

Chapter 225

The winter in the frontier really looks like winter. In the snowy white world, people can always look forward to the arrival of spring. People who go out to work also began to slowly gather into a wave. After pouring out of major cities, they slowly scattered far away.

Zhang Fan is much older than Jing Shu, but their relationship is very good. When Zhang Fan was young, he was chased and beaten by his father after he got into trouble. Generally, Jing Shu can save the scene. My mother can't count on it. It's good not to help catch Zhang Fan! The daughter is the father's little cotton padded jacket. It's all right.

Zhang Fan also loves this sister very much. He will miss his sister if he has anything delicious. Jingshu wants to see her brother, and the old couple also support it. Let Jingshu go to see her eldest son on behalf of them, and they are relieved.

Six months of college time, Jing Shu has faded a lot of green and astringent, and is becoming more and more sensible. She knew that her brother was thousands of miles away and worked hard for her family. Today's life is not easy. In half a year, Jingshu's figure shuttles constantly in dormitories, canteens, classrooms and libraries. It has developed in the direction of Xueba.

The University, especially this famous university, brings together all kinds of top students from all over the country. Jing Shu has a lot of pressure. Although she has tried her best to study, her grades are only the top ten in the class, which has been greatly improved compared with her grades when she entered school, but she is a little unwilling.

Because many students usually don't study very much, but they can dump others immediately as soon as they take the exam. This is the legendary genius!

I was going to go to the frontier by train. As a result, Shaohua has booked the plane ticket for Jingshu. Straight to Feiniaoyang City, and then to Chasu City, "Jing Shu, remember the time of flying. When you fly to the bird market, do you need me and your brother to pick you up. If your brother doesn't have time, I'll pick you up! "

"No, sister-in-law, I won't get lost when I grow up." Jing Shu and Shao Hua are on the phone. They have more contact.

"Ah! Your brother knows you want to make a plane. He reads the calendar every day. He's worried that when you change planes, you won't find a plane to tea vegetable city! "

"I've grown up. Don't worry. Sister in law, my parents have prepared some lilies for you. Do you need anything else? I'll bring it to you when I come. "

"No, don't take anything on such a long road, and you can buy it here. Just get there smoothly."

After Jingshu went to spend the new year with her brother, she didn't have to go home. After the new year, she went to school directly. Anyway, her parents were healthy, and they looked much better in the past six months.

After Jing Shu left, the old couple also packed their bags and prepared to travel. When they were very young, their unit bought two cars from the south. When Zhang Fan's father went to pick up the car, he took Zhang Fan's mother around, and then they never went out again.

Now there is almost no big expenditure at home. Zhang Fan bought the house, and Zhang Fan paid Jingshu's tuition, and he came back with some money from time to time. Although he often told Shaohua not to play money, they had money to spend, but it was useless. If there were any holidays, Shaohua came early to play money in advance.

Many old men and women in the community have been to this trip. Originally, the two old people were not very willing to go. As a result, I heard a rumor that Zhang Fan had no income in the frontier and lived an average life. He bought a new house with a loan and would come back in a few years.

This can annoy Zhang Fan's mother. Although I didn't hear who said it, I can guess that it was the people who were jealous of their small shop. Simply, while the price is not very expensive, Zhang Fan's parents also signed up. Not for anything else, but for his son's face, they also want to go.

The houses in the frontier are much larger than before. Originally, Shaohua's mother bought Zhang Fan a very expensive single bed in her study, but when she checked in the new house, she encountered the flu. Zhang Fan was busy day and night and was tired after work. She was also worried about carrying the virus and infecting her family, so she didn't sleep once.

Jingshu is coming this time. The old couple also like this obedient and clever little girl. Jing Shu took her small suitcase and a small box of lilies and got on the plane to the frontier.

China is really big. It's huge in the northwest. It takes more than two hours for the plane to fly from LAN city to bird city. Looking at the clouds outside the window, the plane flew from the loess high slope to the rich and beautiful frontier.

After passing through the Qilian Mountains and entering the Tianshan Mountains, the plane landed slowly. The winter in the bird market is really cold, dry and bitter. Because it's a connecting flight and you don't have to leave the airport.

After passing through Tianshan Mountain and the river valley, the tea vegetable City arrived. Zhang Fan drove with Shao Hua to meet Jing Shu at the airport. Because it is a small city, the airport does not distinguish between T and T, just an exit.

"Jing Shu!" Shao Hua stood at the door of the hall and saw Jing Shu at a glance.

"Sister in law!" Jingshu rushed to Shaohua's arms " Um! The longer, the more beautiful! "

"No!"

"Cough! Cough! Cough! " It's Zhang Fan's turn this time. Come on, cough up.

"Brother!" Before she finished shouting, Jing Shu jumped on Zhang Fan.

"It's coming down. How old is it?" In the absence of her parents, Zhang Fan is Jing Shu's parents and involuntarily enters the role of parents.

"Miss me!" Jingshu doesn't care. She misses her brother too much.

"Yes! I'm tired on the way. Let's go home. My aunt has made a lot of delicious food, which you like to eat. " Zhang Fan pitifully holds his sister and grows up. The once baby fat has completely disappeared. His big eyes flash a bright light.

"I'm not tired. It's just a little boring. Sister in law, the stewardess here are so beautiful. Their figure is really enviable. I'm going on a diet now. " After getting bored with her brother, Jingshu took Shaohua in one hand and Zhang Fan in the other hand out of the airport hall.

"How old are you? You're still growing up. You don't know what to eat. Now it's time to eat, drink and run. Have a good meal."

"My God, sister-in-law, what's the matter with my brother? I haven't seen him for half a year. Why is he just like my father. I remember not before! "

"Why, aren't you used to it? Because our little Jingshu has grown up, some people feel old! Start selling old! " The two girls immediately discharged Zhang Fan from the small group.

Kuluze is very practical in the frontier. In the days of heavy snow, even when the taxi stopped, Zhang Fan had no problem driving the car.

Shaohua's parents had already prepared a lot of delicious food. They were going to eat outside, but the snow was too heavy and inconvenient. They simply took out the delicious food for the new year and entertained Zhang Jingshu.

The family sat around the round table in a warm and happy atmosphere. Jing Shu was no stranger to Shaohua's parents because she had been here once. Jing Shu, who said she was going to lose weight, had long been thrown away when she began to eat. She didn't know where to go.

Although the standard of living has become good, hard dishes are still the majority on the table. Zhang Fan and Shao Hua are not very able to eat meat, but Jing Shu is different. They can eat super.

The little mouth kept eating, "eat some horse intestines. This is venison. I stewed it with fat meat of big meat. Try it. This is air dried beef. Eat this quickly. This is a rare thing. I can't buy it at ordinary times."

Shaohua's mother held the head of a cold water fish and gave the whole clip to Jingshu. Shaohua ate a little more than the cat, so the old lady often nagged. Today, I'm glad to see that the little girl can eat so much. Look happy!

There was only one cold water fish, and the main meat of cold water fish was on the fish head, "sister-in-law, you are so happy, aunt cooking is so delicious." Jing Shu doesn't forget to boast while eating. She is much more flexible than Zhang Fan. Zhang Fan is forced to be flexible rather than born, and Jing Shu is naturally flexible and more cheerful than Zhang Fan.

At the beginning of the lantern, the quiet snowflakes outside the window look at the happy family through the window, and then slowly float to the distance. When winter comes, spring is not far away!

Auspicious snow promises a good year. Next year must be a good year!
