

Wonder Doctor Chapter 2281

Time passed day by day.

Lin Ran and his doppelganger had been in the secret room for ten whole days!

In ten days, Lin Ran had finally finished reading all of his memories!

At the end of reading it, he closed his eyes and took a deep breath.

It was as if he wanted to incorporate all of it, all of it, into his memories.

For the entire ten days, he had only moved twice during that time.

The first time was when the white mist refused to leave in a deadly manner and Lin Ran tried to save him from death.

For the first time, Lin Ran let out a sigh.

And that was also the time he watched the two warm up!

And the second time, was the time when Song Nuan once again followed Elder Quan back to the test area.

That time, he shed tears.

He saw with his own eyes how hard the doppelganger was trying, how unwilling he was and how desperate he was!

But he knew he couldn't do anything at all.

Because that was not his own experience!

And even if it did turn out to be his own, could he have done any better?

Obviously, he didn't know either!

"All I know is that the living should stand! Duty calls!"

Lin Ran lifted his head, with determination in his eyes.

Whether it was Song Nuan, or those cultivators who were still trapped within the forbidden zone.

Lin Ran had the need, and the obligation, to get them out!

This was his life, his unfinished mission!

"It's time to get out too!"

Lin Ran got up and sighed, with a sense of frustration and a hint of worry in his heart.

What he was disappointed about was that he had sort of ended a grudge.

And naturally, the worry was about White Mist, not knowing what kind of attitude he would have to use to face her!

“Alas never mind, what has to be faced has to be faced after all!”

Lin Ran sighed, and immediately walked out.

The air outside was indeed far more refreshing than the one inside.

Lin Ran took a few deep breaths and felt that his entire body was much fresher.

However, the refreshment had not lasted long when a fragrance suddenly burst through his nose.

Lin Ran then felt his arm being held by someone.

“Lin Ran, did you remember me!”

Lin Ran was a little helpless, just by the sound of his voice he knew that it would definitely be White Mist!

“White Mist Aunt....”

Lin Ran stopped himself before he could finish his sentence.

“I’m sorry, I might need time to come to terms with all this!”

“That’s okay, I’ll give you time, my parents have given me permission to go with you!”

“But only for about a year and a half!”

White Mist said a little unsatisfied.

“Huh?”

Lin Ran was stunned as he listened.

What do you mean you’ve been given permission to come with me? Where to go!

“In this year and a half, I’ll gradually adapt!”

White Mist said.

“Adapt.... What!”

Lin Ran was a little embarrassed, if this was really what he was doing with White Mist.

How would he explain himself back!

Following Bai Qian out on a trip, only to bring back a daughter-in-law?

The point is that his own family had already.

But if he were to refuse, Lin Ran was really a bit uncomfortable.

After all, he now knew about the relationship between Bai Mog and his own doppelganger!

“White Mist, stop it! We still have something to talk about with Lin Ran!”

Just when Lin Ran was having a hard time knowing what to do.

Suddenly, Bai Qian's voice came from afar.

"That I'll go over first!"

Lin Ran instantly felt that he had met his saviour and ran over.

"What are you running for, it's not like I can't go over there!"

White Mist gave Lin Ran a speechless blank look before following him.

A few moments later, on top of the attic.

Lin Ran's crowd sat down on their knees.

Bai Qian took the lead and spoke with a smile.

"Little friend Lin Ran, now that the skills have fused I wonder if this strength has improved?"

"Not yet, but it's a big shock to me, I need to find a place to properly close up!"

Lin Ran said.

"Hmm, then I wonder what your next plans are?"

Bai Qian continued to ask.

"I'm going to go to the Small World and walk around!"

"The Small World?"

Bai Qian was stunned at his words.

"Mmm! A small world that is relatively weak!"

"At my level, Senior Bai should know very well that what's needed is an opportunity!"

"So I might have to go out for a walk!"

Lin Ran said.

The Immortal Emperor duel was imminent, and although he wasn't the Lord of Zhen Yan and the Alliance.

But if it did turn out to be when the great battle was early summer, he knew he wouldn't be in too good a position, I'm afraid!

First of all, the chances of Zhen Yan and the Lord of the Alliance winning were not too high.

If the outcome didn't change, he might have to make other calculations!

After all, with his pillow book connections, it was obviously impossible to reconcile with the Immortal Emperor!

So Lin Ran had to plan ahead too!

Of course, if Zhen Yan or the Lord of the Alliance won, then naturally the outcome would have to be a different story!

“That’s a good plan you have, yes you need to go out for a walk!”

Bai Qian said.

“Senior Bai, although this is very abrupt, if there’s really nothing else, I’m prepared to leave tomorrow!”

Lin Ran said.

Originally, he was prepared to leave today, but when he thought about the fact that he had only been here for ten days and had just come out for not even one day!

It was indeed a bit inappropriate to leave straight away!

“Understand, time is the most important thing before the Great War.”

“It’s only right to seize every minute of time to cultivate!”

“This way, I’ll give you a Void Ship, it’ll be easier for you to use!”

Bai Qian said with a wave of his palm, and instantly a handful of void ships directly surfaced.

Although it was only the size of a palm, the entire void ship was very beautifully shaped!

Even the Void Ship taken out by the Immortal Emperor back then was only this big!

“Thank you, father, then I’ll go back and pack my things, and leave with Lin Ran tomorrow!”

White Mist was very happy, and immediately took the Void Ship and ran to pack her things.

This ninny was very clever.

By taking the Void Dragon Ship herself, even if Lin Ran wanted to bolt, he wouldn’t be able to run far at all.

It would be a matter of minutes before she could catch up to him with the Void Ship!

And most importantly, with the Void Ship taken away, she could still prepare some supplies for the road!

Only after the white mist had left did Lin Ran then speak.

“Senior White, don’t you care?”

“Managed? Do you think I would have not spoken up if I could have managed?”

Bai Qian said helplessly.

“Eh!”

Lin Ran’s face was also full of embarrassment at his words!

“Kid, I’m handing my daughter over to you, I’m not asking for you to have a result in this year and a half, but you have to ensure her safety!”

“That’s the minimum you can ask for as a father!”

“You have to agree to it even if you don’t!”

Bai Qian suddenly said solemnly.

“Senior Bai, don’t worry, unless I die, she’ll be absolutely fine!”

Lin Ran said.

Even Bai Qian had said that, Lin Ran really couldn’t find any reason to refute it!

“Ai! Let’s just go, it just so happens that the road saves us from being alone!”

Lin Ran said helplessly in his heart.

The next day, Lin Ran left straight away.

There were no goodbyes, this was what White Mist had meant, saying that he was afraid that his parents wouldn’t be able to let go and would be too sad when the time came!

And it wasn’t like he wasn’t coming back, he would still be back in a year and a half!

“Where are we going?”

White Mist asked with a smile from the void ship.

“I don’t know, we’re going to end up going back to the Immortal World anyway, so let’s just start here and swim all the way back!”

Lin Ran said.

Bai Qian would personally come to pick up Bai Mog when the time came, so there was no need for him to be turning back and sending him back.

This arrangement would be fine!

“Alright then, I’m familiar with the small worlds around here, I’ll take you to a fun place!”

White Mist said with a smile, and then with a wave of his palm the void ship turned into a stream of light and rushed out towards the front!

Wonder Doctor Chapter 2282

The Void Ship is moving quickly through the void, very peacefully!

But compared to the vast void, this void ship was like a flat boat floating above the sea.

On the void ship, Lin Ran sat cross-legged on the deck.

Originally, he wanted to go back to his room to close up!

But helplessly, the white mist insisted that he stay here to close up.

Saying that he could see him!

And that he could protect him himself!

Su Chen was also helpless about this.

But there was nothing he could do, he had to agree to it even though White Mist had said so!

The days of seclusion were very boring.

Lin Ran had collided with many sparks himself because of the fusion of his memories with his doppelganger.

Whether it was in strength, or in perception, already and in his state of mind.

So he had a lot to sort out in his closed-door cultivation!

Naturally, he wouldn't feel bored during this period of time!

The most important thing was still White Mist, just in case she couldn't take it.

However, Lin Ran had still underestimated White Mist's nature.

During this journey, this girl had not complained a single word and had not even disturbed Lin Ran once.

During this period, Lin Ran also closed his eyes and stopped opening them to see this nun.

Every time he saw her, she looked at herself quietly, as if she was in a daze!

