

Chapter 2417– 2418 of A Dish Best Served Cold Novel

Chapter 2417

Moreover, following the shame, there are their instructors.

After all, if today's matter is spread, it is estimated that everyone in the world has to think that their respectable defense zone instructors are not as good as a young man.

Thinking of this, it's strange that the faces of their instructors are good-looking.

When Han Ping's old face was gloomy, Orell Lin rushed over and asked Han Ping's for help: "Instructor Han, these people trespassed into the defense zone, and they are still making a big game now."

"Can't you just look at it like this?"

"According to the discipline of the defense zone, they should be severely punished!"

"Especially the people of Qinglong, who were originally guilty of sin, but now they have suffered even more severe damage to the soldiers under my subordinate. They deserve a thousand deaths."

"We must not be merciless, we must teach them a lesson!"

Orell Lin said viciously, hoping that Han Ping, Zhu Rong and others would take action to capture Mark and Qinglong.

However, for people like Mark, Han Ping and the others didn't have much hatred against them. Naturally, it was impossible for Orell Lin to fight against them just because of a word.

Therefore, Han Ping calmed down and said, "Commander Lin, don't be restless."

"This Azure Dragon may be wrong, but they are just following orders, so you have to hate, and you should hate the person who gave orders to Azure Dragon. There is no need to pour your anger on them."

"But instructor Han, shouldn't they let them make trouble in the Jiangbei defense zone? Let them hurt people? You know, my Noirfork Flying Eagle team was abandoned by them.” Orell Lin naturally heard that Han Ping didn't want to follow suit. Mark meant to conflict, but he was unwilling to fight for Dao again.

“Commander Lin, don't worry about it. Naturally, we won't just sit back and watch this matter. We will give you an explanation.”

Han Ping patted Orell Lin on the shoulder and calmed down in a low voice.

After finishing speaking, Han Pingping walked in the direction of Mark.

“You are Mark?”

“The junior who was expelled from Noirfork defense zone?”

After arriving in front of Mark, Han Ping looked at the young man in front of him with interest, and asked Mark in a condescending tone.

After all, no matter how great Mark was, he was only a junior in front of them.

Naturally, they would not be so polite and respectful to Mark.

However, what made Han Ping a little displeased was that he asked for a long time, and Mark didn't even look at him, let alone ignore him.

When Han Ping saw this, he frowned, and his tone became much colder: “Seeing you like this, shouldn't you know me?”

“Yes, you are a junior, you haven't seen many worlds. It's normal not to know me.”

“Today, I will condescend to introduce myself to you.”

“Remember, I am the chief instructor of the Jiangbei Defense Zone, Han Ping, and I have the rank of lieutenant general.”

“Han Ping?” Mark raised his head when he heard this, slightly ripples in his eyebrows.

Han Ping suddenly smiled proudly in his heart, thinking that Mark had heard of his name.

After all, his Han Ping's popularity in the military is definitely not small. After Mark heard this, he would be so shocked and surprised, and it was normal.

When Han Ping was content, Mark's next words almost angered him to death.

“Sorry, I haven't heard of it.” Mark replied coldly.

“You~”

Han Ping's old face was blue with anger, perhaps because of anger, his palms crackled.

Chapter 2418

“presumptuous!”

“You bastard, you haven't even heard of instructor Han Ping. You are ignorant and don't know how to be ashamed, but you consider it pride?”

“It's really ignorant and fearless.” At this moment, Zhu Rong on the side couldn't listen anymore, but he walked out and yelled at Mark.

Just when Zhu Rong wanted to continue to reprimand, Han Ping reached out and stopped him.

After that, Han Ping continued to look at Mark and said coldly: “For your youth and ignorance, this instructor will not cure you of your disrespect.”

“However, you trespassed in our Jiangbei defense zone first, and ordered your men to wound our soldiers behind. According to military discipline, this general can directly rectify you on the spot!”

“However, for juniors, this instructor has always been benevolence and righteousness first.”

“Therefore, after discussing with several of our instructors, we decided to forgive you.”

“However, you go first, and honestly admit your mistake and apologize to Commander Lin, and then compensate the flying eagle members for medical expenses.”

“As long as Commander Lin can forgive you, today we will let you go safely.”

“As for Qinglong, just stay in Jiangbei, and I won't have anything to do with you in the future. I will teach it by myself, Han Ping.”

“They are all good seedlings. Following you is a miserable child and a violent violent thing. Staying in Jiangbei is their best destination.”

“Can you remember what I said?”

Han Ping stood with his hand in his hand, and his majestic and blunt words slowly echoed here in the world.

The deep words were even more like an order to Mark, without any doubt.

“Haha~”

“Hahaha~”

Upon hearing this, Mark suddenly smiled.

The laughter was loud, like the sound of crushed stones. In the laughter, there is full of sarcasm and ridicule.

“You bastard, what are you laughing at?”

“We have a large number of instructors, spare your life, you don’t know thank you, are you still laughing here?”

“I think you really don’t want to live anymore!”

Mark’s laughter undoubtedly angered Han Ping.

At this time, Han Ping clenched his palms, Zhu Rong couldn’t hold back, and even directly rebuked Mark.

In response, Mark shook his head and smiled: “I laugh at you stupid, laugh at you innocent!”

“Not to mention, you group of ants, can you hurt me? The mere thought of you wanting to leave Qinglong is extremely ridiculous!”

“The blue dragon was created by me, and what they have learned is all my own.”

“And what are you guys, you dare to speak up here, wanting to take the Azure Dragon under my banner as your own?”

“Shut up!” Zhu Rong roared angrily, “Hunboy, don’t be shameless!”

“You committed such a big mistake today, and we let you go away safely, it is a great gift to you. But you are not grateful, but you are still making such a big talk and offend me.”

“I can tell you, a few of us, who can be ranked as the chief instructor of the military region, are not capable of one.”

“Just like instructor Han Ping, who came from a family of great masters, and his uncle is on the list of great masters in the summer!”

“And I, the land of the Northwest, known as the Northwest Tiger!”

“There is also instructor Lan Xing, who has been trained by a Shaolin monk, and he is superb in Shaolin boxing!”

“Which one of us can be ashamed of you as an unknown junior?”

“Those who are acquainted, immediately go and apologize to Commander Lin, and then retreat.”

“Otherwise, the end of Lu Tianhe will be your final outcome!”
