

Chapter 246

On this day, Zhang Fan, Chen Qifa, Li Liang and several doctors he recruited sat together and discussed this kind of thing for a long time. We can't hide it at all. It's about people's eating. If you really hide it, it's a matter of character! Several people worked very comfortably in this hospital. Now they suddenly got the news and were at a loss.

If the place is small, there are few opportunities. They have come out of public hospitals. It is difficult for them to enter again. Moreover, they really don't like the unconventional operation of private hospitals here!

"Do you really want to leave here?" Old Chen said blankly.

"Brother, why don't you put the hospital down? We're all willing to follow you!" Li Liang said.

Old Chen, who had already lost his eyes, hurriedly said, "yes, yes, master, set it down and we'll follow you."

Several other doctors also looked at Zhang Fan with hope. These people were recruited by Zhang Fan. Now, Zhang Fan must give these people a statement. Even if people don't say Zhang Fan, Zhang Fan has to give them a statement. But the biggest problem is money! The hospital looks small, but for Zhang Fan, this number is astronomical!

"However, this money ~ ~" Zhang Fan feels very guilty. He is the one who wants to support his family. Zhang Fan doesn't want to see this situation and didn't think of it. This should be an old saying, the mountain depends on everyone.

"As long as people are here, we are not afraid. We can make up our minds. Master is determined to take it!"

"Yes!"

"We can get together. Are we worse than others?"

"What if you lose money?" Zhang Fan said.

"The big deal is to go to the bird market and the mainland. Will we starve to death?" Lao Chen figured it out " Besides, we lack a leader, and this may also be an opportunity to achieve our dreams! Master, do it! "

"Wait until I talk to boss Ma, but you can rest assured that no matter how I pull you here, I will give you an explanation."

"Doctor Zhang, don't have too much pressure. Are doctors still afraid of unemployment?" Dr. Lin, a general practitioner, said to Zhang Fan with a smile. Others are celebrating the new year and Zhang Fan is borrowing money. Since you have pulled people out without saying anything else, people come to you. As a man, you must take responsibility.

So Zhang Fan began to borrow money. No matter what Ma Wentao did, Zhang Fan of the hospital decided to put it down. The premise is to speak with money. Zhang Fan has confidence in his technology and is not afraid that the money can not be paid back, so Zhang Fan returns to the state of a hawker in those days and tears off his face to borrow money.

What for? For dreams, for those who came to him. You can ignore it, you can ignore it, but Zhang fan can't do it!

"Director, lend me some money and say it first. The money hasn't been paid back in recent years." In Lao Gao's office, Zhang Fan opened his mouth embarrassed.

"If 100000 is enough, we will have to wait for some time. I have to find someone to lend it to you." Lao Gao didn't ask why, but directly reported the figures.

"That's enough, but I can't pay the director's money for a while and a half." Zhang Fan's heart is churning. Is it uncomfortable? Not bad, moved? Really moved! 100000 is not a small number, but Lao Gao doesn't even ask.

"Well, I don't have any big expenses, but I have to make it clear to you. Money, enough is enough. Don't indulge in it and become a slave to money!" Lao Gao said earnestly.

"Well, OK." Originally, Zhang Fan didn't intend to borrow so much. He had thought about it. The directors and deputy directors of each department who are familiar with and have a good relationship can borrow 50000 or 60000 by themselves. Unexpectedly, Lao Gao borrowed 100000 directly!

In the second Department of orthopedics, Lao Wang looked at Zhang Fan curiously "Why, what kind of moth is there? You have to climb the three treasures hall." Pour water for Zhang Fan while saying. Although Lao Wang has a bad mouth and a bad temper, he is a straight man.

"Director, I'm here to borrow money."

"Borrow money?" Lao Wang's face is incredible!

"Yes!" Zhang Fan was embarrassed to say that these directors would not ask the reason, and Zhang Fan did not intend to say the purpose of borrowing money. Moreover, these people are human beings. They look at people and don't look at things. If they borrow money, they can borrow it easily. If they don't borrow it, they won't talk nonsense.

"How much?" Lao Wang looked at Zhang Fan with a little banter "The boy doesn't know what to do! "

"Fifty or sixty thousand." This is the relationship between technicians. It's very simple! Just come and borrow money. You can do it. Moreover, Zhang Fan is young and a little shameless!

"OK, 60000. When will it be returned? "

"I don't know! It's estimated that it hasn't been up in recent years. " Zhang Fan said embarrassed.

"OK! I want to see you, boy! "

Director and deputy director of the surgical system. Zhang Fan, the boss of all these subjects who had no burden at home, borrowed money one by one and didn't run away. I can't talk about being shameless. I spent 800000 in half a day and collected 800000. This is not only a heavy human favor, but also Zhang Fan's position in the hospital in a year.

In his heart, Zhang Fan began to borrow money from internal medicine, and there was no way. Zhang Fan spelled and repeated the above topic, "OK, I'm not in a hurry. You can return it any time. Is there something wrong with the family. Don't resist yourself. If things are serious, you can say it, and the hospital may be able to help you. " Ren Li is very concerned about Zhang Fan's borrowing money.

"No, no, just a little unexpected. I have the cheek to come. "

"That's good. It doesn't matter as long as it's not family."

In two days, Zhang Fan had enough of more than one million. Zhang Fan had no good intention to disturb some unfamiliar directors and department directors with heavy burden at home.

But the money was still not enough. Ouyang knew about borrowing money the next day.

"Where are you?"

"I'm ~ ~" Zhang Fan's scalp tingled when he saw Ouyang's phone. He knew this. Ouyang would know sooner or later, but he didn't expect to be known by Ouyang so soon.

"Come to my office." Ouyang hung up directly "What the hell is this boy doing? " Ouyang looked out of the window worried.

"Do you play gambling again?" The frost on Ouyang's face. In two days, Zhang Fan, the familiar director in the hospital, borrowed all the money. Ouyang was really worried that Zhang Fan would go astray for such a large amount.

"No!"

"Nothing, I already know! Be honest! I'll see if you have a chance to save it! How much usury have you borrowed! " Ouyang directly interrupted Zhang Fan~

"It's not usury!" Zhang Fan smiles bitterly in his heart. The old lady is serious and deceitful, but Zhang Fan's heart is very warm!

"Then you still have some help. Go ahead. Sit down and tell me slowly. " Ouyang's face eased slightly!

"I want a hospital!"

Ouyang, with her mouth open for a long time, couldn't speak. She thought a lot about the reason why Zhang Fan borrowed money, but she didn't think of this one!
