to see me!”

“That’s why I didn’t dare to go over there!”

“No, why can’t they see you!”

Lin Ran asked busily.

Even if the white mist was a spirit shield, the fluctuation of a soul's aura couldn't fool anyone!

Especially in front of some powerful people, there was simply nothing to hide.

The kind of white whip in Chen Fei's hand was a magic weapon specifically designed to target the divine soul.

This kind of whip was naturally a great threat to the white mist as well.

This was also the reason why Lin Ran was worried about the white mist running amok here and encountering danger.

"This isn't much, it's a treasure my father gave me!"

White Mist laughed, while feeling out a white bead from his arms!

This bead was snow-white and translucent, and there was a strange power fluctuation faintly inside.

It was this power fluctuation that absorbed all the divine sense aura from White Mist's body.

This was what caused no one to be able to detect her presence.

"What about your physical body?"

Lin Ran asked busily.

Flesh bodies and soul bodies were completely different, and White Mist had clearly had a flesh body before.

"It was put away, my soul can be separated from my physical body at will!"

White Mist said smugly.

Lin Ran was a little speechless as he listened.

The flesh body could easily be separated from the divine sense, something that at least he was not willing to do.

No one would be willing to let their divine sense leave their body unless it was absolutely necessary.

After all, it is still very dangerous.

Without the protection of the physical body, the divine sense could easily be overwhelmed!

Only White Mist possessed this supreme treasure that hid the aura of divine sense, and only then would he dare to do so!

"Right, what do we do down here? How are you going to get out of this!"

White Mist couldn't help but ask.

Lin Ran smiled and shook his head.

“I haven’t thought about it yet!”

“According to what you saw before, the people of the Divine Shadow Clan in the first three areas of this place aren’t very strong!”

“The only thing that scares me is the people inside that fourth area!”

“Apart from that, there’s also the long white whip in their hands!”

“Don’t look at these people of the Divine Shadow Clan, they’re not very strong!”

“But the long white whip in their hands is too restraining to divine sense.”

“If I can’t find a good solution, I can’t easily reveal my strength!”

Lin Ran said.

These were the only two things that made him afraid of this place.

If he couldn’t find a way to break these two points, his rash move would not only fail to save himself and these seven thousand people at that point!

He might even put them in a dangerous situation!

“This matter cannot be rushed!”

“Since they can’t see you, then I’ll trouble you to go on another run!”

“It’s best to find out exactly who the people within that fourth area are and how strong they are!”

“But also remember to protect yourself! If something happens to you, there’s no way I can explain to your parents!”

Lin Ran admonished.

Wonder Doctor Chapter 2229

“Che! Make it sound like you know my parents!”

White Mist laughed.

“I’m not thinking of your safety!”

Lin Ran was speechless.

“Alright no more nonsense with you, you dig first, I’ll go check again! I’ll come back to you if I have any news!”

White Mist said as he got up and walked towards the cave entrance.

Lin Ran sighed helplessly, if he could have such treasures, wouldn’t this place be wherever he wanted to go!

This ninny, White Mist, really didn’t mind.

When she walked next to Chen Fei at the door, she actually poured a cup of water from the side directly onto Chen Fei's head.

"Who did that!"

Chen Fei was furious, but he got up and saw that the people inside were all busy in a frenzy.

Obviously it wasn't the person inside who did it, so he was so angry that he turned around and left the cave.

Lin Ran laughed at this and continued to work on the matter at hand!

....

That day, Lin Ran, Seven Thousand and the others dug for ten hours before they were finally able to go back and rest.

Lin Ran was fine, after all, he had enough true qi in his body.

But Seven Thousand and the others were having a harder time!

They already had very little true qi in their bodies.

When they returned to the dungeon, they were so tired that they could not move.

Some of them had even not even eaten their dinner and had simply fallen asleep.

"Get up!"

Suddenly a voice broke the calm of the dungeon.

At this moment, the crowd could be said to be the most tired and should be able to get rest.

Otherwise, if they all died out, the Divine Shadow Clan would still have to go and find people to come and serve as hard labourers.

But now, it was clear that they couldn't rest.

Lin Ran looked up and found that the one speaking was none other than Chen Fei!

And at this moment, he was followed by several henchmen beside him, each with a cold and stern aura, as if they were about to eat someone!