Time passed day by day.

After three months of Lin Ran's seclusion.

Their void ship had finally made its way through the vast void and entered one of the small worlds!

It was a world that was, almost completely covered by seawater.

There were no continents here, there were only islands in one place.

Countless people lived on the islands.

In the past, when White Mist had sneaked in to play, she had mistakenly entered this small world.

It was also here that she spent a very memorable time!

"I still remember that time when my strength seemed to be only at the Realm of Enlightenment!"

White Mist smiled, with memories in her eyes.

The Realm of Enlightenment could not be described as weak at all in a place like this Chaos Space.

That was simply an existence that was even weaker than weak.

To say that this strength was cannon fodder was probably an exaggeration!

But with such strength, White Mist had been barging around this small world for years!

This also showed that the strength of the people in this small world was generally not high!

The void ship stopped near an island.

Lin Ran had also temporarily awakened from his seclusion.

“Where is this?”

Lin Ran asked with a smile.

“This is the Small World of Ember, the people here are generally very low in strength, but the poisons here are very powerful!”

White Mist laughed.

“I know you’re still in seclusion, so you haven’t had any contact with the people of this small world!”

“There are formations all around the Void Ship, so when you get out of seclusion, I’ll take you to meet my brother!”

White Mist said happily.

“Your brother?”

Lin Ran smiled at that, when did this ninny have a younger brother.

I hadn’t heard of the Bai Qian couple having a child.

White Mist explained.

“Don’t you see that the people in this world are generally not very strong, but this small world is very special!”

“The aborigines here generally have long lifespans!”

“So their strength and lifespan, if converted to that of the Immortal World, is actually the same!”

“In that case!”

Lin Ran nodded at his words, understanding what White Mist meant.

It felt like extending strength and lifespan at the same time.

A person in the normal Immortal World might be able to step into the Body Refinement Realm at the age of ten and enter the Dao Enlightenment Realm at the age of twenty.

But when placed in this world, one might be twenty years old before entering the Body Refining Realm.

At the age of forty, they would be able to enter the Dao of Enlightenment realm.

But again, people in the Immortal World generally only live for a hundred years.

But people here might generally have a life expectancy of two hundred years or even higher.

So their cultivation speed is actually similar to that of the Immortal Realm.

Lin Ran laughed.

“Hm!”

White Mist nodded, a smile on her face.

The journey took three months, and after arriving at this small world of Ember, Lin Ran was the one who had closed up for another three whole months!

Half a year, almost all of which had been spent in seclusion!

And during this period, White Mist really didn’t bother him even once.

This also allowed him to completely fuse his memories with those of his doppelganger during those six months.

At the same time those sensations that had collided were also completely enlightened by him.

“Weng!”

Suddenly the entire Void Ship let out a direct tremor.

In the next moment, the entire White Mist who was still sitting by the side of the boat fishing was just stunned and busy running over.

Almost simultaneously she saw it.

Lin Ran had actually walked out of the closed formation.

At that moment, his whole body aura had changed.

It had actually reached the middle stage of the Great Perfection realm.

One had to know that the previous doppelganger was only at this realm!

But this time, Lin Ran had directly reached this realm as well.

This was enough to show just how much the fusion of memories had helped him!

“As expected of a fusion of memories of a doppelganger, if it were not a doppelganger instead, I’m afraid I wouldn’t be able to break through!”

White Mist laughed.

“Sort of, the fusion of memories of the doppelganger did help me a lot!”

Lin Ran laughed.

The fusion of the memories of the doppelgangers was equivalent to Lin Ran himself experiencing such an experience in person.

And this feeling could not be replaced by devouring other people's memories.

That was why, there were no cultivation techniques that examined devouring the memories of the person being devoured to improve one's strength!

"So, does this count as you being out of the gate!"

White Mist asked with a smile.

Sensitive, she noticed that the feeling of Lin Ran talking to her had changed at this point.

After fusing these memories, it had brought Lin Ran's entire aura closer and closer to his doppelganger!

"Sort of, I'm still waiting to meet your brother!"

Lin Ran laughed.

"Hehehe, let's go then, I can't wait for a long time either!"

White Mist laughed.

With that, the two of them directly collected the Void Ship.

And then rushed towards an island right next to them!

On the way, White Mist laughed and said.

"My brother's name is Bai Frost, he's an orphan, back then I mistakenly entered this small world and he was the first one I saw!"

"I tell you, I was already twelve years old at that time, but he was still a little kid!"

"But it was also because of him that I stayed in this world for two years!"

"And it was those two years that we formed a very deep bond!"

"It's just a pity that my father later came looking for me and took me back!"

White Mist said and spat out her tongue.

Lin Ran smiled at his words and said.

"I didn't expect you to be so naughty after hours!"

"How can you call that naughty, it's a desire to play with freedom that people like you simply can't understand."

White Mist pouted!

"So what is this brother of yours, White Frost, doing now? I'm afraid it's all man to the middle!"

Lin Ran chuckled.

Even though people in this world had long lifespans, the Chaos Clan that was no joke!

Even if White Mist didn't cultivate, its lifespan would be far longer than that of the people of this world.

This was the power of the bloodline!

"Now!"

White Mist laughed.

"It should be a great general of this world by now!"

"I imparted some of my skills to him back then!"

"I inquired earlier, and White Frost should be the Grand General now that he has his own general's residence!"

White Mist smiled smugly.

Wonder Doctor Chapter 2283

"Grand General?"

Lin Ran was stunned at his words, not expecting this world to have the position of Grand General.

It was a bit like the ancient imperial system in his own world!

But come to think of it, it was understandable since the people in this world were generally of low strength!

"As you can see, it's that mansion!"

White Mist suddenly pointed to an imposing palace ahead and said.

Lin Ran smiled and looked, and he saw a majestic power supply!

There were a few big words written on it, "General Bai's Residence!"

There was a reason why the mansions were built like palaces!

A general's residence is usually not too far from a real royal family.

But not too close either, first of all to prevent war.

This way the general is not too far from the king's island, so that he can attack and defend it.

And in the event of a crisis on the royal islands, the kings could quickly move to other islands.

Therefore, the general's residence appears to be the residence of the general, but in case of danger, it will become the residence of the royal family at any time.

So it was built in a very majestic way!

But Lin Ran and White Mist were a little unlucky to say the least.

It was because Lin Ran had left the gate at night.

So it naturally didn't look as imposing at night as it did during the day, but even so it was already very tall and majestic and overbearing.

"Ancient emperors were like this, labouring to build these, can they really last a thousand generations?"

Lin Ran laughed and shook his head.

"What are you talking about?"

White Mist couldn't quite understand.

Lin Ran shook his head and said.

"It's nothing, just a bit of emotion!"

"It's getting late, let's go in! Otherwise, I'm afraid we won't even be able to say hello to your brother today!"

"Mmm!"

White Mist responded, and immediately flew in with Lin Ran.

This kind of place might be extremely difficult for people in this world to enter.

But for Lin Ran and White Mist, it was simply as if they were entering a no-man's land.

Moreover, White Mist also wanted to give his brother a surprise.

So the two of them barged in without even being informed!

The best thing about this kind of mansion was that one could never miss the main master's room.

Because the main master was definitely in the most prominent position.

Even the rooms were also allocated according to their superiority.

Only when the two entered, Bai Frost was nowhere to be found.

Instead, they found a group of people in a side hall.

And at this moment, these people were still drinking and chatting, it was simply good!

"Is your brother inside again?"

The two of them stood at the entrance, and Lin Ran asked with a smile.

"Not in!"

White Mist shook his head, disappointment in his eyes.

"It shouldn't be, in this world, is there anyone else with the surname White as well?"

White Mist felt strange.

When he had inquired earlier, the owner of this mansion was indeed called White Frost!

“When did you inquire about this?”

Lin Ran asked.

“Half a month ago!”

White Mist said.

“Or maybe you’re mistaken, let’s ask!”

Lin Ran said as he stepped into the room, at the same time an aura instantly spread out.

The crowd who were still drinking and chatting instantly looked stunned.

It was obvious that they had been controlled by Lin Ran.

“Do you all know General Bai Frost Bai?”

Lin Ran didn’t bother with nonsense and asked directly to God.

“I know!”

The crowd said in unison.

“Really know each other!”

White Mist was not only delighted at his words, he busily said.

