

Chapter 2405– 2406 of A Dish Best Served Cold Novel

Chapter 2405

“Instructor Chu, yes... it’s Orell Lin, they deceive people too much.”

“He colluded with the Jiangbei defense zone and used despicable means to get the organizer to disqualify us for the competition.”

Croven Li gritted his teeth, and the words were full of anger.

Perhaps they are indeed the people who were expelled from the Noirfork defense zone. However, there is no stipulation in the rules of the game that the expelled person shall not participate in the competition.

What’s more, they have already withdrawn from the Noirfork defense zone. This time they are also playing as the Gritsberg team. They have nothing to do with the Noirfork defense zone. The so-called reason for the suspension is simply nonsense.

It is clear that Orell Lin used the relationship to collude with the host Jiangbei defense zone and deliberately expelled them from the team.

If it really violates the regulations, everyone in Qinglong can’t participate in the competition, that’s it.

However, Orell Lin disqualified them from the competition with such a despicable method, and everyone in Qinglong naturally couldn’t bear it!

At the top of Yunding Mountain, Croven Li and others confided their grievances to Mark and told the ins and outs of the matter.

Mark’s expression is undoubtedly getting colder.

At the end of hearing, the chill in Mark’s eyebrows was almost full-bodied to the extreme.

Above the delicate face, there was a murderous intent that could not be concealed.

“Where is Lu Tianhe?”

“What about others?”

Mark suppressed the anger in his heart and asked blankly.

Wang Dongsheng, who was next to him, quickly replied: "Instructor Chu, General Lu has not returned, he is still in Jiangbei."

"is it?"

"It seems he still knows that he has no face to come back and see me."

Now that Qinglong is out of this stall, Lu Tianhe naturally can't get rid of it.

At least, the impression of incompetence and weakness was burned in Mark's heart.

"Go, let me go to Jiangbei."

"This time, I will go personally."

"I want to see, who would dare to insult you?"

Mark made a decisive decision and immediately decided to go to Jiangbei with Qinglong.

To bear the humiliation is definitely not what Mark did.

If you have grudges, you will get revenge. The man was true!

In this way, the Qinglong people who had just returned to Wrilfill, together with Mark, drove back to Jiangbei again.

"Instructor Chu, after you go, don't be impulsive."

"The instructors of the major defense areas are all there, and there are hundreds of thousands of soldiers stationed in the Jiangbei defense area." On the way, Wang Dongsheng was worried, but he tried to persuade them one after another.

"So what?"

"Qinglong was created by me, Mark, how can I allow others to insult you!"

"If they know right from wrong and apologize in time to admit their mistakes, I can forgive them."

"But if they still don't know whether they live or die, don't blame me Mark's seven-foot green front, it's ruthless!"

Huh~

With the wheels speeding, a luxury car left Wrifill and headed towards the Jiangbei land, Mercedes-Benz.

Outside, the wind was bitter.

The rustling wind smashed Mark's words to pieces!

However, the chill in Mark's words still made Wang Dongsheng and others feel terrified.

During the time when the Qinglong people returned to Wrifill, the Jiangbei match was in full swing.

At first, many people thought that this year's champion team, if nothing else, would definitely be the Qiongqi team of the Jiangbei Military Region.

After all, the land of Jiangbei, with outstanding people, strong martial arts, and many strong men in the hot summer came from Jiangbei.

It is precisely because of this that the teams from the Jiangbei defense area are the hottest candidates for the championship in the previous defense zone competitions.

The Qiongqi team dominated this type of competition for nearly ten years.

Chapter 2406

Three consecutive times, all champions!

Known as the strongest special team in the summer.

And the facts are exactly the same. Only in the first game of the first day, Team Qiongqi defeated the Northwest Defense Zone and Team Red Phoenix by an overwhelming advantage!

It made a nice start.

“Hahaha~”

“Sure enough, a famous teacher has a good apprentice.”

“Instructor Han is majestic, and the team that comes out is so powerful.”

“From the beginning to the end, almost all of them were fighting against the Red Phoenix.”

After the first battle, Orell Lin smiled and congratulated Han Ping.

Han Ping waved his hand and said modestly: “Hey, you can’t say that.”

“Like my captain Huang Shaotian, but a descendant of the Huang family in Jiangbei!”

“The Huang family has practiced martial arts for generations. Under the influence of the family, Shaotian’s martial arts talent is naturally very enchanting.”

“I estimate that the achievements in the future will be far surpassed by me.”

“Even if it is comparable to a military god, maybe Long Baichuan?”

In every era, there will be an idol-like figure in the army, who is regarded as a model to pursue worship.

Previously, this person was Ye Qingtian, the God of War.

Now, this person is Long Baichuan!

After all, although Ye Qingtian was born in the military area, he has already surpassed the military area. Therefore, in the military area, naturally there is a need for a strong person to replace Ye Qingtian’s position.

And Long Baichuan was the man who replaced Ye Qingtian in the army in this era.

“Well, Commander Lin, the next battle will be your Flying Eagle team.”

“Come on~”

“I hope I can meet your team in the finals.”

“When the time comes, we will fight each other in Jiangbei and Noirfork!”

Han Ping greeted politely.

Since it is polite, naturally there is nothing sincere.

After all, based on past records, the best result of Noirfork’s team is only third in the entire army.

Today, Noifork has undergone so many changes. The chief instructor of the defense zone has been bothered by two. One is killed and the other is directly expelled. Han Ping will naturally not be optimistic about the Flying Eagles, born under these ups and downs.

Even, Han Ping also estimated that the bottom team this year is probably the Flying Eagle.

However, the facts are beyond Han Ping's expectations.

In the game that afternoon, the Flying Eagles actually counterattacked, and after a long period of fierce battle, they turned defeat into victory.

The last runner-up team, the Black Tigers from the Southwest Defense Zone, was upset and was directly eliminated by the Flying Eagles.

"I go!"

"Beautiful~"

"Haha, Commander Lin, you are such a great flying eagle. You fought very beautifully in this turnaround, and your potential is limitless."

"Even Black Tiger was defeated by you~"

"It looks like you are the runner-up team this time."

After the battle, many people came to congratulate Orell Lin.

After all, the performance of the Flying Eagles really shines.

Orell Lin smiled without saying a word, but no one knew the sorrowful smile in his heart.

"This is just the beginning."

"Wait and see, my Flying Eagle team will shake the whole army completely!"
