

Chapter 2353– 2354 of A Dish Best Served Cold Novel

Chapter 2353

“No, I have to go to the commander.”

Wang Dongsheng was worried, so he decided to go directly to Wuyang and persuaded Wuyang to take it back.

“Commander Wu, instructor Chu, he really can’t offend him~” “Nonsense!” However, who would have thought that Wang Dongsheng had just fallen off, and Wu Yang hadn’t said anything yet, but Orell Lin on the side exploded immediately and scolded angrily. Said: “Wang Dongsheng, what do you mean by this?” “Commander Wuyang is in charge of the Noifork Military Region. Don’t say that Mark is just a small instructor. It’s me, the deputy commander, who obeys Commander Wu. “In the Noifork Military Region, the military commander is the sky.”

“But you, actually said that the bullshit, the military commander can not afford to offend?” “Could it be that in your eyes, the commander in chief Wuyang is not as good as a newcomer to the military region.”

It’s not a nameless boy for a month?” “Wang Dongsheng, you know, you are disrespectful to the military commander!” “Do you know that you are guilty?” Orell Lin said this too harshly. At that time, Wang Dongsheng was scared and his old face was cold. , Repeatedly explained: “No, I didn’t mean that.”

“It’s the instructor of Chu, he really can’t afford to offend him.”

“That’s the big man who is favored by the current country lord~” “More than that, the instructor of Chu can still be empty. Standing horizontally, quit tens of thousands of people in one word.”

“Instructor Chu, that’s a godlike figure~” Wang Dongsheng was also forced to have no choice but to speak out all of Mark’s skills.

However, after Orell Lin and others heard it, they looked at him like an idiot.

“What are you talking about?” “You said that Mark can walk in the void? Is it still favored today? Or is it a fairy?” “Should I go to Nima?” “It’s full of nonsense!” “I think you are a fantasy novel. It’s too much. I can’t even distinguish between reality and illusion.”

“As an officer, you are still engaging in feudal superstition here. I think you want to be suspended from your post for reflection, just like Mark.”

Don't get out?” Orell Lin shouted angrily, and then people drove Wang Dongsheng out.

“I didn't expect that Mark is so young that he has the ability to win people's hearts.”

“How long have you just been here? This Wang Dongsheng has become his person?”
“In order to excuse Mark, it is simply pleading. Dare to make up any nonsense!”

“He is treating us as fools.”

“Commander, I think we should also take care of Wang Dongsheng together, so as to be like you.”

After Wang Dongsheng left, Orell Lin was still in front of Wu Yang, defaming Wang Dongsheng.

Wu Yang waved his hand: “Forget it, Dongsheng can be regarded as an old man in the Noifork Military Region. It is estimated that he was confused just now, so I won't pursue him for the time being.”

“Okay, you go down first.”

“Go and help Chen. Lan.”

“Instructor Chen has just taken over. I guess many things are not familiar yet. You can help him and get him on the right track for the training of the Flying Eagle and Qinglong teams as soon as possible.”

Wu Yang seemed a little confused. Wanting to be quiet for a while, so he also repatriated Orell Lin.

Orell Lin also rushed to the training ground according to Wu Yang's order to help Solmen Chan familiarize himself with his work.

In fact, there is nothing to be familiar with, just let them train according to Solmen Chan's method.

As for other various resources, Orell Lin also pledged to provide it with all his strength.

“Master Chen, my son, I'll leave it to you.”

“If you want to fight or scold you, as long as you can become a talent!” Orell Lin had previously deliberately let his son Lin Fan join the Azure Dragon team, but Mark refused. .

Chapter 2354 the inhuman torture

Now that Solmen Chan is in charge of this matter, Orell Lin naturally took the opportunity to transfer his son to the Flying Eagle team.

Now that Mark has been dismissed, Qinglong is destined to only become a reserve team in the future, and the flying eagle is the focus of training.

It can be said that the future members of the Flying Eagle team will have unlimited prospects.

Orell Lin naturally had to seize the opportunity to send Lin Fan in!

“Haha~” “Commander Lin, don’t worry, Ling Lang is a very talented young man.”

“As long as I work on it, I will not be inferior to you in the future!” Solmen Chan laughed.

That is to say, on this day, Mark’s era was over, and the entire military region ushered in the era of Solmen Chan.

All training plans made by Mark before were all denied by Solmen Chan.

The diet of the Qinglong team members has also been replaced with non-nutritious coarse grains, which is even worse than that of ordinary soldiers.

As for the medicated bath, it is even more impossible!

Even the wooden barrel that Mark specially customized for Qinglong to use for medicinal bath was kicked by Solmen Chan, chopped into firewood and burned.

In just a few days, all traces of Mark in the Noifork Military Region were erased.

The Qinglong team was also forced to ask to train in accordance with Solmen Chan’s requirements.

Every day I get up at three o’clock in the morning to train, no lunch break at noon, and practice until 11 o’clock in the evening.

The daily sleep time is less than four hours.

What’s even more exaggerated is that they don’t even let them go back to the room at night, but let them sleep in the open air.

Even Denren was injured and broke her leg. Solmen Chan still managed to run for ten kilometers, ignoring her body. “Instructor, Captain, she has a broken leg and can’t run.”

“You must seek medical attention immediately, otherwise the captain will be over!”
“Taishan and others begged hard.

However, Solmen Chan ignored it and replied coldly: “If you can’t run, then let me finish climbing!” “On the battlefield, no one cares about your broken bones.”

The words were cold, but with indisputable majesty .

“I’m paralyzed by you!” “Solmen Chan, you are a b*tch, how can I bear you for a long time?” “Are you training? I think you want to play us to death!” Be a man~” After forbearing for many days, in the Azure Dragon team, someone finally couldn’t help but explode.

Tai Shan picked up on the spot and questioned Solmen Chan’s training methods face to face!

“Huh?” “Do you dare to question me?” “I said, coming to the military area is for you to endure hardship, not for you to enjoy!” “You can’t bear this bit of suffering. Home defense?” “Enduring hunger, enduring hardship, and enduring pain are the most basic qualities of a soldier.”

Facing Taishan’s scolding, Solmen Chan said with a sullen expression and plausibly.

“I’m F*cking Nima!” “You old dog, don’t use these principles to bluff people.”

“I ask you, you keep saying that soldiers should suffer hardships. We eat chaffy vegetables. Why do Flying Eagles cherish the seafood? “We start training at three o’clock, why does Flying Eagle start training at five o’clock?” “They can take time off for treatment when they are injured or sick. Why do we have to force resistance training?” “The same person, the same instructor, why, we enjoy The worst treatment, but you have to undergo twice the amount of training with Flying Eagle?” During this time, Tai Shan and the others were holding back too much fire.

However, since Solmen Chan is a superior, they have been unable to bear it.

However, until today, Mount Tai can be regarded as seeing that Solmen Chan did not treat them as human beings at all, but treated them as beasts and practiced to death!
