

Chapter 2397– 2398 of A Dish Best Served Cold Novel

Chapter 2397

“It’s not that I’m not considerate.”

“It’s mainly these five people who are sinners in our Noirfork.”

“We have long been disqualified from the Noirfork defense zone and prohibited them from entering the defense zone.”

“But now, a group of rubbish, sinners who have been expelled, are competing with us on the same stage?”

“This is also a great shame for us!”

“Therefore, these wastes must not be allowed to participate.”

“Even if they are vulnerable, but playing against them on the same stage will dirty our hands!”

Orell Lin shook his head repeatedly and said in a deep voice.

He just wants to drive Qinglong out of here, just to let these five people know that if they leave their Noirfork defense zone, they will have nowhere to go!

Even the qualifications for the competition are not available.

“However, with Lu Tianhe as shelter, it is difficult to drive them out of this competition.” All the instructors shook their heads and sighed.

After all, Orell Lin might be able to persuade Han Ping from the Jiangbei Defence Area and Zhu Rong from the Northwest Defence Area, but Lu Tianhe was undoubtedly unable to persuade him.

Lu Tianhe insisted on letting the Qinglong team play on behalf of Gritsberg, and they were helpless.

However, at this time, Zhu Rong, chief instructor of the Northwest Defense Zone, thought of something, lowered his voice and said, “Commander Lin, I have a way.”

“Maybe we can’t let Lu Tianhe change his mind, but on the referee’s side, we can play tricks.”

“Oh, what do you say?” Orell Lin was suddenly curious, and quickly looked over.

Zhu Rong smiled treacherously: “Commander Lin, didn’t you say that these people are sinners in my Yanxia Military Region?”

“We only have to ask the referees to refute Lu Tianhe’s registration form and disqualify Qinglong from participating in the contest on the grounds that they are not allowed to participate in the competition. So, this group of people who have been expelled can’t be on the stage and play?”

Orell Lin was overjoyed when he heard this.

However, Orell Lin shook his head immediately: “This matter is not easy to handle. Most of the judges are from Jiangbei, and my contacts are all in Noirfork. How can I persuade them to help me?”

“Haha~”

“Commander Lin, you are dark under the lights.”

“Have you forgotten that among the four of us, there is one who is well-connected in Jiangbei.” Zhu Rong and others laughed.

Orell Lin immediately slapped his thigh, then turned around, a pair of eyes fell on Han Ping.

“Haha~”

“correct.”

“Why did I forget Instructor Han!”

“Instructor Han, you are the chief instructor of the Jiangbei defense zone. Those people will sell you a lot of face.”

“For this matter, I count on Instructor Han!”

“After everything is done, Orell Lin will give a banquet to thank you.”

Orell Lin immediately asked Han Ping.

Han Ping waved his hand: “It’s just a small matter, Commander Lin is welcome.”

“Besides, I have long wanted to repay the humiliation of Lu Tianhe that year. It just so happened that Commander Lin gave me a good opportunity.”

“You wait, I’ll go tell them now.”

“Just don’t worry, I know the people on the information review side, and I carry several of them in my hand.”

Han Ping was full of confidence, smiled triumphantly, and then left quietly.

Denren Ye and the others naturally didn’t know the words and actions here.

At this time, Lu Tianhe was leading the Qinglong people to the reporting office to report.

“Okay, the process is over.”

“After a while, Yu Yan, on behalf of the Qinglong team, you will come to the stage to draw lots and choose your opponent.”

After a short while, Lu Tianhe walked out of the reporting office and told Denren Ye to come to the stage to draw lots.

Chapter 2398

Denren Ye nodded: “Well, teacher, I see.”

“Haha, Captain, we must draw the Flying Eagle!”

“I have to beat them up and beat them into dead birds. I smashed Orell Lin and their dog faces.”

“Let them know that our Chu instructor is not a mediocre person. Our Qinglong is by no means a waste.

As the official competition drew closer, the Qinglong Five became more excited and looked like they couldn't wait.

“Look at you like that?”

“Don't worry, there will be times when you perform.”

“Seriously, I also want to see how well Instructor Chu has trained you in the past few months.”

Not only the Qinglong five, but even Lu Tianhe himself is also full of expectations for these juniors.

After all, it has been too long. Ten years have passed since the Special Forces Contest was held.

The cold benches are almost warming them up!

At the feet of the emperor, the imperial capital defense area had such an unbearable record every time, and they felt ashamed to talk about Lu Tianhe.

This is why Lu Tianhe would rather take Jing's petition and go to Wrilfill to take the Qinglong team out of Mark's hands. He hopes that this team can give them the Gritsberg defense zone and wash away the humiliation of the past ten years. Let them laugh at him for Lu Tianhe's incompetence and laugh at the noisy people in the Gritsberg defense zone.

“Look, it seems that the draw is about to begin.”

In the ear, Taishan's eager voice came.

Everyone in Qinglong looked at immediately, and sure enough, on the stone platform in front, a majestic old man in military uniform had already walked up, facing the people, and made a speech.

“Let everyone wait a long time.”

“Let's stop talking nonsense. I announce that this competition has officially started.”

“Now, whoever I read the name will go on stage to draw lots and decide the opponent in the first round!”

“Northwest Defense Zone, Captain of Red Phoenix Team, Renault!”

“To!”

“Noirfork Defense Zone, Captain of Flying Eagle Team, Lin Fan!”

“To!”

“Jiangbei Defense Zone, Captain Qiongqi”

“Southwest Defense Zone, Captain Black Tiger”

Just like this, every time a name falls, one person from the audience walks up.

“Haha, Captain, you are the next one.”

“Have you washed your hands? You must get the flying eagle. I have to kill Lin Fan!”

Croven Li laughed. A genius remembers 嘶ハ— Chinese/o/m/

Denren Ye also smiled and nodded excitedly.

However, when everyone in Qinglong was full of expectations, who would have thought that the old man on the stage would actually put away the list and looked up: “Please come and draw the four!”

what?

“Ok?”

“what happened?”

Upon hearing this, Denren Ye and others’ complexions changed slightly.

However, they didn’t think much at first, only thinking that this person had forgotten them, so Croven Li reminded loudly: “Hey, where are we? Where are we Qinglong?”

“Qinglong?” The old man on the stage shook his head and sneered. “Forgot to say, after being reported by others and verified by my referees, the five members of Qinglong are all guilt-wearing criminals.”

“Today’s game is an upright game, and the participants should also be upright people. The five people including Er and others are all in bad shape. After discussion, it is hereby announced that the Qinglong team will be disqualified from participating. And immediately, get out of the Jiangbei Military Region!”

Boom~

A few words, only if thunder slashed.

Denren Ye was stunned, Croven Li was stunned, and Taishan was stunned.

The five Qinglong people are all in the same place!

His face was as pale as paper.
