

Chapter 2273– 2274 of A Dish Best Served Cold Novel

Chapter 2273

“I’m too acclaimed.”

“I, Mark, are no more than a layman. I’m afraid I can’t stand this evaluation, let alone this title.”

Mark said indifferently, his face expressionless, his words faintly cold.

“I’ll go!” “Mr. Chu, are you careful?” “This is not an ordinary person standing in front of you~” Hearing Mark’s somewhat disrespectful tone, Ericson and others were almost scared to pee.

I thought that Mr. Chu was messing up?

I really didn’t know this Li Hongze.

Or is Mr. Chu really crazy?

Don’t even pay attention to the Yanxia No. 2 character?

Suddenly, Ericson and others were terrified, and they only felt that they could not understand Mr. Chu.

After all, if someone else is granted national canonization, Li Hongze and other giants would personally announce that they would have been excited and grateful for Dade.

But Mark didn’t.

Instead, he showed such a cold attitude.

This has to be incredible.

However, how could Ericson and the others know that the supreme honor in the eyes of these others is just a few dispensable names in Mark’s eyes.

For the real strong, is there a title, and what can I do?

Anyway, Mark’s strength lies here!

Even if Yan Xia did not grant him a title, he still had the combat power of a titled master.

In other words, this title is not very useful to Mark.

But for the country, it is of great significance.

From this perspective, it can be said that the country begged Mark to accept this title.

So, after hearing Mark's indifferent tone, Li Hongze not only didn't feel angry at all, but was also anxious, wondering if they did not do well enough to provoke this Mr. Chu?

Nowadays, the international situation is changing and the road to revival in the hot summer is even more perilous. Western countries headed by the United States are eyeing the hot summer and repeatedly suppressing the hot summer.

Under such circumstances, Hot Summer undoubtedly urgently needs Mark and other pillar nations to protect the country.

Therefore, every titled master will undoubtedly have a strategic deterrent effect for Yan Xia.

Now that Mark is so afraid of being interested, this has to make Li Hongze anxious.

Quickly laughed and said, "Mr. Chu is humble."

"The God of War highly respects you, and Grandmaster Haotian also appreciates you."

"It can be seen that Mr. Chu is so well-deserved of his title, how can he say that he can't afford it?" "Of course, if you are because if you dislike the sloppy granting of titles this time, then you really misunderstood."

"The original plan was to prepare for the title ceremony, on the top of Yanshan Mountain, and Jinshang personally canonize you."

"However, because of the previous days, I have a strong man who fell in Japan in the hot summer, and his age is similar to that of Mr. Chu. The God of War and others suspected that it was the forces of another country that had just joined forces to assassinate Qi in order to suppress my martial art in the hot summer. , Will be secretly canonized for you, and will not be disclosed to the public."

"After Mr. Chu is full of wings and truly grows into a towering tree, I will re-organize the title ceremony for you."

"At that time, the Lord of the Summer Kingdom will also come personally for Mr. Chu. Congratulations."

Li Hongze spoke kindly and kindly. In front of Mark, this distinguished man did not put on any airs, even his tone was very polite.

However, Li Hongze's remarks once again shocked everyone's hearts.

This is so special.

The Lord of the Hot Summer will come to congratulate himself?

At that time, Greg Shen was shocked and slammed directly.

Tell me that Brother Mark is so awesome!

"F*ck, who else?" "Dare to ask Jiang Dong, who else is there?" "Haha~"

Chapter 2274

Greg Shen didn't have much culture, and after yelling, he laughed.

Shen Jiuyi slapped in fright!

"Bastard thing, is this what you want to talk about?" "Don't want to live anymore?" "Close your dog's mouth!" Shen Jiuyi was almost pissed off by his own bastard son.

This is a fight between gods and scum. The best choice for these scumbags is to stay honestly, talk less, and show up less.

After all, misfortune comes from the mouth.

In case that sentence is wrong, it is a crime of decapitation.

Therefore, when Greg Shen suddenly laughed at this moment, Shen Jiuyi was naturally panicked and hurriedly stopped drinking.

However, even if Li Hongze talked about this, Mark still didn't have the slightest intention of accepting the title, and even the documents Li Hongze handed over, Mark ignored it.

"I said, I'm a gentleman, Mark, but a layman who can be crumpled."

"Sangzi's former residence was destroyed, and his parents and relatives were almost killed."

"Now, a few old things, and a few clowns. , All dared to run wild in front of me, saying that I was a fanatic scum, saying that I was a misfortune, and threatened to shoot me."

"I am a Noifork sinner, how can I be qualified to be evaluated like this? I can't stand this unparalleled title."

Mark said coldly, amidst the grinning laughter, full of sarcasm and playfulness.

And Ferguson Wu and He Lanshan on the side, listening to these words, their hearts are cold, and behind their backs, they are already in cold sweat.

In my heart, there is even more wailing and despair!

Obviously, the spearhead of Mark's words was aimed at them.

This bastard wants to army them!

Ferguson Wu was full of bitterness.

Sure enough, Li Hongze quickly realized what Mark meant.

"Huh?" "Let others knead it?" "The former residence was destroyed? Your loved ones are in danger?" "You are going to be shot?" "Mr. Chu, how can I not understand what is going on?" "Maybe, Did someone provoke Mr. Chu?" Li Hongze was puzzled.

It was not until this time that Li Hongze noticed the hundreds of police cars around and the three thousand soldiers and horses kneeling on the ground.

But Li Hongze was shocked, his brows frowned: "This..."

These, are they here to deal with you, Mr. Chu?

"if not?"

"At this time, Croven Li in the Azure Dragon team sneered. "I want my instructor to be sheltered, but now I am watching my Chu instructor with heavy forces, and wanting to kill the instructor?"

"Seriously, I really don't understand what your Yanxia officials did."

Croven Li sneered. "Croven, shut up, don't be disrespectful to your husband!"

"Croven Li's words scared Ericson a big jump, and he stopped quickly. "Why do you want to silence?"

"If I don't say it, doesn't it exist anymore?"

"Croven Li snorted coldly, in his heart only because Mark dared to be injustice. Li Hongze was not an ordinary person, and soon realized the key. He turned his head, looked at the colleague who came with him behind him, and said in a deep voice: "Look for it. Call him with the contact information of the person in charge of Wrifill City.

Also, the person in charge of Noirfork Province also called over.

"Let them, within half an hour, they must come here."

“Just say I, Li Hongze, wait for them here.”

“I have to ask them personally what is going on.”

“Who is such a courage to touch Mr. Chu?”

“Li Hongze’s words are calm and deep, but those who know him know that the calmer he is, the stronger the anger in his heart.