"Chen Fei! What do you want again!"

Seven Thousand looked at Chen Fei and asked impatiently.

"What do you think I'm up to? In the afternoon, splashing me with water thinking this was over?"

Chen Fei said as he swept his gaze over the crowd present, a cold smile in his eyes.

"I'll count to three, and if no one comes forward to admit it, then ten lashes each!"

"You! Who are you to do that!"

“That’s right, what proof do you have that we did it!”

“Yeah, where’s the proof!”

The people next to them shouted.

“Evidence? My words are the proof!”

Chen Fei waved his hand with a disdainful expression.

“Give me a fight!”

“Yes!”

The men next to him answered, and immediately turned towards the whips and greeted them towards the crowd.

In an instant the whole dungeon was simply buzzing with activity.

A roar of anger rang out endlessly.

But no one dared to react to Chen Fei, after all, if they did not resist, they would only receive two lashes!

But if he resisted, he would probably receive more than two lashes!

Lin Ran stood on the sidelines, watching this scene with an incomparable amount of anger in his heart, but there was nothing he could do.

This was how one had to bow down under the eaves of the house.

Chen Fei led the men to beat them for half an hour, and only when he felt relieved did he lead them out of the place.

The beating was so severe that the already tired people could not even eat.

“Damn it! What kind of life is this? I might as well die!”

Finally someone started to hold back.

“Right! Or we’ll fight them!”

Immediately, someone echoed.

“Fight? What are you going to do? Even the God Beating Whip is enough for us!”

“Then we’ll just wait here to die?”

The crowd murmured angrily.

And when Seven Thousand, who was at the side, saw Lin Ran not speaking, he came over.

“What’s wrong? Intimidated?”

Lin Ran smiled and spoke.

Seven Thousand patted Lin Ran’s shoulder and laughed.

“It’s your misfortune to be here, and your great fortune!”

“At least you can still meet your brothers and sisters, many people might not even have an acquaintance for company when they die!”

“Resign yourself to fate, the cultivation world is like this, on the way to cultivation, sometimes it takes a bit of luck!”

Seven Thousand lamented.

“Haven’t you guys ever thought about escaping?”

Lin Ran suddenly spoke up and asked.

Seven Thousand smiled and crossed his arms.

“Escaping? You’ve only just arrived and don’t know the situation here at all!”

“The leader of this place is incredibly powerful, it’s not like no one has ever thought about escaping before, but do you know what the result was?”

“What?”

Lin Ran asked.

“The result was that the person who tried to set out was beaten on the spot and his soul was scattered, and his divine sense was even sealed directly into a puppet by the Ghost King!”

“It can be said that there’s no way to get out for the rest of his life!”

Seven Thousand said helplessly.

However, Lin Ran could hear it really well.

“Who are you talking about? The Ghost King? Who is the Ghost King?”

“The Ghost King is the most powerful being here, with heavenly strength!”

Seven Thousand explained.

“Alright, go to bed early! Tomorrow maybe Chen Fei will do something else!”

Said Seven Thousand, who also stopped talking, turned around and went back to his position to start resting.

Lin Ran listened but his heart was shocked.

Ghost King! The Ghost King!

Could this Ghost King be the same Ghost Lord that he had encountered at the Immortal Sound Pavilion back then?

It shouldn’t be possible, according to what Seven Thousand said, this Ghost King should be of a very high status!

Such a person would actually lower his status to collude with the Moon Sword Mortal?

Lin Ran was a little puzzled.

But there was no hurry, after all, he had only been here for a day, and he didn't know much about the situation here.

If he found a suitable opportunity to leave, he would certainly meet this Ghost King then.

Whether or not this Ghost King is the Lord of Ghosts will be clear in due course.

Time passed day by day, and three days had passed in the blink of an eye.

In these three days, Chen Fei did not come looking for trouble.

He didn't even see anyone.

From what Seven Thousand said, there were thousands of diggers like them in this base!

Chen Fei had two other places to take care of, so he wasn't able to come and keep an eye on them every day!

And through these three days, Lin Ran had discovered something.

That was that the metal material in this ore that was being used to refine the puppets was extraordinary.

Not only was it extremely tough, but it was also extremely durable, a very good material of sorts.