“Then where is he?”

“General White has already left!”

One of them said.

“Why? Where did he go?”

White Mist asked busily.

“The poison mines, because he had offended the Left General, so he was slandered for plotting rebellion and has been sacked from his generalship! Sent to the poison mines!”

“What?”

Hearing these words, Bai Mao instantly exploded, almost not passing out straight away.

She and Bai Frost were very close, even the name, Bai Frost, had been given to her.

“Who is General Zuo? And where is this poison mine?”

Lin Ran frowned slightly and asked after him.

“I am General Zuo, and the poison mine is on an island in the northwest!”

“Where poison materials are produced, and people who go there are almost certain to die within ten years, so there is a shortage of labour!”

“You!”

When White Mist heard this, his entire eyes went red!

“You see to it, I’ve checked his memories and it’s indeed quite abominable!”

“And your brother has already set off for almost ten days, and he’s not much further from the poison mine!”

“We’ll have to hurry!”

Lin Ran reminded.

“You go out first!”

White Mist said.

“What are you doing!”

Lin Ran was stunned at his words, this was the first time he had seen White Mist so angry.

“Do you really have to do this? Saving a life is still better than building a seven-level pagoda!”

Lin Ran said somewhat helplessly.

Although this General Zuo was a despicable person, he always felt that it was a bit serious to just kill him like that.

After all, that was also a human life!

“You wouldn’t understand my feelings for my brother and I. I won’t spare him!”

White Mist said in a cold voice.

“Alright!”

Lin Ran saw this and said no more.

Everyone had everyone’s choice!

Likewise they all had their own destinies, what kind of things they did, they had to bear the corresponding results, it was a matter of necessity!

Although Lin Ran felt that it was too much, he would not care more!

Turning around, Lin Ran left the hall.

Inside, however, it was still very quiet.

Lin Ran could have not lifted the illusion.

Although the white mist was angry, it was better to at least let a person die quietly than to feel the pain before dying!

“Let’s go!”

White Mist quickly walked out.

Her face had a blandness to it.

Only then did Lin Ran realise that even a woman like White Mist would have a side that was not known to others.

This might be what the saying went, "A dragon has rebellious scales and will die if it touches them.

This White Frost might be part of the already few happy memories of White Mist's youth!

And this General Zuo had touched her bottom line, and that was why she had ended up like this!

"Hm!"

Lin Ran didn't say much as he responded, and immediately took White Mist and left.

According to General Zuo's memories, the place where White Frost had been sent to was still quite far from here!

But that was relative, for Lin Ran's current strength, that was simply a ten minute journey!

It was even likely that if the Void Ship was used, the two of them would have walked through in an instant.

Lin Ran was very fast with the white mist.

After just ten minutes, a pitch-black island appeared in front of the two of them.

The entire island looked pitch-black from the outside.

But it was obviously a function of the formation.

The real colour shouldn't be so.

Without delay, Lin Ran immediately led the white mist and charged straight through!

The formations here were practically useless to them!

....

On the island, in a very exquisitely decorated room!

A thin, middle-aged man was carrying a shapely woman in his arms!

There was an unconcealed excitement on his face.

"Baby, hurry up, old man is getting close."

"Bang bang bang!"

The middle-aged man was in the throes of love!

Suddenly a knock on the door woke him up.

"Who the fuck is it?"

“Me!”

A bland voice came from outside the door.

“You? Who the fuck are you? You’ve got shit to say! If you can’t give me a better reason, I’ll chop you up today!”

The middle-aged man said angrily, clearly on the verge of an explosion!

Wonder Doctor Chapter 2284

However, after the middle-aged man’s voice fell, no one outside responded to him at all!

“Hmm? Say something!”

The middle-aged man frowned slightly, and immediately got up and walked towards the door.

At this juncture, if someone was watching from outside, he wouldn’t have the heart to unleash his ego!

“Creak!”

The middle-aged man quickly stepped forward and opened the door to the room.

However, there was nothing outside, only a fresh breeze blowing in.

“And fucking misheard!”

The middle-aged man said helplessly, before turning around and entering the room, while bringing the door up.

However, what he didn’t expect was that the moment he had just turned around and brought the door of the room up.

An aura had instantly poured over him!

Almost instantly, his eyes froze.

“Get out!”

Lin Ran’s bland voice rang out.

The enchanting beauty still sitting in the chair next to him instantly stood up in a mute manner and quickly left the room.

“How disgusting!”

White Mist said discontentedly from the side.

“It’s better to hurry up and ask the business!”

“Where’s White Frost?”

White Mist didn’t delay and asked directly.

“White Frost? Great General White? It’s in the mine!”

The middle-aged man mumbled back.

“Bring him here!”

Lin Ran didn’t bother with nonsense and went up to the side alone to pour a cup of water before saying.

“Yes!”

Without the slightest resistance, the middle-aged man went straight to the door.

“Must we control him?”

White Mist looked a little helpless.

It felt like a lot of effort to talk to such a mute person.

It would be better to just use strength to suppress it, which would be easier instead.

“It’s better to use illusions for now, if you kill General Zuo, I’m afraid that this will have to get out before tonight!”

“The natives here are not strong, but you have to consider the situation of this brother of yours!”

“If it gets too big, how will your brother still be able to live here?”

“We can’t just, like, kill off more people in this world!”

Lin Ran said.

“That’s not so much, let’s just do as you say for now!”

White Mist said.

As the two spoke, the middle-aged man had already walked back.

A few moments later, a group of men escorted a middle-aged man in as well.

The middle-aged man looked very young, and there was a righteous aura between his eyebrows.

He gave people a feeling of a manly man, standing between heaven and earth.

Having reached Lin Ran’s level of strength, he was already able to peek into some heavenly opportunities.

The qi of the middle-aged man in front of him was definitely considered high.

No wonder he had come across the white mist in the first place and received this chance!

“My lord, it’s brought!”

The handlers busily said, before turning around and leaving.

“Looking for me for what?”

Bai Frost looked at the middle-aged man in front of him, as well as Lin Ran and the three White Mist, with icy coldness in his eyes.

Obviously, in his opinion, these people were probably the ones sent by General Zuo to clean up after himself.

However, the middle-aged man did not say anything.

Lin Ran didn't answer either, sitting aside and quietly sipping his tea as if it had nothing to do with him!

"Why don't you go over there?"

Seeing that White Mist was standing still, Lin Ran was busy speaking.

"Bai Frost!"

White Mist looked at the middle-aged man in front of him and couldn't help but speak.

"Who are you!"

White Frost looked at White Mist with a hint of doubt in his eyes!

"I'm your sister!"

White Mist couldn't help but say.

"My sister? That can't be! You're obviously older than me."

"I live longer than you!"

White Frost said directly, while touching out something from her body.

It was a round jade pendant!

And as soon as this jade pendant was taken out, Bai Frost's entire body froze.

He then actually took out a jade pendant from his own body as well!

Only to see that the two jade pearls were actually identical.

These two jade pearls were the very same ones they had gotten together as children!

"Sister, it's really you!"

Bai Frost looked at White Mist and his eyes instantly turned red.

"Brother!"

Bai Mog was even more excited and went up and hugged Bai Frost directly.

Both of them had red circles around their eyes.

Lin Ran on the side looked a little embarrassed and laughed.

"One of you is almost a middle-aged uncle, and one of you is still a young young lady, how inappropriate!"

With that, Lin Ran waved his palm and instantly a force directly enveloped Bai Frost.

A moment later, when the force dissipated, Bai Frost's entire appearance had changed.

It had directly changed from a middle-aged uncle to a youth.

And it looked even younger than White Mist!

"That's right!"

Lin Ran laughed in satisfaction.

"Sister, how did you find this place?"

Bai Frost was very happy and looked at Lin Ran with a hint of respect, but at this time when siblings were reunited, he also had many questions he wanted to ask Bai Misty.

"It's a long story, we are."

White Mist immediately told the story of how the two of them had found their way here.

Finally, he asked.

"What the hell is going on with you now? Why did you get below here, huh?"

"Ai!"

White Frost sighed at his words.

"It's inevitable with a new king on the throne! Once a generation, a dynasty!"

"But sister, you killed General Zuo, if the king finds out, he will definitely not let you go!"

"The current king has a very brutal temper!"

Bai Frost worried.

"Don't worry, sister, I'm still afraid of him!"

