

Chapter 2233– 2234 of A Dish Best Served Cold Novel

Chapter 2233

“Really?” Mark smiled even more.

While smiling, he stepped on the steps and walked slowly in the direction of Xu He.

“What you said, for others, may have the power to make them kneel down and begging for mercy.”

“However, in my eyes, it is not worth mentioning.”

Mark’s contemptuous laugh echoed.

Xu He was undoubtedly furious upon hearing this.

“Zhuzi is arrogant!” “When his death is approaching, he is still uttering arrogant words?” “In that case, there is nothing to say.”

After speaking, Xu He immediately raised his hand and said to the soldiers behind him majestic.

“All the soldiers listen to orders.”

“This son has committed a lot of evil, and it is the evil one.”

“Burn and looting, do no evil.”

“Even, kill in public.”

“The sins are not tolerated!” “The people of Noirfork have suffered for a long time.”

Xu He, just walk the road for the sky and wipe out this gang of thugs.”

“First column, give me this person and shoot me on the spot!” Boom~ Xu He gave an order.

The moment the words fell, dozens of soldiers in the first column behind him all raised their guns.

Load the bullet and aim the gun.

Dozens of modern automatic rifles were aimed at Mark.

The muzzle of the black hole, like death's sickle, locks Mark round and round.

“Haha~” “Junior, it's over!” “You are to blame for all this.”

“To blame, blame you for killing Shaohua and provoking people who shouldn't be offended.”

“Today, I will use your blood, Go to sacrifice my nephew Shaohua, in the spirit of the sky!” At the moment when the guns were raised behind him, a vengeful smile appeared at the corner of Xu He's mouth.

As if, I have already seen a scene of blood red blooming before my eyes.

After all, in Xu He's eyes, it was Mr. Chu who had a bronze head and iron arms, and he would never survive the army's siege.

“Finally, is it over?” “It's just that it's still so young, it's a pity.”

At this moment, Ferguson Wu, who had been watching from a distance, shook his head and sighed in a low voice.

Looking at Mark's eyes, there was pity.

Bang bang bang~

Finally, the next moment, amidst the deafening sounds, dozens of soldiers pulled the trigger together.

Suddenly, the tongue of fire gushed out.

Hundreds of high-heat bullets scorched the sky, swept across the void, and swept away towards where Mark was.

“Mark~” “Mr. Chu~” At that moment, your Excellency HaiDollar, countless people screamed in horror.

Helen Qiu's beautiful eyes were already reddened because of worry, and she was weeping.

Chen Ao and others closed their eyes even more scared.

It seems that I don't want to see Mark being pierced by a bullet.

“Hey~” “Why bother?” “Why don’t you listen to advice?” “Mr. Chu, Mr. Chu, how can you fight an army by yourself and a mortal body?” Chen Ao was heartbroken and wailed in his heart.

He estimated that next, he would hear Mark’s painful screams.

However, to Chen Ao’s surprise, the expected scream did not appear.

He didn’t even hear the sound of Mark falling to the ground.

The whole world is as if time has stagnated.

It was surprisingly quiet.

“Huh?” Chen Ao opened his eyes with suspicion in his heart, wondering what was going on.

However, just as Chen Ao’s eyebrows opened, his whole body trembled suddenly.

A pair of old eyes suddenly widened!

Not only Chen Ao, but everyone here was stunned.

Chapter 2234 the power of ghosts and gods

Greg Shen opened his mouth wide, and Father Xia’s old eyes became the size of a copper bell.

Ericson and others, but they were trembling and they forgot to breathe.

Between them, in front of them, Mark’s body actually stood in the void.

Under the Tianhe River, Mark’s feet were in the air, like a generation of gods, descending from the sky.

He stood with his hands behind, and he sneered.

Deep and ethereal eyes, just if the gods are alive, they can look everywhere!

Moreover, what is even more shocking is that not only did Mark stand in the void, but all the bullets that had been shot at him before stopped within several inches of his body.

It was like being blocked by an invisible barrier.

Those bullets can no longer advance even the slightest!

“This...this...”

“How is this possible?” Seeing the scene before him, Xu He was immediately stunned.

Standing in the void?

Not afraid of bullets?

“This...is this still a human?” Xu He’s old face was pale, and his whole body was trembling almost subconsciously.

Looking at Mark’s gaze was even more like looking at ghosts and gods.

After all, all the people present have only seen such methods as vertical and void in the novel or on TV.

But now, a living person can really walk in vain.

Xu He and others only felt that the world outlook over the past few decades has almost collapsed.

“General... General, this...”

This Mr. Chu, is it possible that a god is alive?

“Not only Xu He, but even the adjutant behind him was scared. The whole person was shaking! The Vietnamese, from the emperor to the beggar, all respect ghosts and gods! Now seeing these immortal methods, Many people are naturally apprehensive. “What a shit!

“It must be what high-tech means he used to travel from the sky.

“Yes, it must be this stinky boy who is playing mystery.”

“Today, I, Xu He, will definitely return to his original form.

Xu He let out a low roar, the whole figure seemed crazy, and ordered again. “Everyone, listen to my orders.”

The muzzle was aimed at the stinky boy, and he shot with all his strength.

“I don’t believe it anymore. With so many of us, we can’t kill a nasty bastard.”

“That won’t happen, is he really a ghost or god in this world?”

“Xu He roared sharply. Today, if he came alone, he would have been scared when he saw Mark flying into the sky. But now, there are three thousand soldiers and horses behind him. These are for reliance, so Xu He is not too panic for the time being. “But... But General, what if... what if he is really a god?”

“God, you are paralyzed!”

“Xu He slapped it directly, “No ghosts or gods in this world are all feudal superstitions.”

“If you talk nonsense any more and disturb the military’s mind, I will shoot you on the spot!”

Xu He was so angry that he cursed angrily. Then, under Xu He’s order, the soldiers behind him, even if they were panicked, still raised their guns at Mark. Boom, boom, burst of flames. Thousands of bullets all aimed at Mark, and the dense attacks filled the Tianhe River like a tide. However, what made Xu He and the others desperate was that no matter how they attacked, they couldn't hurt the young man at all. All the bullets, within a few inches of Mark, were like a machine with a power failure, and their forward stature suddenly stopped. In the end, countless bullets fell all together. Here, the world, like a rain But under the Tianhe, Mark is still standing in the void. Hanging high between the heaven and the earth, like walking on the ground. Deep eyes, ethereal temperament, and the power of the king over the world are ethereal like a fairy!