No wonder the Divine Shadow Clan wanted to smelt puppets here.

It was just that this material was very difficult to refine, and Lin Ran tried refining some of it, but it turned out to be a thumb-sized piece of ore that only ended up using a beaten amount of ore.

And this was already very good, after all, Lin Ran's strength was there.

Just when Lin Ran didn't know how much longer he had to hold back, this night White Mist finally returned!

"How was it?"

Seeing White Mist come back, Lin Ran was also looking forward to it.

White Mist was now like his eyes, and all of his next actions would depend on the slightest bit of information she poked back.

"I've made a major discovery, a chance to make a move of sorts, but it's all up to you whether you want to risk it or not!"

White Mist said with a serious face.

"Tell me about it!"

Lin Ran said.

White Mist thought for a moment and said.

“Recently in the third area, there is a puppet that happens to be in need of repair, and this puppet is a heavenly rank puppet!”

“If you can find a way to take control of this puppet, you should be able to resist the white long whip’s attack on your soul!”

“However, I can’t guarantee that if you take on that mysterious person!”

“The only thing you can be sure of is that by taking control of the puppet, at least those long white whips will have no use against your soul!”

Lin Ran fell into contemplation at his words.

This was indeed an opportunity.

Wonder Doctor Chapter 2230

“How strong is the kind of Heavenly Rank puppet you mentioned among these puppets?”

Lin Ran asked.

“It should be considered the second kind, after all, one that can break a Heavenly Tribulation puppet must be stronger than a Heavenly Tribulation puppet!”

“Onwards and upwards, I’ve never seen one!”

White Mist said.

Lin Ran fell into contemplation and said a moment later.

“When will you do it?”

“You’ve decided?”

White Mist was a little surprised, in her opinion Lin Ran was a very opinionated person, he would have given the information he provided some more thought!

I didn’t expect that he would actually do it so soon!

“The opportunity is too good to miss, if the person guarding the fourth region is very strong, it’s useless even if I continue to hide!”

Lin Ran said.

He had come here to find Song Nuan’s flesh!

If he kept being trapped here because the other party was too strong, it obviously wasn’t what he wanted!

Furthermore, wouldn’t the white mist then never get out either!

Although she could be undetected, but to get out of here, it was obviously not just a matter of not being discovered!

So Lin Ran couldn't stay in this place forever, at least there was hope if he fought!

But if she didn't, there would be no hope at all!

"I'll keep an eye on it, I'll find you if I can!"

White Mist said.

"Mhm!"

Lin Ran nodded and didn't say much.

People had already arrived at this place, so it was only a matter of time before they made their move!

The only thing that put his mind at ease right now was these seven thousand people.

If he made a move himself, they would definitely be in great danger.

But if he took them with him, in case he failed, they would still be in danger then!

So Mu Yang was a bit unsure of what to do for a while!

Sitting alone in the corner of the dungeon, Lin Ran pondered what exactly to do!

Suddenly, Qi Qian who was on the side actually walked towards him.

"Senior brother!"

Lin Ran shouted when he saw this.

"Hm!"

Seven Thousand replied, gesturing for him not to speak!

Lin Ran felt a little strange, it was already late at this time.

By rights, Seven Thousand should have already fallen asleep.

But why did he come looking for himself now!

"Lin Ran, how did you get caught in here?"

Seven Thousand sat down at one side and asked with a voice transmission.

"I came in on my own!"

Lin Ran said, while asking in amazement.

"Why do you need a voice transmission, senior brother?"

Was it bad to speak directly in this dungeon, or in the middle of the night?

"Nothing, senior brother is trying to tell you something, but it depends on whether you want to know or not!"

Seven Thousand laughed.

“What is it?”

Lin Ran asked.

“I can’t say too much about this matter, all I can say is that anyone who knows about this matter must make a blood oath!”

“Absolutely no one must reveal half a word! If you’re willing to make a blood oath, I’ll tell you!”

Seven Thousand said.

Lin Ran couldn’t help but frown slightly even as he listened, what kind of big matter was this that he actually had to be so cautious about.

“Senior brother, I’m your senior brother!”

Lin Ran asked in confusion.

“This matter is not about senior brothers, once it is leaked out, many people here will die!”

Seven Thousand said with a serious face.