White Mist said confidently.

"It's different sister, the new king isn't even from the royal family, he's a direct robber of the throne!"

"The scouts I sent reported that this man is of unknown origin and has a strange poison in his hands that is very powerful!"

"It almost killed him when he touched it, so originally so many strong members of the King Clan were not spared from his hands!"

White Frost said.

"Ao so ah, it doesn't matter ah, no I'll take you away, there's nothing to stay in this small world anyway!"

White Mist said.

"I can't sister!"

White Frost shook her head.

"I have a family now, my wife and children are in this little world, there's no way I can leave!"

"Besides, I've also been poisoned, and although it's not the most powerful kind of poison, it's still useless!"

"This poison, I can't cure it at all, so my life expectancy."

"Sister, if I really can't make it, can you take me."

"Don't say those demoralizing words!"

White Mist directly interrupted Bai Frost and pointed at Lin Ran next to him.

"Others dare not say, but when you meet him you can rest assured, he is a professional doctor!"

"Surely he can help you get cured!"

"Really?"

Bai Frost was thrilled at his words, and was busy bowing at Lin Ran.

"Then, thank you senior!"

"It's alright!"

Lin Ran laughed, feeling a little strange that someone would actually call himself senior.

This was something he really didn't dare to think about in the past.

"Come here first, I'll take a look at the situation!"

Lin Ran said.

Bai Frost didn't dare to delay and walked over at once.

His palm was also obediently placed on the other party's pulse.

However, as he began to take the pulse, his frown was becoming more and more unsightly.

This caused White Mist, who was watching from the side, to lift her breath.

"What's wrong? Is it bad?"

"Not good!"

Lin Ran shook his head and then said.

"This poison in his body is very strange!"

"It's clearly a very ordinary toxin, but it's like a tarsal poison that's very difficult to weed out!"

Wonder Doctor Chapter 2285

“So can you see what’s really going on?”

White Mist asked busily from the side.

“I can’t tell yet, you’re right the poison in this world is very strange indeed!”

“I think we might have to stay on this island for a while!”

Lin Ran said.

“Why? We can go back to the void ship, it’s safer too!”

White Mist said.

Lin Ran smiled at that but said with a smile.

“Did you forget? This is a poison mine, almost most of the poisons are produced here, to explore the root of these poisons, it must be more convenient here!”

“Er.... I forgot!”

White Mist laughed awkwardly.

“That’s fine, you and White Frost stay here to heal, they definitely won’t be able to find this place for a while!”

“Right brother, where is your family? I’ll go and fetch them over!”

“Lest there be an accident!”

“Thank you, sister!”

There was gratitude in Bai Frost’s eyes.

Death didn’t scare him, what he feared most was dragging his family down with him!

“What are we talking about thank you for, just follow Lin Ran here and heal without fear, I’ll be back soon!”

White Mist said and set off straight away!

To him, such a small distance was a piece of cake!

The entire island wasn’t very big, and Lin Ran didn’t bother to control everyone on the island.

After re-arranging a room for Bai Frost to get some rest, he went off on his own to the poison mine’s pit!

....

And just as Lin Ran temporarily took up residence on the Poison Mine Island.

Sure enough, in the night of that day, news of General Zuo’s murder spread!

The news also quickly reached the king’s ears.

General Zuo was considered one of his most important confidants.

It was also because White Frost was somewhat suspicious of his identity that he had supported General Zuo to the throne.

He was prepared to secretly replace all the forces with his own inner circle.

However, General Zuo had only been in office for ten days and had not even had time to change the plaque at the entrance of his residence!

He died tragically in the residence.

This was undoubtedly a fierce slap in the face to him!

As the saying goes, a new official needs three flames to take office!

Let alone the king of a world.

It was natural for the new king to not hold back on such matters.

Immediately, he sent out a measure of spies to investigate the matter, wanting to find out who the real killer really was!

After all, it was possible to behead the left general in his home without a sound.

There was not even a trace of a struggle at the scene.

This was definitely not something that ordinary people could do!

But Lin Ran naturally did not know about these circumstances.

At this moment, his entire body was sitting cross-legged in a mining pit, while several other things were placed in front of him.

Some were rocks, some were flowers and plants!

There were even various kinds of poisons!

And these were the very things that he had worked on throughout the night.

Every single thing had been dug up within this pit!

White Mist had returned last night, but hadn't come to disturb him either.

Lin Ran was currently sitting inside the mine pit, looking at all these things in front of him, and finally picked up the poisonous scorpion that had been next to him.

"How come of all the many things, this is the only poison that hasn't been examined yet!"

"If this is really like this as well, then the problem inside this poison mine is basically secure!"

Lin Ran said to himself in his mind.

He then only saw an instant surge of power directly envelop the poisonous creature.

After that, strands of liquid began to flow out of the poisonous creature's body.

Lin Ran's power wrapped around the venom and did not let them disperse.

But a scene that shocked him soon appeared.

The power used to encase these venomous fluids actually changed colour very quickly.

If this scene was seen by someone from the Immortal World, they would definitely be shocked.

Because of this toxin, it could actually poison even power!

One should know that power was just power, neither alive nor having any entity.

But it could actually be tainted by the venom, and from this, one could see how appalling this venom really was!

"Break!"

Lin Ran let out a fierce cry, and instantly the power wrapped around the venom broke off out of thin air.

It severed its connection.

As he watched the venom fall to the ground, Lin Ran was also finally certain.

He sighed helplessly and whirled around to get up and walk out of the pit!

Both White Mist and White Frost were not on this poisonous mining island at this time.

Because it was a poisonous mining path, toxins were also everywhere.

For safety's sake, they had both moved to the Void Ship.

They would only return to the Poison Mine Island when it was necessary!

After Lin Ran left the poison mine, he returned directly to the Void Ship.

When he saw him return, White Mist immediately ran over.

"How was it? Did you find a solution~!"

White Mist busily asked.

"Sort of found it!"

Lin Ran said.

"Really? Then I'll go and call out to my brother now!"

White Mist was excited at his words.

"Mm!"

Lin Ran nodded and didn't say much.

But in his own mind, he knew very well that this toxin was indeed very strong!

And to be clear, this toxin wasn't even the strongest toxin in this world.

At this moment, Lin Ran was even a little curious about the king of this world, the kind of toxin in his hands that would surely kill him if he touched a bit of it!

What kind of toxin was it!

The white mist soon came over with White Frost.

Lin Ran didn't delay, greeted Bai Frost and sat down, then started the treatment!

"The poison in your body is very difficult to weed out, the whole process may take a day!"

"Especially at the end, you'll have to endure the immense pain!"

Lin Ran warned.

"Understood senior, you can come as you wish!"

Bai Frost said blandly, but Lin Ran could see the look of determination in his eyes!

"Good!"

Lin Ran saw this and without any nonsense, he immediately began to make his move.

In an instant, his palm was pressed against Bai Frost's back.

A force invaded his body and began to draw this toxin into it.

"White Mist, what do you know about the new king of this world?"

"Or how much do you know about the most powerful kind of poison in his hands!"

Lin Ran asked as he healed.

"What I know isn't really much!"

"I only sensed at first that this new king was a little different from the previous one!"

"And didn't think much of it!"

"But then a friend of mine within the royal palace told me that the king had been swapped!"

"That's when I started sending people to investigate!"

"All I know is that this new king has a very powerful poison in his hands!"

"Almost no one can resist it!"

Bai Frost said.

Lin Ran nodded at his words.

It couldn't be helped that Bai Frost knew less.

However, Lin Ran was truly intrigued by these poisons.

"Alright, just sit here in silence and wait!"

“I’ll come back later!”

Lin Ran stopped moving his hands and got up.

All that was needed now was to wait and wait for time to force the poison out of Bai Frost’s body.

As long as it was forced to the surface of White Frost’s body, it would be much easier to deal with it then!

Lin Ran was also clear that this was the clumsiest way to go.

But there was nothing he could do about it, because he could not think of anything better than this!

Although it was a bit clumsy, it was indeed the most practical!

“Well?”

Seeing Lin Ran coming over, White Mist busily got up and asked.

“I’ll go back in a bit, it shouldn’t be too much of a problem to get rid of this poison!”

Lin Ran said.

“That’s good then!”

White Mist finally sighed in relief at his words.

However, Lin Ran frowned and said.

“Although this poison can be gotten rid of, I feel that the poison in this world is strange!”

