

Chapter 2333– 2334 of A Dish Best Served Cold Novel

Chapter 2333 Yun Dao Tian Jue Array!

Therefore, Mark didn't even think about what Owen said.

“Okay, it's done, where are you going back and forth?” Mark didn't seem interested in talking with Owen anymore, and was about to hang up.

“Okay.”

“But the Dragon Lord, the LiaoDollar plan, when are you going to start?” Owen asked again.

Mark replied in a deep voice: “Just go back and wait for the news.”

After that, Mark also hung up.

Today, Sato is dead and the First Division has been slaughtered.

The revenge of the sneak attack in the Pacific Ocean was reported in half, and the remaining half belonged to the Chu family.

“Soon, new hatred and old hatred, I'm Brian Chu, I will get it back together!” In the room, Mark's palm was clenched, and there was a sharp cold flash in his eyebrows.

Just like, before his eyes, the scene on the island that day appeared again.

Mark will never forget that stern face and ruthless figure until his death.

Of course, this is not the time to settle the general ledger with the Chu family.

After this Noifork catastrophe, Mark became more aware of the importance of building a protective formation.

Of course, the formation Mark mentioned here is by no means the “war formation” of the Cold Weapon era, but a kind of “art formation” that can draw the power of the heavens and the earth.

It was recorded in the Yundao Tianshu that a defensive formation can be constructed using Ba Chi Qiong Gou Jade as the source.

When Mark went to Japan with Haruog Yingyue, what he did was to obtain one of the three artifacts of Japan, the eight-foot Qionggou jade.

Then, use jade as a source to construct a defensive formation.

It's a pity that an accident happened later, and until today, Mark didn't have time to think about this formation.

Of course, if you want to build a large defense formation, you must first choose where to deploy it.

In the beginning, Mark selected two candidate sites.

One is Yunding Mountain in Wrifill, where the formation can keep Wrifill stable and Helen safe.

The other place is Yejia Manor in Denham.

My mother, grandfather and other relatives are all in Denham, and they set up an array in Denham. They can be safe in times of crisis.

These days, Mark has been hesitating between these two places, not knowing where to build the protective formation.

Of course, Mark had also thought about bringing his mother and them to Wrifill and letting them live with Helen.

In this case, only a large formation can be established in Wrifill.

However, after Mark thought about it, he felt that this plan was inappropriate.

One is that in the land of Denham, there is a branch of the Mufan Group, and it is difficult to leave because of his mother, Ye Ximei, staying behind.

Another reason is that the mother-in-law and daughter-in-law live together under the same roof. It is fine for a short time. After this time, Mark is also afraid that there will be conflicts between them.

What's more, for my grandfather and the others, should they also move to Yunding Mountain and live with Helen?

In the end, Mark decided to build two big formations after weighing the pros and cons.

With Wrifill as the mainstay and Denham as the supplement, build the Yundao heavenly battle!

In this case, relatives in Wrifill and Denham can be sheltered.

However, now is not the time to build a formation.

The former Yundingshan Villa was destroyed, and now Ericson and the others are accelerating the reconstruction.

If Mark wants to build a formation, he must wait for the completion of Yundingshan Villa.

Therefore, before the formation of the formation was completed, Mark's LiaoDollar plan was naturally postponed.

However, just as Mark was considering the formation, a vehicle suddenly approached outside the villa.

Chapter 2334

Immediately afterwards, Ericson's respectful voice came from outside the door: "Mr. Chu, I am Ericson."

"According to your instructions, I am here to pick you up."

Mark nodded, then walked out of the room and ordered Ericson. Take him to the Yunding Mountain Villa.

"Huh?" "Mr. Chu, what are you doing there?" "The Yundingshan Villa is under construction. It is very noisy and chaotic."

Ericson asked puzzledly.

Mark faintly replied: "Tell them, today is a day off, so all the personnel will leave Yunding Mountain and let them come back tomorrow."

"This~" Ericson's mouth twitched, wondering what Mark meant.

This is so good, why suddenly give workers a holiday.

However, Ericson saw that Mark didn't mean to explain, so he didn't ask any more.

Instead, according to Mark's instructions, all personnel on the scene were evacuated from Yunding Mountain for a day off.

Afterwards, Ericson drove and took Mark to Yunding Mountain.

At this time, Yunding Mountain was full of various building materials and large-scale construction machinery.

The once magnificent villa has also been flattened and rebuilt.

The entire Yunding Mountain is completely rebuilt after the disaster.

Ericson really couldn't figure it out, why Mark came here suddenly.

"Ericson, you take people and clear a small area on the top of Yunding Mountain."

"Then put a tea table, two cushions, a pot of tea, and two teacups."

"Today, I will be here. , Treat the guests personally."

"Go and sit down."

After reaching Yunding Mountain, Mark ordered again.

When Ericson heard this, he was undoubtedly more curious.

"Mr. Chu, are you going to be here for guests?" "Are you sure?" "Would you like me to say hello to The Twinfill and let me arrange a private room for you over there. How are you going to be there?" Ericsonkan Xiang Mark asked again.

Mark waved his hand: "No, it's here. If you change places, I'm afraid he won't be able to find it."

Seeing Mark's insistence, Ericson didn't persuade him.

I had to shook his head and smiled bitterly, feeling that Mr. Chu was unpredictable and his thoughts were beyond the reach of ordinary people.

After that, Ericson went to arrange tables and chairs in accordance with Mark's instructions.

After half an hour, everyone retired.

There was only one person, one table, and two cups of strong tea left at the top of Yunding Mountain.

Amidst the enthusiasm, a handsome young man sat on the ground at the top of Yunding Mountain.

It is like an expert from outside the world, waiting for the arrival of the destined person.

In the distance, the breeze is light, and the water of the cloud lake is rippling.

Here, the tip of Mark's forehead also blew with the wind.

Beside him, there is also a delicate package.

No one knows what is in the package?

At the same time, somewhere above the restaurant not far from Yunding Mountain, there was a woman in a purple skirt sitting peacefully.

This temperament is cold and refined, even if the face is covered with light gauze, it is still difficult to conceal the face of the peerless city.

As a result, in front of her, the surrounding women felt ashamed.

As for the men around, their eyes were full of admiration and surprise.

If they didn't see it with their own eyes, they would never believe that there are such beautiful women in this world.

Curvy, outstanding figure, cold temperament like a fairy who has fallen into the world.

What is a beautiful meal?

This is a beautiful meal!

Even the hungry diners, after seeing this woman, no longer feel hungry.