At the same time, he patted Mu Yang’s shoulder, obviously waiting for his answer!

Lin Ran pondered for a moment before finally saying.

“I know things, can I not join you guys?”

“It’s all up to you!”

Seven thousand dao!

Only then did Lin Ran nod and make a blood oath.

His biggest worry was that he would have to join once he knew about the matter.

There really wasn’t time for that himself, especially as he would probably have to kill it straight away tonight!

But at the same time, he sensed that Senior and the others seemed to be brewing something too!

If he didn’t find out about it, once his side made a move, it would probably set off a chain reaction!

At that time, in harming Seven Thousand and the others!

“Not bad!”

Seeing that Lin Ran had made a blood oath, Seven Thousand smiled and nodded, before transmitting a voice.

“Don’t resist, I’ll take you to a place!”

With that said a force had guided Lin Ran towards a place to rush towards.

Lin Ran soon saw that a vortex had appeared in the corner!

Followed by the two people's divine senses instantly surging into it.

The vortex quickly disappeared!

The next moment, Lin Ran saw a light appear before him!

Along with it, there was a huge forest.

"It's just one of my spatial artifacts, follow me!"

Seven Thousand said, while leading Lin Ran right towards the forest.

The space within this magic artifact wasn't large, but it was well contained by Seven Thousand!

It had the feel of a small world.

But it was limited to this forest, beyond it was still a vast expanse of nothingness!

Lin Ran followed Seven Thousand and soon arrived at a clearing in the forest.

And as soon as he arrived, Lin Ran saw that it was actually filled with people!

And many of these people he even knew.

All of them were fellow prisoners in this dungeon!

And the others should have been imprisoned in other dungeons!

"Welcome Senior Brother Lin Ran!"

All of them smiled and shouted when they saw Lin Ran, their attitudes were very kind.

"Senior brothers, what are you?"

Lin Ran, however, looked a little confused, not knowing what they were doing here!

"Lin Ran, the reason you were made to make a blood oath was so that you wouldn't leak what happened here!"

"Now I can show you one thing, with the plans you we have, you can join if you want to, or leave if you don't!"

"Everything is up to you!"

Seven Thousand said.

Having made a blood oath, they weren't afraid of Lin Ran Gao Mi.

Only then could they feel comfortable telling him a lot of things about themselves!

"Mm!"

Lin Ran nodded, also a little curious.

Seven Thousand turned around and looked to the back.

Lin Ran also followed his gaze.

It was discovered that this place was a huge square hidden in the forest.

The square was all forged from a very hard stone.

It even seemed a bit like the stones that he had dug out from his own daytime digging!

The more Lin Ran looked at it, the stranger he felt!

But at this moment, Seven Thousand made a move that made Lin Ran incredibly puzzled.

He saw that Seven Thousand had actually raised his hand and grabbed it in mid-air, but there was clearly nothing in his hand!

“Brush!”

A loud sound suddenly appeared, followed by Lin Ran’s shocked sight of a huge object falling from the sky.

It seemed to be a piece of cloth that had blended in with its surroundings, and as the cloth was ripped off!

At once a huge object appeared in front of him!

The object was over ten metres tall and its entire body was silvery white in colour.

It was as stout as a giant!

And it was in the shape of a puppet!

A puppet with a body but no head!

“This... This is the War God Interceptor!”

Lin Ran exclaimed in shock.

There were many Interdictor puppets in the Immortal Realm, but their strength was usually at the Violet Sea Realm!

This kind of puppet couldn’t possibly go any higher in strength due to material limitations!

But now Seven Thousand and the others had actually produced an Interdictor Puppet~!

“This Interdictor puppet can reach a maximum strength of the Little Perfection realm!”

“It’s a pity that we’re not strong enough, otherwise we could reach the Great Perfection at the highest!”

“Lin Ran, do you think that senior brother and I have been here for so many years and are really waiting to die?”

Seven Thousand laughed.

“This is what we rely on to leave, this Interdictor puppet is all forged using the ores here!”

“We enter it to manipulate it and our strength can reach the small perfection!”

“Now do you know what it is I’m showing you?”

“Join us and kill it out together!”

Seven Thousand said aloud.

The crowd around them all echoed the words.

“Join us and kill it out!”

“Kill it out!”
