

Chapter 2361– 2362 of A Dish Best Served Cold Novel

Chapter 2361 Taishan's Decision

In the end, after discussion, Croven Li and others unanimously decided to flee the military area tonight.

However, he went to Wrifill to defect to Mark.

The Qinglong team was created by Mark.

For Mark, everyone in Qinglong had this great sense of belonging.

Today, Solmen Chan is ruthless and the military region is unjust. Everything of this kind will eventually force the people of Qinglong to "Liangshan"!

However, to Croven Li's surprise, Tai Shan rejected the plan.

"Huh?" "Taishan, are you stupid?" "Solmen Chan treated us like this, do you want to stay?" "You forgot how he treated you today?" "If it wasn't for the head of Wang Dongsheng To persuade you in time, I'm afraid that Solmen Chan will kill you today."

"And, didn't you say you want instructor Chu?" "Now we will take you to instructor Chu, why are you not going?" "You Is the brain kicked by the donkey?" After Croven Li heard Taishan's refusal, the whole person was in a hurry.

Almost hate iron and steel, cursed at Mount Tai.

However, facing Croven Li's anger, Taishan did not speak.

Just turned over on the bed, turned sideways, turned his back to the crowd, and said lightly.

"Okay, don't persuade me, I'm determined."

"You guys, let's go."

"I won't go."

"If you really see Instructor Chu, just ask me hello."

After that, Taishan stopped talking, instead covered the quilt and closed his eyes to rest.

“You~” “You are really hopeless to save you!” “Okay, since you want to stay, then you stay here and wait for you to die.”

“Captain, go, let’s go back and prepare first.”

See Tarzan It was because of the weight and weight, and left without them.

When Croven Li and others saw this, they didn’t bother to care about him.

The four of them, after discussing them, immediately returned to their homes, ready to escape tonight.

As for Denren, there was no fracture, just a dislocated leg.

Although there was some pain after the connection, it did not affect the action.

As a result, in the original lively ward, in a blink of an eye, only Taishan was left, lying there alone.

After Croven Li and the others walked away, Tai Shan, who had previously closed his eyes and pretended to sleep, opened his eyes.

Through the window, he looked at his brothers and comrades who were going away, this two hundred catty rough man, at this moment, his nose was sour, and there were tears in his eyebrows.

Does he really want to go with them?

Does he really don’t want to escape here and go to instructor Chu?

of course not!

In fact, his thoughts on leaving were no lighter tSherry Han Croven and the others.

However, when Croven Li asked him, he still decided to stay.

Not because of anything, just because of his current physical condition, even walking is a problem, how could he escape the heavily guarded Noirfork Military Region.

At that time, he can only become a burden to the Qinglong people!

Maybe, just because of him, the escape plan of the Qinglong people was vanished.

Therefore, even if he was left alone in the military area, Tai Shan still resolutely chose to stay.

He must not drag down his comrades!

“Captain, Croven, Mingbo, Da Zhuang, goodbye.”

“I wish you a good journey~” Seeing the sunset, night fell.

In the dimly lit ward, Tai Shan stood alone in front of the window, but in his heart, praying for Denren and their escape plan.

I only hope that they can escape safely.

Chapter 2362 Freedom

Time passed slowly.

As the night darkened, the darkness outside the window became more intense.

Finally, it was midnight.

Except for those patrolling and standing guard, most of the military regions have also fallen asleep.

The military area that has been noisy for a whole day is like a wild beast that has fallen asleep, crawling here.

Outside, it was quiet, there seemed to be only wind and insects.

In the lonely room, Tai Shan stood in front of the window, watching worriedly: “At this time, the captain and the others should be moving soon.”

“Hope, everything goes well for them.”

Tai Shan prayed in a low voice, despite how much he wanted. He also joined their escape plan, but in order not to drag down his comrades, he finally chose to stay here, just behind, praying for them silently.

Squeaky~ However, when Taishan was worried about the success of Denren’s plan, the door of the room that had been closed was suddenly pushed open.

“Huh?” “Who?” Hearing the sound of the door being pushed open, Taishan frowned, suddenly alert.

“What peat!” “Hurry up, put on your clothes, and follow us!” Croven Li’s angry cursing came from the door.

Taishan looked back and saw that it was no one else who visited this dark night, but the Azure Dragons who left here during the day.

“You... why are you back again?” Taishan trembled again, and wondered again.

“What nonsense, put on your clothes and shoes, and follow us!” “You guy, want to abandon us, dream of you!” “I tell you, since you are a member of Qinglong, you are dead, too. Do you have to die with us?” “Want to leave us solo? Impossible!” Croven Li cursed and called Sara Ma, one of them dressed Taishan, the other put shoes on Taishan, and finally ran tall and strong Come over and carry Taishan on his back.

In this way, before Tai Shan could react, these people had already carried him downstairs.

“Captain, I...

In the dark night, looking at these comrades-in-arms and brothers beside him, a big man in Taishan was already in tears. His voice choked, his words trembled, and he wanted to say something, but Denren interrupted him directly. “Okay,” What to say when I leave here.

“You just have to remember one thing, our Qinglong team, five people are in one mind.

“Everything is prosperous, and everything is lost, and no one will be left behind.”

In the darkness, Denren’s words echoed. Qinglong did not speak, but they nodded heavily. In fact, how could Croven Li not know about Taishan’s thoughts. But the more so, the more they are You can’t leave Taishan alone. So, when the time came, Denren and the others went straight into the hospital, took Taishan away, and the five Qinglong people left together.

Just like that, taking advantage of the night and following the designed route, the Qinglong people walked carefully.

They approached the edge of the military area. Along the way, they also encountered many sentries on duty, but relying on their agile posture and speed, they passed several levels without danger.

After all, it was a special team, in Mark’s After training, Denren and the others are far beyond ordinary people in terms of physical fitness and spiritual consciousness.

It is not difficult to avoid the attention of the sentinels. So, after a thrilling journey for nearly ten minutes, they smoothly came to the edge of the military area. Now , They are separated from the free world outside, only the wall in front of them!
