

Chapter 2325– 2326 of A Dish Best Served Cold Novel

Chapter 2325 I added it myself

What is the supreme god of martial arts?

That is the martial arts leader of a country.

Yueyue's position in the Japanese martial arts world is just like that of the god of war Ye Qingtian in Vietnam.

Today, Yuedu actually respects Mark as the master. From another perspective, the entire Japanese martial arts is undoubtedly under Mark's feet.

However, when he heard this, the Dragon God shook his head: "It's not that simple."

"I always feel that the previous Moon God is a bit weird."

"It feels like there are two different things in the same person. "Two people?" Long Baichuan was stunned when he heard the words, and then asked in surprise, "You mean, schizophrenia?" The black man nodded, and then shook his head: "I don't know. It's just a guess."

"Yeah."

Long Baichuan did not pursue this matter, but continued to admire Mark, "I have to say that the Dragon Lord is really powerful. Decisions are made for thousands of miles and strategizing."

"I thought, this time. We are doomed to escape, I am afraid we are going to die in a foreign country."

"But who would have thought that the dragon lord's majesty would spread to the sun. The moon god of the sun, hearing the name of the dragon lord, directly let us go."

"Furthermore, the Dragon Lord is not only super strong, but this girl is also a must-see."

"Especially the love poem, the artistic conception is so beautiful."

"It can be said to be romantic by poems."

“If it’s a woman, you must also fall under the dragon lord!” Recalling the thrilling scene before, Long Baichuan couldn’t help but sigh. In his words, there was full admiration and admiration for Mark.

However, the strong dragon god on the side picked up the teacup, took a sip, then shook his head and smiled: “The love poem was played on the spot and added.”

“The dragon lord just asked me to greet the moon god. , Did not let me recite poems to her. “What?

“Did you add it yourself?” Long Baichuan was immediately surprised when he heard this.

A pair of eyes suddenly widened.

The tea that had just entered his mouth spouted out with a pop.

“you you you...

Are you not afraid that the dragon master will know that it will be your sin?

“Long Baichuan was terribly scared. He didn’t expect that the words he had just said to Yuereading were actually added by him. If it were placed in ancient times, it would be a false preaching of the imperial decree and a serious crime to beheaded. However, this black-clothed man was very calm. He picked up the teacup, took a sip, and continued to smile: “Don’t you tell, I don’t tell, how can the dragon master know?”

“Furthermore, I am also the Dragon Lord.

“I can see that the Moon God of the Sun has a deep affection for our Dragon Lord. If it is because of my poem, that a marriage is formed, wouldn’t it be a great thing?”

“When the time comes, the supreme god of the martial arts of the country will truly become a minister under our Dragon Lord.

“The black-clothed man smiled inexplicably, his smile is a bit cunning no matter how you look. “But our dragon lord, we are all married and have a wife, aren’t you messy mandarin ducks?”

If the Moon God really comes to the door in the future, how should the Dragon Lord explain to Miss Qiu?

“Long Baichuan had a dark old face, and he only felt that the dragon god was playing the piano indiscriminately. He was undoubtedly incurring peach blossom debts for Mark. “What’s the matter?”

“The dragon lord is a real dragon in the world. There are a few confidantes outside, which is normal.”

“The red flag at home won’t fall, the colorful flags are fluttering outside.”

“I believe that Miss Qiu can understand her.”

“The man in black said casually.

Chapter 2326 Surprise Of Chu Family

Hearing this, Long Baichuan suddenly smiled bitterly.

He also didn’t know whether this Lord Dragon God had cheated Mark or helped Mark.

Phew~ Outside, the wind is blowing and black clouds are rolling.

At the top of the nine days, a transnational flight carried two people like this, and flew towards the Noifork land.

However, that night, Commander Sato was killed, and news of the destruction of the entire army of the First Division spread to the Chu family.

In the Chu Family Manor, the acting patron Chu Zhengliang was sitting in the study, listening to his son Chu Qitian’s report.

After hearing this news, even Chu Zhengliang, who was the Patriarch of the Chu family, was no doubt immediately surprised.

“What are you talking about?” “Sato is dead?” “The entire army of 8,000 soldiers in the First Division was destroyed?” “This...

how can that be?

Chu Zhengliang was shocked, and stood up from the table, his old face was pale, and asked in disbelief. “Father, although it’s hard to believe.”

But it is true, it is true.

Chu Qitian didn’t look good, and whispered to his father. “Who did it?”

“Is it my brother again?”

“Impossible, he has been suppressed, how could he come out again?”

Chu Zhengliang’s eyebrows were condensed, and he couldn’t help asking. This Sato was a member of the Chu family who was supported by their Chu family with great effort. He is in a high position in Japan and holds the most elite military power in Japan. His Death is undoubtedly a huge loss for the Chu Family. What’s more, he once promised that he would protect him safely. But now, he is still dead. Moreover, the entire First Division was also destroyed! This matter If it spreads out, what would the other affiliated forces of the Chu Family scattered outside think? Undoubtedly, they will feel that the Chu Family is incompetent, even unable to shelter their subordinates. This will inevitably cause great damage to the Majesty of the Chu Family. Therefore, this case The matter must be handled properly, otherwise it will undermine the authority of the Chu family. Facing Chu Zhengliang's inquiry, Chu Qitian shook his head: "I don't know the identity of the other party."

However, according to the information we collected, this murderer seemed to have inextricable connections with Brian Chu.

"As far as I know, not only Sato and the First Division were killed this time, but also Abe Zhongnan, who had revealed the whereabouts of Brian Chu to us, were also found exposed outside their manor."

In the room, Chu Qitian's low voice echoed. Chu Zhengliang's expression was stagnant: "Brian Chu?"

"Is the information accurate?"

"Is it possible that this abandoned son is really not dead?"

"Speaking of this, Chu Zhengliang suddenly remembered something, and immediately said: "Qi Tian, contact the two giants in the summer. We persuaded them to take control of Noirfork. After so long, the land of Noirfork should have been taken over by them. Up."

"Ask them, can you find the trace of Brian Chu?"

"Before, Chu Zhengliang sent people to lobby the Lu and Xu family to persuade them to take over Noirfork. What they did was to help them investigate the whereabouts of Brian Chu. After all, if Mark was really not dead, he would definitely hide in Noirfork."

All the forces that the Chu family had arranged in Noirfork were eliminated by Mark, so they could only take advantage of the power of Gritsberg's wealthy family to gain control of Noirfork.

"Well, father, I'll get in touch now."

Chu Qitian nodded and agreed, then let his subordinates find their contact information and dialed it.

However, Chu Qitian played with the Xu family for a long time, but didn't get through.
