Chapter 2485

In addition, it is deep in the rain forest, far away from human beings, which naturally makes these people unscrupulous.

“Taya, be honest and avoid trouble.”

At this time, a reminder came from beside him.

“Don’t worry, I have a sense of measure.”

“It’s just two bastards, what can be the trouble?”

“I’ll go over and amuse them.”

While speaking, this man named Taiya smirked and walked in the direction of Mark.

“Don’t come here!”

“If you come here again, I will let my Mark brother hit you.”

Seeing this person approaching, An Qi was obviously a little scared. She stood up and leaned in Mark’s direction while shouting from Taiya.

But Mark was indifferent.

From beginning to end, he sat there, with a campfire lingering in front of him, and he leisurely drank the drink An Qi brought.

“Haha~”

“Little sister, don’t be afraid.”

“My brother is not malicious, he just wants to make friends with you.”

However, Taiya didn’t mean to stop at all, and continued to approach An Qi’s direction.

Until, when he came to Mark’s side, he suddenly said solemnly: “Smelly boy, don’t you wink?”

“Don’t get out of me yet!”

“An eye-obtrusive thing~”

Taiya was undoubtedly angry at Mark’s blocking his way, immediately cursed, and then kicked towards Mark.

Bang~

After a bang, under the dark night, a body weighing hundreds of catties flew out like a cannonball.

Finally, head down, slammed heavily on the hard rock, bleeding all over the ground.

“what?”

This sudden change scared everyone here.

At that time, the group of people in Western Europe were directly confused!

“Taya!”

After a long time, a cry of exclamation, just under the dark night, quietly sounded.

The people in shock rushed over to check the situation of Taiya.

However, it was too late.

The back of Taiya’s head hit the ground, half of his head was split, and the blood mixed with his brain unceasingly flowed out, which was obviously hopeless.

“Asshole!”

“Dare to kill me the strong Norwegian?”

“Die me!”

The Western European powerhouse in anger turned and rushed in the direction of Mark.

However, when there was still a few meters away from Mark, he was shot directly by Mark’s palm.

In the screaming scream, the second person was directly interrupted by Mark’s legs with a palm, and fell to the ground and couldn’t help groaning.

At the same time, Mark’s Bingham voice sounded immediately under the dark night.

“Provoke me again, next time it will be broken, not your legs, but your head!”

Boom~

The cold wind was blowing quietly in this dark night.

Seeing the redness all over the floor and the screaming screams of the comrades beside them, the whole bodies of the remaining few trembled unconsciously.

Suddenly, a kind of extreme fear swept through their hearts.

Suddenly, these Western European powerhouses dare not make any moves.

But, with trepidation, looking ahead.

There, there was a teenager sitting quietly.

They couldn't see his face clearly, they could only see the shadow cast on him under the flickering firelight.

They couldn't believe that the attack just now broke out from above these thin bodies.

“roll!”

In the dark night, there was another low drink.

Chapter 2486

This time, the guts of these Western European powerhouses were frightened. They didn't dare to talk nonsense, let alone stay here. He carried the bodies of his companions on his back, turned his head and started to run outside.

However, halfway through, a person suddenly turned around and screamed: “Your Excellency has been so cruel to us today. I don't know your Excellency, can you dare to leave a name?”

“In the future, our Norwegian national martial arts will come to ask for advice!”

“Why don't you dare?” In front, the young man laughed, “Remember, I am, Huaxia, Lu Hua.”

“Lv Hua?”

“Okay, we remembered it!”

“It's long in Japan, we'll see you in the future.”

These people gritted their teeth and replied, and then swiftly left with the wounded.

After they walked away, An Qi looked at Mark with a bewildered expression: "Brother Mark, why did you lie to them?"

"Aren't you called Mark?"

Mark chuckled: "I have a friend who likes to pretend to be in the limelight. I will help him and make him famous."

"Well, An Qi, you should rest soon."

"In a while, we'll be on our way."

"Otherwise, if you are late, you will be boarded first by others."

Mark didn't say much on this topic, and immediately urged An Qi to rest.

A few hours later, Mark and the others went on the road again.

The Amazon Rainforest is worthy of being the largest rainforest in the world. Mark and the others have been going around in it for several days, but they still haven't found the whereabouts of the Yuanling Fruit Tree.

"An Qi, can you do it?"

"Are you reliable?"

Mark regretted it a little, and suddenly felt that he shouldn't have believed in such a kid in the first place.

"Brother Mark, don't worry, it's almost here."

"Not far, it should be the center of the rainforest."

"As long as we reach the core of the rainforest, it should not be far away."

Today's Mark has long gone deep into the rain forest.

The surrounding giant trees are overwhelming, and the dense foliage can hardly even penetrate into the sun.

Everywhere in the eye is thick green.

From far away, the howling of wild beasts can be heard.

Hearing An Qi's answer, what else could Mark say, he could only continue to follow him in depth.

Just like that, it took another two days.

Finally, Mark, who had been moving forward, suddenly stopped.

"Brother Mark, what's wrong?"

An Qi looked at him curiously.

But Mark raised his head and looked somewhere ahead. Then, the corners of his mouth gradually curled up: "I think I know where the Yuanling fruit tree is."

After speaking, Mark immediately walked vigorously and hurried forward quickly.

At this moment, in Mark's perception, the aura there was extremely rich.

Wherever treasures are born, it must be a place of beauty.

The power of heaven and earth is bound to be several times stronger than other places.

Therefore, after Mark felt the abnormality of the Dollar Li there, he immediately concluded that the Dollar Ling fruit tree was not far in front.

In fact, it is true.

After Mark and the two rushed past, they found a fruit tree growing beside a stream.

Above, there are two fruits, faintly glowing with blue light.

The rich vitality also continuously radiated from these two fruits!

"Brother Mark, that's them."

"I have seen the photos taken by my brother, they are the Dollar Ling Guo we are looking for!"

At the moment when she saw these fruits, An Qi shouted in excitement.

"Shh~"

"Speak down!"

However, Mark quickly covered her mouth.

Just when An Qi was puzzled, she saw that not far ahead, there were several teams facing each other.

Obviously, it was for the distribution of this elemental spirit fruit, and there was no dispute!
