Chapter 2365: Fa-rectification On The Spot

Judging from Solmen Chan's posture, he was really preparing to kill the people of Qinglong.

"A bunch of rubbish, if you stay in the military area honestly, why don't I leave you with Solmen Chan?" "But how can you wait for rubbish, don't know how to promote me, don't respect me, Solmen Chan, and now I want to escape? "You are joining hands to betray me, you want to embarrass me Solmen Chan?" Solmen Chan is a face-saving person. If you let others know that Team Azure Dragon ran under him, Wu Yang blamed him for not telling him. Solmen Chan is bound to become a joke for the entire military region.

He said that Solmen Chan was incompetent, difficult to convince others, and even some of his subordinates were not well disciplined.

This is why Solmen Chan would be so furious after learning that the Qinglong people had fled.

Directly leading thousands of troops, encircled Denren and the others.

Just now, he almost hurt the killer, and directly abolished half of the lives of the Qinglong five.

"Tell you, what Solmen Chan hates most in my life is the betrayal of others!" "However, thinking you are young, I can give you a chance to survive today."

"As long as you guys, kneel down , I respectfully call me the chief instructor, and swear that in the future, Qinglong will respect me as a teacher, respect me as a father, and completely forget that Chu instructor. Solmen Chan, I don't mind, leaving you a few wastes and one life."

"Otherwise, don't blame me for the crime of resisting arrest and resisting, and behead you on the spot!" Boom~ Solmen Chan said these words insidiously and harshly.

In an instant, there was a cold wind blowing in this world.

In the night, there are cold leaves fluttering, and the trees in the forest sway.

Senran words made everyone around him shiver even more.

Solmen Chan originally thought that under her majesty, these juniors would inevitably fear and surrender.

However, what made Solmen Chan never expected was that even if they were under the siege of a thousand troops, Croven Li and the others still roared.

“Old dog, let us kneel, you are not worthy~” “You are not worthy of being the instructor of our Qinglong team.”

“I wait, I only know Chu instructor in this life!” “If you want to kill or kill, we will do what you want.”

However, instructor Chu will definitely take revenge on us~” “When instructor Chu comes back, he will never let you go, he will definitely give us revenge~”

Ahead, everyone in Qinglong was covered with blood, lying on the ground, almost dying.

But even so, they still persisted stubbornly, still gritted their teeth and growled.

Even if they die, they will never betray the Chu instructor!

“Okay.”

“Very good!” “One by one, it’s quite spine.”

“However, I will see if your bones are hard, or Chen’s fists are hard!” Solmen Chan didn’t think about it. , Qinglong these people are so stiff.

Even now, I still dare to insult him, and dare to disobey him.

In anger, Solmen Chan stepped forward again and beat Croven Li and the others violently.

“I thought, if you repented on the precipice and repented in time, I would let you a few trash live in the world.”

“But unfortunately, you are stubborn and obsessed with understanding. If so, why should I keep your lives?” “Today? In the name of the chief instructor of the Noirfork Military Region, Solmen Chan, Jiang, waited for the rebels to rectify the law on the spot!” Boom~ The roar of anger, like thunder, echoed the world.

In anger, Solmen Chan had a stern face and cold eyes.

Chapter 2366

Then, everyone saw that in the dark night, Solmen Chan stepped on the ground and rose into the sky.

With his hands curled into claws, he directly grabbed at the throat of the Qinglong people.

No one doubts that after this shot is brought down, the Qinglong people will surely get rid of the strange place in their heads and die completely.

However, even before life and death, the Qinglong people still showed no fear.

They did not regret what they did today, let alone respecting Mark as an instructor.

However, their only regret was that they could not see Instructor Chu again before they died.

I didn't have the opportunity, thanks to the instructor of Chu for the grace of preaching!

"It's over, ants~" In the dark, Solmen Chan grinned.

The oncoming wind is just like the sharp claws of death.

Is this how death is about to feel?

Denren and the others closed their eyes in despair, waiting for Solmen Chan's attack, and piercing their bodies.

No one noticed that there were teardrops hanging from the corners of Denren and the others' eyes, and there were glittering sparkles.

Are they really afraid of death?

of course not!

They are Fanghua, their lives have just begun, and their dreams have not been realized, but now, their lives are about to end.

In the hearts of everyone in Qinglong, there is naturally an inexplicable sadness permeating.

"Big Brother Mark, goodbye~" At the last moment, what emerged in the hearts of Denren and the others was still the thin figure of the young man.

However, just when Solmen Chan's attack was about to fall.

Suddenly, in this silent sky, there was a violent storm!

Immediately afterwards, amidst the awe-inspiring words, revealing endless majestic words, resounded through the void.

“Yundao Tianjue.”

“Yunyang kick!” In the dark night, everyone saw a figure, as fast as a stream of light, fast as a fright.

Like a ray of light, tearing through the void of the night, just like this, quietly emerging under the night!

Then, he stood in the void and stepped down.

The majestic majesty, only if the Mount Tai is pressing on the top, and the feet of a thousand feet, just like this, fall from the sky.

He directly hit Solmen Chan hard.

Boom~ Solmen Chan gritted his teeth and resisted. The fierce wind made Solmen Chan's robe hunt and hunt.

However, just when Solmen Chan thought he was blocking the opponent's attack and the crisis was lifted, who would have thought that the opponent's second attack would fall again.

“Yundao Tianjue, fierce mountain collapse!” Boom~ The strong wind rolled up the wind and sand, and the strong wind scattered the leaves.

Under the four-way galaxy, an iron fist, as if containing the power of the entire universe, slammed into Solmen Chan with a crash.

“What?” Feeling the majestic power in this giant fist, Solmen Chan's pupils twitched, and her eyes suddenly widened.

In the next moment, Solmen Chan's old body was like a leftover leaf in the wind. He was directly beaten by this giant fist, stepping back hundreds of steps on the ground.

The hard wall poured in reinforced concrete behind him was smashed by Solmen Chan for more than ten meters.

Finally, Solmen Chan trembled all over, her throat became sweet, and a mouthful of blood almost came out.

“This~” “This~this~” All this happened too fast.

One second, Solmen Chan pretended to be high-profile and forced to kill, but the next second, the sudden change, the majestic Chief Instructor Solmen Chan was beaten out dozens of meters like a dog.

The situation here suddenly took a turn for the worse.

Seeing this scene in front of me, everyone present was deeply shaken.

Here, Ya Que is silent.