“I found that whether it’s within the poison pit or on White Frost!”

“There seems to be some kind of power hidden within these toxins!”

“But it’s very obscure, I feel a great need to meet the king of this world and figure out the secret of these toxins!”

Wonder Doctor Chapter 2286

“Is that necessary?”

White Mist wondered, it was just a rather strange poison, even if the White Frost family didn’t want to leave this world.

There were always other ways to live.

Going to the king of this world for a strange poison was a bit trivial!

“Lin Ran, you have to think about it, although our strength can be said to be invincible in this world!”

“But you also said that this poison is strange, that king should still have a stronger poison in his hands!”

“There’s no need for us to take that risk!”

White Mist said.

After what had happened last time, White Mist had also become very careful in dealing with this issue of Lin Ran's safety.

One of Lin Ran's doppelgangers was already gone, and she didn't want to see this last doppelganger of Lin Ran's appear to feed again!

"I understand what you're worried about, but as a doctor, I do have to go for a walk!"

Lin Ran insisted.

He was originally from a doctor's background, and when faced with this strange poison, he was really a little itchy in his heart when he couldn't find out what was going on.

Moreover, he had discovered that the power contained within these poisons was extraordinary, and if he could separate the toxins from the power within them.

He might even be able to obtain a whole new kind of power.

This was what Lin Ran cared about the most.

As things stood now, anything that could improve his strength a little, Lin Ran didn't want to miss out on.

Even if that power came from inside the poison!

"I still don't suggest you go!"

White Mist insisted.

"Alright then, let's forget about that for now, I'll go check on White Frost!"

Lin Ran said, and with a whirl, he turned to leave.

White Frost was still sitting coiled on the deck of the Void Ship, but by now his head was already seeing sweat.

Clearly he was feeling bad at this point!

"How is he doing?"

White Mist asked as he followed over uneasily, seeing the situation.

"We still have to wait, the poison hasn't reached the surface of the body yet, I told you this poison was troublesome!"

Lin Ran said.

"Alright! I'll think about what you said, for now it's better to cure him of the poison first!"

White Mist said.

"Hm!"

Lin Ran nodded without saying anything more.

Although Lin Ran had fused the memories of his doppelganger.

However, he was still not a doppelganger, so there were always some differences between him and his doppelganger when it came to certain things.

White Mist also clearly understood this, so neither of them continued to dwell on this issue.

Time passed by minute by minute.

By the time the evening came, White Frost seemed to have adapted to the physical pain.

The sweat on his forehead had disappeared.

Instead, at this time, on his arm, a black patch the size of a palm had surfaced.

“Almost there!”

Lin Ran suddenly opened his eyes.

“Senior, can we begin?”

There was excitement in Bai Frost’s eyes.

As long as he could force the poison out of his body, he would also be completely cured

“Yes, but it will still be painful as I said before, so you have to endure it!”

Lin Ran said.

“Senior, just do it!”

Bai Frost said firmly.

As a great general who had fought in all four directions, he could still endure this pain!

“Mm!”

Lin Ran responded at his words, and immediately stopped talking and lifted Bai Frost’s arm up.

“Here we go!”

Lin Ran said, and instantly, his other palm instantly clasped onto White Frost’s arm.

In an instant.

Bai Frost’s entire body felt like it was being devoured by ten thousand insects, and the sharp pain that was drilling through his heart almost made him not pass out!

“Hold on!”

Lin Ran warned, but the movements of his hands didn’t stop.

If he stopped now, White Frost would only have to suffer longer!

It would be better to sit back and force the toxins out with a rush!

....

And just as Lin Ran was treating Bai Frost's body.

At this moment, on the king's island.

The king was sitting on the main seat.

Below him stood five powerful men.

These five men were none other than his most powerful men, the five generals!

"You all know, the scouts have checked it out!"

"The other party is currently on Poison Island, let's take a trip!"

The king's voice was bland, no fluctuation in expression could be seen at all.

"As ordered!"

The five generals below said in unison at the words.

Then without listening to any stay, they directly left the palace and set off in the direction of Poison Island!

....

This night was destined to be an uneventful one.

When Lin Ran moved his palm away from White Frost's arm.

The black spot on Bai Frost's arm was gone.

But on Bai Frost's arm, there was a very obvious wound left behind.

"This wound can be treated later on!"

"At the very least, the poison is drained out for now!"

Lin Ran said.

"Thank you so much senior!"

Bai Frost busily got up and gave a salute.

"No need to do so, you should!"

Lin Ran smiled and said.

"By the way, do you know anything else about this king of yours?"

Lin Ran suddenly asked.

He might as well go meet this king first and find out what this poison in his hands actually was.

“There’s really nothing else, but I heard that my sister killed General Zuo!”

“According to the King’s character, I’m afraid this matter will not be taken lightly!”

“And the king’s men are all over the place, I have a feeling it won’t be more than a day at most before they might find this poison island!”

White Frost said.

“O?”

Not only was Lin Ran not worried at his words, he was instead delighted.

“Alright I know!”

Lin Ran said indifferently, and then he got up and left.

If it was really like what Bai Frost said, then he would be comfortable.

At least this way, he wouldn’t have to go looking for it himself.

When the king’s people were sent, he himself could go with them completely.

It was just White Mist’s side.

Thinking about this nee-san, Lin Ran also had a bit of a headache.

Not knowing what to say back to her.

However, what Lin Ran didn’t expect was this.

Instead of him going to find White Mist, White Mist found him first.

“I’ve figured it out, if you want to go no, I’ll accompany you!”

“Why have you suddenly figured it out?”

Lin Ran couldn’t help but ask when he saw this.

“It’s because I was too selfish, I was just worried about your safety, but I didn’t consider what you really wanted!”

“Now I’ve figured it out, you can go if you want to, I’ll just accompany you!”

Lin Ran couldn’t help but be moved in his heart at his words.

“Someone’s coming!”

Suddenly, White Mist frowned slightly and said busily.

“So soon?”

Lin Ran’s heart sank at his words, it had only been a day and a night since the two of them had arrived at this Poison Island.

I didn’t expect that someone had come looking for them in this block.

“There are five in total, and their strength is not bad!”

White Mist said.

Lin Ran smiled at his words and said.

“Let’s go, just in time to meet them!”

“Mm!”

White Mist nodded, and in a whirl, the two of them disappeared into the void ship.

“Where is the man? Get your ass out here!”

As soon as they arrived outside, the two Lin Ran heard an angry shout.

It seemed to be shouting at the manager of this poisonous island.

But that manager was under Lin Ran’s control, so how could he answer him at this moment!

“Stop shouting, are you looking for me?”

Lin Ran asked directly.

The sound boomed, resounding in everyone’s ears!

“Who are you! Don’t show your true form yet!”

One of the leading generals spoke up.

“You’re not qualified to see it yet, take me to your king!”

Lin Ran said, while not bothering to talk nonsense, an aura filled out and instantly took control of these people!

Wonder Doctor Chapter closed 2287

“Yes!”

The general at the head of the group lost his consciousness instantly.

As for the others, Lin Ran didn’t even bother with them, leaving them where they were.

Taking the general in charge, as well as White Mist and the others, he left straight away.

About this king, Lin Ran didn’t really know much.

He only knew that this king had a very mysterious history.

And it had sort of encroached on the original king’s clan like a turtledove.

Other than that, Lin Ran did not know anything else.

Another thing was that this new king was very vicious and would retaliate if he had an axe to grind.

Otherwise, he wouldn’t have found Lin Ran in such a short time.

He just didn't expect that he would be facing two people who completely surpassed him in terms of strength!

"Up ahead is King's Island, be careful yourself!"

White Mist warned.

Lin Ran nodded and didn't answer.

At this moment, the entire King Island was a lively scene.

And within the huge palace in the very middle of King Island.

The king was sitting on a high seat, with smugness in his eyes.

His eyes swept over the crowd below him, and he had a feeling of looking out of the world.

"Gentlemen, tonight the traitor will fall, and from now on, my little world of Ember will be peaceful!"

"Your Majesty is wise!"

The crowd below were all busy echoing.

Lin Ran stood on the sidelines quietly watching this scene and couldn't help but feel a little emotional!

How different was this situation from the kind of imperial system in his hometown in ancient times.

Only that the ordinary people had been replaced with cultivators.

