

Chapter 2381– 2382 of A Dish Best Served Cold Novel

Chapter 2381

Under the dark night, Wang Dongsheng said solemnly.

The deep voice and the sonorous words were shocking.

The words of sincerity echoed in the entire night sky.

Mark immediately shook his head and smiled softly when he heard the words.

Seeing Mark shook his head, Wang Dongsheng was immediately panicked, his heart was cold for a while, and he quickly asked, “Instructor Chu, don’t you plan to contain me?”

“Now that I have withdrawn from the Noifork Military Region, if the Chu instructor no longer allows me, this world will be so big that there will be no place for Wang Dongsheng to stand.”

“Instructor Chu, please take it in.”

“As long as you are willing to let me follow, I, Wang Dongsheng, will act like a cow and go through fire and water, and I will not hesitate!”

Wang Dongsheng said bitterly with eyes full of sadness.

When Wang Denren Ye and others saw this, they couldn’t bear it, and they persuaded Mark: “Instructor Chu, Uncle Wang has a great kindness to us. Please ask instructor Chu and accept him too.”

“Yes, instructor Chu, just accept Uncle Wang~”

Everyone in Qinglong also asked for everything.

Hearing this, the smile on Mark’s mouth was even stronger.

“Wang Dongsheng, I ask you, do you follow me, do you really just admire me?”

“Between you and me, there are only a few sides.”

“My contact with you is also very few.”

“How much do you know about me?”

“Since you don’t know me at all, where does your admiration and respect for me come from?”

Mark looked at Wang Dongsheng and asked faintly.

Wang Dongsheng replied in a deep voice: “Although I don’t know the instructor of Chu, I know that you can make Qianjun kneel down and let the canonization of today, and even the whole country, ask for your asylum.”

“This is enough for me, Wang Dongsheng, to follow it to the death.”

Hearing this, Mark still shook his head.

“To put it bluntly, you still value my power and status.”

“If I, Mark, didn’t have the ability to make Qianjun kneel down and worship, would you still follow me if I didn’t have the honor to be canonized today?”

“This~”

Mark asked Wang Dongsheng for his words.

He was stunned for a long time, speechless for a long time.

Mark continued: “I know that you chose to withdraw from the military area because you feel that you are hopeless in the military, so you want to follow me, Mark, and bet on a future!”

“You think that if I can do what I can and follow me, you will be able to enjoy glory and wealth.”

“I...” Wang Dongsheng’s expression changed, and then he opened his mouth to explain something.

However, Mark stopped him: “You don’t have to explain, this is human nature. In life, who lives not for fame and fortune, not for prosperity and wealth?”

“Just, one thing, I have to remind you.”

“A man is not good for a thousand days, and a flower is not a hundred days red.”

“Perhaps today, I, Mark, is admired by people, is the god of Fengzhu country, and is respected by the state.”

“However, the state can give me these names, which means that one day they can be taken back.”

“When my Mark is ruined, can you think about your situation?”

Mark spoke slowly, and talked about all the advantages and disadvantages with Wang Dongsheng.

Wang Dongsheng is different from Qinglong. Wang Dongsheng follows him for utilitarianism and for a good future.

And Qinglong and others followed Mark for no reason, just because they were convinced of Mark.

What’s more, Qinglong was originally created by Mark, personally cultivated, and carefully taught and supported it. They should also serve Mark.

Hearing Mark’s words, Wang Dongsheng was undoubtedly silent.

Chapter 2382

Mark was right. The reason why he wanted to follow Mark was because he felt that Mark had a boundless future. If he followed him early, his status would surely rise.

But, as Mark said, what if Mark fell to the altar in the future?

He Wang Dongsheng is bound to be implicated.

However, after hesitating for a long time, Wang Dongsheng still insisted: “Anything in this world is risky.”

“However, since I, Wang Dongsheng, dare to bet on a future with the instructor Chu, I believe in the ability of the instructor Chu to be prosperous.”

“Moreover, even if the Chu instructor said, if there really is such a day, I, Wang Dongsheng, would be willing to gamble and give up, and I will never regret today’s decision!”

Wang Dongsheng said solemnly, with firmness in his eyes.

Hearing this, Mark nodded: “Since you have said everything to this point, then I will keep you.”

“Just right, after today, help me supervise the training of the Qinglong team.”

“As for the glory and wealth, don’t worry, what I have given you by Mark is naturally much more than what the Noirfork Military Region gave you.”

When Wang Dongsheng heard the words, he was immediately delighted, and then kowtowed his head to thank his gratitude: “Thanks to the instructor Chu for showing love, I, Wang Dongsheng, will follow Mr. Chu’s order in the future.”

“You don’t have to thank me. If you want to, thank yourself.” Mark waved his hand and said lightly, “I kept you not because of how useful you are to me, but because you are kind to Qinglong’s shelter. .”

“I Mark acted, and I have always been grudges and grievances clear.”

“I will not bypass anyone who has a grudge against me. I will naturally not treat anyone who has a grudge against me.”

When he said this, Mark suddenly stopped.

He turned around, looked up in the direction of Noirfork Military Region, and sneered: “Qinglong, remember tonight.”

“I promise you will come back one day.”

“The insults they have done to you, in the future, I will let them repay it a hundred times!”

Huh~

The cold wind, the raging wind, engulfing Mark’s stern words, swept the entire night sky.

Denren Ye and others also nodded when they heard this.

“Well, we will be back!”

“At that time, those who look down on my Azure Dragon will definitely regret it!”

The deep words echoed, and the eyes of the Qinglong people looking into the distance were deep and firm.

In this way, the Qinglong people followed Mark and returned to Wrifill.

Mark also asked Mark to arrange a place for Denren Ye and the others next to his residence.

Of course, leaving the military area does not mean that Qinglong’s training is over.

These people, if they can help Mark in the future, they must have enough power.

Therefore, after they recovered from their injuries, Mark continued to give them special training.

Training during the day and medicated bath at night.

Everything was restored to what Mark was like when he was a teacher in Noifork Military Region.

After this tribulation and setback, the training of the Qinglong people also consciously worked harder than before.

Just because they are holding a breath in their hearts.

One day, they will prove to Wuyang, Xiang Orell Lin, and everyone in the Noifork Military Region that they have eyes and no beads, not that they are incompetent.

Time, just like this, slowly passed by in the assiduous training of Qinglong and others.

During this period, the construction of the Yunding Mountain Villa was also urged by Ericson Li and others, working overtime day and night.

However, at the same time, a storm was silently brewing in the martial arts world.
