Chapter 2257

At this time, Ferguson Wu, who had been sitting in the distance watching the tigers fighting, undoubtedly noticed the movement in the distance. Especially after seeing the leading Audi No. 00001, Ferguson Wu was so scared that he jumped up from his seat. “Wu City, isn’t that the provincial owner’s car?” “Why did he come?” “Could it be because of Mark’s business?” There was also a panic and trembling voice from the people beside him. After all, that is the master of a province. In ancient times, that was the chief official in frontiers! In other words, the whole Noirfork is only obeyed by his orders. In a word, Ferguson Wu has to directly lift the bedding and go. Ferguson Wu and the others were naturally panicked. “Don’t ask so much for now, hurry up and follow me to greet the provincial governor.” Although Ferguson Wu was also confused about the other party’s intention, it is not the time to think about it. After discovering that He Lan Mountain and the others had arrived in Wrifill, Ferguson Wu hurriedly went downstairs to meet them. Although Ferguson Wu is suspended now, he is still the lord of Wrifill in name. Now that the immediate boss came to Wrifill, he, as the host, would naturally go up to meet him. “He Shuji, why didn’t you tell me in advance when you came?” “You see that you came suddenly, and I didn’t have much preparation.” “If you neglect you, I feel uneasy.” Soon, these cars were in HaiDollar. Stopped near the pavilion. The car door opened, and a group of people headed by He Lanshan, wearing neat suits, with dark eyebrows, exuded an imposing manner. After all, it was a group of people at the top of Noirfork’s power. After they got off the car, the huge aura made the nearby passers-by only feel depressed. There is a sense of awe like facing the abyss, like walking on thin ice. “God?” “Is this the majesty of the princely officials?” “Is this the aura of the honor of a province?” The vast majority of people present were obviously the first time to see this group of inexhaustible masters so close. The powerful people were suddenly excited and hesitated, looking from a distance, and in their eyebrows, there was awe and hope. People in the world, who does not long for the supreme power! When these people go there, they are destined to be respected and respected. It is Ferguson Wu, who is in charge of a city, in front of He Lanshan and others, but he can’t put on the slightest air, and looks humble, just like a subordinate who works for people. However, He Lanshan was displeased with Ferguson Wu’s words, and snorted coldly: “Huh, Wrifill, I will clean up you later!” After speaking, He Lanshan looked down at his watch, and then turned to the colleague behind him. “There is no time. Come with me to meet the old man.” He Lanshan shouted, and then pushed Ferguson Wu aside. He ignored Ferguson Wu, and turned a deaf ear to Mark, even Xu Junlin and other Xu family members, and He Lanshan ignored him. These people, after getting out of the car, they walked straight to an empty field nearby and waited there. Just when everyone was wondering what He Lanshan and the others were doing. Suddenly ~ Boom ~ There was a loud noise, like an explosion. Immediately afterwards, the wind blew up. The blasts of cold wind, like a

Therefore, they are naturally afraid, for fear that this Lu Cangqiang will catch them all! However, some people are happy and some are worried. In Ericson, Chen Ao and others, they are afraid.
