

Chapter 2245– 2246 of A Dish Best Served Cold Novel

Chapter 2245 Mark's Identity

Mark's words were too cruel, this was not a face slap at all, but a slapped face.

These three big teams are Xu Junlin's greatest achievement in his life and his proudest achievement.

It can be said that Xu Junlin's respectable status in the summer is largely due to the three powerful special teams formed by one hand.

But now, his pride is so unbearable by Mark, how could Xu Junlin hang up with that old face!

In the end, Xu Junlin became angry and screamed at Mark.

"Shut up!" "You yellow-mouthed boy, how dare to insult my strongest team in the summer?" "You are also worthy?" Xu Junlin cursed harshly with red eyes.

However, Mark shook his head, with an inexplicable arc curled up at the corner of his mouth.

"Father, I said, they are the strongest special team in the summer, Qinglong!" "And I, is canonized by the military area, Major General Qinglong."

Boom~ These words would only be exploded by thunder.

Everyone here trembled.

"What?" "Qing...Major General Qinglong?" "Could it be that Mr. Chu is also a general failure?" Behind him, in the The Twinfill, Ericson and others have completely exploded.

For a long time, they thought that Mark's greatest reliance was only the respect of Noirfork granted by these laymen.

This identity may still have some weight in normal times.

But after all, it was a nongovernmental seal, and there was no official recognition, so it was a bit ugly, Mark was at best a bullshit.

But if Mark was still a major general in the army, then everything would be different.

At least, the identity of a general is an official orthodoxy, supported by the military region and the state.

That identity and status have undoubtedly risen a step.

“you..

what did you say?

“You said you are Major General Qinglong, and you are also a general?

“Xu Junlin was obviously shocked by Mark’s words. I thought that this so-called Mr. Jiang Dongchu was just a gangster who couldn’t get on the stage. But now, he actually said that he was the strongest team in the summer. Instructor, Major General Qinglong?
“It’s nonsense!

“I Xu Junlin has been in the army for dozens of years. The sharp blades of the three major countries in the summer are all trained by Xu Junlin.

“I know what kind of team there are in the military area.”

“There is no Azure Dragon team at all!”

“You bastard, so daring, how dare you pretend to be a major general of the military region and talk nonsense here?”

“Xu Junlin didn’t believe Mark’s words at all, and said sharply. Mark was not angry at all, facing Xu Junlin’s accusation, instead he smiled lightly: “Master Xu, now is not thirty years ago, you were in power. It’s time.

“The whole world has changed, do you think the military area is still the same?”

“What’s more, you are an old retired person who has retired for many years. What plans do you have in the military region and what team to establish? Can it be agreed by your old thing?

“I will not hide it from you.”

“This Qinglong team is a warrior team jointly prepared by the Gritsberg Military Region and the Noirfork Military Region.”

“”Each of them is a martial artist who is well versed in martial arts, can you match those pigs and dogs?”

Mark sneered, with contempt and arrogance in his eyebrows. A few days ago, Mark had already contacted Denren and the others. Let them leave the military area and go to Wrifill to perform their tasks.

“This Qinglong Clan is a warrior team jointly prepared by the Gritsberg Military Region and the Noirfork Military Region.”

“Each of them is a martial artist who is well versed in martial arts. Are you the pigs and dogs that you can match?” Mark sneered coldly, his eyes were full of contempt and arrogance.

A few days ago, Mark had already contacted Denren and the others.

Let them leave the military area and go to Wrifill to perform their tasks.

Chapter 2246 Huge Progress

Of course, even if Denren and the others do not come, Mark can easily solve the three teams.

But Mark still mobilized them, just to check their training results.

It seems that the effect is still good.

In less than a month, the physical fitness of Croven Li and Sara Ma has improved significantly and the progress is extremely obvious.

Of course, in addition to their own hard training, the bigger reason is the Azure Dragon Refining Body Judgment given to them by Mark, and the medicated bath formula Mark obtained from Grandma too.

Without these two things, Denren and the others could not have made such a big improvement in just half a month.

“Haha, instructor Chu, our training effect is not bad?” “Didn’t you ashamed?” “But, to be honest, the medicinal bath you gave us, Instructor Chu is too powerful.”

“I As long as you soak in at night, the fatigue of the day will disappear.”

“I just feel full of power.”

“There is also the Azure Dragon refining exercise, which is even more amazing.”

“I think I can blow a cow with one punch now~” Even if Xu’s family is right in front of my eyes, even if Xu Junlin is the rank of general, but the five of Qinglong team People, as if not seeing them, turned a deaf ear to these generals.

In their eyes, Mark is the only one!

“By the way, instructor Chu, who are these scumbags?” “Looking at this dress, they should be from the military area.”

“Could it be that there are idiots in our military area who are not long-eyed and want to deal with you?” After Mark reported on the training results during this period, Croven Li looked at the members of the war wolf and other teams, who were already like dead dogs, and suddenly curious.

“Presumptuous!” “You are a corporal dare to insult my father.”

“My father is a military commander. You wait for the corporal, and he won’t kneel down quickly.”

“Otherwise, I will report to the military region to rule you disrespect to the chief. Sin~” Bang~ Hearing what Croven Li and others said, Xu He was furious.

However, before he could finish his words, Croven Li slapped him directly.

Hearing a loud bang, Xu He screamed, and Croven Li flew out like a dead dog.

“Where’s the idiot?” “I’m talking to the instructor, do you want to interrupt?” Croven Li cursed contemptuously, but he didn’t put the Xu family father and son in his eyes.

In the eyes of Qinglong and others, Mark was the only one of Gritsberg giants and military generals.

Listening to Croven Li’s pretending words, Greg Shen was stunned.

“Mother, Brother Yang is so pretending to be like Mr. Chu~” Greg Shen secretly gave a thumbs up.

Ericson and others on the side naturally trembled.

Especially Lei Lao San, looking at Ericson with an inexplicable look: “Second, your son, when... when was it so awesome?” You know, Ericson’s son was a famous second-generation ancestor.

Except for eating and drinking, whoring and gambling, he has nothing to do.

It’s completely a waste, a scum in society.

But now, who would have thought that this kind of dude would be put on a military uniform, and that he would have such skills?

Flying over the wall is more powerful.

Even the Lei family's most expensive bodyguard did not have this ability.

“I.
