

Chapter 2403– 2404 of A Dish Best Served Cold Novel

Chapter 2403

Although at this time, it would be disgraceful to beat someone who has no power to restrain the chicken.

But now Orell Lin can no longer care about face and face.

He just wants to vent the anger in his heart!

Just like this, after kicking Lu Tianhe several times, Orell Lin stopped.

At this time, Lu Tianhe fell into a pool of blood, his body twitching slightly, he was already dying.

Han Ping's attack just now undoubtedly caused him extremely serious injuries.

At this time, a few soldiers from Jiangbei couldn't bear it, and ran over to ask if they would send General Lu to the doctor.

“What kind of doctor?”

“Just let him lie down here.”

“Don't worry, Lu Tianhe has thick skin and thick flesh, so he won't die so easily!”

Orell Lin snorted coldly and repelled the few people who had come to intercede with Lu Tianhe.

“Okay, okay, enough time wasted.”

“Now, Qinglong has been driven out of Noirfork, and Lu Tianhe has been subdued. Next, the game should go on normally.”

In this way, as Lu Tianhe fell, everyone's eyes fell on this game again.

As for Lu Tianhe, no one cared.

Just lying alone on the firm ground, recklessly.

Mark naturally didn't know what happened here.

Today, he is still making final preparations for Yundao Tianjue's great formation.

According to Mark's plan, he will officially start to build a big formation soon!

However, after several months of consideration, Mark decided to add an auxiliary formation in the land of Gritsberg again to protect the Xu family!

"At that time, if the Wrillfill formation is successful, it will be able to link the three places, connecting the north and the south."

"Wrillfill is the main city, with Denham and Gritsberg as the auxiliary."

"Three defensive formations protect my relatives and friends of Mark!"

"Even if I go, I really won't return. Xiao Lei, Helen Qiu and the others can also have a pure land where they can settle down. In the face of danger, there is a way to retreat."

At the top of Yunding Mountain, Mark whispered in his heart as he looked at the mansion in front of him that had already begun to take shape.

With deep eyebrows, what he saw was not the size of the place in front of him, but the endless unknown future.

Perhaps it was so many years of crisis-ridden life that Mark had already developed the habit of taking precautions.

His grievances with the Chu family will eventually end.

But before leaving, he also had to leave a way out for his relatives and friends.

Before, Mark thought that as long as she made Helen Qiu strong enough, she would not be afraid of danger.

Therefore, Mark gave Helen Qiu a group of 100 billion Dollar, gave her an iron-clad Noirfork, and also cultivated loyal and loyal "veterans" such as Ericson Li and Teacher Lei.

A group of hundreds of billions, a powerful man in a province, is Mark's first barrier to Helen Qiu.

Once, Mark thought that relying on these, Helen Qiu and others could settle down in Noirfork without any worries.

However, the previous catastrophe in Noirfork awakened Mark.

After experiencing the catastrophe, Mark only realized that the foundation he left to Helen Qiu might be able to withstand the dangers of the secular world.

However, in the face of the dangers of the martial arts world, how fragile this barrier is, it is simply vulnerable!

Otherwise, Lu Mingfeng and Xu Shaohua would not be allowed to almost wipe out Mark's industry in Noifork just by relying on a master.

Even the entire Ye family almost suffered a bloodbath!

Therefore, in order to resist the threat of the martial arts powerhouse, Mark had to rebuild the Yundao Tianjue Formation.

Chapter 2404

After this time, even if the master is strong, it will no longer be possible to threaten Mark's relatives and friends in the slightest!

It is not a matter of time for the titled master to break through this Yundao Heavenly Absolute Formation.

Of course, the Wrifill Array has just had such an effect.

The defensive effect of the auxiliary formations of Denham and Gritsberg is naturally greatly reduced.

However, at critical moments, there can also be a life-saving miraculous effect!

If it really doesn't work, let them retreat to Wrifill in an emergency.

However, just when Mark lost his mind, there was a sudden noise under Yunding Mountain.

"Ok?"

"what's happenin?"

"What is so noisy?"

Mark frowned, and asked a little displeasedly.

The project of the Yunding Mountain Villa is related to Mark's great cause. Now that someone is bothering, Mark is naturally unhappy.

"Mr. Chu, a group of young people are making trouble."

“If you insist on breaking in, we can’t stop it.”

“My brothers have all been injured by them.”

At this time, the person in charge of the Yundingshan Villa project was reporting to Mark with full trepidation.

Hearing this, Mark’s eyebrows were completely cold, and a chill flashed over his delicate face.

“Take me over.”

In just four words, there are endless connotations of chill.

One can imagine what kind of anger is under the four words of Mark!

It seemed that Mark was about to kill.

However, before the project leader took Mark over, he only heard a few screams coming from under the mountain.

Then, four or five security guards were thrown up from the mountain like dogs.

When Mark saw this, the chill in his eyebrows became more intense.

Just when Mark was about to get angry, everyone in Qinglong rushed up from the bottom of the mountain. Afterwards, the five people who were in the dust appeared in Mark’s line of sight.

“Ok?”

“Taishan? Ziyang?”

“How are you?”

“Didn’t I ask you to go to Jiangbei with Lu Tianhe to compete, why did you come back again?”

Seeing everyone in Qinglong, Mark was shocked.

The original full of anger, when even turned into a full of doubts.

However, it was okay for Mark not to mention this. With his mention, the people of Qinglong who were already full of grievances actually plopped and knelt down to Mark.

Tears, uncontrollable, flowed down.

“Woohoo~”

“Instructor Chu, please call me the shots!”

Denren Ye’s brows and eyes were red, kneeling down again, tears streaming down like falling pearls.

Not only Denren Ye, but also the rough guys like Taishan and Tall, wiping away tears in front of Mark.

Mark is like a master like a father to them!

Therefore, in front of Mark, they naturally did not need to suppress the emotions in their hearts, and their grievances turned into anger, and they all vented out the moment they saw Mark.

“Instructor Chu, they deceive people too much~”

“It’s too deceiving~”

Croven Li and the others sighed mournfully, their words were sad, and they all spoke with tremors.

Perhaps because of anger, or perhaps because of being aggrieved, Croven Li and the others, their entire bodies were trembling.

“Don’t worry, speak slowly, what happened?”

“Don’t worry, I will take care of you.”

“Just because you stabbed the sky, I will make it up for you as well.”

What is domineering?

This is domineering!

What is self-confidence?

This is self-confidence!

Mark is so young, why can he convince the Quartet and let the Noifork people surrender and bow down? Let the Qinglong people swear to follow?

It’s not family background, not background, but this domineering and self-confidence!

In just a few words, Qinglong and others found their trust and sustenance in their panicked hearts. Suddenly feel calm.
