

Love At First Night

Chapter 224

“Then have you accepted it? Didn’t Jodie bring you and Aiden happiness? “She is so smart and beautiful, and she knows how to make people happy. She will be fine.” Collin did not believe that Jodie would be gone just like that. One day, he would find her.

Jason bit his lower lip hard. Even so, his lips were still pale and he also looked pained. “If Jude is still alive, I really want to find her. She is my younger sister who I have doted on since I was young. Frank has used all his connections, but he can’t find her.” Jason took a deep breath and said, “Dad, I’ll take you to the hospital first.” “Alright.” Collin could only nod his head. If he went to chase now, he was afraid that the girl had already gone far away. He sighed deeply “It’s been so many years. I wonder if Jodie is well. We eat and dress well every day. I feel guilty every day when I pick up the bowl. I don’t know where she is suffering.” Hearing this, Jodie also sighed deeply. If Jude hadn’t been lost, they wouldn’t have been in such pain. Ann did not ease their longing. Looking at Ann, he was even more worried. “Dad, if Jude is really alive, she will come back to us one day. It’s useless to worry every day.” Everyone else liked to call her Jodie, and he and Aiden liked to call her Judy. Jason nodded and didn’t say anything. He was old, and he didn’t know when he would have to wait. Collin was heartbroken. The Chaney family had always been wealthy. After they had two sons, Marilyn gave birth to a daughter after a few years. They were so happy that they couldn’t even control themselves. As a father, Collin had been partial towards Jodie since the day she was born. For him, his daughter was always more considerate than his sons. What was the use of his two sons? They were always busy outside all day, not even having time to accompany him for a meal. However, his daughter was different. No matter how busy she was, she still thought about her parents. Jodie was a living example. No matter how busy she was, she would come back and talk to her parents. Collin shook his head painfully, telling himself not to think too much. But the girl he saw today was too familiar. Jason supported him. Collin’s back looked lonely and fragile. Judith returned to the private room and did not take what happened just now seriously. She accompanied Lucas to eat happily. Frank looked at Judith and Lucas and felt an inexplicable sense of relief. He had agreed with Lucas and asked Lucas to give him a chance to chase his mother. Unexpectedly, Lucas agreed readily. Frank felt that Lucas was deeper than what he saw on the surface. Lucas was very smart. He didn’t show himself all and was simply a little fox that was hidden deep inside. Only by being with Jodie, Frank would have a home. He had waited for so many years and he finally had a home. Gary’s words reminded him that Jodie had grown up now, and she had lost her memories. She was no longer the previous Jodie.

She was outstanding, and every man could chase her. So, even if he revealed his identity, Judy may not fall in love with him.

Frank knew it clearly in his heart. And now he could only take it step by step and enter her heart in his own way.