And looking at this scene in front of him, he couldn't help but remind Su Chen of his hometown.

He had been out for a hundred years.

I don't know how his hometown is doing!

His own grandmother was not already.

Some days, this was a question that Lin Ran didn't even dare to think about.

The only thing he could pray for now was that this world was different from the world back home!

Otherwise, even if he went back one day in the future, what would be the point!

"It's just that, let's take one step and see what happens!"

Lin Ran shook off his head, shaking out all the cluttered thoughts in his mind.

He then walked in towards the hall!

And as he walked in, the dancers around him who were still dancing, as well as the people who were drinking and talking, began to still one by one.

Some of the dancers even kept up their difficult moves!

Some of them hadn't even closed their mouths in time to speak.

It was as if the whole scene was a painting that had come to a direct standstill.

“Hmm?”

The king on the main seat suddenly changed his face, and he looked down with alert eyes.”

“Who are you!”

“You’re looking for me, who do you think I am!”

Lin Ran said indifferently.

But at this moment there was a white light around him, making it impossible for the other party to see his face clearly!

“You’re the one who killed General Zuo!”

The other party exclaimed in shock, while his entire body went on alert.

“Sort of!”

Lin Ran said indifferently.

General Zuo had been killed by White Mist, but at this point it was no different from him killing him.

The man was already dead anyway.

“Unbridled, how dare you!”

“Killing General Zuo and actually daring to ship my king’s palace, believe it or not, I will kill you immediately!”

“You can’t kill me!”

Lin Ran said indifferently.

“Nonsense, the king can’t kill whoever he wants, you think.”

“Don’t be stubborn, it’s useless to be stubborn!”

Lin Ran said indifferently, directly interrupting him.

“You!”

“Alright, I don’t have time to talk nonsense with you, I came to find you this time because I heard that you have a severe poison in your hands!”

“Show it to me!”

Lin Ran said indifferently.

“You seek death!”

Wang was enraged at his words, and as he slapped his palm on the table, his entire body directly rose into the air and charged towards Lin Ran.

However, this scene was a slight frown on Lin Ran's face.

He noticed that there seemed to be a problem with this king's strength.

The opponent's form was clearly not too skilled, and his strength looked like it might not be as strong as Bai Frost's.

This made Lin Ran wonder a little, how did such strength get to sit on the throne?

Couldn't the few generals under him see that?

It was too late, just when Lin Ran was distracted, the king had already reached him.

At the same time, with a flip of his palm, a dagger with a cold glow stabbed towards Lin Ran's chest.

Lin Ran could clearly see that there was a green glow on the dagger.

It was obvious that the dagger was coated with poison!

"Bang!"

Lin Ran waved his palm, and instantly, Wang's entire body directly flew backwards.

Without missing a beat, he crashed directly into the throne.

The original dagger in his hand, however, was floating in place, unmoving.

Lin Ran looked at the dagger quietly and after a moment said helplessly.

"The poison on it isn't right! It seems you still haven't come up with what I want!"

"Who the hell are you!"

At this moment, the king was busy standing up from his throne, with caution in his eyes.

Lin Ran, however, looked at him blandly and said.

"I'll give you one last chance to produce your most powerful poison!"

"Otherwise, I'll do it myself!"

"You're reckless, this is the king's territory!"

The king said angrily.

Lin Ran smiled at his words but said with a smile.

"What does it matter?"

"I said it's useless to be stubborn with your mouth!"

"If you're not willing to talk, then I'll just have to come and see for myself here!"

Lin Ran said as his body flickered once more, his entire person had already reached the high platform where the throne was located,.

“You.... What the hell do you want!”

The king looked at Lin Ran with shock in his eyes.

What Lin Ran had just performed, he hadn't even seen clearly what exactly he was doing!

The other party had already appeared in front of him.

“I've just said I don't want to repeat myself!”

Lin Ran said and instantly snapped his hand onto Wang's head.

And almost at the same time, Wang said.

“No, no! Don't kill me, I'll say it! I can't say it!”

“This is your last chance!”

Lin Ran glanced at Wang indifferently and moved his palm away.

Wang had a bitter look on his face at this point. |

“What for! It's easy for me to have this day!”

“If you don't show up early, you don't show up late, you have to show up from this time!”

Said Wang fished out a bottle from his arms and threw it over.

Lin Ran instantly resulted and instantly saw that the bottle was actually empty!

“Old me has today you think you are scared!”

“Give me the burst!”

Almost simultaneously Wang spoke up.

As his voice rang out.

Instantly, the bottle in Lin Ran's hand exploded straight away.

A different aura instantly corroded the place where Lin Ran was.

Even the air was corrupted with a “hissing” sound.

“Humph! You're still a bit young to fight me, even the kings of old are no match for me!”

“Let alone you! You really think that you have some strength.”

The king had a cold smile in his eyes, yet he hadn't finished his sentence.

Suddenly, a palm had already strangled his neck from behind.

At the same time a voice had come through.

“Is it useful to be stubborn?”

“Since you don't even cherish your last chance, then I'd better do it myself!”

As the words fell, Wang didn't even react.

In an instant an aura had invaded the king's mind.

The next moment Wang's eyes became mute.

And without the slightest bit of politeness, Lin Ran directly retrieved Throwing Fang's memories and flipped through them himself.

Wonder Doctor Chapter 2288

And with this flick through, Lin Ran was instantly struck by surprise.

"What's wrong?"

White Mist was beside himself and asked.

"Do you know what this guy is from?"

Lin Ran laughed.

"What origin?"

White Mist was stunned to hear this and couldn't help but be more than a little curious.

"This guy is a beggar by birth!"

Lin Ran said.

"A beggar? That can't be right!"

White Mist was surprised, how could a beggar grow step by step to where he was now, it was too unbelievable.

"He is indeed of beggar origin!"

Lin Ran laughed, and then recounted what he had learned about the situation to the side.

It turned out that this Wang Zhen's identity was that of a beggar, and he didn't even have a name.

According to reason, how could a beggar be connected to the king of the microscopic small world?

But fate was such a coincidence.

Back then, the king had led his men to explore a jedi land.

To be on the safe side, they recruited a lot of dead servants.

And this beggar was one of them.

He didn't care about life in order to fill his stomach.

Although he had little strength, he was still somewhat useful as cannon fodder to trigger some mechanisms and formations.

It was under these circumstances that he sort of crossed paths with Wang.

However, it was on this occasion that the change came.

The place they were exploring at the time was called the Poison Mound.

It was said that a master poisoner was buried inside, and it was this master poisoner's skill in practising poison and the art of using poison that Wang was after at the time.

However, I'm afraid he didn't know until his death that what was originally his plan ended up being the achievement of a beggar!

"According to this beggar's memory, it seems that he was the one who eventually discovered this person within the poison mound!"

"He obtained from this man the technique of making poison, as well as the method of using it, in a ruthless manner!"

"And most importantly, he also obtained many kinds of poisons from this person!"

Lin Ran said.

"Many poisons? What does that mean?"

White Mist frowned slightly when he heard that.

Lin Ran, however, smiled and said.

"This person within the Poison Mound carries a lot of poison on his body itself!"

"One of them, should be the most powerful kind of poison that White Frost said, this poison is colourless and tasteless, you wouldn't even know it was poison if it was placed in front of you!"

"There are a total of three bottles of this poison, and it is with the help of these poisons that he has replaced the original royal family step by step!"

"This..."

White Mist heard this and also brushed death completely understood!

"Is this poison very powerful?"

White Mist couldn't help but ask, Lin Ran's purpose for coming here was to figure out this poison.

At this point, having already extracted the other party's memories, there should be more than enough to understand!

"I'm afraid it's very powerful, at least his memories don't say anything about the antidote at all!"

Lin Ran frowned.

"And combined with the current situation, I'm afraid that nine out of ten of them don't have the antidote either!"

"Otherwise he wouldn't have killed everyone who disobeyed him!"

"After all, a dynasty's strength is also very important!"

“It’s definitely more cost effective to be able to pull one in as well as definitely kill one!”

White Mist was silent as he heard this, and his heart was also vaguely worried.

“Lin Ran, otherwise we’d better leave, since this poison is so powerful, there’s no need for us to risk it!”

“No, we’ve come, let’s find out what this poison is all about!”

“If we know more about this poison, we’ll be more prepared if we encounter it in the future!”

Lin Ran said.

