Chapter 2323 No One Can Be Your Lord

“Mochizuki River wanted to say something, but was interrupted by Haruhi Yingyue directly. “Enough!

“This matter, don’t talk about it again.”

Haruhi Yingyue snorted, but Mochizuki and the others immediately closed their mouths, their faces full of bitterness, and they didn’t dare to say anything. In the end, Haruhi Yingyue ordered the Sword God Palace to use a special plane to send Long Baichuan and the others back to Vietnam, “If there is Any mistakes, I ask you!

Senran murmured angrily, resounding everywhere. The sound of cold ice almost made the Bibo Lake in the distance condense into ice. Although Mochizuki and their hearts were extremely bitter, what could they do? How could they dare to disobey the orders of the Moon God. In the end, she could only break her teeth and swallow in her belly! However, before leaving, Liang Gong Yingyue looked at the two Long Baichuan and her tone was much softer: “If you can see the master, please help me bring a sentence to the master. words.

“Tell the master that no matter what happens in the future, he will always be Yue’er’s most beloved master.

“Even if Yue’er’s consciousness dissipates and his soul is no longer in the future, Yue’er will still watch his master in another form.”

“The words of Haruhi Yingyue were scorching, and there was an inexplicable light in the eyebrows. Long Baichuan and the two were stunned. They didn’t know what Haruonng Yingyue meant, let alone why she said this suddenly. However, Doubts turn to doubts, Long Baichuan and the others did not ask much. After all, the two of them are just a few subordinates after all. The grievances between the dragon lord and the moon god are entangled, so they should not participate too much. That’s it. Under the watchful eyes of the Moon God, Long Baichuan and the two went to the airport with Mochizuki River and took a special plane back to Huaxia. Here, a breeze swept through, and the fallen leaves fluttered. Liang Palace Yingyue stood there, lifting Qiao. The face, looking at the ancient east from a distance, has not looked away for a long time, just because there is a young man who makes her dream. “This is the last time. From now on, forget your Liang Gong Yingyue Identity.

“You are already a monthly reading, and only monthly reading.

“You are the god of the Japanese kingdom, you are the respect of hundreds of millions of people, no one in the world can be your master.

“Including him.

“At this time, a sacred and solemn voice suddenly sounded in my mind. It was the consciousness that belonged to the moon reading, the soul of the Sun Moon God.

Just now, Liang Gong Yingyue said Mark was the master, which undoubtedly undermined the Moon God's majesty.

But Yuedu did not stop her, but let her words and deeds.

Because Yuedu could feel her deep friendship for that person.

However, only this time.

In the future, Yuedu will completely control this body, and will never allow similar things to happen again.

This time, facing Yueread's words, Haruhi Yingyue did not resist, and she could not resist.

She knew very well that her weak soul consciousness couldn't match Yuexue.

Sooner or later, her consciousness will be swallowed by Moonreading and will be completely integrated with it.

At that time, Haruhi Yingyue will be completely gone!

However, no matter if she is Haruhi Yingyue or Moonreading God in the future, she will never forget him, her master, and the kindness to her.

"Master, goodbye~" Haruhi Yingyue murmured tearfully as she looked into the distance.

After that, the delicate temperament of Haruhi Yingyue disappeared immediately.

The cold and majesty of a generation of gods has swept across again.

Looking around, under the sky, there is only the holy figure that is majestic and graceful!

Chapter 2324 the angry Ishiye Ryuichi

Dongjing International Airport.

A luxury airliner is located here.

However, this luxury airliner, which can accommodate a hundred people, was booked by the people of the Sword God Palace, and according to the order of the Moon God, sent Long Baichuan back to Vietnam.

Before boarding the plane, Long Baichuan looked at the Mochizuki River on the side with a smile, haha smiled: "Haha, Sword God, trouble you, let you charter a flight to send us off, we are really ashamed."

Long Baichuan laughed.

But in sharp contrast to Long Baichuan, Mochizuki and their old faces are as ugly as they are.

Especially after seeing Long Baichuan's arrogant look, Mochizuki River felt as uncomfortable as eating a fly.

Damn it, you're so embarrassed!

These two people killed their eight thousand Japanese spirits and retreated all over, and now they even let them charter a flight.

Thinking about this, I felt aggrieved. It was simply a shameful shame for Mochizuki River, a shameful shame for Japanese martial arts.

But, what can I do if I don't know anything about it?

How dare they disobey the orders of the Moon God.

Only, full of resentment and aggrieved, sent away the two of Long Baichuan.

"Hey~" "What's this special?" "Brother, what do you say about the Moon God?" "Why is she always oriented towards the Vietnamese child."

"She is the god of our Japanese country, as a refuge for the Japanese country."

People."

"But what now?" "Hey~" "I don't know, I guess we thought that the god of the sun and the moon, the god of faith, is the woman of the Vietnamese child and the Brian Chu Where are the ministers under the crotch?" After Long Baichuan and the two left, Ishiye Long became more and more angry, and finally complained to Mochizuki River angrily.

"Shut up!" "What nonsense are you talking about?" "Don't want to live anymore?" Mochizuki was frightened when he heard Ryu Ishino's words, and he quickly yelled at him.

After all, Ishiye Ryuichi's words just now were disrespectful to the Moon God.

If the Moon God is to know, his junior fellow is afraid that he will die without a place to be buried!

"Huh~" "Senior brother, I know I've said a little too much, but it feels like this."

"If only something is involved with Brian Chu, Lord Moon God will lose her position, she has no principled bottom line. Protect the Vietnamese kid."

"Before, under the sky tree, after the battle, do you still remember?" "The Moon God directly embraced the bastard, and the two of them even kissed in public?!" "My majestic martial arts god, was actually caught Hua Xia's children are so blasphemy, it feels shameful and shameful to think about it."

"I really want to tear that Brian Chu!" "But this stinky boy is really lucky. With so much artillery bombing by the First Division, he actually Can you survive?" Ishiye Ryuichi was still complaining, but Mochizuki he scolded: "Okay, shut up you."

"I warn you, these things are rotten to my stomach. It is forbidden to do anything People said."

"Moon God's personal affairs are not something you and I can comment on."

Just like this, with full of anger, Mochizuki and the two finally sent away Long Baichuan and them.

On the plane.

Long Baichuan drank a little wine and laughed.

“Haha, you deserve to be the Dragon Lord. It really is like a god.”

“Say that within three days, someone will send us back to our country, but someone will send us back to our country.”

“However, what I didn’t expect was that. The dignified Japanese martial art of the highest god, was actually conquered by the dragon master and respected him as the master?” “Doesn’t this mean that the entire Japanese martial art is already at the feet of the dragon master?”
