

Chapter 2509– 2510 of A Dish Best Served Cold Novel

Chapter 2509

“Lv Hua, how is it?”

“Can you still go?”

“Why don’t you go home and heal yourself first?”

At this moment, watching Lu Hua’s bruises all over his body, Kong Ming couldn’t help but persuade him.

Just now, Chu Qitian and others pressed Lv Hua mainly.

Therefore, Kong Ming and Lu Yanxi didn’t suffer too much skin or flesh, they just had some treads on their faces and bodies.

But Lu Hua was obviously not so lucky. At this time, Lu Hua was beaten with a bruised nose and swollen face. He was limping when he walked. The original straight suit had already been dyed red with blood, and the whole person looked particularly miserable.

“Old Kong, I’m fine.”

“I can still go.”

“You don’t have to worry about me.”

“If the task is not completed, I will not go back.”

Although Lu Hua was in pain all over, he still persisted stubbornly.

After all, the executive who went out this time, his relatives and friends all knew about it.

If he goes back halfway, where will he put Lu Hua’s face.

There is no way to explain to Wushen Temple.

“That’s all right.”

“Yan Xi, hold on to Xiao Hua more.”

Seeing that Lu Hua persisted, Kong Ming stopped persuading him.

Afterwards, the three of them went to search for Dollar Ling Guo again.

This trip took another few days.

Until one day, in the depths of the dense forest, a green light suddenly rose to the sky.

Immediately afterwards, a majestic force of vitality quietly exploded somewhere.

After that, that force, like an ocean storm, madly swept in all directions, centered on the explosion.

In just a few breaths, it radiated the entire Amazon rainforest.

At that moment, countless powerhouses in the rain forest all trembled and looked far away.

“Kong Lao, look, what is that?”

“It’s such a strong power. Could it be that Dollar Lingguo was born?”

“It’s just that, to produce such a majestic power, how many souls do you have to have?”

In the dense forest, Lu Yanxi and others looked at the place where the green light rose to the sky, and asked in shock.

For the first time in so many years, they have seen such majestic fluctuations in the power of heaven and earth.

Kong Ming’s face was equally gloomy, looking into the distance, his brows and eyes were full of inexplicable dignity.

After he pondered for a moment, he immediately said: “Hurry up!”

“Hurry over now~”

After the words fell, Kong Ming and his party walked quickly and swiftly toward the place where the sky was soaring to the sky.

“Wait for me~”

From behind, Lu Hua’s painful cry came.

Even if a few days have passed, Lu Hua’s injuries have not been fully healed. Now that he is walking, he is still a little uncomfortable, let alone running away.

Of course, not only Kong Ming and the others saw this scene, but the other teams in the dense forest also trembled.

“If there is no accident, it must be the Dollar Ling Guo!”

“Go~”

“Try to arrive at the first moment, grab the Dollar Ling Guo, and leave quickly.”

.....

“Oh my God!”

“It’s a rich source of heaven and earth.”

“This time the number of Dollar Lingguo must be extremely large.”

“This time, we, the British royal family, must win a few!”

.....

In this way, with that energy fluctuation radiating the entire rainforest, this world of heaven and earth is undoubtedly boiling instantly.

Powerful people from all over the world are crazy, and they gather from all directions.

If you look down from the air, you will inevitably find that the powerhouses of the countries are like a sharp sword, cutting through the waves, and galloping toward the place of riots.

Only if, Baichuanhuihai!

Chapter 2510

“Really, it’s getting more and more lively.”

In the dense forest, Mark looked up at the sky, looked at the green light beam rising into the sky, shook his head and smiled.

“Brother Mark, you can still laugh!”

“Now it’s okay. There must be a lot of people know about such a big disturbance.”

“At this time, where are the powerhouses from all over the world going?”

“This time the Primordial Spirit Fruit, I am afraid that it has no chance with us.”

The little girl on the side sighed, complaining a bit.

Although An Qi knows that Mark is very powerful, killing one person is like killing a chicken, and defeating ten people is like losing a dog.

But this time, it's not just as simple as ten people and eight people.

All nations gather, all directions gather.

If Mark wanted to grab the Dollar Ling Guo this time, he would face hundreds of people.

Since ancient times, two fists have been difficult to match with four hands, let alone hundreds of hands this time?

Therefore, An Qi felt that no matter how powerful Mark was, it was impossible to use his own power to contend against the powerhouses of the whole world.

“Forget it, contentment is always happy.”

“We have already grabbed five Dollar spirit fruits, which is enough.”

“Brother Mark, or let's go back.”

“Don't participate in this snatch.”

An Qi has already begun to retreat.

However, Mark didn't seem to have any intention of retreating.

Facing An Qi's words, he smiled faintly: “Go back?”

“Why go back.”

“All nations gather, all directions gather, so it's so lively.”

“An Qi, do you know that we have an old saying in the hot summer.”

An Qi was stunned: “What old saying?”

The corner of Mark's mouth curled up: “The sea crosses the sea, and the hero is true.”

After speaking, Mark waved his hand and greeted An Qi to move on.

That chic and indifferent look is extraordinarily compelling!

Think about it, too, with Mark's temperament, how could he be absent from such a lively occasion.

What's more, how he said he was also a person who was Feng Tianjiao Wushuang.

The dignified Yan Xia Zhu Kingdom God will go out in person, and in the end he will get five Dollar spirit fruits. If he goes back like this, he will not be laughed at by the god of war.

Of course, besides that, Mark had another purpose.

That is, to meet his younger brother who hasn't met in ten years.

Yes, during this trip to America, Mark's biggest accident was meeting someone from the Chu family.

After learning about the background and identity of Keith, Mark felt that his cousin should have arrived this time.

If there is no accident, then Chu Qitian is afraid that he will also appear in the next battle for the soul of the soul.

"Brother, it's been ten years."

"I don't mind your grievances and my grievances, settle them in advance."

Mark's brows and eyes are like ice, and his thin figure walks alone in the dense forest.

No one can understand the emotions in Mark's heart at this time.

In ten years, he was chased and killed by the Chu family and Chu Qitian for ten years.

Even the slightest grievance, after ten years of accumulation, how deep will it be?

What's more, there is no grudge between Mark and Chu Qitian, but the enemy of life and death!

Mark originally thought, on the day he visited the Chu Family, he would settle his grudges with Chu Zhengliang and his son.

But now, since we ran into it, why wait any longer?

Huh~

The cold wind blew the hair on the young man's forehead.

The sleeves are hunting in the wind.

At this moment, An Qi, who walked behind Mark, looked at Mark's back, suddenly stunned.

She only felt that an inexplicable emotion radiated from the thin figure in front of her.