However, White Mist shook his head and said.

“Is there a need for this? This is a small world, and we might not return for the rest of our lives after we leave in the future!”

“You also said that there are only three bottles of this poison in total, so who knows if he has already used them all!”

“If it runs out, then there’s even less threat!”

White Mist said and stopped herself.

“I know, I’m thinking selfishly, but there are so many people in the world, why must you be the one to take the risk?”

“I’m really worried about your safety!”

Lin Ran didn’t answer, he understood what White Mist was thinking.

But apparently White Mist didn’t understand his thoughts.

As a doctor, there was no way Lin Ran would miss this kind of toxin that he didn’t even know about.

If he didn’t figure it out, his mind wouldn’t be able to settle down!

“I’ve already decided, so there’s no need for you to persuade me!”

“Give me a few minutes and I’ll figure it out soon!”

Lin Ran said and stopped talking nonsense, and went straight to Wang’s side.

According to the other party’s memories, Lin Ran also understood.

At the beginning, he had obtained a total of three bottles of that very powerful poison from within the Poison Mound.

These three bottles of poison had only been used up to now, and only half of them were left.

In order to control or erase the people who were in his way, he had used up more than two bottles one after another over the years.

And he still mixes water to use it.

Because the toxicity of this poison was so strong, if it was not mixed with water to use it, it could be said that it simply killed people with invisibility.

“Take it out!”

Lin Ran said indifferently, and Wang Guoran woodenly took out half a bottle of liquid and handed it to Lin Ran.

After receiving this half bottle of liquid, Lin Ran’s heart lifted.

He knew very well what the half bottle of liquid in this bottle really represented.

But it was also equally clear how powerful this half bottle of venom really was!

“Take out the other stuff too!”

And this time, the other party actually took out an ancient booklet straight away.

“What’s this?”

White Mist was stunned as he looked at it and busily asked.

“Information documenting this poison!”

Lin Ran said.

“I have to study it properly as his memories have not been read!”

Lin Ran said with a wave of his palm, instantly disappearing within the palace with Wang as well as this booklet and the white mist.

When he reappeared, his entire body was hard on a void vessel.

Without the slightest delay, Lin Ran directly took the car and did so next to it, flipping through it carefully.

White Mist thought about it then turned around and left.

Lin Ran also didn’t bother with White Mist and flipped through the booklet in front of him very carefully.

He soon learnt some unknown secrets about this poison!

It turned out that the maker of this poison was called “Poisonous Fool”.

It was said that the poisoner was a demented man who had fallen in love with a girl when he was young.

He was in love with a girl when he was young, but he couldn’t get her to fall in love with him, and she later fell in love with a rich and powerful young man in the area.

After the young master learned that the youth was courting the woman, he sent someone to capture him.

He then poisoned him and prepared to kill him!

As a result, who knew that not only did the youth not die, but he had developed a poisonous body.

From then on, he was invulnerable to all poisons, but carried his own poison with him!

Unwilling to let fate take its course, he began to study the art of poison.

The result was something that he really did discover.

At the end of his life, he invented a poison.

It was this most powerful of poisons.

He tried the poison on himself and his body, which was invulnerable to all kinds of poisons, could not withstand it this time.

He eventually died under this poison.

But just before he died, he wrote down this booklet.

He had left behind some of his insights on this poison!

And when Lin Ran saw these insights, his entire body could not help but be stunned.

He realised that this poison was not at all as simple as it appeared to be.

There was even a great opportunity hidden, a poison that could be called the most precious of all!

Wonder Doctor Chapter 2289

The booklet said.

“Although this poison is poisonous, it also contains a hidden opportunity!”

“At the end of my life, when I last tried to cure the poison, I accidentally discovered that this poison contained a strange power!

“And this power is actually present in all the other poisons!”

“Perhaps this is the characteristic of this world!”

“Poison mines, poison mounds in this world seem to contain such a power in everything that has to do with poison!”

“What is this force? I don’t know!”

“But there is one thing I know for sure!”

“That is that this power is very powerful!”

“On my last attempt, before I had completely stripped this power away!”

“I tried to use it once!”

“The mountains and rivers popped to pieces, the sun and moon were starless, and I even felt that I could overthrow the heaven and earth!”

“Those who come after, if you have the chance, please make sure you get this poison completely right!”

“Maybe he can open up a whole new world!”

This was the end of the booklet’s final account.

When Lin Ran saw this, he basically understood the whole story!

Back then, this young man had invented this poison when he was young.

It was only that he himself was unable to decipher the mystery of it.

Later, by accident, he was brought out by this beggar.

It was just a pity that he himself had little strength, so this poison became a tool for him to rise to power step by step.

He didn’t even bother to read the contents of the back of this booklet.

I’m afraid that in his eyes, the only thing he cared about most was something that would allow him to enjoy glory and wealth!

Lin Ran sighed helplessly, although until now he didn’t know exactly what Mu Yang power this poison contained.

But one would think that it should be similar to the one in Bai Frost’s body.

The poison in Bai Frost’s body contained very little of this power.

So Lin Ran couldn’t tell exactly what kind of poison it was.

But there was one thing that could prove it.

That was that the kind of power contained within the poison must not be underestimated.

When the poison word in Bai Frost’s body was just some, it was extremely difficult to expel it.

If it was replaced with this more powerful poison, Lin Jean himself wasn’t even sure if he could treat it completely.

So he didn’t dare to try it easily.

“Get a drop and try it!”

Looking at the half bottle of poison in his hand, Lin Ran gave it a try.

With just one drop he was still quite sure.

After all, one drop and a mouthful of a bottle were two completely different concepts!

With one drop of poison, one could completely wrap it with one’s power, so that one wouldn’t have to use one’s own body for experimentation!

And if this poison was also the same as the previous one, it could infest the power all over.

Lin Ran could also quickly destroy it with other powers.

Not to infect himself.

After going through all the possibilities in his mind and thinking of a countermeasure, Lin Ran then began to prepare.

White Mist hadn't returned since he left, and he didn't know what he was busy with!

Not even White Frost had been seen.

Lin Ran didn't say much when he saw this, after preparing and setting up a formation around the area that wouldn't be disturbed.

He then set to work!

He first opened the cork of the bottle, and then quickly poured out a drop of liquid.

He then quickly put the cork back in.

At the same time, a realm of power quickly dragged the liquid suspended in front of him.

As expected, the actual situation was similar to what Lin Ran had thought.

The true qi that he himself had wrapped around this drop of poison was surprisingly being rapidly infiltrated as well.

What he hadn't expected was the speed of the infestation.

Lin Ran didn't dare to be lazy as strands of true qi quickly surged out, forming layer after layer of barrier around this drop of poison.

This was to delay the true qi that had been infiltrated by the poison.

But the power within this poison was very strange and very fast.

Even if Lin Ran kept replenishing his power, I'm afraid he would only be able to last for a minute at most!

Although the time was somewhat short, Lin Ran was able to sense the power within the poison very well.

He soon discovered that the power within the poison carried a sense of familiarity.

It did not repel his own power.

This was something that shocked him greatly.

One should know that when cultivating, cultivators would instinctively choose the dao as well as the gongfu, that suited them.

For example, Lin Ran cultivated the Dao of Lightning, the two Dao of Feng Shui, as well as the Dao of Medicine and the Dao of Sword.

So if he were to feel the Dao of Flame, or the Dao of Killing, which he had not been exposed to.

Although it was not so much that it would conflict with his own power.

But there would definitely be a little bit of all resistance.

But what happened now was that the power within this poison did not cause him to feel a trace of rejection.

“What kind of power is this? It’s so strange!”

Lin Ran’s heart was also full of doubts.

But at this moment, the time left for him was running out.

Lin Ran didn’t dare to delay and directly drew the power within the poison towards the front.

He was ready to try and see if the power within the poison was really powerful!

As his thoughts came together, a black light rushed out from within the poison in an instant.

This black light was shining black.

It was as if a black stream of light, and it reached the front almost instantly.

And almost in this instant, Lin Ran was shocked to see.

The black light exploded into a gap in space with a “bang”.

It instantly sank into it and disappeared.

“This...”

Lin Ran was instantly frozen as he watched.

It had directly exploded through the void!

And it was such a weak attack.

Lin Ran simply didn’t dare to think about it.

One should know that under normal circumstances, power, even if there were strong and weak, might blow up the void in one go.

