Chapter 2263

“You are Mr. Chu, right?” “Kill my grandson, and do harm to the party.”

“Now, I have forced a thousand soldiers to bow down.”

“As expected of Mr. Chu, how majestic?” Although, today is Lu Cangqiong. I saw Mark once.

However, some people, even if they have never seen it before, can guess what they say and do, and look at their temperament.

Just like now, being able to stand so peacefully like that young man, able to have this courage and majesty, besides Mr. Chu who dared to kill his grandson, who else can?

Therefore, just seeing Mark’s first glance, Lu Cangqiong has already determined that the person in front of him is Mr. Chu, who is the leader!

“Huh?” “It turned out to be you?” After hearing these words from Lu Cangqiong, He Lanshan frowned, and immediately raised his head to look at Mark ahead.

Although He Lanshan and Mark have never seen each other, He Lanshan undoubtedly has heard of the co-lord elected by this secular world.

Even before Mark held the Haitian feast here, He Lanshan sent someone to give Mark a glass of wine.

“I thought that if you received my wine, you would be able to stand by yourself and not trouble me Noirfork.”

“But now it seems that I look up to you.”

“The bully is a bully after all, even if you give him status and power. , It’s difficult to curb those bad habits.” He Lanshan looked at Mark coldly, shook his head and said, but the deep words contained endless chill.

“Of course, if you commit something trivial, it’s fine.”

“Our Noirfork official will also give you some face for this Noirfork Zun. Turn one eye and close one eye.”

“But no matter what, you don’t know how to provoke you. Arrived at the Gritsberg wealthy family, and ruthlessly killed Lu’s grandson.”

“It’s so disgusting, how can I forgive you?” “To blame, I blame you for being arrogant and ignorant.”

He Lanshan said angrily, and then looked towards him. Han Dongmin shouted in a deep voice: “Han Dongmin, what are you doing in a daze?” “Hurry up and mobilize the police in Wrifill, and give me this thug to rectify the law on the spot!” “My Noirfork land is definitely not the gang of gangsters who have run wild. Place.”

He Lanshan’s majestic anger sounded immediately.

After learning that Mark was the murderer, He Lanshan made a decisive decision and immediately assigned Han Dongmin to kill Mark and others.

However, facing He Lanshan’s orders, Han Dongmin had a pale face, bitter eyes, and an embarrassed look, and he did not move.

“Huh?” “Why haven’t you acted yet?” “Didn’t you hear my order?” He Lanshan asked in a deep voice, his words filled with impatience.

“He Sheng, that, Mr. Chu is a general, and we don’t have the right to control the soldiers.”

“If we really want to catch it, it’s better to let people from the military area catch it.”

Han Dongmin tried to find an excuse.

Anyway, he didn’t dare to do anything to Mark.

Han Dongmin has had many confessions with Mark, and he knows Mark’s horror.

The man in front of him, his background and energy are far from simple as they seem.

In short, Han Dongmin dared not provoke Mark.

Otherwise, I am afraid that I will not even know how I died in the future.

Therefore, even if He Lanshan personally gave the order, Han Dongmin still tried to find reasons to refuse.

“What?” “General?” “You said he was a general of the military region?” He Lanshan was also obviously surprised. He couldn’t believe that there would be such a young general in this hot summer?

Chapter 2264

“How did you know?” “Why have I never heard of it?” He Lanshan asked again.

Han Dongmin replied: “Just now, Mr. Chu said it himself. Moreover, it should be true to see how respectful those soldiers treat him.”

He Lanshan suddenly hesitated when he heard this.

Military regions are independent of the secular, and military personnel violate disciplines and are tried by special military courts. They really have no authority to deal with a soldier.

“He is a fart general!” “This Mark is only in his early twenties.”

“During the war, there are very few people at this age who can be worshipped.”

“Nowadays, in peaceful times, it is natural. It’s even more impossible.”

“I see, the identity of this Major General Qinglong was completely used by Mark to fool people. We don’t care about it, just send someone to arrest him.”

“And, even if he really is. General, in the future, the military area will investigate it, and we will say that we don’t know it. The big deal, we will transfer him to the military court later.”

Ferguson Wu once again made suggestions.

He Lanshan nodded in agreement: “Okay, just do it. Han Dongmin, whether he is a real general or a fake, I will send someone to arrest him first.”

“But...”

“Han Dongmin is still unwilling to arrest people, and continues, “But He Sheng, I think it’s better not to make trouble too stiff for the time being. The matter has not been investigated, and whether it is right or wrong is still to be discussed.

“As far as I know, it is the young masters of Lu and Xu who attacked Mr. Chu first.

Mr. Chu couldn’t bear it. In desperation, he killed the two young masters out of self-protection.

“From this perspective, perhaps Mr. Chu did nothing wrong?”

“We acted rashly. If we catch the wrong thing, it will be difficult to do it in the future.”

“Han Dongmin endured for a long time, and finally said what he really wanted. He didn’t want to do anything to Mark. In addition to being afraid of Mark’s ability, another reason was that his heart was actually biased towards Mark. There is nothing wrong with what he did. According to investigations in the past few days, Han Dongmin discovered that

Lu Mingfeng and Xu Shaohua not only used various illegal means to illegally occupy other people's property, but also broke into private houses in an attempt to kidnap Mr. Chu's relatives. Personal freedom is restricted. What makes Han Dongmin feel more tragic is that the big explosion on Yunding Mountain that day was the work of Lu Mingfeng and the others. These two people, relying on their backgrounds, used heavy weapons to attack Mr. Chu's residence. It's not an exaggeration to shoot them ten times for such a tragic act. From a personal point of view, Mr. Chu's killing them is a legitimate defense. For a social state, it is for the people. Therefore, Han Dongmin once felt that Mr. Chu did the right thing and killed well. But these words, in the face of Father Lu, Han Dongmin did not dare to say. Now, he is forced to have no choice but to persuade him through these methods. He Lanshan considers it carefully before making a decision. "Hmph~" "Listen to you, my grandson deserves to die, he deserves his crime, and he deserves to die?"

"Sure enough, the old man Lu, who had been silent before, immediately cooled down and asked angrily.

Now, he was forced to have no choice but to use these methods to persuade He Lanshan to think carefully before making a decision.
