

Chapter 2433– 2434 of A Dish Best Served Cold Novel

Chapter 2433

After all, the scene that happened in the Jiangbei defense area could not be concealed.

With the passage of time, what happened that day was like a storm, sweeping through the five major defense areas in the hot summer.

“what did you say?”

“In the Jiangbei battle, the entire army of the four major special teams was destroyed?”

“Everyone is killed by the Azure Dragon in one fell swoop?”

.....

“What’s the end?”

“It is said that the chief instructors of the major defense areas already felt bad when Qinglong opened up.”

“Therefore, regardless of status, I want to join the battle and interrupt Qinglong’s power accumulation.”

“As a result, guess what?”

“Just at the very moment, Qinglong instructor actually made a strong move!”

“Furthermore, with one person, fight alone against the instructors of the three major defense zones!”

“Finally, swept in an instant with invincibility!”

“One punch, one kick and one palm hit the chief instructor of the three major defense zones!”

“Among them, the chief instructor of the Jiangbei defense zone was killed on the spot and beaten to flesh!”

“Instructor Zhu Rong from the Northwest Defense Zone was hit by a punch into the ground 100 meters. He is still rescued in the hospital and is unconscious, afraid that he will not wake up in the future.”

“The only one who is still alive is the instructor Lan Xing in the southwest!”

“After walking through the Guimen Pass, although my life was saved, it was also taken by the Qinglong Major General!”

“Damn!”

“So strong?”

“Fighting against the three major instructors by one person, can you finish the abuse?”

“With my own strength, stepped on the entire Yanxia Military Region?”

“Three chief instructors, one injured, one dead and one disabled?”

“Good day, let me go to special!”

“Can you be stronger?”

.....

“God!”

“Too strong~”

“Who is this sacred Major General Qinglong?”

As things ferment, the five major defense areas in the hot summer are undoubtedly boiling completely.

Soldiers in Noirfork, Jiangbei, Southwest, Northwest, and Frontier areas are all talking about this battle.

Of course, in this incident, the two defense areas of Noirfork and Gritsberg were the most concerned.

Of course, the reason why Noirfork has received much attention is naturally because of the awkward and subtle relationship between Qinglong and Noirfork.

Although, not many people know this. However, even if only one or two people in each defense zone knew about it, it would undoubtedly be able to spread throughout the defense zone in a very short time.

“Have you heard?”

“This Qinglong is said to have been created by the Noirfork Defense Zone. And the Major General Qinglong, who also coached Noirfork before, is the chief instructor of the Noirfork Defense Zone!”

.....

“What? Noirfork’s instructor? Ergou, are you nonsense?”

“Then the chief instructor of Noirfork Defense Zone, isn’t Orell Lin also serving as the instructor?”

“Moreover, isn’t the team in the Noirfork defense zone Flying Eagle? Qinglong has a fart relationship with Noirfork?” Someone in the defense zone questioned.

“Don’t interrupt, listen to me in detail.”

“A few months ago, Gritsberg and Noirfork jointly established a team, named Qinglong.”

“At the time, Lu Tianhe, the chief instructor of the Gritsberg Defense Zone, resisted all opinions and tried his best to push this Chu instructor to the position of Major General Qinglong and let him coach Qinglong.”

“But later, who would have thought that Wu Yang, the general manager of the Noirfork Defense Zone, had eyes and no beads and didn’t know the master.”

“Even so good at advocating, the Chu instructor was removed, saying that the Chu instructor had misunderstood his children, and what he taught was a bunch of rubbish. In the end, Qinglong was also forced away.”

“Because of this incident, instructor Lu Tianhelu and Noirfork defense zone collapsed directly. In a rage, Gritsberg stood on his own and competed independently.”

“Furthermore, instructor Lu took Jing to plead guilty and invited Qinglong back.”

“That’s why this situation now appears.”

After listening to the man’s narration, everyone just understood the twists and turns.

Chapter 2434

“Haha~”

“That said, Jiang Dong’s current fate is to blame.”

“Such a powerful character was actually forced away by them?”

“This Noifork chief manager is not a horrible trick, right?”

“It is estimated that the group of idiots in Noifork defense zone have regretted their intestines, right?”

“Once, they dismissed the people who expelled the defense zone, but now the three armies are terrified, relying on their own efforts, stepping down the entire hot summer defense zone.”

“And what they rely on in Noifork, in front of Qinglong and Chu instructors, is simply inferior to pigs and dogs~”

“It is said that before Orell Lin died, he cried and called his mother and father in front of the Chu instructor, begging Chu instructor for his life~”

As the saying goes, the winner is the winner.

That day, the Jiangbei battle, Qinglong major general Mark, became famous in the first battle and caused a sensation in the entire defense area in the summer.

Even though, several people died at the hands of Mark. However, the soldiers in the defense zone didn't hate Mark, and instead regarded him as a hero and idol.

Just because the experience of Qinglong and Mark is simply the history of a small person's counterattack struggle.

When they were weak, they were not treated, and they were swept out of the house like dogs.

Today, their king returns, and the three armies have been horrified in the first battle!

The use of blood is a fact, and the Noifork defense area's face was drawn fiercely.

Such a deed makes me feel disappointed when I read it.

Of course, some people are happy and some are worried.

Under this kind of public opinion, the Noifork defense zone, which was on the cusp of the storm, was completely reduced to a joke.

Especially Wu Yang, the chief of the defense zone, also got an infamous infamy.

Even in the Noifork defense zone, there were also a large number of soldiers talking behind their backs, giving pointers to Wu Yang and others.

.....

“We Wuyang Chief Manager, we really have no eyes~”

“Believe in villains, but drive away real talents.”

“This is really a shameful act.”

“Then Orell Lin, nepotism, abuse of power, and his son, bullying others.”

“Their father and son have done all the bad things, and they are more than guilty.”

“It’s just that we, the big manager, will only believe in such despicable people~”

....

In the past few days, almost all parts of Noirfork have been talking about this one-sidedness.

After Wu Yang heard it, the old face was undoubtedly more ugly.

“Manager, they are all nonsense, don’t take it to your heart~”

“Don’t worry, I will catch these bastards and tear them apart!” Xiao Yang, assistant of Wu Yang for decades, persuaded him from the side.

Wu Yang shook his head, and smiled miserably: “No need. In fact, they are right. I am Wu Yang, with eyes and no beads, and I don’t know the superior. It’s also Wu Yang who believes in the villain.”

Wu Yang shook his head and said, before he knew it, he had already walked to the place where Qinglong dropped the loess.

At this time, Wu Yang looked at the reddish loess under his feet. It was only at this moment that he understood that before Qinglong left, the words “Flying Eagle has sent you” are exactly the same as consciousness.

It turned out that his flying eagle, which he regarded as pride, glory, and the strongest flying eagle of the three armies, turned into a piece of loess under the attack of the blue dragon.

“Mark, Mark, it’s me Wu Yang, I underestimated you, and I underestimated Qinglong~”

Wu Yang sighed in sorrow, he never thought that it would end like this in the end.

Because of his wrong decision at the beginning, the Noirfork defense zone has been completely reduced to a joke of the entire summer.