It definitely wouldn’t be just this one.

Moreover, this power had clearly not even fully exploded.

It had blown apart the void in just a moment.

This was definitely already beyond the range of ordinary power.

Moreover, there was still very much of this power left that had directly disappeared into the void.

It could only mean that this force was not repelled by the void either.

A force is very strong, and it is also not repelled by the void.

That can only mean one thing: this power is certainly not artificially created.

If the power was created by the cultivator himself, it would certainly be rejected by the void.

Otherwise, why would the cultivator need to create a void tunnel to travel through.

Wouldn't it be faster to merge directly into the void!

When Lin Ran thought of this, he was almost certain that the power within this poison was probably derived from the void.

But the power in the void was ethereal and hard to find, and it was extremely difficult to master the power of the void!

What's more, he had no idea what kind of power it was.

Was it the power of nature, or the power of obliteration, or the power of the void?

These could not be investigated clearly without refining them personally!

"As good as chance is, you must have a life to take it!"

Lin Ran talked helplessly.

Clearly the power contained within this poison was good and even considered precious.

But if one wanted to refine it, one would obviously have to take a very big risk, and one might even lose one's life as a result!

I'm afraid that Lin Ran wouldn't take this poison easily unless he was in a desperate situation!

Wonder Doctor Chapter 2290

Although the matter of the poison is not fully understood, but overall it is basically all clear where it came from, the only thing that cannot be solved for the time being is what power is contained within this poison.

The only thing that could not be solved for the time being was what kind of power the poison contained. White Mist never bothered Lin Ran again, which surprised him and was somewhat out of character for this girl.

Later, when Lin Ran found White Mist, he learned that this nee-san was actually busy with the matter of White Frost.

The current situation within the small world of Ember was in turmoil, the king had been captured directly by Lin Ran again, and now even the poison was gone, so it could be said that it was finished.

And the original king's clan didn't have any descendants left.

The whole world could be said to be on the verge of a riot at any moment.

White Frost had to stand up for himself at this point, and as for whether he was supporting the descendants of the royal family, or how Lin Ran wasn't interested.

“I’m ready to leave!” Lin Ran said as he found White Mist.

“Where to?”

White Mist asked busily.

“I don’t know yet, but leaving is a certainty, this small world is no longer useful to me.”

“Well, I will follow you wherever you want to go!”

White Mist laughed, and there was even a glint in his eyes.

Lin Ran didn’t say any more when he saw this.

The two stayed in the Ember Small World for another three days before they left together.

After all, White Mist and White Frost were very close, so even if they had to leave, they had to say hello.

“Where do we go next?”

In the void, White Mist couldn’t help but ask.

“I don’t think about it for now, let’s just wander around in this void.”

Lin Ran said indifferently.

He really hadn’t thought about where he was going.

“Alright then.”

White Mist smiled and nodded, no matter where she went as long as she was with Lin Ran she would be content!

The two’s void ship just shuttled and drifted through the void.

In the blink of an eye, half a month had passed, and the two of them had passed through an unknown number of small worlds, but Lin Ran had not entered any of them.

After half a month of research, he had also gained some new insights into the poison.

But trying to crack it was still a long way off.

“Ai, it’s simply impossible to gain insight into the mysteries within a short period of time, I was too hasty!”

Lin Ran sighed, and then turned up and stopped thinking about it.

“You’re out? How do you feel?”

Seeing Lin Ran come out, White Mist asked with a smile.

“Not too bad, where are we?”

Lin Ran asked.

“The Little World of Heavenly Demons.”

White Mist said.

“The Little World of Heavenly Demons? What a strange name.”

Lin Ran said, “How could it be called the Heavenly Demon Small World?”

“It is said that this Heavenly Demon Little World is a world of demonic beasts.”

“And the most puzzling thing is that the magical beasts within this small world are all extremely ferocious.”

Speaking here White Mist continued after a pause.

“It is said that there is chaos inside this small world, there are no humans at all, and only some people who might have magical beasts that they need to hunt will go in.”

“So that’s how it is.”

Lin Ran listened in a daze, not expecting that there was actually such a thing in this Heavenly Demon Small World.

“You wouldn’t want to go in and take a look, would you?”

White Mist asked, seemingly a little afraid that Lin Ran was really prepared to go in and take a look.

“Why do you seem to be so repulsed?”

Lin Ran asked, puzzled.

“It’s not that I’m repulsed, I just don’t like it a bit, the life inside is too weak, and it’s desolate everywhere!”

White Mist said.

“But if you want to go, I can do it.” White Mist said with a pretty face that couldn’t help but blush.

“That’s fine, I’m not interested in going there.”

Lin Ran said.

However, as soon as he said this, suddenly White Mist’s face changed.

“Someone’s coming, be careful!”

Lin Ran also raised his eyebrows slightly at his words.

This was the void, how many of those who could travel here didn’t have strength?

“Can you sense who it is!”

Lin Ran asked.

“I can’t feel it, but the other party is also using a void ship, and I’m afraid it’s not a small one!”

White Mist said.

Although they were both called Void Ships, there was a big difference between them!

For example, the Void Ship that Luo Qiqi often used was a King-class Void Ship.

But this kind of Void Ship couldn't travel through the Void for a long time either!

On top of this King-class Void Ship, there was another kind of Void Ship, and that was the kind that White Mist and Lin Ran rode in.

Don't look at this kind of Void Ship with three words, it was called a Void Ship.

But only this kind of void ship was truly worthy of those three words.

Usually when there was a great battle, it was only such void ships that could truly influence the battle.

"Here it comes!"

Lin Ran was thinking in his mind when the white mist in front of him spoke.

Almost at the same time, Lin Ran saw that in the void ahead, a void ship that was barely comparable to his own void ship had actually appeared as well.

Who exactly was it?

Lin Ran's heart was curious, there were only a few forces that could possess a void ship of this level.

The Chaos Clan, the Anti-Alliance and the Beast King Domain, or a major power like the Thunder Dignity Pavilion.

But it was very rare to come across one in the vast void.

I just didn't know who this sudden appearance on the void ship was!

Just as Lin Ran was thinking in his mind, the void ship in front of him suddenly stopped listening.

Immediately, a voice came over.

"Brat, you fucking ran here to spend your honeymoon with a beautiful woman, have you thought about Master Shu's feelings!"

The moment this voice came to mind, Lin Ran was instantly struck.

"Pillow Book?"

"What pillow book?"

The white mist beside him also sounded confused.

"A friend of mine!"

Lin Ran said as he directly rushed out of the Void Ship and headed right towards the other party's Void Ship.

“Hey! You’re careful of a trick!”

White Mist busily said, while following suit.

A moment later, Lin Ran saw that on the other side’s void ship.

Pillow Book, Qin Bing, and Li were actually all on it!

“What are you three doing here?”

Seeing the three, Lin Ran was also very happy.

“What? Caught you on a date with a pretty girl? Qin Bing saw it all anyway!”

Pillow Book laughed.

“Screw you!”

Lin Ran gave him a blank look without a smile before introducing him.

“This is Bai Mog, senior Bai Qian’s daughter!”

“These three are my friends, Pillow Book Qin Bing as well as Li!”

“Hello guys!”

White Mist said with a smile.

Pillow Book and Li were fine, but Qin Bing looked at White Mist twice more.

It was said that a woman’s sixth sense was the most accurate.

At this moment, the two women looked at each other, but neither of them said anything!

“That, how did you guys get here?”

Lin Ran saw that the situation wasn’t right, so he was busy opening his mouth to ask.

“Didn’t I tell you all that I came to catch.”

“You shut up, Qin Bing you say!”

Lin Ran directly interrupted the pillow and looked at Qin Bing who was at the side

Qin Bing said with a smile.

“Because of Li!”

It turned out that there was less than a year left until the duel between the Immortal Emperor and Zhen Yan and the Lord of the Alliance!

Zhen Yan was a little worried about what would happen after the duel!

So for the sake of the Magical Beast Clan, he had deliberately consumed a certain amount of money and pushed for Li.

“Senior Zhen Yan said that Li’s chance lies within a small world somewhere around here, so here we are!”]

“I didn’t expect to run into you here!”

Qin Bing said.

“Li’s chance?”

Lin Ran was stunned at his words and asked.

“This guy’s strength is already very strong, isn’t it, and Uncle Zhen Yan has to find a chance for him!”
