

Chapter 2387– 2388 of A Dish Best Served Cold Novel

Chapter 2387

“Don’t, Instructor Chu.”

Hearing Mark’s words, Lu Tianhe’s old face paled, and he quickly explained: “I, Lu Tianhe, really came to apologize.”

“It’s also that I, Lu Tianhe, have eyes and no beads, and I don’t know people well. I mistakenly believed in Wu Yang and other fools.”

“If I hadn’t recommended Chu instructor to Wuyang and recommended it to Noirfork Military Region, the people of Qinglong would definitely not be subjected to this abuse. Chu instructor would definitely not suffer such bullying.”

“Instructor Chu, it is punishment or punishment. I, Lu Tianhe, listen and respect, and I have no complaints.”

“It’s just that, I hope that the instructor of Chu will see my heart in serving the country in a certain tone, and see General Ye’s face, that he can bring the Qinglong people and re-enter our Gritsberg Military Region.”

“Now, I have broken with Wu Yang, stand on my own, and build my own team.”

“I promise that as long as the Cult of Chu enters the Gritsberg Military Region, he will definitely not be insulted like this again.”

“I, Lu Tianhe, will take the people of the military region and serve the Chu instructors as guests, and the Chu instructors as teachers!”

In the room, Lu Tianhe begged for each other.

I only hope that Mark can get rid of the previous suspicion and give him another chance to serve as the chief instructor in the Gritsberg Military Region to train Qinglong.

“No need.”

“I, Mark, are light-hearted, and I can’t climb the big tree in the military area, let alone serve as an instructor general.”

“You guys please be smart.”

“As for Qinglong, I can train it myself, and I don’t need it for military support.”

Mark was obviously still angry because of the Noifork Military Region.

Therefore, facing Lu Tianhe’s sincere invitation, Mark directly refused.

He has stayed enough for places like the military district.

Being under the fence, under the control of others, and under the control of others, this kind of life is not suitable for Mark.

The experience of the Noifork Military Region is a good lesson.

As for the training of the Qinglong, the resources of the military area are not used, and Mark’s financial resources can be used to support it.

If this is the case, why should he re-enter the military area, and be under the control of others?

When Lu Tianhe heard this, his heart suddenly became cold.

However, he was still unwilling to give up, and continued: “Instructor Chu, I know that with your talent and status, joining the military region may be more of a burden and a shackle.”

“But, have you ever thought about the five Qinglong people?”

“If they enter the military area, they will not only be given their military ranks, and they will be honored. They can also be supported by the state and protected by the state in times of crisis.”

“What’s more, if they get the status of a soldier, they can participate in the Special Forces Competition of the Six Military Regions in the hot summer two months later, and they can be ashamed and proud.”

“Otherwise, how should they repay the insults suffered by the Noifork Military Region?”

“Instructor Chu, you should consider it as the Azure Dragon Five, and you should also consider my suggestion.”

“Could you let Qinglong carry the insults given to them by Wu Yang and others and live forever?”

Lu Tianhe’s brows and eyes were flushed, persuading him again and again.

The words of sincerity and respect echoed the whole room.

At this time, Qinglong and the others, who had finished their training, also happened to return to the villa, preparing to have lunch with Mark.

But it happened to hear Lu Tianhe's words in his ears.

For a moment, everyone in Qinglong looked at Mark, with hopes in their eyebrows.

Obviously, they also want to be able to participate in the military region competition two months later, a shame.

Upon seeing this, Mark finally shook his head and sighed, "Finally, Lu Tianhe, for the sake of Qinglong's face, I will agree to your request."

Chapter 2388

"However, I can agree to let Qinglong participate in the Gritsberg Military Region on behalf of you, but that's all. Qinglong and I are not under the control of the military region. Moreover, future training will not be conducted in the Gritsberg Military Region, but Still by my side, trained by me."

"In other words, Qinglong and I are just your Gritsberg Military Region, and we have a name."

"What I said, can you agree?"

Mark said in a deep voice.

When Lu Tianhe heard this, he was overjoyed and replied excitedly: "Promise, haha, as long as the instructor Chu you agree to let the Qinglong team participate on my behalf of the Gritsberg Military Region, everything else is easy to say."

"En." Mark nodded, "If there is nothing else, you can go back."

"When you are waiting for the game, you will come to Wrilfill again to find me."

"At that time, I will let Qinglong enter the competition with you."

"Okay. Instructor Chu, I will return to the military region and tell me the good news to the commander of the military region. Also, other related canonization and treatment, I will do it immediately when I return."

After receiving Mark's promise, Lu Tianhe returned to the Gritsberg Military Region contentedly.

Sure enough, three days later, the relevant appointment documents were sent to Wrilfill.

Among them, Ren Yefan is the honorary chief instructor of the Gritsberg Military Region, who is in charge of Qinglong with full power, and he is named Major General Qinglong.

Appoint Wang Dongsheng as an honorary deputy instructor, assist Mark to lead Qinglong, and become a brigadier general!

The brigadier general is also a half general. The position is above the colonel and below the major general.

As for the five members of Qinglong, they all joined the military status of the Gritsberg Military Region and were named colonels.

Of course, Mark didn't care about these appointment documents.

They are just fake names. For Mark, they are nothing more than icing on the cake and have no substantive effect. So Mark didn't even look at it, so he was put aside.

However, Mark is calm, but it doesn't mean that others are also calm.

In particular, Denren Ye and Taishan were undoubtedly excited after learning that they were promoted to Colonel.

You know, there is only a large colonel between the colonel and the major general.

In other words, they were only a few steps away from the general.

For them, this is undoubtedly a huge honor, and it is a matter of glorious ancestors.

Ericson Li happily killed the pig directly that evening, set a feast, and congratulated his son on his promotion to colonel.

The Ye family members were also very happy after learning that Denren Ye was promoted to colonel. Denren Ye's father, Ye Tian, was even more excited and didn't sleep all night.

I only feel that my daughter is justified. He was named a colonel at a young age, and he was sure to be a general in the future.

“Haha~”

“In ancient times, there was a female general from the Yang family, but now I have a girl from the Ye family~”

Ye Tian smiled happily, while boring three glasses of wine.

In my heart, I just feel that my girl's performance is not weaker than Mark.

No matter how powerful Mark was, after all, he only relied on his fists to frighten everyone, and he didn't have any orthodox status.

But her daughter has a national canonization, and within ten years, she will be a general in the army.

It is definitely not comparable to the self-proclaimed Noifork Zun of the worldly people like Mark.

However, Ye Tian didn't know that the daughter he was proud of was actually just Mark's subordinate.

He didn't even know that Mark was already Major General Qinglong when her daughter was named a colonel. What is even more annoying is that Ye Tian is not rare to be regarded as a standard general.

Therefore, Mark didn't mention a word about the canonization of the Gritsberg Military Region.

If Mark didn't say it himself, others would naturally not know it.
